THE PROHIBITION LAW.—Just yesterday after the argument of counsel yesterday on the Prohibition question, took the matter under a decision, and this morning renders a decision sustaining the injunction. The wet ticket for the present at any rate is triumphant.

A JEWEL DOWN IN GEORGIA.—The following graphic description of the real jewels of the fair South is given by a paper printed in the State of Georgia: "Among the many visitors who came to our city on Saturday last to sell their country produce, was a young lady, from the Delaware from Johnson county in know I am mistaken as to his being a Republican. Surrounded by Greensboro is no proof he is not a Republican, but such reasoning is not logical. Langston may prove he is no Republican. I have it from those who know, that Mr. Noble was elected in his township to office by Republicans. I have it from the best authority that in the late election he did not support Senator Avera, who was chairman of our late convention. I do not care to carry on such a controversy, but I am sure I can prove all I say. I say the negroes of Salina Township voted for Mr. Noble, as a Republican. I say in the last election he did not support his estimable and talented neighbor, Mr. Avera, for the Senate. And now Mr. Woodson, I challenge you to either add better proof of the error of my statement, than that Mr. Noble is a Republican, because he surrounded with you at Greensboro; and what is worse, I invite you to join with me in electing Capt. Davis. I have no acquaintance with Mr. Noble and would not wrong him. My indignation at the action of the convention would have been less if I had not seen the Conservative party in the two last Legislatures fighting harder to

He would take it off. He handed his cut to the accommodating man, and the latter coolly put it under his arm and left with it. Eugene Clark, tenor of the Kellogg opera troupe, is one of the choir of the church of St. Bartholomew, New York; Anna Drandi, contralto, at Grace church, where George Simpson is the tenor; Mr. Mass, also of the Kellogg troupe, tenor at the church of the Holy Spirit; Matilda Toody, the violinist, contralto at the Tabernacle; Signor Calletti, of the Strakoski troupe, basso at St. Stephen's church.

We certify that the Cary Gin has given entire satisfaction to our neighbors, who have tried it, and we think it an excellent gin. H. P. GIBBS, H. B. JORDAN, W. C. PAGE, Wm. E. PELL.

Extinguishing Fires. It is very valuable for throwing soap-suds or other stimulants upon fires, stoves, stoves, &c. THE FOUNTAIN PUMP can be used in any position, whether the operator is standing, sitting or reclining. It will easily throw a stream of water forty to fifty feet, and with the Sprinkler attached will spread the water in a gentle shower of spray.

BELLINGHAM.—Two Copperas barrels fellows in front of the Court house this morning were panting for a collision, and exchanged compliments in language that was plain-to-no plain for christen cars. The mouth-shooting continued for ten minutes or more, but they wouldn't clinch. We looked for the return starts to come up with their clubs, and take a piece of pie but they didn't come. They were resting in the market of taking a bear on the sly no doubt.

The Newbernian of yesterday says:—At the Police Station in this city, we notice 11 cases, supposed to contain 20 each, of rifle muskets, besides a large case of accoutrements which have been lying there, unaccounted for, since the Holden war of 1869. We do not know in whose charge these weapons are, nor who is responsible for them, but we know that the Federal Adjutant General of North Carolina ought to take better care of, and know more about the condition of the military property of our State. These arms and accoutrements are apparently in a bad condition, and they should be properly cared for. Let Adjutant General Gorman take action in the premises at once.

AN EBONAUT'S FEARFUL JOURNEY.—John H. Shreener, the ebonaut, recently made a frightful journey through the clouds in a snow storm, from Pottstown to Copensburg, Lehigh county, along the line of North Pennsylvania Railroad, a distance of forty miles, in less than an hour. The ebonaut used no basket, but ascended to the clouds revolving upon a slender trapeze bar dangling from the netting of his large balloon. Shreener is a young man about thirty years of age, and by occupation is a clerk in one of the leading hotels in Reading. For some time past he has been paying considerable attention to ballooning; and since his first trip to Pottstown he has made nearly a dozen ascensions. He has discontinued the use of a basket altogether, and now he ascends on trapeze bars hanging by two slender ropes attached to the balloon netting. His last ascension came very near proving fatal. He says: When I ascended out of sight of the people at Pottstown, the air suddenly became cold, and the rain descended. The wind blew furiously, and when I had ascended to an altitude of 3,000 feet I noticed that it was snowing. When the barometer indicated 5,000 feet above the level of the sea, a furious snow storm set in. My balloon shifted to a northeastern wind current, and was wafted alone at a frightful rate of speed. The balloon swung backward and forward, and I then mounted from the trapeze and took a seat in the iron counter-balance. I made an effort to put on my heavy clothing, but found it utterly impossible. The balloon was swaying and getting about in the air at an altitude of seven miles, and I did not dare to dress myself, for fear that a sudden twist or jerk of the balloon would hurl me headlong down. The storm became more turbulent. I must have travelled a mile a minute. Finally I pulled the valve rope. It requires considerable strength to pull it. My hands were numb, but I soon succeeded in opening the valve, and it would plainly be the gas rushing out at the top. The balloon descended. The wind was blowing a gale as I approached earth. It swept the balloon down toward a dense wood with frightful rapidity, and carried me crashing into the tree tops. How I became extricated I cannot tell. I possess the journal of a frightful sea, but I shall try it over and over again.

