NEAR CARY, N. C. N. v., 12th, 1873.

This is to certify that I am using one of the Cary Gors made by W. M. Sorrell, of Cary, N. C., and that I am well pleased with it and would cheerfully recommend it to any one wanting a good. Gin. A. B. YATES.

CARY, N. C., May 22nd, 1874. I take pleasure in saying that the fifty Saws Cotton Gin, I purchased from Mr. W. M. Sorrell, known as the Cary Gin does far better work than any Gin, I have beretofore used, though costing from 50 to 100 per cent. less money. I think any per-son in want of a Gin will save money by purchasing the Cary Gin, its performance has been entirely satisfactory to me, I can cheerfully recommend it to others.

Let'a correspondent at the Hillsboro' Recorder answer that question, as he so truthfully does, in the following communication, which appeared in that paper of the 20th April last, in these words: "HON JOSIAH TURNER, JR., FOR CONGRESS.

Mr. Editor: - Will you permit me space to say a few words about a candidate for Congress? If so, I beg leave to call the attention of the Conservative voters of this District, to the propriety and good taste of nominating Hon. Josiah Zurner, Jr., for Congress and electing him.

Mr. Turner has done more to rid the State of Radical Carpet Bag Thieves, and to deliver the people and ruin, than any one hundred men in the State; and that too, at a time when no man, was willing to raise his voice against the corruption of the Radical par-ty, and proclaim the ruin they were bringty, and proclaim the ruin they were bringing on the whole people. He, single handed and alone, in Raicigh, the head quarters and strongled of the Radical party, proclaimed aloud their venality, corruption, and intrigues to bring ruin and degradation upon the white people and property owners of the State. He fought against them boldly, perseveringly and truthfully, until he almost redeemed the State. He has always been found true to every trust confided to him and honest in the discharge of every duty. honest in the discharge of every duty.

After the gallant fight against, and the victory won by him, over the Radical party by the election of a Conservative Legislature, they did not, like true mes, appreciating the great work shown by him, reward him as they should have done, nor all the statement of the stat did our last Legislature, treat him with that consideration and liberality, to which by the necessary officials, showed that no he was justly entitled from all men, claim-

THE DRAMA IN NEW YORK. - The New York Evening Post says of the theatres of Four theatres have closed their doors; maturely—a pretty sure sign that they were not paying expenses. They are the Gran's Opera House, where spectacle, ballst, local drama, and favorite actors have all been tried in valu; the Park Theatre a new house, which lost $7,000 in three weeks, and thoroughly proved that Mr Fechter, great octor as he is, does not at-tract the general public; the Lyceum, which has always led a spasmedic life wherein success (as in the case of opera-bouffe) was only the exception; and Fox's new Bresslway Theatre, which, after its first two weeks, was unaccountably neg lected by theatre-goers. Indianappolis wants her soda water for the summer at five cents a glass, and quite a fively little wer is waging on the subject.
