TWO COTTON PLANTERS.

I take pleasure in offering you 100 bushels of the HEAVY boll cotton seed, introduced by my father in-law A. D. Williams of Franklin county, N. C. I am confident it is the most prolific cotton known, and hence the best to raise. It is the earliest to mature. Will weigh out in the amount of any other to the boll and I believe will invariably, (taking the crop through) yield 400 lbs., of lint to every 1000 lbs., of seed cotton, and if stocked a less quantity will yield it. The lint brought last season 2½ cents per lb., more than the ordinary cotton. Read a few of the many certificates that might be produced, given by parties who are well and extensively known:

PITTSBORO, Va., Oct. 28th, 1873.

We certify that of the "Williams" cotton exhibited by Capt. P. G. Alston, Jr., of Littleton, N. C., here on yesterday, forty one bolls, weighed one pound, but the average weight was forty five to the pound. The said cotton yielded about 40 per cent lint. The lint cotton would grade as strict middling.

GAINES & ALLEN.
JOHN ANDERSON & SONS.
W. H. DRAUGHT & CO.
STERLING JOHNSON, N. C.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Warrenton, N. C.

This is to certify that I weighed by apothecaries' scales, in December last a certain amount of Capt. A. D. Williams' fine lock cotton and found two and one eighth lbs., of seed cotton to make one lb. lint. Given under my hand this the 25th day of Feb'y, 1873.

B P. WILLIAMS, Mayor.

To Capt Arch D Williams:

I will exhibit samples of this celebrated cotton and offer the seed for sale at the State Fair from the 12th to the 16th Oct. inclusive. Price per bushel ..... $25.00.
" " Pint (sent by mail postage paid) ..... 1.00.
" " package (about 200 seed) ..... 50.

Will also exhibit at the Weldon Fair.

Mr. Rufus Walston of Halifax, county bought 3 of the Williams seed at 25 cents raised 3 stalks which matured 410 bolls. He was offered $5.00 per stalk for it and refused to take it. There are but 100 bushels in all of these seed for sale. If you want them apply early to City Intelligence.

Local Dots.

Westward, the star of Democracy is in the ascendancy.

The Granville cost $20,000 when it was built.

Dab bad "codes" are in order and nearly every fellow has one.

Joe Gilliam, late of the Charlotte Observer, has gone to the Atlanta Fair. Happy one.

John Robinson's show will be in Durham the 27th, the day preceding its entrance into Raleigh.

The ladies of Hickman Lodge of Good Templars will hold a festival in their hall on the night of Nov. 4th.

Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas received a bale of cotton from Apex yesterday weighing 540 pounds.

Ben Butler says the war is not yet over and as soon as Hester gets up an Alabama war he is coming down after the spoons.

Somebody wickedly observes that when six young ladies sit down to talk about dress that a small dog with a tin horn is a refuge for the weary.

Correct—The Pittsburg Commercial sees in the large number of recent marriages an indication that the general condition of trade is improving. 'Tis to here.

Mr. Lee Walter Masten, of Salem, and Miss Adelia Slater, of Salisbury, were married in the latter town on the evening of October 20th, at St. Luke's Church.

The Greensboro Patriot gets out his rooster and cannon heading for the glorious tidings of democratic victories in the Western States.

What becomes of all the pins? They fall to the earth and become terrapins and here comes a smarty and inquires what becomes of all the needles? You can guess.

Susan Jane must have been scantily dressed when she was looking out for her lover and sang:

"He'll come to-night, the wind's at rest,
The moon is full and fair;
I'll wear the dress that pleased him best—
A ribbon in my hair."

The cotton trade was never more lively. On Martin Street such is the jam of wagons that it has become necessary for the Mayor to station police there to keep the passage open for vehicles.

If the times are hard stop your paper but do not shorten your allowance for whiskey or tobacco. A good paper in a family is a great comfort to the wife and children but that is no reason why you should provide them with a weekly luxury at the expense of a daily necessity.

Detective Hester, of unenviable notoriety in this State is playing some of his pranks with a heavy hand in Sumpter county, Alabama. It is almost to be hoped that some "Jenny" down there will hand "Lake the gun," and that the latter will miss fire—over the left.

Dr. Lacy preached an able sermon in the Methodist church at Durham, Sunday night. The Plant says, though weighed down with physical inability, and forced to sit upon a high chair while preaching, yet he would occasionally rise up forgetful of pain, and hold his audiences spell-bound with burning words.

How to swallow a pill is thus stated by a correspondent: "Put the pill under the tongue and behind the teeth, and let the patient immediately take a large swallow of water, and he will neither feel the pill nor taste it. In fact, they cannot tell where it has gone, and I have seen them look about the floor to see if they had not dropped it."

There was 6,000 persons in attendance on the Atlanta Fair Tuesday. It is stated that they have no horses under 2.40 time. The great races were to occur to-day. A match game of billiards was played there at the National Hotel, between R. T. Boswell, of Atlanta, and D. J. Butts, of Macon, 150 points. Boswell beat Butts by 8 points. A good deal of betting and large amounts of money changed hands.

Geo. H Spencer, of Tunbridge Wells, England, but lately a citizen of this city, died at the residence of Stephen Starr, on Newbern Avenue, yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. Mr. S. received all the attention that could be bestowed by kind friends and skilled physicians. He was a member of Bethel Lodge, I. O. G. T., the members of which paid him every attention necessary. Both lodges of the Good Templars attended his funeral this afternoon.

