PETTY AND JONES.—This popular firm hardly knew the panic was on the country. The harder the times the lower their price for goods, and now they come with every thing fresh, new and fashionable.

LOCKED FOR.—The Judges elect, Messrs. Cloud and Watts, have been locked for the last two days in the Supreme Court room, and will be kept there until they have disposed of the business before the Court. Then they will be released, and will have to enter upon the duties of their office. Judge Bynum will administer the oath when they arrive.

WHOLESALE BUSINESS.—Charlotte is ready to march; no town exceeds it in pluck and enterprise. See the advertisement of Wittkowsky & Rintels. Such men can make a town out of a village, and a city out of a town. Success to the firm and prosperity to the town.

CAROLINA MILITARY INSTITUTE.—We have received the official register of this institution for the years 1873-'74, with a circular for 1874-'5 appended. We are glad to learn the flourishing condition of this institution. With a corps of Professors such as Thomas Lynes, Cain and Houston, this institution must take rank among the first in the South.

OATH OF OFFICE.—At the capitol today at 11 o'clock, Judge Kerr was sworn in as Judge of the —— Congressional district.

A commission was signed and issued by Governor Brogden to F. N. Strudwick, as Solicitor for the same district.

Judge Kerr, on Monday next, will administer the oath of office to Mr. Strudwick, at Graham Court.

CITY FINANCE.—The tax-payers of the city by this issue will learn what about their debt and the way to meet it. $166,000 of debt for a city of ten thousand inhabitants is quite enough. That it is not double is a wonder. This city has 34 more white men in it than negroes, yet negroes control it. We know such a state of things cannot last long. The city government must change or city script will sell as low as the Josie special tax bonds.

PERSONAL.—Judge Kerr is in the city and will take the oath of office preliminary to his holding court in Alamance next week. What a change from Tourgee to Kerr.

Capt. Jo. Davis is in the city. 1,628 is his majority.

Capt. Chas. M. Cook, Senator from Franklin, was in the city yesterday.

Governor Graham is here on his way to Rock Alum Springs, Va. Holden says he is the only statesman among us. Of course he means to except the postmaster in Raleigh.

Judge Cantwell is not in the city, but a mighty digging is kept up upon his city property.

Judge Bynum, wife and daughter are at the National, after a visit to Beaufort for the daughter's health.

He thinks sea breezes as delightful as the mountain air, and catching blue fish more exciting than catching mountain trout. We regret to state that Miss Bynum's health was not improved by the trip.

GOVERNOR ELLIS.—We learn from the Carolina Watchman that a fit and creditable monument has been erected over the grave of the late Gov. Ellis, at Salisbury. With the exception of the pedestal, which is of granite, the monument is of fine marble, very nicely polished. It is about eleven feet high, surmounted with a cross; and stands side by side with a simple shaft 8 or 9 feet high, erected by the late Governor, years ago, to the memory of his wife, Mary White, daughter of the Hon. Philo and Nancy R. White. Beautiful and lovely in their youth, these monuments, handsome and tasteful though they be, but poorly commemorate the persons and the lives of those whom they represent.

INSCRIPTION ON GOV. ELLIS' MONUMENT.

On the front Panel of the "Die": In commemoration of the life and public services of JOHN W. ELLIS, who was born in Rowan county, N. C., Nov. 23, 1820, and died July 7th, 1861.

On the right side Panel: Erected as an affectionate memento of the many virtues and noble attributes of the late Governor JOHN W. ELLIS; by Mr. and Mrs. PHILO WHITE, and other relatives, 1874.

On the left side Panel: Gov. ELLIS was educated at the University of North Carolina, and adopted the profession of law at his graduation. He was two years a member of the Legislature; nine years a Judge of the Superior Courts; twice elected Governor, and died at the age of 41 years, while yet in the office as Executive of the State.

On the reverse Panel: "The memory of the just is blessed."

In these varied and responsible positions, as in all the relations of private life he displayed a high order of talent, of moral worth, and of patriotic devotion to the best interests of his native State.

