Honore, of that city; and sister of Mrs. Potter Palmer, the wife of the Chicago millionaire The wedding will take place at the residence of Mr. Palmer.

WYMAN LAST NIGHT,-Tucker Hall was jammed last night with the largest audience we have for a long time sees within its walls, and to say that they were pleased with the entire performance but half expresses it. The distribution of gifts was the great feature of the even iog, and many valuable presents as on Saturday night were liberally bestowed. Mrs. Carrie Whitaker was the lucky recipient of the chief prize, a fine gold watch. To-night another gold watch is among the presents. PER-ONAL.-Col. John K Connally, o Richmond, Va., has left that city, the Disputch says, for Greenville, S. C., for the purpose of engaging in the study of the ministry in the Baptist Theological Institute at the latter place. Col. Connally is a native of Forsythe county and during the war had the bonor of being the gailant commander of the 55th N. C. Regiment. Tun Carr To Day .- Raleigh is about s dull to-day as the common run of days. We have travelled jar and wide in search of items of interest, but we are compelled to say they were not to be had. A cool, bright, sunshiny morning, but few persons were on the streets. The dry goods merchants are receiving their fall and winter stocks, and the happiest faces we viewed were those of fut, chuffy clerks happy because, perhaps, of beavy hes you have our sympathies, and may your employers reap a double reward then you are through stuffing your apacious shelves. Ho cotten searcely coming in our factors were lo-"starry collows backing in the fall sun-shine tooked elsepy around their Metropolitan Hall. Salose men occasional venders of a punch or an ice cold lemonade looked anxious for better times and more cashevidently praying upon their minds happy "days of the Falt" when all who call can obtain just one on the half shell. Grape venders seemed to be the only men making a living which was well attacted by two youths we met at a drug store shaking with chills. In fact but for the clicking of the happiest of mortals with us, the stone cutters, old Raleigh to-day would seem to be dreaming with Mr. Rip Van Winkle. Better times, yes, flush times, are devoutly to be wished for by all, in which we beartily join.

IMPORTANT RAILBOAD ENTERPRISE OF FOOT.-The Petersburg Index Appeal contains a lengthy account of an informal conference of citizens of that city, in which wal prominent citizens of Eastern Carolina participated, in which a new railroad project in North Carolina was discussed at considerable length.

Colonel Wm. W. Peebles, the Senator elect from Northampton county being present, was called on, and had much to say in regard to a proposed line of railway from Garysburg, on the Petersburg and Weldon Railroa i, through Northampton to a point west the mouth of the Rosnoke on the Albemarie Bound, Col. Peobles invored the movement and promised his influence to secure a charter at the coming session of the General Assembly. A number of Petersburg gentlemen also addressed the meeting in favor of the movement when a series of resolutions were offered by Mr. E. S. Gregory and unanimously adopted favoring the ubjects, and a committee appointed to carry out the views of the same, consisting of Dr. D. W. Lassiter, Captain R. B. Pogram, J. BATTLE SCARBED VETERANS -A visit to the Charity Hospital on Thursday morning disclosed the fact that General Bedger and the residue of the petients there who were wounded in Monday's fight are getting on nicely, and that the recovery of all of them is now simply a question of time. General Badger will not lose any of hi timbs, and this result will be due to his energetic determination expressed when first taken to the hospital, that he would rather die than have his leg amputated So despite the opinion put forth by Dr. Smythe, that it would endanger his life to forego the amputation of his leg. Badger said he would take the chances There is this, however, to be said about this case. Gen. Badger has a powerful physique, has never been addicted to habits popular with many men of his age, and with these and the advantages of youth, determined to ignore Dr. Smythe advice.

Dr. Emythe states that the present healthful condition of the wounded men is due largely to the fact that at the time they were taken to the thospital the atmosphere was in a remarkably favorable condition, that under ordinary circumstances fully half the number would have died, M. C. Times 18th/fr rol issuers Dinn.-In Beaufort, Carteret county, on the morning of Friday, the 18th inst. of bilious fever, Miss Mary Frances Chadwick, daughter of Irwin A. Chadwick, E-q., of Beautort, in the 18th year of her Bare.

