RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1874.

NO. 82.

City Intelligence.

CONVENTION.—Hon. B. F. Moore, of this city, has written a letter to the Willington Journal, in which he strongly advocates the calling of a convention.

MARRIED.—In Hillsboro on Tuesday morning, the 3rd inst., by the Rev. Mr.
Harris, Mr. D. S. Waitt, of this city, and Miss Hattie V. Reese, of the former place.

PERSONAL.—T. M. Hall, of New York, who has been in the city for some time, will leave for New York to-day, according to the meeting of the old and new Executive Committee.

A NEW WRINKLE.—Dispatches state that at Huntsville, Alabama, several senior women, dressed in men's clothing, voted the Republican ticket. The fraud was discovered and the women were arrested.

SUDDENLY BECOME FAMOUS.—The name of the candidate by whom Benet Butler was beaten for Congress deserves honorable mention. It is Charles P. Thompson (with a p).

LEGISLATURE.—The approaching Legislature will have in the House 83 democrats, 4 independents, and 34 republicans.
The Senate will be composed of 38 democrats and 19 republicans. It assembles Monday week, November 16th.

SUPERINTENDENT STATE FAIR.—The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society last night elected Major John C. Winder Superintendent of the State Fair. He had previously been elected Recording Secretary. Captain Fulghum, it is understood, declined a candidate.

CURE.—Dr. J. Lindeman, the Surgeon Chiropractist, who has visited this city for the past eight years, has arrived and taken rooms at the Yarrowburgh House, where he will remain for a few days. If you have corns, bunions or bad nails, he will cure them without pain and without drawing the blood. His charges are moderate. Ladies waited on at their residence without extra charge.

COTTON WINGERS.—The receipt of cotton continues heavy, and the cotton weighers, Belo, Blake and Geo. Upchurch, have a lively competition. Capt. Belo is a one-legged Confederate soldier, but the way he goes for a wagon on his stump, makes the pavement almost jostle. So far, we learn the cotton weighing between them has been "nip and tuck." All clever gentlemen, our farmers seem well satisfied with either of them.

FUNDAY TRAINS.—The following from the Master of Transportation on the N. C.
Railroad explains itself, and will prove a matter of accommodation to the people at this end of that railroad:

"COMPANY SHOP, N. C." Nov. 4th, 1874.
Hereafter mail trains will run daily, Sundays included, over the length of this (the N. C.) Road.

W. H. GREEN,
Master Transportation.

CHAMPION FLAG AND PENNANT.—Miss Mamie Ellis presented for the citizens of Newbern a beautiful champion flag and pennant to the first nine of the Elm City Club, at the complimentary ball in that city last evening. Now that the ball and presentation is over, can't we have the three regulation games for the championship of base ball of the State between the Newbern young gentlemen and our Athletic club. "We are waiting—can't you come?"

IN BAD LUCK.—Last week Judge Cloud seemed to be the victim of ill fortune and bad luck. He left Raleigh on Tuesday, on his way to Salisbury fair, when someone stole his overcoat and a carpet bag containing his clothes, off the train at Hillsboro, and on Thursday night at Salisbury some one entered his room and stole his pants from under his head, and took about $400 in money from him. At last accounts he had no clue to the thieves.

BILLIARD TABLES.—Mr. J. H. Heckman of the firm of J. G. Taylor & Co., Baltimore has been in our city for a week or two remodeling billiard tables, changing them from the "old pocket style" to the cannon table. He is certainly a first class workman and the tables that have been under his handwork for Phil. Walker that were played upon by the large crowd last evening fully attested the merit of his workmanship, the unanimous verdict of the players being that no tables superior to them could be found.

WHEN THEY TAKE SHOTS.—There seems to be an impression among many persons that the members of the next Congress, elected on Tuesday last, will take their seats in December next. This, of course, is an error. The term of the present Congress does not expire until the fourth of March next; consequently, unless an extra session of Congress is called by Grant at the close of the present Congress, the new members chosen on Tuesday will not enter upon their legislative duties until the first Monday in December, 1875.

SWARM OF GRASSHOPPERS.—A large swarm of grasshoppers passed over our city last night about 9 o'clock, many of them landed until to-day. One of our little carriers (Willie Yargis) captured a paper box full of them and laid them on our table. They were regular Kansas fellows and kept as much noise as a box of rats.

COMPLETION OF THE NEXT HOUSE.— So far as the elections have been held this fall, the political complexion of the House of Representatives will be as follows: Democrats, 178; Republicans, 103; Independents, 3; showing a clear Democratic majority of 48.
Elections are yet to be held in four States, having seventeen members, of which thirteen are now Republicans and four Democrats.

FINANCIAL MATTERS OF THE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The committee consisting of Messrs. R. S. Tucker, Thomas H. Briggs, John Nichols and J.
J. Thomas, appointed to examine the books of the Secretary and Treasurer of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, have completed their labors, and make the following report:

"That they have carefully examined the books of Capt. R. T. Fulghum and find the same correct. There is a balance due him to Nov. 1st, 1874, of $308.97.

