BASE BALL.—The second nine of the Pastime and Social clubs have a game to-morrow, at half past four o'clock on the Baptist Grove Ground.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION AT FRANKLINTON.—Telegrams received from Franklinton, state that up to half past three o'clock this afternoon, no ballot had taken place in the Radical nominating Convention for this Congressional District, when they adjourned for dinner. The impression at that time prevailed that Ike Young would be the man.

We surmise that as no ballot has taken place the Convention is anything, but harmonious.

NOTICE.—There will be a convention of the Conservative-Democratic party of Wake County, held in the Court House in Raleigh, on Saturday the 27th inst., for the purpose of nominating a full county ticket. Chairmen of the various township committees are requested to call township meetings and appoint delegates accordingly.

THE NATIONAL GAME YESTERDAY.—The match game of base ball between the Athletic and and Social clubs was played in the presence of a large crowd at the Baptist Grove on yesterday. The Socials were equipped in their new uniform and base ball shoes, and presented a fine appearance taking the lead in the game until the third inning, tanning the Athletics handsomely, the score then standing 10 for the Socials, 0 for the Athletics. The fortunes of the latter were on the wane, 'twas thought, and their many friends began to grow sick and give up the game as lost by the champions, not so, however, for they went to the bat in this, the third inning, and by splendid playing, caught up and passed the "boys in blue," and we could not help but think that the Athletics were a "leetle mad," as Dave Lewis, the laughist, put it during the war. Dave had made a trip among many others, to our soldiers in the eastern part of the State, on Tranters Creek, if we remember aright, for the purpose of carrying them sundry articles of clothing and eatables, sent by kind home folks to the brave fellows. While Dave was in camp, the second day after his arrival, a party of white horse Yankee cavalry sallied forth from Washington (little Washington) and the boys had a brush driving the Yanks back. Dave says he "went to the rear with 'Rich' to take care of the ammunition, but he just knowed 'em Yankees would be licked, for our boys were right down mad 'fore they got into the fight," and so we thought about the Athletics. They were mad and they batted balls sinfully and howled it around the base in a way that was pleasing to their admirers but awfully discomfiting to their antagonists. On the fourth inning they improved their advantage and their score was far ahead. The game was called by the Umpire at the fifth inning, in consequence of the storm, the score standing Athletics 30, Socials 14. The Athletics are the champions of the State, try 'em on when you like it and they will tan you.

DAVID MARTIN (COL.) OF NEW HANOVER REPRIEVED.—A number of gentlemen of high character, of the county of New Hanover, having applied to Governor Caldwell to commute the punishment of David Martin, now under sentence of death, and to be executed on the 19th inst., on the grounds of the convict's extreme youthfulness, it being represented that he is only twelve years old, and of such tender years that he would not comprehend the enormity of his crime, or his accountability to the law, the Governor has granted him a respite, until Thursday the 20th day of August next, for the purpose of giving himself an opportunity to inquire fully into the facts, so as to be able to do what ought to be done in the premises. The petition for the commutation, only came to the Governor to-day, too late to inform himself satisfactorily before the day fixed for the execution. David took a little boy, loaded his pants with brick-bats, and chucked him in the Cape Fear River, at the same time punched him with a pole. The Wilmington Journal says:

"The crime was one of the most fiendish and diabolical ever perpetrated in any community; that Martin is guilty of its commission, by his own confession; that the charge of the Judge to the Jury was plain and pointed and that the jury, all of whom were of the condemned's own color took but a short time for deliberation before pronouncing the verdict against him. Further, an appeal having been taken to the Supreme Court that body carefully revised the testimony in the case and endorsed the action of the Superior Court. It is for Governor Caldwell to decide as to whether the commutation should, or should not be granted. David says that he is but 11 or 12 years of age but it is evident that this is a mistake as he has every appearance of being several years older."

