MONSTER BAPTISM.

We learn there was a monster baptism near the Johnston county line on yesterday. As many as fifteen hundred persons were present.

THE FIRST SALE OF NEW COTTON.

The Richmond Enquirer says the first sale of new cotton from Halifax County, Va.,

Thursday, they had offered a premium of $25 for the first bale of cotton assigned to them from any county in North Carolina.

PERSONAL.

Col. William Johnston, of Charlotte, arrived in the city to-day and is stopping with his son-in-law Captain A. B. Andrews.

Judge Watts passed through the city this morning from his Western court en route to his home at Franklinton.

Col. John W. Hindsale, a prominent young lawyer of Fayetteville, N. C., paid us a pleasant call to-day.

THE GEORGE HOOPER COMBINATION.

This splendid troupe of theatricals will give one performance only in this city, at the Tucker Hall, on Thursday night, on their Southern tour.

James Smith, of Auburn, was thrown from his buggy by his horse running away Friday last, having one of his legs broken.

Wake County Council of 15 Granges organized Saturday by the election of M. A. Slesor, Esq., as Master, and P. P. Faison, Esq., as Secretary.

Wm. H. Pepper is fitting up a store adjoining Mr. George Tonoffski, for a wholesale liquor establishment.

Mr. George T. Stronach intends at an early day commencing the erection of a handsome store building on Martin St., upon the ground known as the Williams lot.

Capt. Williston's company of Federal troops goes to Marion, N. C., to-day, and leaving one company (Capt. Hamilton's) at the garrison in this city.

Phil. Walker has purchased two of Callender's elegant billiard tables which will shortly be placed in his new saloon in the basement of the Yarboro House.

One of the best of writers of the present time asks: What will not a woman do for the man she loves?

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Jenkins, wife of Alonzo T. Jenkins, Esq., near Company Shops, formerly of Newberne. He remains pass through the city to-morrow on their way to the latter place for internment.

George Stronach caught a sheephead fish weighing 10 1/2 pounds at Beaufort last week, while out on a big fishing excursion.

A young woman tried to be a high-flyer and did not look to the money that she gave to the omnibus conductor, but he meekly gave her back the change on which it was written, "I'll never come to love thee," and he said he was an orphan with five little brothers to support and must be contented.

Judge Henry closed his court at Lenoir on Thursday giving general satisfaction. Too much noise being made by attendants in the court room he imposed a fine of $50 upon Sheriff Wynne for not preserving order, and little Jimmie made it lively with his stick thereafter in keeping things quiet.

Messrs. George H. Snow and Charles M. Babes, Attorneys for the Board of County Commissioners, have been appointed to examine Treasurer Magin's books and report to the Board Wednesday next. The Board met at the Poor House to-day and meet at the Work House to-morrow.

THE GREAT SHOW.—In addition to the fifty cages of animals that old John Robinson presents in his great show pageant are five golden Charlots the Massive Tabouret Cars of Crimson and Gold. The magnificent Pony Chariot, the Splendid Band Wagons, &c., &c. All of which can be witnessed in the grand street display which takes place on the 23rd October, that being the day on which old John Robinson's Great Show visits Raleigh.

FACTIOUS.—The New York Times suggests that neither Moses nor Chamberlain should be nominated for Governor of South Carolina by the Republicans, but that the nomination should be conferred upon a new man "whose integrity is beyond question."

A telegram received in this city Saturday night says Chamberlain received the nomination.

STATE NEWS.

1,000 boxes tobacco shipped from Reidsville one day last week.

In front of the Charlotte opera house the Nicholson pavement is to be laid.

M. Ochs bought the Piedmont warehouse in Reidsville last Tuesday for $5,000.

A new colored company was formed at Point Caswell, fifty-six strong Thursday.

Mr. Avery is slowly recovering from his illness.

The members of the Corner Bank in Washington have received their new instruments.

Miss Constance F. Woodson, contributor to Scribner and Atlantic Monthly, was in Salisbury last week.

The Warrington Weekly says Mr. W. Barwell, of Rathbush, sold his crop of tobacco last week for six thousand dollars.

Interesting revivals of religion have been in progress last week at Lawsonville and at Richardson's School House, in Guilford county.

F. H. DeLace salutes the patrons of the Lincoln Progress, in its last issue as Editor. Falling eyesight caused Mr. Seagle to retire from the chair.

A proposition to establish water works in Charlotte, at a cost not to exceed $75,000 or $100,000, meets with favorable consideration. Raleigh should give attention to this matter.

The Rocky Mount Mail says: "About half of the town of Kingsboro, Edgecombe county, was consumed by fire last Saturday night. It is believed to be the work of an incendiary."

The Charlotte Observer says: "Mrs. M. J. Brady has been appointed postmistress at Davidson College, vice T. J. Allison, Esq. Davidson College is now a money order office."

The Observer: "At 10:30 on Thursday, the 10th inst., the first soil was broken on the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad," thus inaugurating an enterprise of incalculable advantage to Asheville, to Spartanburg, and to all the country through which the road will pass; and to great advantage to Cincinnati and Charleston, as well as intermediate points.

Charlotte Observer: "Mr. T. G. Arrington, of the Raleigh Circus Company, was in the city to-day or two ago. We understand that his corps of actors is not yet complete. His business in Charlotte was to find a red headed man to take charge of the elephant." Tom is baggage-smashing it on the Central Road till his agents in Alaska report.—SENTINEL.