SELMA, August 21, 1874.

MR. EDITOR:—The first duty of the Senate will be to elect a presiding officer, and for the position I suggest the name of L. R. Waddell, of Johnston. Mr. Waddell has some legislative experience, and is well versed in parliamentary law. This, with his prompt action and quick perception, will make him an excellent presiding officer.

CATAWBA SPRINGS, N. C.,
August 13th, 1874.

MR EDITOR:—Rest is too precious to yield many sweet moments to the pen. Days of freedom come too seldom to be broken by voluntary toil. Hence you will excuse the brevity of my letter. If you have never visited this place, you cannot imagine the lavish partiality of nature towards it. To those who desire to find one of the prettiest and pleasantest retreats even in the sultry heat and the coolest and mornings are delightful. To those who were quiet within doors, this morning here, was so cold as to render fire very comfortable.

The Springs were first opened about 21 years ago by Dr. Elliott, the present proprietor. The attendance is now increasing year by year. The visitors are from North and South Carolina. Judge Merrimon, who has been here for some time, left to-day, and he and his family go to Asheville to morrow. Judge Watts also made a brief visit and left this morning. Dr. Elliott has shown himself very kind and accommodating to all. The clerk is the oldest son of the late Hon. Robert McLean, of Greensboro'. He is a young man of very estimable qualities—indulgently kind to the guests and ever ready to show the spirit of a friend and brother. His orphaned youth has thus far been peculiarly honorable—a genuine heroism.

Among the peculiarities of this place I must mention that since my arrival I have not heard a real oath or seen any sign of indulgence in ardent spirits by any one. Yesterday—the Sabbath—passed almost as quietly as in any community under home influences. There was preaching in the forenoon, and a beautiful service of song in the parlor during the evening. All seem harmonious and full of kindness, and if you politicians and editors would come up and join the company, you might reasonably expect to be benefitted in more respects than mineral water generally promises.

The crowd at present is large and there are almost daily arrivals. W.

Not being a subscriber my attention has been called to an editorial that appears in your paper on the 17th instant. The subject matter of some of your remarks come immediately under my supervision The saloons are not and have not been filthy or offensive on the departure of the cars, or are the cars filled or have vermin unless your informant was a second class passenger, and took vermin in with him. THE DEBT OF THE CITY OF RALEIGH.

To the Holders of Bonds and Script of the City of Raleigh:

Anxious to do something for the relief of the creditors of the city, and to shape the debt that the interest will be promptly paid, for several months the Board of City Commissioners have had the subject under consideration, and have enacted the following ordinance as the result of their labors.

We therefore appeal to our citizens who hold city scrip and overdue bonds, to come forward and exchange the same for the new bonds authorized by this ordinance. Without the aid of the creditors of the city nothing can be done, but with their assistance the city debt can be so arranged that, with judicious management in the future, the interest can be promptly paid every six months, and the bonds met at maturity.

We respectfully appeal to our citizens to come forward and aid us in carrying out the provisions of this ordinance, which has been passed in good faith, and with a sincere hope that it will meet the views of the public generally.

Very respectfully,
JNO. NICHOLS, Treas.
D. L. ROYSTER,
J. C. PALMER, Com.
J. R. O'NEAL,

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE FUNDING OF THE CITY SCRIPT, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Whereas, Prudence and economy, as also a due regard for the interest of the creditors of the city and the protection of its future credit, urgently demand that the amount of the funded and present unfunded or script debt, should be accurately ascertained, and some plan devised for the ultimate payment of the same:

And Whereas, It is the desire and intention of the Board, by a rigid system of economy, to reduce expenses to the smallest practicable amount, consonant with a safe and faithful administration of the city government, and to apply every cent not necessary, to defray those expenses, in payment of the indebtedness of the city; and so far as in the power of the Board, it is their intention to restrict the issue of script to the smallest amount, and to discontinue the same as soon as possible so as to protect from loss the honest employees of the city. Now, therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it Ordained, That there shall be prepared under the supervision of the Mayor and Treasurer, bonds of the City of Raleigh, of the denominations of $50, $100, and $500, bearing interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and of an amount sufficient to meet the requirements of this ordinance; and such bonds shall be under the Seal of the City of Raleigh, signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Treasurer, and shall be issued as provided for in section three of this ordinance.

