Lucid Intervals.

Go and see the Good Templars to-morrow evening. A grand entertainment free to all.

No arrests last night or to-day in police circles, and the Mayor has holiday so far to-day.

There will be a meeting of Rescue Steam Engine Company No. 1 this evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance will be transacted. By order of the President.

Everything quiet in the State departments, we asked in vain for an item but we got nothing but a shake of the head as they lolled in their shady retreats.

A yellow female setter puppy, about three months old, has strayed or been stolen from the Express office. Carry her back, and you will get a suitable reward.

Two hundred or more colored excursionists, embracing the colored fire companies departed for Wilmington this morning. Rufus Stanly's Brass Band accompanying them.

Charlie Howard at Latimer's Saloon was dispensing milk-punches of Jordan Giles & Co's., Louisville "Grand Bequet" to the thirsty to-day. They said it was good, when we took a cigar and departed.

"What was it my constituent," shrieked a stump speaker, what was it I asked that first opened your eyes to the righteous claims of the grand old Democratic party, (voice in the crowd) "An eye opener, Judge that's what done it." Happened in Nash.

Items are so scarce to-day that we feel like we could do as the Editors out West do. Write our articles with stolen chalk on the soles of our boots, and go barefooted while the copy is being set up, but then we have two incorrigible boys (mailing clerks) who would devote their spare moments shooting us with their bean shooters.

"We used to was" a telegrapher, and have heard and had charge of many curious missives, but Busbee, one of the slingers in the office of this city, tells us privately, that this went winding over the wires t'other night, between two rural points. "Send me a trace-chain and two hinges—Jane had a baby last night—also two padlocks."

THE PEACE INSTITUTE CONCERT.—The Concert of the young ladies of the Peace Institute was attended by an overflowing audience last evening, and was most magnificent and enjoyable in every respect. The Chapel Hall was most beautifully decorated, and with the beauty of the school was resplendent under the gas jets. The instrumental music and singing was charmingly rendered for so pleasing to those who were so fortunate as to be present. Where all were so perfect in their different parts, perhaps it is invidious to particularize as to some but we cannot refrain from mentioning those whom we were chiefly pleased with and who seemed to be the favorites of the majority present.

The Vocal Duett of the "Lilly and the Rose" by Misses Lizzie Yates and Addie Chestnutt was very beautiful.

The "Styrian Song" by Miss Lilly Telfair, was warbled most sweetly and was greatly admired. The vocal trio, "Moonlight" by Misses Tate, Arrington, Herring and Yates was given as bright and soft as the moon itself.

Gaily I trill my joyous lay. Vocal Solo by Miss Herring was greatly complimented.

A Grand Duo Caprice Hongrois by Misses Dewey, of Charlotte, and Pickard of Raleigh, was most artistically performed:

Solo un Bacio Vocal Solo by Miss Jessie Cassidey, of Wilmington, did great credit to this young lady who on previous occasions has distinguished herself in this school. A rich mellow voice—as an amateur singer, she will command the praise of all whose pleasure it may be to hear her.

The "Shadow Song" from the Opera "Dinorah" Vocal Solo by Miss Katie Tate was charmingly sang with an abandon and grace that was completely bewitching. A full scope of voice, the beautiful song came gushing forth to admiring visitors with all the beauty and ease imaginable.

"Home Sweet Home." Instrumental Solo by Miss Miriam Pickard of this city, was most exquisitely performed.

"Is the Grove," &c., from "Linda di Chamounix." By Misses Tate and Cassidey, was magnificently sweet and happy memories of this last beautiful duett cannot but linger.

The concert so delightful, closed at 11 o'clock, and the audience dispersed ever so pleased with the wish for many such happy returns and long life and prosperity to the "Peace."

RELICS FOR THE CORNER STONE.—The Superintendent, Maj. Wm. A. Hearne, of the new post office and United States court building has received coins, stamps, envelopes, public documents, and photographs of the different heads of departments in Washington, and other interesting relics to be placed in the corner stone of this building, which is to be laid with appropriate ceremonies, on the coming fourth of July.

