VOL. IX. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 25, 1874. NO. 250.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

JOHN BRAGG, Editor.

THE SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.—This church situated on Swain street in the Eastern portion of the city, will, we learn, be completed this week, and will be d. s.

In the city on Monday next, Applications for license will be exhausted on Monday and Tuesday.

Thermometer at L. Branson's Book Store, May 25th. At 9 A. M. 77. 12 M. 81. 3 P M. 84.

THE FARM MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. We call attention to the advertisement of this splendid company which appears in our columns to-day.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Church in good numbers are busily engaged to day at the elegant Barringter store next door to the State National Bank, preparing for their Strawberry festival to-morrow night.

All of the delicacies of the season will be served including ice cream, strawberries, etc.

MAYOR'S COURT.—His Honor, Mayor Holden, opened his court this morning at the usual hour. Hawk Rogers was arraigned upon a charge of assault preferred by Charles Hinton, (col.), a driver of a city cart.

John Copeland (col.) and the bell boy at the Yarbrough for having a trial of the static art this morning, contributed $2 in to the city treasury.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL SOCIETIES.—On yesterday afternoon at the Edenton street Methodist Episcopal church, the annual meeting of the Sunday School Societies took place, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. C. S. Lumsden, President, R. W. Best, Vice President, J. A. Jones, Treasurer, L. G. Bagley, Secretary, W. J. Young was chosen Superintendent of the Sunday School, and D. W. Bain, Assistant Superintendent.

Mrs. W. J. Young, Assistant Superintendent of the Female Department. A report of the past year's operations made, was very satisfactory. Two branch mission schools have been organized in, and near the city under the supervision of Edenton street church, with R. W. Best and E. B. Thomas as Superintendents, and are in successful operation.

THE STORM LAST NIGHT.—At eleven o'clock last night our city was visited by a furious storm. Rain fell in considerable quantity, while the lightning was terrible accompanied with the loudest detonations of thunder, startling from their slumbers those who had retired before that hour.

Forty-Eighth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in North Carolina.

Third Day's Proceedings.

MORNING SERVICE.

Rev. Mr. Labour read Morning Prayer to Lessons; Absolution granted by Assistant Bishop; Rev. Mr. Elora read the first Lesson, Rev. Mr. Falls read the second Lesson, Rev. Mr. Barbour read the Creed and collects, and Rev. Mr. Murdoch the Litany.

Convention called to order at 10 o'clock and opened with prayer by Bishop Atkinson.

On Motion of Hon. W. H. Battle, the calling of the roll was dispensed with, and those delegates who have arrived since the adjournment on yesterday were directed to report to the Secretary, whereupon the following reported:

Rev. W. S. Pettigrew, Rector of Holy Innocent, Henderson.

Rev. G. B. Wetmore, Rector of Christ's Church, Rowan county.

Rev. S. S. Barber, Rector of St. George's Hyde county.

Rev. A. M. Flythe, Rector St. Mary's Kingston.

Rev. M. M. Marshall, Rector of Ebenezer Church, Warrenton.

E. B. Haughton, W. C. Ash, T. H. Hardin, W. H. Bernard.

Rev. Mr. Patterson, by direction of the Bishop, read a telegram from Mr. S. E. Allen, General Ticket Agent of the N. C. Division of the Richmond and Danville R. R., to the effect that delegates to this Convention would be passed at half-rates by presenting a certificate of the Secretary of this Convention to the conductors of the train.

Bishop Atkinson read a charge to the clergy (it being made the duty of the Bishop to deliver a charge once in three years, unless a reasonable cause prevents), the main topic of which was sacrificial confession, which he said prevailed to a considerable extent in England and had obtained some foothold in this country;

General Cox moved its further consideration be postponed until to-morrow morning. Carried. Five o'clock, P. M. Convention adjourned till 5 o'clock, P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Convention was called to order and opened with prayer by the President, the Rev. E. M. Forbes.

The resolutions of Col. J. W. Atkinson introduced at the morning session and made the special order for this afternoon, were read by him.

Mr. Frank Blye stated that inasmuch as there was a slim attendance of delegates at this session, he would move a postponement until to-morrow morning; but subsequently withdrew it.

Col. Atkinson again expressed the hope that the resolutions would be passed.

Mr. R. H. Smith spoke in opposition at some length.

Rev. Mr. Buel spoke in favor, suggesting some changes.

Rev. Mr. Falls thought the suggestions of the Rev. Mr. Buel timely, and would, he thought, meet the views of more of the delegates.

Mr. Wesson, of Tarboro, moved to postpone indefinitely, but afterwards withdrew it.

Rev. Mr. Broun did not favor the resolutions, but thought the delegates to the General Convention should be instructed in order to insure unity of action upon such momentous questions.

Col. S. L. Fremont thought the discussion did not tend to any good.

Rev. Mr. Patterson said he did not wish to say much upon this subject. He thought the resolutions were an unintentional reflection upon the Bishops, who were the proper judges of ritual or ceremonial in their respective dioceses.

Hon. W. H. Battle spoke in favor.

Mr. R. H. Smith again spoke and stated that while he was not opposed to some expression of opinion on the part of this Convention in reference to the subject under discussion, he was yet opposed to these resolutions, and offered as a substitute a canon adopted at the last General Convention by the House of Bishops in message No. 71, but which was not occurred in by the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, having been defeated by a majority of only one or two.

On motion of Dr. Deloss, the hour for Divine service being near at hand, the Convention adjourned until 9 o'clock to-day.

EVENING SERVICE. There was a missionary meeting held at St. John's church last night, a large congregation being present.

Each speaker dwelt upon the great missionary field in North Carolina, and the urgent necessity for laborers and means.

A Connecticut youth, aged 77, was crowned on the occasion of his marriage to a venerable woman of 14 summers.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Cary Cotton Gin. Rev. Mr. Bronson, from the committee to take under consideration and report upon that portion of Bishop Atkinson's annual address touching Christian Education, reported as follows:

Resolved, That the committee ask to be continued and during the recess of the Convention request that they be invested with the power to receive applications and expedient for its establishment. Carried.

On motion of Col. Fremont it was Resolved, That the list of colonial Parishes with the dates of their several organizations prepared by the Rev. A. A. Benton, be spread upon the Journals of this Convention for information and preservation, and the thanks of the Convention be tendered to Rev. Mr. Benton for this paper.

Resolved, That a committee of three members be raised to collect as much of the colonial history as possible in reference to the church in this Diocese and organization of the local Parishes and make report to the next Convention; also to prepare a list of Parishes in the order of their organization.

Col. Atkinson moved that the resolutions offered by him be taken up for consideration. Carried. Five o'clock, P. M., was named as the hour for same.

Rev. Mr. Buel moved that this house do concur in amendment to constitution passed at General Convention of 1871, in relation to the election of Missionary Jurisdiction.

General Cox moved its further consideration be postponed until to-morrow morning. Carried.

Convention adjourned till 5 o'clock, P. M.
