SPECIAL NOTICES.
Johnson's Anodyne Liniment may be used to relieve any kind of neuralgia or deformity. In case of severe cramps and pains in the stomach, it is undoubtedly the best article that can be used internally.
Habitual constipation leads to the following results: Inflammation of the kidneys, sick and nervous headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, piles, loss of appetite and strength; all of which may be avoided by being regular in your habits, and taking, say one of Purpure Pills nightly for four or six weeks.
Johnson's Anodyne Liniment will give more relief in cases of Chronic Rheumatism no matter how severe, than any other article known to medical men. Use it internally and externally.
It is often remarked by strangers visiting our State that we show a larger proportion of good horses than any other State in the Union. This, we tell them, is owing to two principal reasons: In the first place, we breed from the very best stock; and in the second place, our people use Sheridan's Country Condition Powder, which in our judgment are of incalculable advantage.
We should not hesitate to recommend to any friend of ours, Purpure Pills and Pills; they are scientifically prepared, and are adapted to all the purposes of a good purgative medicine.
The Times says Dr. Welpels has lost his beautiful chestnut mare. She died suddenly in harness, it is supposed from bots or pin worms. If the Doctor had used Sheridan's Country Condition Powder, he would, no doubt, have had his mare today; they are death on worms.
Chapped hands are very common with those who have their hands much in use.
A few drops of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment rubbed over the hand two or three times a day, will keep them soft and white.
Fishermen, sailors, and others who do not remember this.

THE DELEGATES TO THE CONVENTION.
The delegates to the convention, haring at 10 A. M., assembled in the Metropolitan Hall, H. A. London, Jr., the chairman, of the District Executive Committee called the Convention to order, making a brief but appropriate address, counselling harmony and good feeling. A good choice will redound the district. He nominated as temporary chairman, A. S. Pence, Esq., of Granville, and also that the representatives of the Conservative city papers be requested to act as secretaries. Carried.
Mr. Pence returned thanks for the honors conferred, and concluded by stating that the Convention was ready for a permanent organization.

On motion, a committee of one from each county, was appointed to prepare business for the Convention, consisting of the following delegates: J. P. H. Rues, of Wake, J. P. Jenkins of Nash, J. E. Thomas of Franklin, E.
J. Hall of Johnston, M. Q. Waddell of Catawba, James T. Littlejohn of Granville, John Watson of Orange. The committee retired in compliance with the resolution, and during their absence the Convention was entertained by Hon. D.
G. Fowle, and Thos. J. Jarvis.

The Committee through their chairman, Hon. M. Q. Waddell, reported the following officers for a permanent organization of the convention.
For President, Wm. H. Ayers, of Johnston, with the following Vice Presidents: Simon G. Hayes, Wake, John E.
Thomas, Franklin, E. S. Moore, Johnston, A. W. Bridgers, Nash, J. W. Carr, Orange, G. R. Griffith, Catawba, B. A. Capshaw, Granville, and the reporters of the Conservative press, consisting of secretaries of the body. The report was adopted.
Messrs. Cooke of Franklin, and Parrish of Orange, conducted Mr. Ayers, who returned thanks for the unexpected call and compliment paid him, trusting that the deliberations of the convention would go on harmoniously for the good of the State, and the success of the party.

DEATH OF PATRICK MYERS.—The young seaman Patrick Myers, who was so badly cut in the abdomen on Sunday morning last, fell asleep of which he appeared in this paper, died yesterday morning, about a quarter past 11 o'clock, after lingering through the week in the most intense agony. During all this time, although compelled to remain in a miserable bed, he was attended by the Sisters of Mercy, together with the priest and members of the Catholic church, who ministered to his wants, and paid him every attention possible under the circumstances.
Immediately after his death Coronor Howlett was notified, who summoned a jury and viewed the corpse, when an ad-judgment was had until this morning at 10 o'clock, when they will meet at the Court House and examine the witnesses in the case.—W. L. Star.

THE NEGRO CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.—This villainous measure passed the U. S. Senate on Saturday morning, 23d, after an all night's session. It provides that ag-gro children and white children shall have equal privileges in schools sustained in whole or part by taxation, &c. Until the outrageous measure is repealed there should not be another cent collected in North Carolina by taxation for public schools. Let there be no more tax levied for school purposes, and let there be no more talk about imposing taxes on Chapel Hill College. Stop all school taxes and let us sustain white schools by ourselves. The white people do not entertain a notion of supporting the white people of the South, and especially the poor white man; and now let the white people organize a white man's party and accept the issue forced by the negroes and their mean, deceitful political friends.
The means by which the Bill was passed, and the conduct of the Radical Senators, is a disgrace to the American Senate. The few Senators who voted for the rights of the Southern white man, the senators from the States of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and Louisiana, were treated with disrespect and derision, and while they were battling for the Constitution the Radical fanatics were in adjoining rooms drinking liquor, smoking cigars and talking in a "seditious" manner. Several times the Senate was without a quorum, but the presiding officer did not entertain a motion to adjourn and call the year and day. In that way the negro bill was passed. Shame, shame!
The scoundrels who forced the passage of the Bill live in States where there are very few if any negroes, and actually hate a negro more than any Southern man does. They will even cheat the negro out of his last-borne wages, but in order to get his vote will pay for his low services. Such men were spread into the U. S. Senate from the bar-rooms and gambling halls of the North and Northwest.
Let us accord all necessary rights to the colored people, but never consent to their admission into the same schools with white boys and girls.—Charlotte Daily

Mr. Holt spoke for Gen. Cox. Dr.
Leach for Mr. Turner. The 14th ballot resulted, Turner 53, Graham 15, Cox 33, Davis 15, Manning 37. On the fifteenth ballot after considerable changing of votes, Capt. Joseph J. Davis of Franklin, received 109 votes, and Mr. Turner 34. Cox has moved to make the vote unanimous which was done, and Capt. Davis declared by the chairman of the board.
A paragraph is going the rounds of the press, that the late Gen. Sherman was buried in the city of Raleigh.

CENTENNIAL CONGRESS.—Alderman R. F. Davidson has, in his possession, the revolutionary market carried by his ancester, one of the Hornets of '76. It is presented on the breast with the original coat of arms, a coiled snake, and the approximate date, "Don't tread on me." It was the Mecklenburg Centennial seal that must be carried in the procession by the oldest man in the county.

Low.—The Reds have got out a low, dirty and silly circular against Mr. She-ck, which they are scattering secretly through the mail. The printing is bad, the printing is worse, and the dictionary of it. It seems to be the production of a half-educated negro, whose composer master was not a gentleman.—Com-

Six Reasons Why YOU SHOULD INSURE IN
The Penn Mutual
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
91 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

- 1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and past the day of experiments.
- 2nd. Because every policy-holder is a member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus has an influence in its management.
- 3rd. Because it has as large a percentage of assets to liabilities as any Life Insurance Company in the Country.
- 4th. Because by economical management, its ratio of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.)
- 5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage, than any Company in the United States.
- 6th. Because it is liberal in its management, prompt in its settlements, safe beyond a contingency, and its rates are as