GRADUATES OF THE PEACE INSTITUTE.—The following young ladies comprised the graduating class of the Peace Institute on yesterday:

Miss Mary Dewey, of Charlotte; Miss Sallie J. Polk, of Anson county; Miss Florida C. Rich, of Winnsboro, S. C.; Miss Pattie Lawrence, of Raleigh; Miss Lidie J. Herring, of Newbern; Miss Sallie B. Towles, of Raleigh; and Miss Jennie Faison, of Clinton.

SENTENCES COMMUTED.—Sherrill Hare, of Johnston county, arrived in this city last evening for the purpose of conveying the condemned men, David Collins, white, and Alexander Blalock, colored, (who have been confined in Wake jail for safe keeping,) to Smithfield to-day, where they were to be hanged to-morrow, for the murder of Allen Jones, col. This morning His Excellency, Gov. Caldwell, commuted the sentence of the unfortunate men to imprisonment for life in the penitentiary, and they were taken over and delivered to the Warden of that institution shortly thereafter.

SUPREME COURT.—This court met at the usual hour. The following causes were argued:

H. F. Brandon vs. Commissioners of Caswell county. Battle & Son, for plaintiff; no counsel for defendants.

J. C. Griffith vs. Commissioners of Caswell county. Battle & Son, for plaintiff; no counsel for defendants.

P. H. Benbow, vs. M. A. Robbins et al., from Guilford. Busbee & Busbee, L. M. Scott, R. Gorrell, for plaintiff; Dillard & Gilmer, for defendant. Wilson & Shober vs. Bank of Lexington et al from Guilford.—Dillard & Gilmer, Ball for plaintiffs; W. A. Graham and J. W. Graham for defendants, the argument was commenced, but before its conclusion the court adjourned until to-morrow when it will again be resumed.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—On yesterday Judge Bond presiding, the case of Fleischman vs. The North Carolina Railroad, for alleged injuries received by the accidental running off of the Pulman Palace Sleeper, near Salisbury, in March, 1871, was the only one heard. The amount of damage sued for was $25,000, and the jury awarded a verdict of $4,000 in the plaintiff's favor, when a motion was made to set aside the verdict, which the Judge allowed to be continued until the next term.

The conductor of the sleeper and the conductor in charge of the train, testified that only the front trucks of the car left the track and that the train was near the switch at Salisbury, slacked up, and if any one was hurt they didn't know it, and that the accident did not awaken many of the passengers. Fleishman claims his heart was injured by the rocking. Smith & Strong and Smedes for the Company, Ex-Gov. Vance and Battle & Son for the plaintiff. The Court at the conclusion of this case adjourned, and Chief Justice Waite and Judge Bond departed northward this morning.

Mayor Holden was surprised with a present this morning as he was waiting in vain for offenders against the peace and dignity of the city. It came from Pikesville by freight, and was neatly encased in a sardine box. It had every appearance of an infernal machine after the lid was opened and hands off seemed to be popular with those who stood curiously around. A letter accompanied it not complimentary. Frank Borrell the handsome clerk couldn't stand the pressure, so he boldly waded in, and grabbled through the sawdust that encased it, while the lookers on in Vienna, and a few of the "stars," got further. "Doc" pulled it out finally, when it proved to be a magnificent brass watch, as large as an inkstand, minus the machinery. It was immediately dubbed the "Reformer" as it had evidently been on a tare.

His Honor at first thought, was on the eve of consigning it to the lock-up for 48 hours, but upon reflection, concluded to nail it to the wall, where now it hangs much observed by frequenters of the court.

We insist our Mayor deserves better of his friends, though he thinks if he had the internal arrangements of the thing he could start a Georgia cotton gin, upon an improved plan.

State News.

Green corn in Newbern.

Ripe peaches grown in Mecklenburg, have made their appearance in Charlotte.

The dwelling of Capt. W. H. James, Wadesboro, was destroyed by fire Saturday night last. Insured for $1000.

