WHY HER PLAN DIDN'T WORK - The Pottsville, (Penn.) Miners' Journal is responsible for the following story :

A Phessixville maid, quite old, become ing anxious about her matrimonial cher ces, recently concocted a plan to deceive a young fellow as to her age. This was the way she tried it : The old family Bible contained a faithful record of all births, marriages and deaths. This volume the maid took to her chamber, and selecting the birth page, she managed by dist of scratching and writing, to change the date of her birth to a period eleven years lafer than what it had legitimately been recorded. Then the Bible was placed on the sitting room table in a complete ous manner. That evening came along the expected lover. He soon began to finger the Bible pages, and finally reached the birth record, where and when he discovered, to his surprise, that his Angeli na was just one year younger than he, He thought it stronge as abe appeared older. He kept his mouth shut and continued to fumbe over the pages. Next be began reading the death list, and made the very astonishing discovery, that the radiant maiden, according to the Bible. had actually been born ten years after the decesse of her father, The young man quietly grose and bid Angelina goodbye, ond now swears that 'eternal vigi-lar os is indeed the price of liberty."
