EXPOSITION OF FASHION.—Mrs. Harriet Andrews, Fashionable Milliner, has returned from the North with a large stock of everything in the millinery line, consisting of hats, bonnets, ribbons, cashmere, handkerchiefs, neckties, and silken stock.

Local Notes.
Our State Fair commences on Saturday.
Everybody come to the Fair. It will be a first class exhibition.
George Hooper, the Irish comedian and troupe are in Atlanta, Ga.
Delightful weather to air new bonnets and cool enough for certain lectures.

October has five Saturdays and our market men wouldn't care if it had six.
Nice fatten slow in a church, they can't live on religion any more than ministers can.

The favor song of the young ladies of Michigan is "Mother may I go out to vote!"
Take a chance in the raffish at Phil.
Walker's saloon, for that splendid horse and buggy.

The weather was beautiful to-day and all the dry goods stores were running on full time for cash.
It is said of a noted Long Branch flat that the flat was seven hours a day for forty-three consecutive days.

The "Life of the great and good Mr.
Beecher" is to be made into a moonlight Sunday School book.
Vagabonds on our Fair will sell on Alex.
Creech and Petty & Jones as they go towards the Capitol on the left hand side.
Geo. W. Nelson, Esq., late editor of the Northern Republic arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, hale, hearty and jovial as ever.

"What can we do," inquire the ministers, "to make Sabbath schools more interesting?" And an unregenerate publican suggests, "take them out fishing."

Exercise some care as to the quality of the liveable, and no danger need be apprehended. All of our restaurant men keep fine ones, pepper among the lot.
Cattle thieves and bacon snatchers, some three or four, are billed at this Court for the pen—some of who have not been outside of its classic walls three months.

Who would have thought it? They say Minnie Sherman has a hundred pair of stockings. It will be a long time before she will have to do any darning.
"Dear me," said a good old lady, "I was unable to keep up with her work, I shall be glad when I get into eternity, so as to have plenty of time for everything."

Dr. W. C. Richardson, of New York, has removed from the latter place to Cary, in this county, to practice medicine. We wish him much success in his new field of labor.

Benny, of the Register says, "Talk about going to Washington next. I don't know it is worth a dozen of them, but on the principle that one living man is worth a dozen dead ones." Why not?

It is said when a widow is in a tightlaced corset she has a cap for a man, there is no chance in a million for any young woman to win, even if she holds the four aces.

It is reported our "mole water man" has gone into winter quarters. All the saloon men are growing about being out of soda and can't be lured. Two frantic young men we met this morning intend going for him.

Don't be backward but come out and hear the beautiful voices of the chorists at Tucker Hall to-night, Miss Lillian Edgerton. It is delightful to live as her sister the magic spell of her burning, sophisticated voice.

As Norton's Value on the Wind.
An Editor who has been on the wing of late had the misfortune to lose his value on the Richmond & Danville Road a few days ago. He probably was in search of a cure. Here's what he wrote John Greene the city editor of the Richmond Examiner.

Know the writer of the above, who believes a first class newspaper man is a capital fellow.
The wrong value has been sent me from the depot (Richmond) and now I suppose has gone wild and is looking for a cure. The value sent me has been sent in to me by the owner's name.
His stock of shirts are large enough to fit Barnum's giant, one pair of ditto panta, a few socks, and a novel in it called "Mother and I." So, you see, nothing of this sort will fit my back. My value was a new, specked, leather hand trunk, and by opening it my name can be told. Besides some "shirts and things," if it had in it a few pairs of the North Carolina State Fair. I need them, especially the shirts. I am now leaning on the ragged edge of despair, and by stirring this thing up immediately you will oblige your obedient servant.

The writer's name will be forthcoming next week as we learn he has gotten his little leather hand trunk.

Run the Ticket to the Fair.
A special passenger train will be run from Raleigh to Goldsboro during the Fair, on the 14th, 15th and 16th, at the following price which includes tickets of admission to the Fair:

Raleigh	$1.25
Greensboro	$1.50
Wilmington	$1.75
Charlotte	$2.00
Richmond	$2.25
Roanoke	$2.50
Frederick	$2.75
Warrenton	$3.00
Weldon	$3.25
Wendell	$3.50

Raleigh at 6 o'clock a. m. and Greensboro at 6 p. m., arriving at Greensboro at 2:30 p. m., at Raleigh 11:30 p. m.

Miss Lillian Edgerton.—This lady orator whose appearance has been anxiously awaited by the citizens of Raleigh, lectured last night before a large and appreciative audience. Her theme was "Education and Commerce" and she was highly applauded.

The highly laudatory opinion that have appeared in the newspapers of New York and other cities where she has appeared, were proved by her lecture last night to have been fully deserved.
It was sensible, chaste and eloquent, with touches of pathos and flashes of wit, and showing a remarkable command of pure and elegant English. Her voice is full, rich and well trained; her actions easy and graceful and we trust we may say it without flattery, her personal presence fine and commanding. The close attention and frequent applause that the audience paid the lecturer, attested their high appreciation and pleasure. Miss Edgerton lectured again to-night, her theme being: "Woman is Coming—What She Can Do." We trust a large audience will greet her second appearance.

STATE FAIR TICKETS.—The tickets of the Birmingham, Montgomery, and Houston & Grand Central, Hillsboro, have entered for the day premium on driving.

Of the regular troops, only the Raleigh Light Infantry has entered for the prize and premium offered for the best drilled company, though other companies are expected to enter in a few days. The garrison flag at Camp Russell has been kindly loaned to the Society by the commander of the post, and will be raised on the center pole Saturday morning.

So far, five new ball clubs have entered for the champion ball and bat.
Col. A. W. Shaffer has been appointed Supervisor of Department B, live stock.
Mr. W. F. Ashby has been appointed Supervisor of Department F, trial of speed.

The two bands of this city and the Northern band have been engaged to discuss music for the occasion.
The Fair will open formally at 10:15 o'clock Saturday morning. His Excellency, Gov. Brogden, will deliver the opening speech from the Grand Stand at 11 o'clock. The procession, in charge of the Chief Marshal, will be formed in front of the Capitol on Fayetteville street at 10 o'clock.

Thirty-two loads of stock from the West will reach the Fair Grounds this evening.
Every indication points to the largest exhibition and largest crowd of visitors ever known to the South.

Special passenger trains will be run between Goldsboro and Raleigh on the 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th and 17th inst., leaving Goldsboro at 7:50 a. m. and returning Raleigh at 6:30 p. m. Particulars of the ticket admitting the holder from the Fair Grounds: From Goldsboro, $1.50; from Princeton, $1.50; from Pine Level, $1.50; from Clayton, $1.50; from Wilson's Mills, $1.50; from Raleigh, 95 cts.

Gov. W. H. Green has given notice that the regular mail or passenger train between Goldsboro and Raleigh will be run between Goldsboro and Raleigh between 11:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. on the 11th and 12th inst. for the benefit of the State Fair.

TORMENTING THE GOVERNOR.—Next

It is thought that his trip to Beaufort will be the beginning of his torments on that line. Col. Humphrey trying to play the consolidation game, liked to have made it all darkness with the old man.
The new Railroad President by the col-dow for Gov. Brogden has no wife save the State.