Rev. A. Thompson lectures at Old Mt. Olive church, Iredell county, to-day. He will deliver a lecture at Newton, Catawba county, on the 4th of July.

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.—On Sunday afternoon, the 7th inst., a son of Mr. Norwood, late postmaster at Cantanla, in Lincoln county, was handling a pistol when it went off, killing his sister, Mrs. Cole, instantly.

The Milton Chronicle says that a little negro girl, 12 years old, because she was homesick and not allowed to go home, set fire to the old State Bank, and alarmed the town with the dread of a disastrous conflagration. The fire was speedily extinguished. The Chronicle very wisely suggests the use of a little hickory.

At a Radical Convention in Elizabethtown Bladen county Saturday a difficulty arose between two men named McGee and Hancock, during which the latter drew his pistol and shot McGee in the breast, inflicting a serious and possibly mortal wound. When the Hurt passed that point yesterday the physician had not succeeded in finding the ball and the wounded man was suffering intensely.

Another difficulty occurred during the day between Capt. Benj. Robinson and a man by the name of John McDonald, in which it is said the former was rather roughly handled.

A FATAL BLOW.—We are informed by Mr. H. H. G. Broome, who arrived in the city yesterday from Beaufort county, that Mr. Reuben Wilkerson and Council Mr. Scott, of that county, met at the store of J. B. Bryan, Esq., of Aurora, on Saturday last, when, it appears, a feud which had previously existed between them was renewed. Very little was said by either of the parties before Mr. Wilkerson, seizing a piece of oak plank that stood near, struck Mr. Scott, who was sitting on the counter, a blow on the right side of the head causing him to pitch forward to the floor, falling upon his head with such force as to break his neck. Mr. Scott was a very quiet and inoffensive young man, greatly liked by all who knew him, and lacked only a few day of attaining his majority. He only lived about thirty-five minutes after the fatal blow was struck. Wilkerson was arrested and lodged in jail.—Newbernian.

CAPT. GEO. W. WILLIAMSON.—The nomination of this gentleman ought to be acceptable to all of the constituency called upon to sustain it. He is just such a man as is needed in the councils of the State. A farmer, he is cultivated, intelligent and enterprising. He has shown his devotion to his whole country; by laborious service in the Mexican War. He showed his loyalty to his section by his active participation in the late war between the North and the South, and in "Kirk war" when personal daring and courage were as much needed as in a more bloody field, Captain Williamson was the man to beard the lion in his den, and serve the writs issued by Judge Brooks upon the boastful tyrant of the hour.

There is no doubt of his election. The people of Caswell and Person have no division of sentiment on that point, and Orange will endorse them to the full.—Recorder.

They have a wonderful freak of nature in Wilmington—a white child with black parents. It is nine months old, and a girl, and the Star says it is one of the greatest curiosities of the human species.

Its form and features are perfect up to the bridge of the nose, the chin, mouth and nasal organ being not only well-formed but really handsome in their symmetry and general appearance, but commencing with the eyes the face and head has the appearance of an animal, more resembling a white bear than anything else of the animal species our informant could call to mind. The hair is of a whitish color and like the wool of a sheep. Its eyes are round and piercing, resembling those of a mink and revolve in their sockets in a very peculiar manner. They cannot bear the the light of a lamp or candle and are instantly closed when one is brought in the room and are only kept open in the day time when the room is somewhat darkened. It has no eyebrows and the lid is of a peculiar formation, in no particular resembling the eyelid of a human being. It is very timid and when any one approaches it has the appearance and actions of a rabbit startled from its lair and is a fine field for those who make human nature in its various forms and peculiarities an object of study and analysis.

NOTICE.—There will be a convention of the Conservative-Democratic party of Wake County held at the Court House in Raleigh, on the 27th inst., at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket. Chairman of the various Townships are requested to call meetings and send delegates accordingly.

GEO. V. STRONG, Ch'm'n.
T. P. DEVEREUX, Sec'y.

A SWEET THING ON JOKES.

