TO THE WHOLLBALE TRADE

Judging the fature by the past, we enter with cost lience upon the our new enterprise of separating our Wholesale from our ketali Trade, by having a separate and distinct House for each; and in doing so we fature ourselves that it will not only meet the approval of our numerous customers, but that an "Exclusive Wholesale House" will bring us a large lafter of new trade, and of a character not heretofore enjoyed. It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly "Wholesale House," arranged and adapted for that trade only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale Salesmen. With a Stock carefully effected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coving in contact with retail buyers, which we mad you all have heretofore found to be so irk-some, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (perhaps your own customer), buch a house, we asset, must and will commend itself to the trade.

Four years ago we advertised that we in-your own customer). Such a house, we assert, must and will commend itself to the trade.

Four years ago we advertised that we intended to make Charlotte a wholesale must and ours "The Wholesale House," We now have the proud satisfacti a of seeing it an accemplished fact.

We now call your attention to the fact that we have converted our superb store into an exclusive Wholesale House, where you can find all lines of goods necessary for country atore, lo-wit: Bry Goods, ( lething, Boots, Phoes, Hats, Notions, Groceries, Hardware, Millinery, all in complete lines, bought in large quantities and from the very first hands.

Our stock is now arriving and will be complete shout the lat of September, and will be the largest of any here, the pretensions of others to the soutrary notwithstanding. We respectfully invite your personal inspection, or write to us for circulars

Very truly yours,

Now, a few words about that. We now occupy the superb house heretofore so favorably known as the Mestra. Beem, Brown a Co's., Dry Goods House, to carry on our Betail business, and as "Excelsior" is, and has always has been, our motto, we claim also in that line to excel in atock, to excel in lowness of prices, and to excel generally. We will, in that house, have a corps of thirty Salesmen, and Sales-Ladies, all experienced, effable, and oblights.

We will make the Millinery branch a speciality.

A Song AT HEAVEN'S GATE -We have the sad duty this morning of recording the painful and sudden death of Miss Mary Louise Hubert, at Stone Ridge, on Sunday morning. She was the daughter of Rev. Victor M. Hulbert, pastor of the R. D. Church of that place, and had always taken a great deal of interest in the choir of the church, of which her brother is the leader, giving it the aid of her clear, sweet roice wheneve: she was at home. On Susday morning, after the giving out of the first hymn, the choir arose and sung as usual, Miss Hulbert being one of the sing-ers in a duct. At the close of the last They said it would have made an angel lines the notes were very high. She sang them in an unusually clear strong voice, and then sat down, but scarcely touched the seat when she fell towards her brother and threw her arms around his neck, She remained conacious, though, blind, for three quarters of an hour, and then became insensible. She was carried to a house screen the street and died at 10 o'clock. The physicians say her death was caused by the breaking of a blood vessel in the brain, superinduced by the exertion in singing: Deceased was twenty three years of age, a lady of fine accomplishments and personal attractions of the highest order. 5 meeting not long ago a man, clad in a thin lines unit, rested himself du one of the rickety benches beside a fat man who occupied a full one-third of the concern. When the pervices were ended the fat man arose, and the gentleman in thin linen suddenly began twisting about in a surprising manner, while his countenanwas significant of mortal anguish. Hi actions attracted the attention of some of the brethren, and one of them, a solemovisaged individual who looked as though he had just swallowed a pill, approach the writhing body, and laid his band or the man's shoulder and said; "Brother, the man's shoulder and said: "Brother, if you are resisting the promptings of the Evil One, strive manfully, and you will triumph at last. Remember Joseph wrestled with the angel, and —" "I dunno but he did," interrupted the agonized man; "but if Jacob had the seat of his trowners and a little of his meat caught in a condemned crack he wouldn't feel like rasin' with an angel or any other critter!"

BAD COUNTRY FOR DEACONS,-Not far from Houston, at a place called Norswor-thy's a protracted meeting was in progress. In the pleutitude of religious zeal a worthy descen felt called upon to paint all the terrors of an "awful hell" to the congregation in general, and to certain roung ladies who had "backelid," and who kept far back in the congregation, is particular. The appeal seemed to fall upon stony hearts. The good deacon looked for an effect but no effect followed. He cast his eye to the seats occupied by the "backslidden" maidens. Horrora! There they eat, not only unmoved, but sotually smiling seronely upon their "fel-lows." This was more than the pure in heart could endure. With holy fervor he singled out the young ladies named them, and said unpleasant things con-cerning their frivolity and trifling beha-vior. The "fellows" took counsel—they were knightly fallows, and agreed that the Jeacon descreed a 'Licking,' On Bunday they went to church, invited the descen to a conterence in a grove and they there proceeded to demolish his physiognomy.
