DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. THE GREAT AMERICAN CO-SUMPTIVE REMEDY.

Consumption is NOT an incurable disease. Physicians assure us of this fact. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and the terrible malady can be conquered.

HALL'S BALSAM IS THIS REMEDY. It breaks up the night sweats, relieves the oppressive tightness across the Lungs, and breaks the hoarse and excruciating surfaces which the venom of the disease produce.

WHILE LIFE LASTS THERE IS HOPE. It may not be too late to effect a cure even if the doctors have given you up.

HALL'S BALSAM is sold everywhere, and may be had at wholesale of the Proprietors, JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., at their Great Medicine Warehouse, 8 and 9 College Place, New York.

A WIDOWS WRITINGS.—It is told of old that the cackle of a goose once saved Rome. It is now related that a swallow won a suit in a court away down in Texas. A poor widow and her daughter had a suit for damages before a court in Houston. The counsel for the plaintiff introduced into his pleadings the fable of the swallow that built her nest and reared her young under the eaves of a temple of justice. The lawyer enlarged upon the swallow's trust in the protection of her home the place afforded, and very aptly made the application to the case before the court. When the counsel was about finishing the illustration a swallow actually flew into the court room and alighted upon the judge's desk. It then hopped away and found rest for the sole of its foot on the railings of the jury box. In its circuit of the court room it halted awhile on a pile of law books, then hovered a moment over the heads of the plaintiffs, and flew out of the window and away. The counsel concluded by saying: "Behold the witness," and as the witness could not be called back by the opposing counsel, the case was given to the jury pretty much as the swallow left it. The jury could not ignore the bird's evidence, and gave verdict for the widow.

Mrs. S. K. Jones.—Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Sally K. Jones, wife of Seth Jones, deceased, at her home, four miles from this city. The deceased had passed her third score and ten, and discharged well all the duties which devolved upon her in a long and useful life. Her's was a busy, useful, well-spent life, and when the time came she was ready and not afraid to die.

A call has been issued for the annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, to meet in Chicago, October 7.

Runaway—A Child Hunt.—

Today about 2 o'clock, a driver of a city double dray left his team in front of his house in the neighborhood of Tupper Church where he was eating his dinner, and while an engaged the horse became frightened and ran off in the direction of Fayetteville Street in their wild career they ran over a colored child some seven or eight years old, seriously injuring it, and probably fatal. Dr. Jas. McKee was promptly summoned to the place.

The suspension of G. Lindmann & Co., extensively engaged in the importation of sugar, was announced in New York Tuesday.

The Central Committee of the New York Woman's Temperance Union have called a State Convention to meet in Syracuse, October 14.

Mr. Holland, conservative, has been returned to Parliament from Midhurst, in Western O. C. Railroad is actually for sale. Who ever heard of the like? Why Mr. Woodfin he sold this road and Mr. McAfee he sold it and if it is sold much more, it ought to be a solvent corporation.

Mr. Bailey he is going to sell it now for Attorney's fees. Ain't it a pity the late Legislature is not in session? They were so exercised for fear somebody would steal it, and here it is "going, going, gone" for the small matter of an attorney's fee, but then it's a reflection to suppose they would have appropriated a few hundred dollars to save a railroad when they found the State too poor to feed its orphans.

What if the road bed, rolling stock, work shop and old iron (Col. McKesson ought to go down and make a bid for the latter) should fall to bring the amount of Mr. Bailey's fee? What then? Why he will have to levy on the Treasurer, Secretary, Conductors, Engineers and Agents. And right here we announce that we will bid for Aldridge, the engineer of the Juniata. He is a friend to the Press and we are sadly in need of a "cousin man" in this office. If the late Legislature was only in session, that body could at least appoint a "commission" composed of three reliable citizens to see that the proceeds of the sale is properly expended in paying off Mr. Bailey's judgment.—Press.