Sec. 2. Be it further Ordained, That the bonds authorized by the foregoing section shall be dated on the first day of the month next succeeding their issue, one-fourth of which shall be payable one year after date, one-fourth two years after date, and one half three years after date; and each and every holder of the script or warrants on the City Treasurer, or of bonds now due, or which may become due, when presented in amounts of $50 and upwards, shall be entitled to exchange the same for the bonds authorized to be issued by this ordinance; and whenever presented in sums of a less amount than fifty dollars, the holder or holders thereof, shall receive therefor a certificate of indebtedness, in such form as may be prescribed, bearing interest as the bonds above provided, dated in the same manner and of like tenor.

Sec. 3. Be it further Ordained, That the Board of City Commissioners shall, upon the passage of this ordinance, elect two well-known citizens and freeholders of the city of Raleigh, whose duty it shall be to witness the Bonds and Certificates of indebtedness, and to cancel all Script, Bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness, which may be presented for exchange; and no Bond or Certificate of Indebtedness shall be legal until so witnessed; and the Treasurer shall keep a book in which shall be recorded the date, number, amount, term, and to whom issued, of such Bond or Certificate of Indebtedness which may be issued by authority of this ordinance.

Sec. 4. Be it further Ordained, That the coupons, or the interest due and accruing on said bonds or certificates of indebtedness, shall be received in payment of city taxes, and other indebtedness to the city, and when presented for that purpose, the said coupons shall be cut off and paid over to the collector of taxes, and in case there are no coupons, such interest shall be credited on the bond or certificate, and the holder thereof shall give a receipt to the Collector as his voucher for the payment of the same.

Sec. 5. Be it further Ordained, That from and after the first day of October, A. D., 1874, no Script or Warrant upon the City Treasurer, shall be received in payment of city taxes, or other indebtedness thereof, unless for the taxes of those to whom the Script or Warrant was originally issued; but the same may be exchanged for the bonds or certificates of indebtedness authorized by this ordinance.

Be it further Ordained, That of the taxes annually collected, after the current year, there shall be set aside a sum sufficient to pay off the bonds that may become due during the year, and that the sum so set aside shall not be used for any other purpose until all the bonds and certificates of indebtedness so due shall have been paid off.

Sec. 7. Be it further Ordained, That the Mayor and Treasurer are hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds for a longer period than three years, upon the application of holders of bonds already issued, or of holders of City Script or Warrants on the City Treasurer, but all [illegible] shall be under the same [illegible]

Sec. 8 Be it further Ordained, That the City Treasurer shall, annually, before the taxes are levied, submit a report to the Board of commissioners, stating the amount of bonds, certificates of indebtedness and interest coming due during said year, and the commissioners shall levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off the same.

Sec. 9, Be it further Ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved August 13, 1874.

The Clerk was instructed to have this ordinance published in two of the city papers, and have 250 copies printed for public distribution.

Under section three of the above ordinance, Messrs. Alfred Williams and Jeff Fisher were appointed to act with the Mayor and Treasurer. The bonds will be ready by the first of September, and due notice will be given when the committee will be ready to make the exchange.

The following report shows the financial condition of the city, the estimated expenses, and sources from which its revenue is derived:

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 13, 1874.

Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen of the Board:

Your committee appointed to prepare a statement as to the financial condition of the city, submit the following report, to-wit:

They find the total bonded debt and interest to 1st January, 1874, inclusive, to be, in round numbers, about one hundred and twenty-six thousand dollars, and of Script in circulation forty thousand dollars, making a grand total of one hundred and sixty-six thousand dollars.

