ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT!

The best is the Averill Chemical Paint, Because

1st. It has been thoroughly tested by chemists, and over 200,000 owners of residences throughout the United States for the last seven years, and pronounced by them to be the most durable paint known.

2nd. For beauty and preservation of color it stands far ahead of any other. Buildings have been painted with it in part, and partly with the best of other paints, both in the interior and on the sea coast, and in no case has it been excelled for beauty or permanency of color.

3rd. It is economical, and its cost is no more than the best lead and oil, and being far more durable (it wearing about twice as long as the best of any other,) and beautiful, warrants the assertion that for a period of twenty years it will save the consumer fully 50 per cent.

4th. It is in liquid form and all ready for use. Purest White, or any desired shade, can be obtained without subjecting the buyer to the annoyance of purchasing oil, pigments, coloring matter, dryer, &c. It is easily spread flows freely from the brush, clings firmly to every substance it may be applied upon. For wood, brick, iron, or for any painting purpose where durability, beauty and preservative properties are requisite, it stands unrivalled. Though composed of the most indestructible materials known to science, an analysis of the Averill Chemical Paint shows it to be (unlike lead and most of the other paints) free from poison. It will not blacken or discolor by the action of the sulphurous gases so prevalent on our marshy rivers and coasts.

5th. Requires no skilled painter. Any one can apply it.

A CASE OF ABDUCTION.—Joe Gill colored, was arrested and brought to this city this morning and lodged in jail.

FINE RAIN.—We had an old fashioned rain yesterday evening, commencing at five o'clock, which continued until after twelve. It refreshed a portion of the sweltering world, and resuscitated greatly, parching vegetation.

OPENING OF THE ST. LOUIS BRIDGE.—The magnificent St. Louis bridge over the Mississippi River, will be formally opened on the 4th July, and extensive preparations have been made for the event. President Grant will be present, and formerly open the bridge to the commence of the east and west.

The Governor of this State has been invited to be present on the occasion.

CHARLOTTE ICE MACHINE.—We are glad to learn that the Charlotte Ice Machine has got to work, for in going on our grand rounds, this morning, and stepping into the Governor's office, we were apprised of the fact, being shown by the Private Secretary a huge block of beautiful ice, packed in sawdust and sent as a sample to His Excellency.

They have had a long and rough time in getting the machine to work, and we congratulate Caldwell of the Observer, particularly upon the success of the old thing.

TRIAL OF MERRITT DENNIS (COL.) FOR THE MURDER OF HIS WIFE.—In Judge Watts' court to-day, Merritt Dennis (col.) was arraigned and put on trial for the murder of his wife, near Apex, about a month ago. Gen. Cox appeared for the State and T. M. Argo, Esq., for the prisoner. It was agreed between the respective counsel, that a verdict of manslaughter should be rendered. A motion in mitigation for punishment was made by the prisoner's counsel, and testimony was introduced to sustain the motion. It appeared from the State's witnesses, that the prisoner went to the house of Mr. Mann, and announced to his family that some one had killed his wife, who was in the field, a considerable distance off. He asked for camphor, or some restorative and appeared in great distress—camphor was given him, and Mr. Mann accompanied him to the spot where his wife was lying on the ground. Two weeding hoes were lying near with the handles of each broken, and blood upon the eye of one of the hoes. The prisoner remained over the body of his dead wife until arrested, and exhibited great distress.

Mr. Dowd, one of the State's witnesses, stated that as he was on the train, he saw the prisoner tied and in custody, and asked him if it was true, that he had murdered his wife. Prisoner said "he had denied it before, but would deny it no longer, he killed his wife unintentionally." Counsel for prisoner, then asked for permission to state to the court a confidential statement of the prisoner to him, which was granted—and was in substance as follows:

The prisoner on the day of the alleged murder, after dinner, returned with his wife to the field, where they had been at work, the prisoner, stepped before they reached the scene of their labors, picked up a swingle-tree, which had been borrowed, from a neighbor, and went thither to return it, his wife going to her work. He shortly returned to his work and after some general conversation with his wife, asked her to mend a pair of pants that night for him, whereupon she seemed to fly into a passion, saying she would not do it, if he wanted his pants mended, go and see a certain woman, and get her to do it. She was very jealous, and had frequently "rowed" with him about his attentions to other women. One word brought on another, when his wife dropped her hoe, "mighty mad," and rushed at him, seizing him by the left arm, tearing his sleeve nearly off, (which appeared in court) he threw her off, telling her to pick up her hoe, and go to work, she seized her hoe and struck at him several times violently, breaking his hoe handle in mean time. The prisoner says he then struck her lightly, as he thought, to make her behave herself. His wife fell, and lay motionless, he rushed to her and said, "why Annie, I haven't killed you have I?" to which she made no reply, but groaned, and he went to Mann's, as narrated before.

The Judge delivered a sensible and feeling lecture to the prisoner, and in view of the circumstances, as adduced by the evidence, and as stated by the prisoner's counsel, sentenced Dennis to two years imprisonment in the penitentiary, with a promise, if he demeaned himself properly, and showed signs of reformation, he would sign an application for his pardon.

MR. EDITOR:—You would place me under lasting obligations, by publishing the following report of the concert of the school of the Misses Nash and Miss Kellock of Hillsboro.

On Thursday night the annual concert of that most excellent school, took place before a large, appreciative and select audience, comprising the "elite" of the society of Hillsboro, and a number of the first ladies and gentlemen of the South, who [illegible] Marguerite gives utterance to her ardent, love, must have thrilled the most lethargic hearer.

