REGISTRATION.

A new registration is not required for the August election, but every man who has changed his residence since last election, must register or he cannot vote. Every voter who has heretofore registered, should spend one day in examining the registration books to see if his name is on them. Unless your name is on the books you cannot vote. See about your registration.

POLL HOLDERS ATTENTION.—Poll-holders will take notice that five seperate boxes are required at the election on the

1. Congress.
2. Judge and Solicitor.
3. Senators and Members of the House.
4. County officers.

WAKE COUNTY CANVASS.—The candidates of both parties will address the people at the following times and places to wit:

Little River—Wednesday, July 29th, at Robertson's Store.

Mark's Creek—Thursday, July 30th, at Hood's Store.

St. Matthews—Friday, July 31st, at Powell's Store.

St. Mary's—Saturday, August 1st, at Andrews' Store.

Swift Creek—Monday, August 3rd, at Franklin's.

Raleigh—Wednesday, August 5th, at Lovejoy's Grove.

Either side is at liberty to give such portion of their time as they may see fit to any announced candidate.

WHO DEFEATED COL. RUFFIN?

The friends of Colonel Ruffin say Jo Turner and his brothers, caused his defeat for the nomination for Judge. Jo Turner never spoke to but three men on the subject, His objection to Col. Ruffin was his want of health and constitution, to hold out for one judicial term, when a Radical Governor would fill his place with Tourgee or Jim Boyd He stated on all occasions that Col. Ruffin would be his first choice but for the state of his health. As to Jo Turner's brothers, two of them were riding to secure the nomination of Colonel Ruffin, and had their township to recommend him for the nomination. Col. Ruffin had no strength in any county of the district as against Judge Kerr. Col. Ruffin, since the war, has taken no part in politics. Judge Kerr has been bold, determined and active. It is said that Col. Ruffin was so doubting in his politics as actually to have voted for Red Eye Bill Albright when he lived in Alamance. Certain it is that Col. Ruffin has been very quiet when his country and neighbors were in trouble and distress, and wanting a word of encouragement from him.

If Judge Ruffin had been strong in health and quiet as he has been, we doubt if he could have received one in ten of the Democratic votes of the District over Judge Kerr for the nomination. It is now clear that Col. Ruffin is the Republican candidate if he is not a Republican. An Orange negro has been riding in Caswell and Person, claiming and proclaiming him as the Republican candidate. A horse and buggy was sent for him and returned him again to his home, the negro telling his friends that Sam Barnett and Col. Charles Winstead of the revenue department paid him $16 a week for canvassing. If Col. Ruffin is not a radical he will not deny that he is a brindletail. A brindletail being a man who will take office from either side. Brindletails are more deadly to our party than full fledged Radicals.

Thursday next is the day when the people should strike brindletails, as they would radicals.

GOING FOR GEORGE.

The Milton 'Chronicle' as will be seen in another colmn, goes for George Bason, the Chairman of the Executive Committee of his district. Mr. Bason called the Executive Committee together to consider the propriety of nominating a candidate in place of Mr. Strudwick. The committee did not approve of Mr. Bason's move, whereupon he declares himself a candidate against Mr. Strudwick. The bare recital of the facts put us where Kirk put the Judiciary, in a state of exhaustion. George kicks up too late against the ku klux.

A NOBLE BOY.

An old gentleman in Franklin expressed his intention to vote the radical ticket. His son, a lad of eighteen or nineteen, declared he would leave home for ever if he did. The old man insisted on voting the ticket when the boy marched off with his face towards the West. When he had gone one day's journey on foot, a messenger overtook him and informed him if he would return the old man would vote the Conservative ticket. The boy returned and no doubt the old man will keep his word.

COULD NOT AGREE.

In Franklin Colonel Pursey Green went out to reply to Mr. Headen, but they could not agree upon the time and order of speaking. The parties agreed to disagree and divide. Mr. Headen spoke to the negroes and Col. Green to the white people. The negroes would not stick, but soon left to hear Colonel Green. The Colonel has few superiors as a speaker.

SPEAK OUT GENTLEMEN.

The Orange candidates in their discussions slight Col. Ruffin. It is thought by some they fear his democratic kinfolks may not vote for them. Speak out gentlemen without regard to consequences. American politics now, henceforth and forever, will require as much courage, firmness and decision as a state of actual war.

SHOOT, LUKE, OR GIVE UP YOUR GUN.

We are not of those who believe in an indiscriminate "shooting" of "independent candidates," but

"Some pet the gun"

Take Mr. Bason over somewhere in Alamance county, and is Chairman of the Judicial District Executive Committee of this Judicial district. He called the Convention to nominate a conservative candidate for Judge and a candidate for District Attorney. When the delegates met at Graham this Mr. Bason organized the convention by calling it to order. That Convention nominated the Hon. John Kerr for Judge, and F. N. Strudwick for District Attorney. We heard of no complaint from Mr. Bason or any one else about the nominations. If they did not suit him, and if he called the Convention expecting it to nominate the men of his choice, why did he not make it known to the Convention at the time, and tell that body that he would not submit to its nomination for District Attorney unless he got the nomination? Not a word of complaint did the honorable Chairman of the Conservative District Executive Committee utter until some weeks after the nominations were made, when we heard of this Mr. Chairman suggesting the ignoring of Mr. Strudwick's nomination, on account of ku klux charges, and the propriety of nominating some one else. No one heeding his suggestion, he publishes a card in a radical paper announcing himself a candidate for the office of District Attorney!

Well, sir! that is decidedly "salty." It explains Mr. Bason's opposition to Mr. Strudwick's nomination. Mr. Bason wants the office for himself!!!!

We did not know that Mr. Bason professed to be a lawyer; but we infer from his announcement that he has seen a law book, if he never looked in one—to hunt —Milton Chronicle.