PERSONAL.—Prof. Von Meyerhoff goes to Salisbury this evening where he proposes to take up his abode and shortly open a musical conservatory. We regret to lose so brilliant a star from our musical ranks—truly a genius in that line—but trust that he may find in his new field every encouragement and reward. We Superior Court.—This court met at the usual hour, all the justices present. The argument in the case, McKethan vs. Ray from Cumberland was concluded. W. A. Guthrie for plaintiff, N. W. Ray, B. Fuller for defendant. John Holmes, Exr., vs B. Godwin et al from Cumberland was argued; B. Fuller for plaintiff, W. A. Guthrie for defendant. Gerard Lee et al vs Blackman Lee et al from Harnett; B. Fuller for appellant, W. A. Guthrie for plaintiff, and pending the argument the court adjourned until to-morrow.

THE MUSICALE SOIREE AT ST. MARY'S.—The Musicale Soiree at St. Mary's school last evening was largely attended by our citizens, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and the affair was one of the most superb of the season. The music and singing was pronounced charming, and the young lady participants highly complimented for their efficiency in the musical line, and sweetness of their voices.

Among the prominent personages present, was the Hon. Morrison Waite, Chief Justice of the Supreme court of the United States. A delightful evening was passed highly gratifying to the friends of this celebrated Seminary.

THE ENGINE EXPLOSION.—The Atlanta Constitution, of Tuesday, furnishes the following particulars concerning the explosion of an engine on the Air-Line Railroad, Monday morning, in addition to those we have published:

"The engine went by the name of No. 30, and was attached to the gravel train. It was taking in water at the time. No cause is known, certainly, for the accident. The engineer, Mr. Baskerville, says that the engine was carrying three gauges of water and 140 pounds pressure of steam. The explosion blew out the front of the engine, besides destroying the crown sheet and fire-box. The entire train was blown back some 25 feet, and several bars of railroad iron were displaced. The truck wheels were blown out from under the engine.

"The engineer was scalded badly but not dangerously. He was thrown forty feet to the right of his engine by the force of the explosion. The fireman, Henry Miller, colored, and the conductor, Mr. W. J. Adams, were adjusting the water pipe from the tank at the time. The former so scalded and injured internally that he died in two or three hours after. Conductor Adams was scalded over the shoulders, arms and breast so horribly that he at present stands but little chance of surviving. Although some thirty hands were on the train at the time none were fortunately hurt."

We learn that a private telegram received in this city to-day conveys the gratifying intelligence to many friends that Mr. Baskerville's (the engineer) injuries are not near so serious as at first represented and that he will soon recover. He is doing as well as could be expected in Atlanta.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC-CONSERVATIVE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF WAKE COUNTY.—A meeting of the Democratic-Conservative Executive Committee of Wake County was held in the Court House to day. Geo. V. Strong, Esq., chairman, presiding. All of the townships of the county were represented. The only business of importance transacted was the selection of a day calling a county convention for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and county officers. The 27th of this month was the day agreed upon, when we hope to see the county fully represented.

NEILL MCKAY WANTS HELP.—Hon. O. H. Dockery will go into McKay's District to assist him. Col. Neill McKay has tried Waddell, and he is unwilling to appear again in single combat against this giant canvasser.—Lumberton Robesonian.

A NATURAL CURIOSITY.—Our friend Mr. W. C. Powell, of Grist's in Columbus county, sends us the queerest thing in the egg line that we have ever seen. It is only about an inch and a half long and is evidently two eggs in one, the whole presenting something of the appearance of a dumb-bell. The old darkey who gave it to Mr. Powell says there is no doubt of its being a hen egg, as he saw his old black hen when she laid it.—Wil. Journal.

Dockery has tried him too. A fellow feeling of old discomfitures makes them wondrous kind. We predict that after the great combination shall have been effected the "unwillingness to appear in double combat will be as conspicuous as the present disinclination to a single contest on the part of Mr. McKay. The "giant canvasser," as the Robesonian not inappropriately calls Col. Waddell, will be found, we think, considerably too much for the grand intellectual combination from the up country.—Star.

The Hillsboro Recorder says: H. P. Jones & Co, the well-known manufacturers of the celebrated Tar Heel and Occoneeche smoking tobacco, received last week an order from a Liverpool house for two thousand pounds of their tobacco. The letter accompanying the order bore most flattering testimony to the high character of the article which had already found its way into that market. We have reason to believe that it is but the beginning of a permanent business and an entering wedge into the British kingdom for a product of which Hillsboro has good reason to be proud.