One is accustomed to hear instrumental quartettes, for two pianos performed, perhaps with precision and accuracy, but an attentive listener must have observed a deviation from the ordinary rule.

I noticed with great pleasure the orchestral Tempo, the changes from a slow to a quick movement, and vice versa, and [illegible] who ever had an opportunity to hear the opera played, would have been surprised to notice the similarity.

I might still go on and with much more yet I fear to become verbose, and wearysome, so I must come to an end. At the close of concert, the Misses Nash and Miss Kollock were the recipients of a shower of hearty congratulations: and it was remarked during the evening, that this concert was one of the finest ever given in Hillsboro, and if it had been a public one a repetition would have been demanded by the audience.

Mr. Bryant Green of this county sent us a cotton bloom this morning.

Alexander Hunter, in Mecklenburg, has discovered a gold mine which promises a fine yield.

Mr. Ringgold Harris, the popular "compounder," has assumed charge of the National Hotel saloon.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad in Charlotte to-morrow.

Wright Powell, col., mail robber, escaped from the deputy sheriff on the way to jail in Wilmington on Monday. He chucked the deputy with a handful of sand and got up and dusted.

Chief Justice Pearson has been quite sick for some days, and is confined to his room at the National Hotel. He contemplates returning home as soon as he is able to undergo travel.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs C. Weikel, died in Chapel Hill a day or two ago. The remains will probably arrive in this city this afternoon or to-morrow. Our sympathies are extended to the parents.

"Now is the accepted time." Get up that excursion to Beaufort or the Virginia Capes. If we can't go, we wish you all some enjoyment. The Charlotte merchants and bankers had a huge time in Wilmington.

Eight or ten offenders were hauled up before the mayor this morning for drunkenness last night and it was not a good night for them either. They were a hard set, not a cent in the party and as they had been imprisoned over night they were set at liberty.

At a radical meeting in Wilmington on Monday evening, Jim Heaton, the Star says, had a very spicy colloquy with F. W. Foster. Heaton called Foster a public thief, and Foster asked Heaton who stole his (Foster's) revolver.

The Masonic Festival for the relief of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, was held in Wadesboro the other day, and was all that its most ardent friends could desire. The receipts, exclusive of necessary expenses, are roughly estimated at from $150 to $175.

Dr. F. J. Haywood, Sr., has been extremely ill for the last few days, but we are glad to learn is much better to-day, and we hope to chronicle his entire convalescence in a few days. He had a violent attack of cholera morbus.

Will Otey, our champion barber has added another chair to his neatest of shaving saloons, and employed a knight of the razor—Jonah Davis, popularly known to almost all to run the same. No waiting at this depot now. They'll fix you up ever so quick. Try them.

Mr. James H. Livesay, formerly a compositor in the "News" office, who made an attempt to commit suicide yesterday by cutting his throat is doing as well as could be expected, this morning, and is considered out of danger. He has periodically suffered fits of insanity, caused by a wound from a piece of exploded shell on his side face and head, that for a long time paralized his brain. He was thus affected when he attempted the rash deed. He will be taken to the Asylum as soon as his condition will permit.

TESTIMONIAL AND LIBERALITY.—We see by the New York World that, at the closing exercises for the academic year at the New York Institution for Deaf Mutes, the Carey testimonial was awarded to Alexander J. Andrews, of Raleigh, son of Mrs. Harriet Andrews, the well-known Milliner, and grandson of Mr. Albert Johnson, formerly Superintendent of the N. C. Railroad. This testimonial is given not for scholarship alone, but for good behavior as well. On handing it to him, Mr. Peet, the Principal of the Institution, said that, owing to the reduced circumstances of his family, Andrews would be compelled to leave without completing his course, when Mr. George A. Robbins, a member of the Board of Education, immediately assumed the responsibility of keeping the boy at school.

Woodson didn't like our telling about how near he came to securing the nomination for Coroner last Saturday, hence this morning he comes after us about a "dog" joke, and says we fell as "fur and heavy" as when Tom Collins let us down. We did have the present of a dog, and he ran away, but the way "Wood" was sold on Tom Collins would make the "dog" laugh to see him trying to put it on us. How are you Coroner?

THE NORTH CAROLINA MANUAL,

Published by authority and under the auspices of the General Assembly, will soon be issued under direction of the Secretary State.

The material for this work has been collected and prepared by JOHN H. WHEELER, Esq., who has spent a great deal of time and labor in completing it. As a hand book of reference, it will be the most complete and valuable work of the kind ever published in the State. No public man, or man of business, should be without a copy. It will be a book of about 300 pages.

Comprising a Map of the State; the counties and population of each, showing the Congressional and Senatorial districts; the Constitution of the United States, with late amendments; the Executive officers of the United States from the Revolution to 1874. An engraved diagram showing the movement of population from 1789 to 1870; the area of each State in square miles and the population of each and of every square mile; the ratio of representation in Congress at each Decade. The Constitution of North Carolina with recent amendments; the population of each county from its organization to 1870. Executive, Judicial and Legislative Departments of North Carolina; Statistical tables of the popular vote in each county, for President, Governor, Congress; a special statement of the qualified voters from records of census, distinguishing white from colored; the counties of the State, origin of name, with a list of Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly from date of formation to present session; and much other statistical and interesting matter, with full Index to the same.

The price of the book is $4.00 in fine cloth binding. Postage to be added when sent by mail.
