DEATH OF JOHN R. WILLIAMS, JR.

It is with heartfelt sorrow that we head these lines conveying the sad announcement of the death of our esteemed friend, which occurred at the residence of Dr. Stith, of Chatham county, on yesterday where he had been on a brief visit. He was taken suddenly ill a few days ago, and before his father and sister, in company with Dr. E. Burke Haywood, reached his bedside, was no more.

THE MEMORIAL CELEBRATION.

A large concourse of ladies and gentlemen assembled on the Academy Green yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of paying their yearly tribute to the fallen heroes who died in the Confederate cause. Colonel J. V. Jordan, the Chief Marshal, formed the procession in line and then proceeded to Cedar Grove Cemetery, and on their arrival at the Confederate museum a prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Gannon, and the exercises commenced.

VISIT OF THE PRESS TO THE LUNATIC ASYLUM.

On yesterday at 3 P. M. the Editors accompanied by several members of the Board of Trade, took carriage to the National Hotel, and escorted to the Lunatic Asylum in response to a polite invitation from Dr. Grisson, the Superintendent. On arrival they were most courteously received by Dr. Grisson, his assistant Dr. Fuller, and the Stewardess Mrs. Huggins. The Asylum was thoroughly inspected from dome to cellar, including the cooking and washing department, the heating apparatus, the water works, gardens &c. &c. After taking a glance at every thing that was visible, the Press were ushered into the dining room, where a most splendid collation of good things in abundance awaited them, embracing ice-cream, jellies, cakes, &c. Near the close of the entertainment, Maj. Engelhard, President of the Association, toasted in conjunction with his brethren, Dr. Grisson very complimentary as an officer. Applause followed the Major's remarks, after which Dr. G. responded in a well timed brief address, abounding in compliment to the press. His remarks were happily cheered. Mr. Drake of the Statesville American next toasted Mrs. Huggins, the Stewardess in a beautiful and polished speech.

THE PRESS CONVENTION.—EVENING SESSION.—THURSDAY.—President Engelhard called the Convention to order at 20 P. M.

Mr. Cameron, Chairman of the Committee on business, submitted a report as follows: Whereas, The members of the Press of N. C., in many instances have been defrauded by traveling agencies and other parties.

imposition, shall notify the Secretary of the Press Association, giving him all the details of facts, and names of offending parties, and it shall be the duty of this Society to inform all the editors of this State, and members of the Association of such fact by letter, or otherwise.

Mr. Foose thought that each editor could protect his own interest, and there was no necessity for that office. If advertisements from doubtful sources, strangers, are received without the cash, let us not insert them.

Mr. Polk thought the resolution would accomplish the object without the supervision, by having it understood where a member of the Press is defrauded, that he communicate to the secretary the first, and that office shall immediately on receipt of such information send to all the press of this State, Mr. Manning, said unfortunately when one of these leaders advertised they forwarded the same advertisement to all our state papers, at the same time. The first suggestion of the committee incorporated into a resolution, was adopted. The question of advertising rates now coming up.

Mr. Jones, of the Observer, wanted some expression of the convention showing that we would stick to our published rates. He deprecated this underbidding by some papers to the great detriment of those who stood firm to their rates. He had lost hundreds of dollars by this system upon the part of some, and if this cut throat game was to go ahead, he wanted to know how he should be governed. He had remained firm thus far, but he could not stand it any longer if such was the case. Mr. Skinner did not know in the little towns, that we could always adhere to the regular rates, for many of our people advertise in our weeklies from which they realize but little, and it is done by them to sustain their paper in order to get the weekly current. We cannot charge them as much as we do other advertisers, and he thought it rather unfair to hold them up to the regular rates when such advertisers do it almost solely to sustain us.

Mr. Stamps thought the intent of the resolution was misunderstood, that it applied to agencies and others outside of the State. Mr. Polk was tired of being dictated to by agencies. He was situated different from Mr. Skinner, his people advertised in the American for their benefit, and not so much to aid him, but he was disposed to always favor his own people. If we favor any body, let us favor North Carolinians. The resolution should pass as a protection to the press of North Carolina. Let us stand square up to it. It is a measure for our protection; we will get as many advertisements as we now get, and more dollars too.

Mr. Mannix said this was a vexed question, and reading from the proceedings of the last Convention in which the language was emphatic enough, if carried out, he did not see how we could take any action to make a resolution more binding, still he was pleased with the discussion that had arisen upon this subject.

Messrs. Manning and Bond thought this binding was impracticable. A vote being taken upon the resolution, it was laid upon the table. But notice was given by several members that they would again move to take the subject from the tables.

A resolution was adopted deprecating gratuitous advertising by a system of puffing, &c.

Mr. Nason, a motion which was adopted, appointing Messrs. Pritchard, Polk and John T. Mannix a committee to draft suitable resolutions of respect to the memory of a former member of our association, the late Whitfield S. McDiarmid of the Lumberton Robesonian.

A telegram was read by Mr. Jones from Thos. B. Long, in regard to a report promised by him in regard to mail facilities in the State, stating that by unavoidable absence from his office for the last ten days he was unable to do so, but would furnish it to the Press for publication.