The Raleigh Thespian Association met last night and regularly organized by electing Major Basil Manly temporary president and appointing an Executive Committee. The committee was authorized to proceed at once to select plays, cast characters, appoint rehearsals and make such other necessary arrangements as to commence operations at once. The members appeared to be seriously in earnest and we have every reason to believe that the organization will accomplish all that is expected. We wish them the utmost success.

PASSING.—Hon. Wm A Graham and lady were in the city to-day on a private trip from New York. They will depart for their home in Hillsboro' this evening.

THE MARKETS.—In New York yesterday cotton was dull, with sales of 800 bales at 18 1-2. Our local market for cotton closed dull at 18 1-2. Receipts 405 bales.

MAYOR'S COURT.—There were not many lookers on this morning for a wonder. Jacob Baker (col.) alias Andrew Mydock, alias Henry Taylor, was discharged by Col. Bain on payment of half the fee for stealing a gun. Besides him, two other affrays were disposed of. Since last week, his Honor has ordered all obstructions off the streets, save cotton, which is both an obstruction and a necessity.

RAFFLE LAST NIGHT.—A fine Kentucky riding horse was raffled for at Mr. Phil. Walker's Saloon last night. Excitement was high, Col. P. F. Faison was the lucky winner throwing forty-three. Old sports present declared they had never seen such "high throwing" on the part of a lad. The average of twenty persons was thirty eight.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Mr. Crawley, the engineer of the stationary engines of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad shops in this city, met with a painful accident on yesterday. In adjusting the saw that is used for cutting wood for the engines his hand came in contact with the same, lacerating it very painfully. Dr. Royster was called to the sufferer, and the patient is doing well to-day under his skilful treatment.

WAKE COUNTY BUSINESS.—Mr. White, the Clerk of the Board of Commissioners, has had printed and posted the itemized statement of accounts, etc., audited and allowed by said Board, from September 4, 1874. The statement is exhaustive, and shows much labor on the part of the efficient Clerk.

The Board was in session sixty-seven days and received as compensation and mileage, $671.90. Of course, the accounts audited, and the witness tickets allowed, the juror tickets audited, and the allowances made, are given in full. The last named, which are itemized, aggregate $5,705.90, the most important of which are, for support of the poor, $4,000.00; on account of workhouse, $410.00; on account of lunatics, $90.00; removing rafts from bridges, $22 00.

THE CADETS AT THE FAIR.—As a Hillsboro man we were especially proud of the display made by the Cadets of Horner & Graves' School at the State Fair on Thursday. Remembering that the military feature of the school is entirely subsidiary to purposes of physical development, and far from being the prime object of instruction, it was surprising to see the perfection to which the few hours alloted to drill had brought them. Their movements were clear, precise and self possessed, and they responded to orders with the promptness of veteran soldiers. The contest for the palm of victory with the Bingham boys, and they were so equally matched that the judges could not in justice make a discrimination for the Bingham boys also were admirably drilled, and moved over the ground like clock-work. If there was any distinction—and it was slight even in that—the Horner boys were the best in the manual—the Bingham boys in the drill. We do not arrive at even that conclusion. We can only say that we were proud that Orange county could make so splendid a display, and demonstrate before the whole State, the excellence of her schools.

The Bingham school had rather the largest number in line—forty muskets we believe, Horner and Graves a few less.

The contest was one of the most interesting features of Thursday's entertainments, and no doubt had stronger charms for the ladies, especially the young ladies, than anything else. Many a lad was stimulated to rivalry by the knowledge that the eyes of his lady love was on him. Many a handkerchief, emblazoned with the device of the favorite school, waved from the Grand Stand, warming to emulation, and encouraging to victory.

The Raleigh Light Infantry was on the ground, but having been disappointed in receiving their uniforms, could not appear in sufficient force to compete for the prize.—Hillsboro' Recorder.

Says the Charlotte Observer: Upon the application of Dr. Orr an injunction was granted a few days ago by Judge David Schenck, at Chambers, restraining the Carolina Central Railroad Company from further operations upon his lands, until certain damages claimed by him had been paid by the company. It is claimed by some that the injunction, which was served on the President yesterday, will stop further work on the road until the matter can be adjusted.

Salisbury Watchman: Maj. W. A. Graham, our Senator elect, gave us a pop call last Monday. He was on his way home from the meeting of the Catawba River Association, to which he was a delegate. This District has honored itself in choosing him as Senator.

She never laffs out loud, and seldum ever smiles, but when she does, she does it accordin' to the rules laid down by Murray for speaking out and pronouncing the english language korrectly.

She is the very essence ov dubble extrackt propriety, and would rather be four years behind the fashions, in her dress and bonnet, than to spel a word wrong, or parse a sentence inkorrectly.

She keps a skrap book and an album, and would prefer to hav the autograff ov sum milk and water poet, than the name ov sum good man to a sixty days note.

The country skool mom seldum dies an old maid; she gets married generally to sum man who haz but little edukashun, and he thinks (as he ought to) that there ain't another such a larnt woman as his wife on the face of the earth.

With all her precise foolishness, her pompous knowledge, her silky sentimentalism, and her almost allwus mistaking manner for matter, I respekt the country skool mom; she taught me mi letters, she waz peshunt when I was stupid, she soothed me when I was frackshus, and she often (good soul) give me a tidbit from her luncheon at noon time.

May kind Heaven strew sum kind ov happiness in her pathway, for she iz paid poorly, worked hardly, and the stepmother to everybody's children; she never receives from the world enything better than the most formal respekt.
