to-day: LONG BRANCH, N. J., General W. W. Belknap, Secretary of

The recent attrocities in the South, par ticularly in Louisians, Alabama, and South Carolina, show a disregard for civil rights and personal protection that ought not to be tolerated in any civilized government. It looks as if unless speedily checked, matters must become worse until life and property there will receive Under such circumstances it is the duty of the government to give all the and fee

Ostroges already committed and the road lties where the greatest danger lies, and so order troops as to be available in cases of necessity. All proceeding for the protec-tion of the South will be under the direc-tion of the law department of the govern-ment, and will be elected by the Attorney General in accordance with the provisions of the Enforcement Acts. No instructions need therefore be given the troops ordered into the Southern States except as they may be transmitted from time to time on advice from the Attorney General or as circumstances may deter mine hereafter.

Yours traly, U. S. GRANT."

Later-As a result of the conference held at the War Department this morn ing between Secretarys Bristow, Belknap and Attorney General Williams, the following circular was issued this afternoon at 2 o'clock to U.S. Attorneys and Marshale. It has the approval of the President. The substantial parts of the same have been communicated to him during an interview with the Attorney General at Long Branch :

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, Washington, Sept. 4, 1874.

Sin :- Outrages of various descriptions and in some cases attrocious murders have been committed in your district by bodier of armed men, sometimes in disguise, and with the view it is believed, of overawing and intimidating peaceable and inv shiding citizens, and depriving them of the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution and laws of the United States Your attention is directed to as act of Congress passed April 9th, 1866, entitled "An act to protect all persons in the United States in their civil rights, and to furnish means for their vindication, and to another passed April 20th, 1870 entitled "An act to enforce the provisions of the 14th amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and for other purposes." Also to one passed May 30,1870 entitled "An act to enforce the right of citi zens of the United States to vote in several States of this Union and for other purposes, which with their amendments, make these deeds of violence and blood shed offences within the jurisdiction of the general government. I consider it my duty in view of these circumstances. to instruct you to proceed with all poss ble energy and dispatch to detect, exposarrest and punish the perpetrators of these crimes, etc. To that end you are to spare no effort or necessary expense. T.oops of the United States will be stationed at different and convenient points in your district for the purpose of giving all needful aid in the discharge of your official duties. You understand of course that no interference whatever is hereby intended with any political or party action not in violation of the law, but protection to all classes of citizens, white and colored, in the free enjoyment of the chetive franchise and the enjoyment of the other rights and privileges to which they are entitled under the Constitution and laws as citizens of the United States . These instructions are issued by the authority of the President, and with the concurrence of the Secretary of War.

Very respectful'y, GRO. H. WILLIAMS, Attorney General.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS IN CON FERENCE ON THE CONDITION OF AFEAIRS IN THE SOUTH. WAMEROTON, Sept. 3-1.

Attorney General Williams returned to Washington from Long Branch this morning.

Secretary Bulkasp has also returned and a consultation was held at the War Department to-day between the Attorney General, Secretary Belknap, and Secretary Bristow. The conference, it is understood, had reference to the condition of aff ure in the South. Senator Chandler, who is here, arrived at the War Department during the consultation, and in attendance. What the results of this meeting are, extraot be definitely ascertained at this hour, but it is ted by excellent authority that immediate official action of an important character will be taken. Senator West had an interview with the Secretary of War this morning.

NOMINATION OF MR. STEPHENS

On the one hundred and tenth ballot the vote stood: Stephens 80 2 5, Cumming 17 8-5. The name of J. B. Cumming was withdrawn at half past four o'cleck this morning, the Couvention being in session all night, and a motion was made by Governor Jenkins to make the nomination of Mr. Stephens unanimous. This was done at the request of Cumming, who appeared before the Convention. Mr. Stephens was declared the nomines of the democratic party, and the Convention adjourned.

NORTH CAROLINA TO THE WHOLISALE TRADE

Jadging the future by the past, we enter with confidence upon this our new enterprise, of separating our Wholesale from our lettell Trade, by having a separate and distinct House for each; and in doing so we fishes operate our superior of our pumpers castomers, but that as "Exclusive Wholesale House" will bring in a large femine of new trade, and of a character not herefore enjoyed. It must be obvious to every buyer that a strictly "Wholesale House," arranged and dapted for that tende only, with a corps of experienced Wholesale Salemmen, with a Block carefully selected for that Trade only, and moreover, the avoidance of coming in contact with retail buyers, which we and you all have hereafore found to be so irksome, as it frequently happens that the retail buyer is your very neighbor, (parhage your on a customer), such a liquid, we are trade.

Four years ago we advertised that we in-tended to make Charlotte a wholesale must and ours "The Wholesale House." We now have the proud satisfaction of seeing it as secomplished fact.

We now call your stanton to the fact that we have covered our superb store into an that shock is note arriving and will become be the largest of any nore, the preferations of others to the contrary notwitistanuous.

WITTEOWSKY, & KINTELS,

Now, a few words about that. We now compy the superb house herstofore so fe-rably known as the Mesers. Brem, Brown coupy the worn as the Messus. Brem, Brown of Co's., Bry Goods House, to carry on our fictall business, and as "Excelsior" is, and has always has been, our motto, we claim also in that line to excel in stock, to excel in lowness of prices, and to excel generally. We will, in that house, have a corps of thirty Salesmen, and Sales-Ladies, all experienced, effable, and oblighon.

We will make the Millinery branch a speciality, we will make the Millinery branch a speciality.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and rure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, anctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in late most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side. Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
