TO COTTON PLANTERS.

I take pleasure in offering you 100 bushels of the HEAVY boll cotton seed, introduced by my father in-law A. D. Williams of Franklin county, N. C. I am confident it is the most prolific cotton known, and hence the best to raise. It is the earliest to mature. Will weigh dout to the amount of any other to the boll and I believe will invariably, (taking the crop through) yield 400 lbs., of lint to every 1000 lbs., of seed cotton, and if planted a less quantity will yeild it. The lint brought last season 35¢ cents per lb., more than the ordinary cotton. Read a few of the many certificates that might be produced, given by parties who are well and extensively known.

PARSAGUNG, Va., Oct. 24th, 1873.

We certify that of the "Williams" cotton exhibited by Capt. P. G. Alston, Jr., of Littleton, N. C., here on yesterday, forty one bolls weighed one pound, but the average weight was forty five to the pound. The said cotton yeilded about 42 per cent lint. The lint cotton would grade as strict middling.

W. H. DARWIN & CO.,
STERLING JOHNSTON, N. C.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Warrenton, N. C.

This is to certify that I weighed by apothecaries' scales, in December last a certain amount of Capt. A. D. Williams' fine lock cotton and found two and one eighth lbs., of seed cotton to make one lb. lint. Given under my hand this the 25th day of Feb'y, 1873.

B. P. WILLIAMS, Mayor.

To Capt Arch D Williams:

I will exhibit samples of this celebrated cotton and offer the seed for sale at the State Fair from the 14th to the 19th Oct. inclusive. Price per bushel..... $25.00.
" " Plut (sent by mail postage paid packages (about 200 seed)) 1.00
" " " 50

Will also exhibit at the Weldon Fair.

Mr. Rufus Watson of Halifax county bought 3 of the Williams seed at 25 cents raised 3 stalks which matured 140 bolls. He was offered $5.00 per stalk for it, and refused to take it. There are but 100 bushels in all of these seed for sale. If you want them apply early to

THE MARKETS.—In New York yesterday cotton was weak, with sales of 2,167 bales, at 15 3-8. Turpentine and rosin unchanged. Gold firm at 10 1-8@10 1-4. Our local market for cotton is quoted weak at 13 1-2. Receipts about 340 bales.

THE LOUISVILLE LOTTERY.—There will be a full drawing of this reliable lottery on the 30th of November. A letter from Ex-Gov. Bramlette to the agent in this city makes the positive statement to that effect. Tickets can be purchased in this city at R. H. Bradley's Confectionary and Cigar Store. They are going off rapidly. Charlotte is happy for Caldwell says they now have the "Beecher smash" and the "Tilton Slings."

A HORSE CAROLINA HORSE THIEF ARRESTED IN PETERSBURG.—The Petersburg Index Appeal of yesterday gives the following account of the capture of a Warren county horse thief in that city:

Ten days ago, Lieutenant Minetree, of the police corps, while looking out for a stolen horse that had been reported at headquarters, came across a negro who was endeavoring to dispose of a horse he was riding, and who seemed anxious to dispose of the animal on almost any terms. This circumstance excited suspicion, and the negro was taken into custody. The horse he rode answered the description in sundry respects of the stolen horse for which the Lieutenant was looking, but proved not to answer the bill on examination by the owner of the last mentioned animal. The negro was retained, however, on suspicion that all was not right, but on yesterday, the ten days having expired during which the law authorizes the retention of the suspected but unaccused, he was just about to be released when a letter arrived opportunely, which identified the horse as the property of Mr. J. K. Faulkner, of Warrenton, N. C. The real name of the negro thief appears to be Wm. Blount, and it is alleged that he is a minister of the gospel among his color. Blount was kept in custody after the confirmation of his guilt in this unexpected manner, and will there await the requisition of the Governor of North Carolina for his delivery to the authorities of Warren county.

MEXICAN WAR VETERANS.—The association of the Mexican War Veterans, in this State held a meeting in the capitol on Thursday, the 16th inst., Dr. J. A. McRae, of Fayetteville, in the chair, and 31 members present.

The corresponding roll of the association having been lost, was again made out and several new members added thereto. We now number 31 members residing in the State.

The secretary reported correspondence with the various associations in the Union, and invitations to join with them in their reunions and celebrations.

An eloquent letter of regret, from Col. David L. Johnson, of Georgia, was read by the secretary, that illness in his family prevented him from participating in a reunion with his old friends in arms in his native State," and a cordial invitation to us all to join the Georgia association, in Atlanta, on the 22nd inst.