Reidsville Record: "We are glad to be able to state that the negro (Barton Graves, who broke into Colonel Seale's residence in Greensboro, and stole his wife's watch, was arrested at his home on Haw River, last Monday night. The arrest was made about twelve o'clock at night. The thief was found secreted in the upper portion of the chimney. He is now in Greensboro jail and we hope will be hung."

Wilson Advance: "Mr. Garry Williamson, of Old Fields Township brought to town on Wednesday, and sold 300 pounds of nicely cured bacon of his own raising, and realized 17 cents per pound for it. This looks like good old times, and if more of our farmers would do like Mr. Williamson, we would hear less of hard times and have a more prosperous country."

Fayetteville Gazette: "A meeting of the directors of the Fayetteville and Florence R. R. was held last evening. We learn that certain modifications proposed by Mr. Baker on his first contract were not favorably viewed by the members of the board, the original contract being preferred. We have been informed that another meeting will be held in a few days, when it is thought that work can be straightway commenced."

Statesville Landmark: "Just as we go to press a letter from Wilkesboro informs us of the killing of William Wagoner, at the house of Jonathan Stamper, in Alleghany county, on the 3d ult. Troy Stamper and Milton Stamper are charged with the homicide, and are now in jail. The difficulty originated in a horse swap. Both parties, and others present, were drinking."

The Asheville Citizen has an editorial upon the recent efforts of Theo. N. Ramsey, the Good Templar lecturer, in the western portion of the State, in which the Citizen speaks most complimentary of this young lecturer. Says that paper: "This season he has devoted himself to counties west of the Blue Ridge, and has organized some 17 or 19 flourishing Lodges. In Burke, Caldwell, and Oatawaha he met with great success. God will, that his success may continue. Mr. R. has no income—is allowed a small charter fee for every Lodge he organizes, out of which he must pay all his expenses. The grand lodge meets in Newberne on the 4th Tuesday in this month, and we sincerely hope this body may show some tangible appreciation of Mr. Ramsey's noble service, by electing him to a position with a salary, which will both enhance his facilities for good to the order and the better keep him in the field."

Charlotte Observer: We are informed that the people of Wilkes are making a genuine effort, and one which promises success to erect a substantial bridge over the Yadkin river, at Wilkesboro.

The bridge is to be located just below the town, and will open a safe and reliable outlet in this direction, for the people who live North of the Yadkin river.

Alleghany and Ashe counties, as well as Upper Wilkes, will thus open a reliable means of communication South which they have long desired.

The stores which were burned on the 10th in the direction of Statesville and Charlotte go down the river to Ekin, cross the river and go to Salisbury, of goods on down the river, and finds a market at Salem, Winston or Greensboro. But build the bridge at Wilkesboro, and it will be naturally come to Charlotte (though it is somewhat manipulated in Statesville) as that water seeks its own level.

An incendiary fire in Charlotte, on Trade street, Saturday morning, destroyed three stores, viz: J. Moyer, dry goods; B. N. Smith, grocery; J. L. Brothers & Co., grocery.

Some goods were saved out of each store, but in a damaged condition. Loss in stock and buildings, the Observer says, is estimated at $17,000 or $18,000. The store of Steinhouse, Macaulay & Co. was somewhat damaged, as was also the stock of S. Schiff & Bro., barneys and saddlery. Amount of insurance not known.

After November 30th, it will be easy to see how the money goes, for then the drawing will take place of the Public Library of Kentucky, and at that Grand Gift Concert $250,000 in cash will be given away to ticket holders. The fortunate holder of the ticket drawing the first prize, will walk off with $50,000; of the second prize, $100,000; of the third prize, $75,000; of the fourth prize, $50,000; of the fifth prize, $25,000, &c., &c., &c., until 20,000 grand cash prizes shall all have been distributed. Truly, this distribution will tell how the money goes.

In a world where each man and woman seems to have absorbing doubts and dis-eases of his or her own, it seems strange indeed that any mutual friend could ever be found to take the heat and the burden of both day and night upon him, to stand up in a triangular duel, and muss and mix and muddle generally till himself daubed and plastered beyond the recognition of his own mother-in-law. In the strange mutations of life, when my head comes to be laid to rest upon some unknown lap, will it be writ of me?

He gave to misery all he had, his ear; He gained—From Heaven—is also, a mutual friend."

HARD WORK.—When a man milks a cow he should not attempt to smoke a cigar at the same time. A country lad tried it, and got along well enough until he lowered his head and touched the cow's flank with the lighted end of his weed. The next instant found himself and cigar "put out." The cow forced about two tons weight into one of her hind legs, and then passed it over the milker's left jaw. When he ceased whirling around, and myriads of stars had disappeared, he said farming was the hardest work a man could put his hands to.

For the Sentinel

MR. EDITOR.—While other counties are calling public attention to members of the House of Representatives qualified for speaker, allow me to mention the name of Major James C. McRae. He has every quality of mind and manner to make an acceptable presiding officer.

CUMBERLAND.

A fact worth remembering—Five cents worth of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders, given to a horse twice a week, will save double that amount in grain and the horse will be fatter, sleeker, and every way worth more money than though he did not have them.

Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find Parson's Purgative Pills safe; and, in small doses, a mild cathartic. They cause no gripping pains or cramp.