Committee of Messrs. Jordan, Stone, R. F. Furman, H. E. T. Manning, J. R. Hussey, were re-elected; with the addition of Mr. Mannix of the Newbern Times. Major Engelhard proposed Wilmington as the place for the next annual Convention, and assured the Convention that Wilmington would do all possible to give them a hospitable welcome. The business men of this city desired to see the Convention held here as much for anything else to urge the claims of Greensboro. It was a central point. Dr. Pritchard stood up for Raleigh as a compromise. Mr. Green suggested Durham. Mr. Knight wanted Wednesday, Mr. Robinson urged Asheville. The press could be waked up for about that time. Bald Mountain would be in all its glory.

Mr. McDiarmid wanted Lumberton, Mr. Manning Weldon, Mr. Stewart, Salisbury &c. A ballot was ordered, and resulted in the selection of Wilmington, when the vote was made unanimous. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, chairman of the Committee to draft resolutions in respect to the memory of the late Whitfield S. McDiarmid, reported a series of resolutions which will appear hereafter.

Mr. W. D. Cherriman of the Richmond Whig, was invited to a seat in the Convention, upon motion of Mr. Jones. The Convention then took a recess to visit different places from which they had received invitations, including the Geological Museum, Edwards Broughton & Co's and the Executive office.

The Convention during its recess visited Messrs. Upchurch, Williams & Co., after which they proceeded to the Printing office of Messrs. Edwards, Broughton & Co., in the same building where after inspecting the mammoth business of this firm, were escorted to the front part of the room where upon a warm and cordial welcome and greeting from Mr. Broughton, was in turn tendered the thanks of the Editors to a neat and appropriate little speech by Mr. P. F. Duffy of the Patriot. Dr. Pritchard followed in a few part remarks, as did also Maj. Engelhard and Mr. Mannix. After partaking of elegant delicious strawberries, ice cream and refreshments, a body of the corps proceeded to the front courtyard of the Capitol Park, where J. W. Watson photographed the party, after which each by the Capitol they paid their respects to His Excellency Governor Caldwel, where they were cordially received by the hand of the Governor, and after a few moments conversation His Excellency unceremoniously teased the Press. "May they ever defend the right and always condemn the wrong," Mr. Skinner was called upon to respond and did so briefly very handsomely in the finest of good humor. With a parting smile they bid adieu to the Governor, and repaired to the Senate Chamber where the President again called the Convention to order.

State News.

There seems to be a disagreement among our law doctors. That able law firm of Smith & Strong give it as their opinion that the Prohibition act when Prohibition is voted for, absolutely forbids, the sale of spirituous liquors for one year from the time of election, and that accepted license to sell are no protection. On the other hand, Judge Burton has decided that the Lumberton liquor dealers, whose bars were recently closed in accordance with the voice of the people at the ballot box, can continue to retail as heretofore until their licenses expire, which will keep the bar rooms open until October next.—Messenger.

The Radicals of Wilson county held their convention on Saturday last. For Congressional honors they urge the claims of Geo. Stanton, Esq., as their first choice and Judge Thomas next. Mr. Faircloth receives the endorsement for Judge, and Lon. J. Moore for Solicitor.

J. J. Scott, Esq. was elected Mayor of Fremont on Monday last week. J. W. Aycock, F. M. Aycock, Josiah Watson, Jesse Taylor, L. E. Johnson, Commissioner; W. R. Hooks, Constable.—All are Democrats.

The Magnolia Monitor announces the death of Edward Graham, on the 29th day of April, at the advanced age of 102 years. We learn from the Monitor that uncle Ned was one of the very few surviving born Africans in this country. At the age of 9 years he was taken from a slave and by the pound in the city of Norfolk, Va., and was bought by a Mr. Graham. For two generations he served this family well and faithfully, and then enjoyed the evening of his life in perfect freedom.

The Sentinel, in reference to the Baxter and Brooks says: "Let Baxter and Brooks, with 300 negroes on either side settle the question as to who shall be Governor."

We agree with the Sentinel, and would like to furnish these wranglers for office and plunder, 600 loyal bucks. This county can fill the bill, and would be glad to do it.—Greenville Register.

very much the "salary grab" bill, and also when he voted against the repeal of the law, but the conservative of his District have renominated him because he has made a faithful and able Representative and we think they have done right.

Mr. Waddell was among the first in the State to accept the "salutation" at the close of the war and make the best of it, and the result is that he is not only popular with the conservatives but also has the confidence of his political opponents and all others who want to restore peace and prosperity to the South.

THIS AND THAT.

DIED.

Died in Haywood, Chatham county, on the 13th, inst. after a short illness, John R. Williams Jr., oldest son of John R. Williams, of this city, in the 28th, year of his age.

The funeral services of the deceased, will take place from the Methodist church on to-morrow morning (Thursday) at 11 o'clock.

Special Notices.

The public are hereby assured, through the columns of the Daily Sentinel, that Parsons' Purgative Pills contain no injurious principle, but that they may be administered to children and the most weak and shattered constitutions in small doses, with great certainty of success.

Dr. A. Johnson, one of the most successful practitioners of his time, invented what is now called Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. The great success of this article in the cure of Bronchitis and all diseases of throat and lungs, will make the name of Johnson not less favorably, if less widely known, than that of Louis Napoleon.

Veterinary Surgeons all over the country are recommending Sheridan's Cough Condition Powders for the following troubles in horses:—Loss of appetite, roughness of the hair, stoppage of bowels or water, thick water, cough and colds, swelling of glands, worms, horse all, thick wind, and heaves.

An Irishman called at a drug store to get a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for the Rheumatism; the druggist asked him in what part of the body it troubled him most, "Be me son!" said he, "I have it in every bone and corner of me."