The Secretary also read a long communication from the Washington City association, giving an account of their grand excursion and celebration on the 14th of September—the 27th anniversary of the capture of the city of Mexico.

President Grant recognized the day as a public holiday for the officers of the Government, to participate, and the ports of the harbor fired national salutes as they passed down the river.

New York sends her invitation too, with cards of admittance, to celebrate with them the anniversary of the surrender of the city of Mexico.

And from far away Olympia, where rolls the waters of the Columbia into the mighty Pacific, there comes a greeting over the wires of, "Comrades be with us on the anniversary of Mexico."

The opinion that the incoming Congress will take favorable action upon our memorial, seems to be general, from the fact that by the next meeting of the national association, on the 22nd of February, we can tell how many survivors there are, which appears to be the only obstacle to the consideration of the bill. The financial exhibit of the association for the last year showed a depleted treasury, with an indebtedness of sixty-eight dollars—for the most of which the secretary is individually responsible.

A resolution was passed authorizing the secretary to assess the association one dollar, and to collect the same for the immediate use of the association. To transact as much and communicate as much of the business through the mails as possible.

A motion prevailed that the present officers and delegates of the association serve until their successors shall have been elected at a meeting appointed for the election of officers—and of which due notice shall have been given.

A vote of thanks, under a resolution, was heartily adopted for "the kind and brotherly invitations" from the associations and comrades who had honored us in so generous a manner, and a continuance of that friendship "born in fire" and baptized in blood," was again vouchsafed to them.

A suggestion from the chair was promptly adopted, urging every member of the association to exert himself to enroll every name in the State who served in the war with Mexico, and to impress them with the necessity of reporting their names to the corresponding secretary, O. R. Smith, at Raleigh. A failure or refusal to do compromises their own interest, and retards the best efforts of the association.

After expressions of good feelings and many pleasant reminiscences, the association adjourned to meet again at the notice of time and place from the corresponding secretary.

O. R. SMITH,
Corresponding Sec'y.

STATE NEWS

Statesville has a good Cornet band.

The Federal Court for the Statesville District is now in session, his Honor Judge Dick presiding.

It is creditably reported that Furman of the Citizen is to deliver the Agricultural Address at the Asheville Fair.

Gen D. H. Hill will address the people of Union county on the subject of Grangers, on Friday the 6th of November.

The first rails at the Charlotte end of the Carolina Central Railroad were laid [illegible]

The case of Mrs. Denning against W. and W. Railroad, for the killing of her husband in the Dudley Railroad accident has been compromised by the payment to the widow of $1500 and court costs.

The Wilmington Star describes at considerable length the appearance of the Court room on Monday last when the new Democratic Judge and Solicitor took their seats. It must be indeed a strange sight in that hot hold of radicalism to see a decent officer in position.

We are informed that the Northern Company who own the Ore Knob Copper Mines, is making a fortune. Two and a half tons of pure copper is melted daily, yielding the company $1,000 per day, clear of all expenses. The town that has sprung up at these mines is said to be already larger than Jefferson, the county seat of Ashe.—Piedmont Press.

NORTH CAROLINA LEMONS.—Maj. Wilson, of Morganton, showed us some lemons a few days ago, which he had raised in Burke. They were as fine as any we ever saw from Florida or elsewhere. The soil and climate of our old State is adapted to the culture of anything from a cranberry to a cocoanut.—Hickory Print.

Charlotte Observer: The uncompromising Scalawag editor of the Southern Home, showed us yesterday an old pair of sheers which have been presented to him. They were the property of John McKnitt Alexander, of Mecklenburg Declaration fame, the great grand-father of our townsman, Captain Sydenham B Alexander.

C. H. Roberts, President, Silas N. Martin, Vice President, Col. S. L. Fremont and V. Q. Johnson Superintendents of the Carolina Central Railroad were at the Central last night, as was also Hon. Joseph G. Abbott, late United States Senator from North Carolina. We understand they all go to Statesville to-night, to attend the trial of an important railroad suit.—Ibid.

Hickory Press: About forty of the deaf, dumb and blind pupils, with their teachers, from the State Asylum will be in Hickory during the Fair, and will give two entertainments. The Hickory Fair will be held on 11th, 12th and 13th days of November, which conflicts with no other Fair this side of Fayetteville, no show, not even the meeting of the county commissioners. Gen. J. M. Leach will deliver the address on the 12th.