THE BEECHER SCANDAL.—When will this flood of filth, which rushes through the columns of the daily press like the refuse of a great city through its sewers, cease! We have had it ad nauseam, and cry out in our agony to be spared a further infliction. Whole columns appear each day in the New York papers, and yet there is no indication that it is drawing to a close; and even after this irregular investigation by the church we are threatened with a constant rehash of the whole scandal by suits insufferable in court, both civil and criminal—and where will it end? The demoralizing effects it has already had upon the public mind will be fearfully increased, and fain would we for the sake of decency, if not of religion, morality and charity, see it forever buried from the public sight.

HON. JOHN KERR.—In the whole State of North Carolina there is not a truer, a more upright, a more trustworthy citizen than he whose name heads this article. With a record untarnished by a single blot, with a character unblemished by a single spot, after years of trial and devotion he stands before you to-day the embodiment of unpurchasable honor, integrity and devotion to principle. While his political enemies assail him it is his virtues they attack. They cannot point their finger to a single blemish in him. Fearless, faithful, candid, unswerving in his defence of the right and denunciation of the wrong, an advocate of truth and justice under all circumstance, he commands the admiration of good men and the respect of his enemies.

In all their violent opposition to him and strenuous efforts to defeat him they have never once questioned his ability, his spotless purity and irreproachable life. If he were less true, less virtuous, they would be less hostile. They hate him for the attributes that give lustre to his name and will make it live in bright remembrance long after he and his enemies have been laid in the dust.

This is the man you have to vote for and whom you will honor yourselves by making Judge.

CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.

Many calls have been made upon us recently to publish the civil rights bill, though we did so at the time of its passage we are pleased to republish again, and again. We publish it as we would the infamy and roguery in Littlefield's day and time. The following are the provisions of the civil rights bill in full, as it passed the Senate on May 23d:

SEC. That all citizens and other persons within the jurisdiction of the United States be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, public conveyances on land or water, theatres and other places of public amusement, and also of common schools and public institutions of learning or benevolence supported, in whole or in part, by general taxation, and also institutions known as agricultural colleges endowed by the United States, and of cemeteries so supported, subject only to the conditions and limitations by law, and applicable alike to citizens of every race and color, regardless of any previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 2. That any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any person entitled to the benefits except for reasons by law applicable to the citizens of every race and color, and regardless of any previous condition of servitude, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges in said section enumerated, or by aiding or inciting such denial, shall for every such offense forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered in an action on the case, with full costs, and shall also, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, Provided, That the party aggrieved shall not recover more than one penalty; and when the offense is a refusal of burial, the penalty may be recovered by the heirs at law of the person whose body has been refused burial. And provided further, That all persons may elect to sue for the penalty aforesaid, or to proceed under their rights at common law and by State statutes, and having so selected to pro-not also liable. But this section shall not be held to affect any criminal prosecution under this act or the criminal law of any state.

Sec. 3. That the district and circuit courts of the United States shall have, exclusively of the courts of the several States, cognizance of all crimes and offenses against and violations of the provisions of this act and actions for the penalty given by the preceding section may be prosecuted in the territorial district or circuit courts of the United States wherever the defendant may be found, without regard to the other party, and the district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals, of the United States and commissioners appointed by the circuit and territorial courts of the United States, with powers of arresting and imprisoning or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, are hereby specially authorized and required to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned or bailed, as the case may be, for the trial before such court of the United States or territorial court as by law has cognizance of the offence, except in the respect of the right of action accruing to the person aggrieved, and such district attorneys shall cause such proceedings to be prosecuted to their termination as in other cases. Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny or defeat any right of civil action accruing to any person, whether by reason of this act or otherwise.

Sec. 4. That no citizen possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law shall be qualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States, or of any State, on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude, and any officer or other person charged with any duty in the selection or summoning jurors who shall exclude or fail to summon any citizen for the cause aforesaid shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not more than $1,000.

Sec. 5. That all cases arising under the provisions of this act in the courts of the United States shall be reviewable by the Supreme Court of the United States without regard to the sum in controversy, under the same provisions and regulations as are now provided by law for the review of other causes in said court.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PEERLESS STEAM WASHER AND BLEACHER.
THE LATEST, BEST AND CHEAPEST ASHE MADE.
That Steam Washers are better than others is now generally conceded. That the Peerless is the best of Steam Washers will be as readily admitted by every one who sees it and tries it with others.
Its construction is such as to rush the largest quantity of water through the clothing in the shortest time, and to compell all the water to go where it is desired, and prevent its going anywhere else. It has no bungling valves to make the water flow by fits and cease to flow at intervals—but causes it to flow steadily—pouring sixteen streams on the whole surface of the clothing. Then the water has not to descend to the centre or both ends of the false bottom to get back to its starting point but goes straight down from where it falls, washing all parts of the clothing—now untouched by its rapid current. It rushes through the clothing many times per minute and cleans them in 15 to 30 minutes.
The cost of the machine may be saved very soon in difference in wear of the clothes.
It may be saved very soon in the difference of labor required.
A machine made to fit, can be used with any stove boiler or the boiler for the machine may be used for any other purpose.
This machine sells for less than any of its kind, and will do the work quicker and more thoroughly. As its name indicates it is PEERLESS AMONG ALL.
They are made of best tin. The boiler with galvanized iron bottom, will last many years and are sold at the following low

DIXIE PLOW! DIX PLOW!!
Is now without a rival, it cuts a deeper and wider furrow—its mechanical arrangement for altering cut is more simple and efficient than any other plow on the market, self sharpening, turnable points, the greatest plow improvement of the age. Ask Rev. J. W. J. Crowder and Col. J W B Watson, what they think of this plow. Call and examine it or send your orders to