CEN. PENNYPACKER NOW IN COMMAND OF THE UNITED STATES FORCES AT NEW ORLEANS.—The command of the United States forces within the city limits has been assigned to Gen. Pennypacker, who is next to Major-General W. H. Emory, the ranking army officer in this State. Gen. John R. Brooke, having been relieved, will assume command of such portions of his regiment as are in this city. The citizens who have had business with Gen. Brooke, and who have been the recipients of the courtesy always accorded by him to those brought in contact with him, are to be congratulated that the position vacated by Gen. Brooke will be filled by Gen. G. Pennypacker, commanding the 16th United States Infantry, who, for some years has enjoyed the distinction of being the youngest Colonel in the United States army. Born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, of a family distinguished in the annals of that State, Gen. Pennypacker's original entry into service was in 1861 as Colonel of the Ninety-seventh Pennsylvania Regiment, infantry, United States Volunteers. The gallantry exhibited by him soon brought promotion, and at the age of twenty-two this officer was a brigadier general of volunteers and brevet major general. Upon the reorganization of the United States army, in 1866, Gen. Pennypacker was appointed colonel of the Sixteenth United States Infantry, being the youngest in years of any recipient of that grade in the Federal service. Repeatedly and bravely wounded, the General has had occasion to frequently absent himself from active duty, but at present his health is excellent.—N. O. Times.

STATE NEWS.

Duplin is agitating a branch canal to the proposed New River canal. A movement is on foot to erect both an Episcopal and Presbyterian church in the town of Durham.

Jas. Herring, Esq., of Lenoir, killed a Bald Eagle last week that measured five feet seven inches from tip to tip. Clinton wants a railroad to Warsaw and there is a prospect of its being built.

Winston Sentinel: Judge Wilson and Solicitor Dobson gave entire satisfaction to the citizens of Surry at the late term of the court. All of the cases on the State docket were disposed of and all the cases on the civil docket ready for trial were tried. The time of the court was consumed in its legitimate business instead of a stump speaking and abuse of the legislature.

RE. REV. BISHOP ATKINSON.—This distinguished divine arrived in this city yesterday, and stopped at the Central Hotel. He travels in a private conveyance, having been on his visitations in the mountains. He leaves to-day for the head of the Carolina Central Railway, on his way to Wilmington. The Bishop will attend the General Convention in New York, on the 7th of October. He has been greatly improved in health by his sojourn among the mountains this summer.—Charlotte Observer.

YADKIN COURT.—The village of Yadkinville was crowded on last Monday to witness another judicial combat between Judge Wilson and Cloud, and when it was found that nothing of the kind was to take place the crowd felt that they were to be deprived of a great pleasure. The ex-Judge was not there to hold the Court as he had announced he would be, consequently Judge Wilson had plain sailing. The Judge's charge to the grand jury was short, plain and pointed, and made a fine impression on those who heard it. Notwithstanding all hands, the Judge, Solicitor, Clerk and Sheriff, were new, all seemed to fall naturally into harness. The Solicitor, J. N. Dobson, usually cool and collected, we thought was somewhat embarrassed, caused by not having on his new breeches. Frank Jones, the new Sheriff, naturally of a modest and retiring disposition, felt a little awkward in his new position, spoke like he was afraid of being heard when he commanded silence in the Court room. He says he thinks he can overcome his modesty by association with the lawyers, especially Bill Glenn. The Clerk, H. C. Wilson, assisted by Vet Speer, had everything in its place and in good working order. Yadkin has a good and popular Clerk.—Winston Sentinel.

DU BUISSE FLANGERIE COTTON GIN. In store one each, 50 and 60 Haws of this celebrated Alabama GIN. Its prominent feature consists of a flange or projection 1/2 inch deep on the rim which prevents hard substances from being cut, as they cannot come in contact with the saws, consequently making a better sample of roughly packed cotton, and the saws will last longer and require less sharpening than other gins.

We cordially claim for it, that it will not only make a better sample, but gin faster than any other gin made, and the manufacturer in good faith offered $50 for a trial with any GIN exhibited at our fair. JAMES M. TOWLES, Agent.

27 Years Old. Six Reasons Why YOU SHOULD INSURE IN The Penn Mutual LIFE INSURANCE CO. 921 CHESTNUT STREET.

1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and past the day of experiments.

2nd. Because every policy-holder is a member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus has an influence in its management.

3rd. Because it has a large percentage of assets' liabilities as any Life Insurance Company in the Country.

4th. Because by economical management, its rate of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.)

5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage, than any Company in the United States.

For example: Policy No. 16, for $5,000, has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been declared. Averaging fifty-seven per cent. Had these dividends been used to purchase additions to this Policy, $4,000 more would have been realized, making the Policy worth $11,000.

6th. Because it is liberal in its management, prompt in its settlements, safe because a contingency, and its rates are as low as any first-class Company in the Country.

PRINCIPAL FEATURES.—Small expenses, absolute security, large returns, prompt payment of losses, and liberality to the insured.