HYMENEAL.—Last night was the occasion of one of the happiest hymeneal services it has ever been our good fortune to witness. Long before the appointed hour (8:30 o'clock) the spacious Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost capacity with a bright and happy audience. When the time arrived for the service to take place, the fine organ was touched by the skillful fingers of Prof. Harr, and the hum of merry voices died gently away and the sweet strains of music filled the house. But the impatient multitude was not long kept in suspense, for the bridal attendants soon appeared in the following order, and took their stand on the right and left of the altar:

Col. David Settle, of Rockingham, and Miss Charlotte Gorrell; Eugene C. Eckel and Miss Lou Lindsay; John Booker, of Richmond, and Miss Chasie Gilmer; Albert Gorrell and Miss Snead; Charles J. Voorhees and Miss Lou Tate; Charles W. Ogburn and Miss Davie Grotter.

When they had assumed their positions Mr. P. F. Duffy, Senior editor of the Patriot, with Miss Lottie Grotter, daughter of the late John A. Grotter, leaning upon his arm, marched down the aisle. The group formed a beautiful tableaux, which drew forth ejaculations of praise from all. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Smith, arose and performed the marriage ceremony in a clear and impressive manner. The Dr. seems to be gifted for such services, but we think he even excelled himself on this occasion.

The bridal party, with a few friends, then repaired to the residence of the family, where was prepared one of the most sumptuous and tastefully gotten up banquets ever spread in this place.

The bridal presents displayed a taste and lavishness worthy of the attendants and gave unmistakable evidence of the high esteem in which the happy couple are held by their friends.

A few hours were spent in joyous converse and happy congratulations, when our young friends took the train for the North. May they have a pleasant bridal tour, and may their journey through life be one round of joyous felicity.—Greensboro' Patriot 21st.

Good-bye "Pat," you know our best wishes attend you. May you and yours live long and prosper, not to say anything about the "Here's to you."

REPORT OF GRAND JURY, FALL TERM 1874.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
WAKE COUNTY,
Superior Court, Fall Term of 1874.

We the Jurors for the State on our oaths do report to wit: On the matter of the Jail we find the sanitary condition as good as most North Carolina Jails and those of us who have examined it in former years think it is in better condition now than we ever have seen it. It is clean and has a very slight smell. But as a place for keeping prisoners its sanitary construction is a disgrace to the age we live in and we would be ashamed to exhibit it to a philanthropic stranger from [illegible] Railroad. We also regard this building as [illegible]

[illegible] ty Commissioners shall immediately have erected a new Jail on the plot of ground just south of the present one in every respect as to ventilation heat, sewerage and security that modern experience can devise. We also find that the office room of the Court House is entirely inadequate, the jurors of this week have been so good [illegible] their use a room in the sheriffs part of the Jail. When we have called for papers we have found that some of the officers had not the necessary cases in which to keep the papers, so that they could easily find them, particularly in regard to magistrates returns.

This building is the place of depot of the wills, tittle-deeds, mortgages and guardians bonds of very great value. They are exposed to more than ordinary fire risk, and additional fire risk of having deposited with them the paper evidence and indictments of persons charged with crime, and your Honor told us in your charge that criminals of the present day before committing a crime counted all the chances of their escape. We therefore recommend when the new Jail is finished that the old one be utilized by having it enlarged and made a Hall of Records. The Jail part of it could easily be constructed into five theif and burglar proof Vaults for the safe keeping of valuable and criminal papers. By the addition of another story we could have commodious offices for the officers of the Court, and by way of bringing it convenient to the Court Room, we would recommend the erection of a platform bridge from the West window of the Court Room to one of the upper stories of the Hall of Records.

We therefore beg your Honor that you will give th a paper such endorsement and such force as may result in immediate relief to the county. We could have said much more particulary in regard to the extreme cold to which prisoners are exposed in winter, but we thought it best to make our report as short as possible.

We the Grand Jury upon our oaths do further present a list of cuildren to whom guardians ought to be appointed:

The Minor Heirs of George D. Hyer,

" " " William Freeman,
" " " J. C. Jones,
" " " Jno. B Bailey,
" " " Green Lowery,
" " " Ruffin Broadwell,
" " " D. H. Stephenson,

in House Creek Township one boy fifteen years old by the name of Jno Haywood.

We have enquired into the guardians bonds of this county and find them all good except one. We have notified that guardian through the Clerk that, the bond, must be satisfactory before this Jury is discharged. A. N. Upchurch is the guardian above referred to who has not entered into bond which we think is good:

T. D. HOGG,
Foreman of Grand Jury.

It is ordered by the Court that a copy of this report of the Grand Jury be sent to the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and that a copy be sent to the daily press of this city for publication.