A NORTH CAROLINIAN LIVING NOW IN ILLINOIS WHO SAW THE BATTLE OF GUILFORD COURT HOUSE.

To the Editor of the Courier-Journal:

Having noticed in several journals articles claiming for the various localities the honor of having in their midst the "oldest voter," I concluded to put in the claims of Monroe county, Indiana.

Living near Bloomington is our venerable old friend, William Ross, who according to his own account and the family record, was born at Guilford Court House North Carolina, May 17, 1759; consequently is one hundred and fifteen years old the 17th of last month.

Father Ross is in splendid health, visits Bloomington frequently during the pleasant weather of summer, kills squirrels with his rifle, chops wood, works his own garden, and occasionally follows the plow and says he feels as young as he did half century ago.

Father Ross was not in the Revolutionary war, but was an eye-witness of the battle of Guilford Court House, North Carolina and makes no claim to having been a member of the military family of General Washington, or of even having seen the General. He has voted for ninety-four years, but does not remember how many votes he has cast within that time, but must have been well on to two hundred times; and has invariably voted the regular old Democratic ticket, and never fails to pay his taxes. He is certainly the oldest man in the United States, if not in the world.

CIVIL RIGHTS IN SALISBURY.—Last Sunday night a colored gentlemen, believing, no doubt, that the Civil Rights Bill had become a law, walked into the Methodist Church and deliberately seated himself among the whites. He was finally prevailed upon to leave inasmuch as the Civil Rights Bill is not yet law. He did did so, though very reluctantly. —Watchman.

Maj. Bingham's Lectures recently in Fayetteville netted $70, which is for the benefit of that noble charity, the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

THE PROHIBITORY LIQUOR LAW.

(From the Boston Gazette.)

We at length reached the hotel again, and I proposed a glass of brandy and water. My friend looked at me and then at the landlord; and then the landlord looked at my friend and then at me. Perplexity overspread the countenances of landlord.

"Bought, you mean," retorted my friend.

"Bought, I mean," was the answer.

Then both eyed me significantly.

"Does anybody give it away?" I inquired, greatly puzzled by the mystery that appeared on both of their countenances.

"Not exactly. You see, the State Constabine would be after me in no time, if I sold liquor," explained the landlord. "Do you want some very badly?"

I could not explain how badly I wanted it, and could only give vent to my feelings in a sigh.

Without a word, the landlord disappeared within the recesses of a small room behind the office desk, and presently came forth with two empty tumblers in his hand. These he placed upon the desk.

"But where is the liquor? I inquired.

"The law forbids me to sell it," he said, "and I dare not disobey the law. If you can find any here, you are welcome to it," saying which he accidentally turned back the breast of his coat. The neck of a bottle peeped forth from the inside pocket. He winked his eye at me, and I winked my eye at him; after which I drew forth the bottle. He faintly struggled with me to prevent the daring robbery upon which I was bent, but I proved inexorable.

"My private bottle kept for medicinal purposes, and not for sale," he moaned, as he poured out the liquor for myself and the worthy chairman of the Parish Committee. "Have some water, gentlemen?" he added with alacrity.

We drank, and I replaced the bottle in the repository whence I had taken it. Then I put a dollar in his hands.

"What is this for?" he asked, as he deposited it in his waistcoat-pocket and gave me a half-dollar in change.

"For a bushel of oats," I answered. "Keep them till I send for them."

"Ah, sir," said the landlord, with an air of virtuous resignation, "the prohibitory law has done a world of good in stopping the sale of liquors. It's a severe law on us, but it's a good one."

A HOUSEHOLD REMEDY.—No family should be without some efficacious remedy for the cure of affections so universally prevalent as coughs, colds, sore throat, whooping-cough and croup—some remedy, too, which can be relied on as safe, sure and certain. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry combines the ness, Neuralgia, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Sprains, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Chilblains, Frost-bites, Swellings, Soreness of the Joints, and all painful affections of the body, external and internal. For Colds, Sorethroat, Quinzy and diseases of the throat and mucous membrane, it is an invaluable remedy. John F. Henry, Curran & Co., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS.—It is easy enough to make a pill, but to make a good pill, ah! that's the difficulty! There are those harsh drastic pills, that are of even less benefit than a dose of salts; but wood medicine, like Dr. Mott's Liver Pills, which demstrates to the seat of disease, is a desideratum indeed. Will positively cure all diseases of the liver. Sold everywhere. JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., Proprietors, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

Deafness caused by Catarrh.

