He charges that the committee is composed Beecher's friends, appointed by cher, and expected to act in his behalf.

He also says the daily papers have been carefully fed each day with crumbs of fictitious syidence against his own character as if he, and not Beecher, was on trial. And further remarks: "It is right, perhaps, to hold your committee respon for their daily misrepresentation, which may come through the malice of others, yet the result is the same to me as if you had deliberately designed it; and that re-suit is this, namely : & I expect no justice either from your trial, since you cannot compel witnesses to testify, nor from your reporters, since they do not give impartial reports. I cannot resist the conviction, though I mean no offence in expressing it, that your committee has come at last to be as little satisfactory to the public as to myelf, and that your verdict if you render one, could not possibly be based on full facts, sinc: you have no power to compel wit nesses to testafy nor to verify their testi-meny by oath, nor to sift it by cross-ex-

MR. C. P. KMIGHT—DEAR SIR: It affords me much pleasure to say to you that the Bradley Patent Example Paint far exceeds my expectations in economy, beauty, and I have every reason to believe in durability. More than twelve months since, i painted the roof of my house (Mausion House) with the Bradley Patent Enamel Paint, and I was so well pleased with it, I attermined to paint the fronts of the "Hotel," and I am most happy to say that it gives me perfect satisfaction. In conclusion I will say, if this testimonial will be of any adventage to you, you are at liberty to use it.

Yours most respectfully, 18AAC ALBERTSON, Mansion House Hotel Cor. Fayette and St. Paul Sts., Baltimore.