HAVE YOU SEEN TIM COLLINS?

If you haven't, perhaps you had better do so, and as quick as you can, for he is talking about you in a very rough manner—calling you hard names, and also getter saying things about you that are not true. Thompson—who is in the joke with Smith, tells Jones that he saw Tom Collins at the Southern about half an hour or so ago and off Jones goes to the Southern, where he meets Brown, and Brown tells him that he saw Collins at the Lecielede not five minutes since, where he was repeating these same stories, and really Jones ought to take notice of them because the offence they were repeated without denial from Jones, the more people would be likely to believe them, and so forth. By this time poor Jones is all over fight, and of course is so much the better fun, and he goes on until he "smells the mice," or knocks somebody down.

The "sell" acted in a dozen different ways with as many men, and in more than one instance the climax was ludicrous in the extreme. At one time Jones—let us call him so—was asking everybody if they had seen that son of a sea cook Tom Collins? "Yes," said a Smith No. 2, "he was here not two minutes since; oh, there he is now across the street," pointing to a man notoriously on his muscle. Jones looked at the supposed Tom Collins for a second or two. He didn't look like a gift at a rough and tumble, and he had never seen the man in his life before; but he had been circulating such infamous falsehoods that life wasn't worth living unless he could knock Tom Collins down there and then, and kick the lies down his Tom's throat with the toes of his number sevens.

Jones went across the street, and said by way of gentlemanly warning, "You are Tom Collins," and before the man of muscle could explain Jones pasted him a hot one over the head, and was continuing the pasting business when the man of muscle went into Joes on his own account with this remark: "Well, my name's not Tom Collins, but I'm just as good a man as Tom Collins, and if you owe Tom anything come and pay me, I'm all here. This is my racket, stranger."

If people had not interferred and explained the joke, possibly Jones would have been more than ever sorry about Tom Collins. As a pratical joke it was a success. As fun—well, it may have been fun for Smith and Brown, but it was pretty near Hades for Jones while it lasted.—St. Louis Republican.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

If Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is half as valuable as people say it is, no family should be without it. Certainly no person, be he lawyer, doctor, minister, or of any other profession, should start on a journey without it. No sailor, fisherman, or woodsman should be without it. In fact, it is needed wherever there is an ache, sprain, cut, bruise, cough or cold.

Farmers and "Horse Men" are continually inquiring what we know of the utility of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, and in reply, we would say, through the columns of the SENTINEL that we have heard from hundreds who have used them with gratifying results; that is also our experience.

"A Wonder of Medical Science," may well be applied to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. It is nearly half a century since this remarkable remedy was introduced to the public, and yet the immediate and enviable reputation which it gained by its wonderful cures of coughs, colds, hooping cough, sore throat, influenza, consumption, and all bronchial plaints, is to this day fully sustained.

THE NORTH CAROLINA MANUAL,

Published by authority and under the auspices of the General Assembly, will soon be issued under direction of the Secretary State.

The material for this work has been collected and prepared by John H. Wheeler, Esq., who has spent a great deal of time and labor in compiling it. As a hand book of reference, it will be the most complete and valuable work of the kind ever published in the State. No public man, or man of business, should be without a copy. It will be a book of about 300 pages.

Comprising a Map of the State; the counties and population of each, showing the Congressional and Senatorial districts; the Constitution of the United states, with late amendments; the Executive officers of the United States from the Revolution to 1874. An engraved diagram showing the movement of population from 1790 to 1870; the area of each State in square miles and the population of each and of every square mile; the ratio of representation in Congress at each Decade. The Constitution of North Carolina with recent amendments; the population of each county from its organization to 1870. Executive, Judicial and Legislative Departments of North Carolina; Statistical tables of the popular vote in each county, for President, Governor, Congress; a special statement of the qualified voters from records of census, distinguishing white from colored; the counties of the State, origin of name, with a list of Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly from date of formation to present session; and much other statistical and interesting matter, with full Index to the same.

The price of the book is $2.00 in fine cloth binding. Postage to be added when sent by mail.