Soldom have we had occasion to record a death more generally lamented than this Besiden a large circle of distant relatives and friends, who are exceedingly nerrowful at the departure of their young friend. There are the father, mother, brothers, and a deer atms and other near relatives, the depth of whose affliction words empot express. We would not mack their grief by asking them to restrain their tears. Indeed it is most to mourn over such a bereavement as this. For never was a lovely flower more unexpectedly was a lovely flower more unexpectedly blasted by an untimely frost. The discessed was an object of uncommon love and devotion in her family, and just ly so, as all the virtum and graces which best adorn the female character, were becoming sweetly, beautifully developed in her as she approached the age of woman. Bright were the hopes of that family, hased upon these signs of promise. But deep and bitter is the disappointment deep and bitter is the disappointment now; and Oh! the grief. We tender to them our sincere sympathies, in this their dark night of sorrow, and can only point them to the "sweet fields beyond the swelling flood," where the dear object of their love, without doubt, now reposes; where the chilling winds or poissons

THE NEW ORLEADS TROUBLE,-TW days since we chronicled one of the mo udden and surprising of revolutions the the world had ever seen. The Metropo itus brigade, armed and officered as regular State army, a body which prove to be the sole reliance of the Kellogg Gov ermanent, fell as Lucifer did, never to rie again, When, after five minutes fighthe brigade was defeated, the governmen which had been in existence for two year THE TAX SEVE

Since then the wmoke of battle he olows away; the blood shed upon th lever has dried up or sunk down into th soil, and another sevolution, simust sudden, has been accomplished. The Mate arms which had been captured from the Metropolitan brigade, have to be incontinently returned to the armories, and the State House, with its various offices, has been yielded up to General Brooke as military custodian. Thus the brilliancy of Monday's revolution is dimmed by that of Thursday, and that which was so pompously paraded as the complete redema tion of the State, sinks into a most lame and impotent conclusion.

As soon as the sober second thought of the people comes, they will conclude that it would have been wiser to have made haste more slowly. Had they accepted our dispassionate counsel, and united all the elements of conservatism so peacefully to work together for our redemption, a rescue from the toils of the radical task masters would ere long have been complete. But they elected to follow such blind guides as the Picayune and its of the town, in the way of discounts Gravier street ally, and having sown the wind at their advice, they need not be surprised when the whirlwind cometh.

The situation is now an embarrassing one, but it must be looked squarely into the face, and if any crumbs of comfort are yet to be extracted from the crude mass of rights and wrongs on hand, the opportunity should not be lost, Practically speaking, the truits of Monday's revolution have been turned into Dead Sea apples. All that is left is the assurance that Kellogg is not now exercising the functions of Governor; but even that is associated with the sad reflection that Governor McEncry occupies a like prestive position. Gov. Brooke is invested with Military G-vernorship, the extent of which is yet to be defined.

This must be very humiliating to such berole warriors as that patriot of the Pic. ayune, who a few weeks ago rejoiced at the suggestive promptitude with which Federal troops were fired on in Kentucky, and subsequently dared the big bullies to Tadkin ome here. We trust that he may be kept out of harm's way till the troops again get back into their barracks.

Meanwhile we trust that some such baais of compromise may be agreed to, as would prove generally acceptable. It might possibly be well for the contestants on both sides to resign and a fair elec-tion be held under Federal auspices This would command popular approval. But let all our Hotspurs rest assured that the attempt to make a madman's holiday by firing on United States troops is as unesse as it is unwise. They should not be permitted to imperil a great possible good by hot headed rashness. The glory of Monday's exploit may cover its own sin, but it might fail as a penacea for the sine of the future .- N. O. Times 18th,