Catarrh not unfrequently produces deafness.

Mr. Levi Springer, of Nettle Lake, (P. O.) Williams Co., O., formerly of Durbin's Corners, O., has been cured of deafness of fourteen years' standing, by using Dr. Sage's catarrh Remedy. He was so deaf he could not hear a person talk when seated by his side, and can now hear the church bell ring two miles distant—so he writes.

A MARKED CASE OF DEAFNESS CURED.

DICKERSONVILLE, Stag. CO., N. Y., Feb. 23, 1871.

About one year ago I caught a severe cold in the head, which terminated in a severe form of catarrh. During the time alloustions occured in the nasal passages, and I became wholly deaf in one ear, with partial deafness in the other. The inflamation had involved all the delicate structures of the ears, and was in immediate danger of permanent deafness. The discharge became profuse and fetid, both into my throat and from my ears. In this condition I called on Dr. Pierce for aid, who prescribed his Golden Medical Discovery and Catarrh Remedy, and under their use have rapidly recovered. My hearing is restored, and my Catarrh is entirely well.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MANUAL,

Published by authority and under the auspices of the General Assembly, will soon be issued under direction of the Secretary State.

The material for this work has been collected and prepared by John H. Wheeler, Esq., who has spent a great deal of time and labor in completing it. As a hand book of reference, it will be the most complete and valuable work of the kind ever published in the State. No public man, or man of business, should be without a copy. It will be a book of about 300 pages.

Comprising a Map of the State; the counties and population of each, showing the Congressional and Senatorial districts; the Constitution of the United states, with late amendments; the Executive officers of the United States from the Revolution to 1874. An engraved diagram, showing the movement of population from 1790 to 1870; the area of each State in square miles and the population of each and of every square mile; the ratio of representation in Congress at each Decade. The Constitution of North Carolina with recent amendments; the population of each county from its organization to 1870. Executive, Judicial and Legislative Departments of North Carolina; Statistical tables of the popular vote in each county, for President, Governor, Congress; a special statement of the qualified voters from records of census, distinguishing white from colored; the counties of the State, origin of name, with a list of Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly from date of formation to present session; and much other statistical and interesting matter, with full index to the same.

The price of the book is $3.00 in fine cloth binding. Postage to be added when sent by mail.

Blood and Liver Syrup!

All cutaneous eruptions on the face or body indicate AN IMPURE CONDITION OF THE BLOOD and this may, or may not be SCROFULA; but in either case the disease is nothing more nor less than POISONED BLOOD that as it courses through the veins, sowing seeds of death with every pulsation.

In this condition of things something is needed AT ONCE, TO CLEANSE THE BLOOD; and SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will POSITIVELY effect this desideratum, expelling every trace of disease from the blood and system, and leaving the skin

SOFT, FAIR AND BEAUTIFUL.

Hundreds of certificates attest its value. Price $1 per bottle.

recently purchased in New York, and many of them bought at PANIC PRICES.

My stock of

Dress Goods, White Goods,
Linen Handkerchiefs, Gloves,
Hosiery, Edgings, Ribbons,
Parasols, &c., &c.,

is LARGE and well ASSORTED, and embraces everything that is new and desirable in the line from low priced goods to fine fabrics.

Ladies in want of

will find it to their interest to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere, as they are new and will be sold at PANIC PRICES.

My stock of PIECE GOODS consisting of CASSIMERES, TWEED LINEN GOODS and COTTONADES, was never more complete, many of them being cheaper or even cheaper than before the War.

My stock of

for Ladies, Gents' and Misses is large and well assorted, and persons wanting goods, warm or merchandise, should always examine my stock before buying, as I intend to make it to their interest to buy of me.

I believe in the motto, "LIVE AND LET LIVE."

I respectfully ask COUNTRY MERCHANTS to examine my stock, as I will offer them special inducements, and think I can save them money.
