

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Sentinel 1 year in advance $5.00

The Daily Sentinel

VOL. IX

RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1874.

NO. 235.

ADVERTISING RATES. Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates...

Local Affairs.

INSTALLATION OF THE NEW MAYOR.—Joseph W. Holden, Esq., the newly elected Mayor of this city, was today duly sworn and installed in office...

Hon. Kemp B. Battle will deliver the annual address on the 9th, at the Commencement in the Wilson Collegiate Institute.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—The Bucket Company of the City Fire Brigade will parade on the 14th inst., in honor of their Anniversary.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.—In Louisville the town election resulted in the election of P. J. Brown, Mayor—Messrs. Fuller, White, Yarborough and Edward Alston, as Commissioners.

THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.—Col. A. M. Wadwell, Nominated. The Democratic Conservative Convention of the Third Congressional District, was held at Magnolia on yesterday.

JUDGE WATTS AND PROHIBITION.—We learn that Judge Watts at the instance of the counsel for city liquor dealers, has granted an order restraining Mayor Whitaker from certifying to the Prohibition election, and also restraining Capt. W. W. White, Register of Deeds, from recording the same, until the matter can undergo judicial investigation.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Col. D. M. Carter and family, of Washington, N. C., arrived at the Yarborough House last night, and to-day, moved to his residence (the Hines' place) fronting St. Mary's School.

W. A. Kirkland, of the United States Navy, passed through the city yesterday, on a visit to his home, at Hillsboro.

RADICAL NOMINATION FOR SOLICITOR.—At Warrenton yesterday, J. C. Logan Harris was nominated by the radicals for Solicitor on the first ballot.

THE NEW GOVERNMENT BUILDING.—Proposals were on yesterday received for brick, granite, and sand stone. The specimens of granite and sand stone, on exhibition, was pronounced by competent judges to be of an excellent quality.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION OF CABARRUS CO., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

STREET SCENES LAST NIGHT.—"Inspiring, bold John Barleycorn" seemed to have taken possession of the town last night, and there were scenes of drunkenness and rowdiness which every good citizen must have regretted to witness.

PLEASURE EXCURSION FROM NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH TO RALEIGH.—At 9 o'clock last evening, a number of prominent gentlemen of Norfolk and Portsmouth, arrived in the city by special train over the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.

THE CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION occurs in Hillsboro Saturday the 9th inst.

THE BOARDER says Mr. Argo grieves that he was ever a citizen of Orange county, and that Orange is sorry too.

Mr. Jackson, the widow of Gen'l T. J. Jackson, was a guest last week for a day or two of the Hon. W. A. Graham.

Abel Payne, one of the oldest and most respectable of the colored citizens of Fayetteville, died last week aged nearly 70 years.

A No. 100 has been ordered by the Military Department for the purpose of...

Edmund Yates has gone to the south of France to familiarize himself with scenes he wishes to depict in a novel, of French life.

The young Florentines, of the noble house of Ridel, who recently killed his rival in a duel, has been sentenced to three months banishment.

Lord Walter Campbell (formerly of New York) and bride, nee Miss Milis, are spending their honeymoon at Dornden, the Marquis of Larnea's residence at Tunbridge Wells.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Landfair, J. I. Bogar, F. S. Taylor, J. H. Stewart, J. W. H. Porter, and T. B. Nelson.

The excursion was gotten up at the conclusion of the Stockholders' meeting of the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, and was greatly enjoyed by all.

The Holly Springs (Miss.) Reporter learns that a gentleman in Panels county a few nights ago, hearing of a horse in the dark to within a few feet of a horse lot, where he saw a man on the end of a rail, which was used as a pry to lift up the corner of the crib.

It would have been in closer keeping with the facts of the case, says the Index-Appal, had he said: "This gold is emblematical of the money you abstracted while a member of Congress; this steel ferule has reference to your stealing propensities, and this wood represents the dead wood Oakes Ames got on you in the Credit Mobilier investigation."

Several of the excursionists in the Norfolk party, were from Baltimore and Philadelphia. We noticed a good many of Raleigh's gallants, accompanying the ladies to the train, this morning, some of whom accepted an invitation for a ride down the road.

There is any amount of electioneering going on by persons who are anxious to serve their city, in a police and other capacity. The new commissioners are sought on all sides, and just now, are occupied totally with callers of both colors.

The first meeting will be held on Friday night. The selections can be much improved, and when made, we hope to see our police uniformed when on duty, and made to look like men who elsewhere grace the baton.

Grand Chancellor, Dorich, of Goldboro, was in the city and attended a meeting of the Knights of Pythias last evening, at their Castle Hall.

The liquor dealers of the city, are hopeful of success in nullifying the recent election, on the Prohibition question, now that Judge Watts has granted them a hearing, on the issues involved on the 15th. We suppose the friends of Prohibition, will also on that occasion be represented by counsel.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.

Mr. Holleman is excavating the foundation, for his new building, adjoining that of Williamson, Opeurch & Thomas.

Blow your Horn Billy, and Lot W. Humphrey, Esq., are in the city. We noticed the former, in consultation with Mars Tob, last evening, fixing tricks no doubt.

In the Conservative Convention of Cabarrus Co., of Concord Saturday, D. Schenck, Esq., of Lincoln, was recommended for Judge, and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe for Congress.