The revenue of the city from taxes we find to be about forty-two thousand dollars, from rent of Market House and other sources about eight thousand dollars, making a total of fifty thousand dollars; from this amount must be deducted the the amount necessary to carry on the city government, improvements, &c., estimated at thirty-six thousand dollars, which would leave a balance of fourteen thousand dollars with which to redeem Script and pay interest.

Respectfully,
Your ob't SERVT'S,
W. C. STRONACH,
Ch'm.

"DANBURY" AT WESTMINSTER ABBEY. Bailey writes as follows: "You are rushed about from point to point, and from trying to store your mind with impressions you fail to look out for your legs. You are up to your neck in romance, and over your head in history, and your whole performance is a reckless and aimless effort to claw your way out. The impressions which you receive are but transitory they come and go like a flash, and after you are bowed out of doors you feel as if you had taken a prominent part in a boiler explosion, and are just about as clear as to the details. I passed by scores of kings and queens and peers entombed, I walked over acres of others, and wondered how they could be so careless with their dead. I got up from the service which I witnessed on entering the building, and found I had been sitting on an entire family."

Is now without a rival, it cuts a deeper and wider furrow—its mechanical arrangement for altering cut is more simple and efficient than any other plow on the market, self sharpening reversible points, the greatest plow improvement of the age. FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY

DAY FIXED

FOR DRAWING AT NIGHT

ON

MONDAY 30TH NOVEMBER, 1874.

LAST CHANCE

AN EASY FORTUNE!

A postponement of the Fifth Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky has been so generally anticipated, and is so manifestly for the interest of all concerned that it must meet the approval of all. The day is now absolutely fixed and there will be no variation from the programme now announced. A sufficient number of tickets had been sold to have enabled us to have had a large drawing on the 21st July, but a short postponement was considered preferable to a partial drawing. Let it be borne in mind that

THE FIFTH GIFT CONCERT

IS THE LAST WHICH WILL EVER BE GIVEN UNDER THIS CHARTER AND BY THE PRESENT MANAGEMENT.

That it will positively and unequivocally take place as announced on

MONDAY, 30TH NOVEMBER,

that the music will be the best the country affords, and that

TO THE WHOLESALE TRADE.

Judging the future by the past, we enter with confidence upon this our new enterprise, of separating our Wholesale from our Retail Trade, by having a separate and distinct House for each; and in doing so we flatter ourselves that it will not only meet the approval of our numerous customers, but that an "Exclusive Wholesale House" will bring us a large influx of new trade, and of a character not heretofore enjoyed.

It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly "Wholesale House," arranged and adapted for that trade only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale Salesmen, with a Stock carefully selected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coming in contact with retail buyers, which we and you all have heretofore found to be so irksome, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (perhaps your own customer). Such a house, we assert, must and will commend itself to the trade.

Four years ago we advertised that we intended to make Charlotte a wholesale mart and ours "The Wholesale House." We now have the proud satisfaction of seeing it an accomplished fact.

We now call your attention to the fact that we have converted our superb store into an exclusive Wholesale House, where you can find all lines of goods necessary for a country store, to-wit: Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Notions, Groceries, Hardware, Millinery, all in complete lines, bought in large quantities and from the very first hands.

Our stock is now arriving and will be complete about the 1st of September, and will be the largest of any here, the pretensions of others to the contrary notwithstanding. We respectfully invite your personal inspection, or write to us for circulars.

Very truly yours,
WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS.

RETAIL.

Now, a few words about that. We now occupy the superb house heretofore so favorably known as the Messrs. Brem, Brown & Co's., Dry Goods House, to carry on our Retail business, and as "Excelsior" is, and has always has been, our motto, we claim also in that line to excel in stock, to excel in lowness of prices, and to excel generally. We will, in that house, have a corps of thirty Salesmen, and Sales-Ladies, all experienced, affable, and obliging.

We will make the Millinery branch a specialty.