Mr. Waddell's remarks at this particular juncture were long and loudly applauded by an audience of at least 800 white men, who, true to their race, are sensitively jealous of their social rights and uncompromisingly opposed to any miscegenation. Col. Waddell explained his position upon the back pay, and as his honest tongue gave mainly utterance to the noble, independent and proud, generous impulses of his soul, we saw that the man who had once redeemed the District from the clutches of the Radicals was triumphantly master of the situation again.

27 Years Old. Six Reasons Why YOU SHOULD INSURE IN The Penn Mutual LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. 1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and past the day of experiments. 2nd. Because every policy-holder is a member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus have influence in its management. 3rd. Because it has a large percentage of assets to liabilities as any Life Insurance Company in the Country. 4th. Because its economical management, its rate of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.) 5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage, than any Company in the United States. For example: Policy No. 16, for $5,000, has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been declared. Averaging fifty-seven per cent. Had these dividends been used to purchase additional to this Policy, $6,048 more would have been realized, making the Policy worth $11,048.

Radical State Executive Committee in Session.—This Committee was in session at the Tarborough House on yesterday, and up to a late hour last night first hearing and considering the Holden-Lee matter, as to the regular and legal chairmanship of the County Executive Committee. The whole matter was fully discussed, and Tim won the victory by a majority vote of three presided. The Committee then went into the matter of Hilliard and Moore, the contestants for the Judgeship in the first Judicial district, but with what result we have not learned. We understand that the Holden side will not submit to the decision, at least as far as regards Tim, and that the war will be waged as fiercely as ever.

Supreme Court.—The Court met at 9 A. M. All the Justices present except Judge Pearson, who is confined in his room from a sprain he received in his back on Wednesday. The following appeals from the first district were argued: Fleming's Sanderlin vs. Commissioners of Dare, continued for want of counsel. L. D. Starke, Adm'r vs. Thomas J. Kibbidge, et al from Camden. Smith & Strong for plaintiff, Busbee & Busbee for defendant. Jas C. Shefford, Adm'r vs. Ephraim Harris, Guardian from Pasquotank, continued for want of counsel. Town of Edenton vs. Capelhart & Son for plaintiff. No counsel for defendant. The second district was next taken up. Jas. Carey vs. Thos. W. Jones, from Bertie, continued for want of counsel. Gilliam & Pruden for plaintiff, Smith & Strong, and W. W. Peebles for defendant. B. G. Howell, Adm'r vs. Jas. J. Harrell, from Martin. No counsel for plaintiff. J. A. Moore for defendant. H. P. Harrell, Ex'r vs. Joseph A. Tyler, Adm'r from Bertie. Put off to end of the docket. State vs. Amico Moore, from Washington. Attorney-General for State. Jones & Jones, and J. A. Moore for plaintiff. The Court, then adjourned until tomorrow, when the first case in order, is Lockwood Hyatt vs. R. L. Myers, et al from Beaufort.

CONFIRMATION OF THE NEW SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY. (Special Telegram to the Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, June 3.—The confirmation of Bristow and Richardson was earlier than was generally expected, though in the case of the former very little delay was apprehended. Secretary Bristow will in all probability enter upon his duties tomorrow. Assistant Secretary Sawyer has not yet resigned, but as it is almost absolutely certain that he will retire from his position as soon as Bristow's Treasury policy is beginning to be heard, but of course at all unreliable.

Chippings.—Samuel W. Rush, formerly of Philadelphia, died on his farm, at Swarthmore, Delaware county, on the 24th ult., in his 75th year. Deceased, who was a son of William Rush, the sculptor, held a position of trust in the department of the Fairmount Water Works for twenty years. The American Historical Recorder for June contains an account of William Hutchings, the last but one on the roll of Revolutionary pensioners. He was a native and resident of Maine, and died in 1866, at the age of over 101 years. Lemuel Cook, of New York, the surviving pensioner, died eighteen days later, aged 103 years. In London, recently, a man who had for some time fallen into habits of intemperance, murdered the whole of his family, consisting of his wife and four children, and then cut his throat. The murders were committed while the family were sleeping, and no sound was heard to alarm the JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT may be used to advantage where any Liniment is desirable. In cases of severe cramps and pains in the stomach, it is undoubtedly the best article that can be used internally. Habitual constipation leads to the following results: Inflammation of the kidneys, sick and nervous headache, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, piles, loss of appetite and strength; all of which may be avoided by being regular in your habits, and taking, say one of PARSONS' Purgative Pills nightly for four or six weeks. DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SNA WED TONIC, and MANDRAKE PILLS.—These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution. Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which of course, must make a cure impossible. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium. It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach, and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, SNA WED TONIC, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious that these are the only genuine cures for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions. Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, when all letters for advice must be addressed.