"That they find the books of P. A.
Wiley, Treasurer, correct, a balance due him to Oct. 7th, 1874, of $98.01."

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Governor Broden has issued a proclamation declaring the 26th inst., a day of thanksgiving, so our contemporary, the News, states. It comes just in good time. A grateful country is thankful for the blessings showered upon them in the last few days, and no part of that country should be more foremost than we of the South. Let us then fall into line and give one day, as his Excellency promulgates, "with merits for the past," (which have been few), and ever pray that a country, nearly righted, will go on in the good work so handsomely begun on glorious last Tuesday.

ORANGE COUNTY.—The case of Thomas Webb vs. Richmond and Danville Railroad was called on Thursday. Governor Graham, Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Hon.
J. B. Batcher for plaintiff, and Judge Marshall of Richmond, and Capt. Sam.
Ashe for the defendants. A motion was made by Capt. Ashe to remove the cause to the Federal Court, under the act of Congress of 1866 allowing non-resident citizens this privilege. The motion was related upon the ground that the railroad was not a citizen of any State, and that the motion should be passed on the ground that the defendant could not obtain justice. Judge Kerr denied the motion to remove, and the case was continued for the next term of the court.

CLOUD VS. WILSON. was also heard and discussed at great length and with much ability. Col. McCormick for Judge Cloud, Governor Graham, Hon. W. N. H. Smith and Mr. Clements for Judge Wilson. The Judge reserved his opinion.

AFTER THE VICTORY.—REJOICING THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.—BOSTON, Nov. 4.—Democrats in various parts of the State celebrated their victory to-day by firing 100 guns.

In Maine and New Hampshire salutes were fired. At Gloucester 100 guns were fired to-night.

REPUBLICAN SYMPATHY WITH CORRUPTION.
BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The feeling in this city and section over the result of the election is profound, and the interest today has been scarcely less than yesterday.
The papers unite in ascribing the defeat to abuses which have crept into the Republican State party, and its apparent sympathy with corruption.

HAT BEN BUTLER SAYS.
BOSTON, Nov. 4.—The defeat of Butler and Ayer is hailed with satisfaction even by the republican press. Butler taken only, and to-day said: "If the Republican party can stand its losses, I think I can bear my share."

BUTLER BURNED IN EFFIGY.
AGOSTA, Nov. 4.—There were a torchlight procession and bonfires to-night in honor of the Democratic triumph.
Speeches were made by Cummings, Black, Tutt and others. Butler was burned in effigy.

A LITTLE STORY ABOUT GENERAL DIX.
ALBANY, Nov. 4.—The Journal (Republican) of this city, relates a story told to one of its editors two weeks before the election by Governor Dix, with a hearty laugh over its ludicrous aspects, which, it says, will perhaps teach the true explanation of the defeat of the Republicans.
During a recent visit to his home on Long Island, the Governor was told by one of his farm hands of a conversation with one or two fishermen. He had asked them how they were going to vote. "Well," one of them answered, "I hardly know.
I like Governor Dix; but I think he has been a good Governor; but times are hard and business is dull. We don't average now more than half an cent to pot, and I don't know but there had better be a change."

STATE NEWS.

Three negro prisoners escaped from Salisbury jail Sunday last.

The sheriff of Rowan brought to the penitentiary three convicts Tuesday.

A complimentary ball was given last night in Newbern to the Elm City Base Club.

Samuel M. Phelps, an old and respectable citizen of Davidson county, died on the 23d ult., aged 79 years.

In Beaufort county there are 80 cases of small pox.

Near Wilmington a nest of young alligators, twenty-two in number, have been discovered, their average length being ten or twelve inches.

The Hon. A. W. Venable, of Granville, has written a letter to the Oxford Leader, taking strong grounds against the calling of a convention. We shall make extracts therefrom.

Charlotte had a grand rally, with Gov.
Vance, Hon. A. M. Waddell and P. E.
Shober as speakers, on Thursday night.
It was a rousing celebration.

Mr. Jacob Shuford, an estimable citizen of Lincoln county, was found drowned in a small creek on his place on Sunday morning about 10 o'clock. His age was about 70 years.

A great revival of religion is now being conducted at the Methodist Church, in Rockingham, as we learn from the Courier. It is conducted by Rev. J. Wheeler, assisted by Rev. T. W. Guthrie, and there have thus far been 45 conversions.

Winston Sentinel: May Masten, daughter of Col. Joseph Master, of Winston, took the premium at the State Fair for the best specimen of penmanship by a North Carolina girl 18 years old. Flora Romer, of Salem, also took a premium on best specimen of practical penmanship.

The Rockingham Courier says: Rev.
K. M. McIntire and Rev. A. N. Ferguson have this month held meetings of days at Sharon and Macedonia churches, Presbyterian, in Montgomery county, N. C., at which places about seventy persons were penitent of whom about 40 indulge the hope of conversion.

Mr. McArdle, of Charlotte, was beaten by a side-show man, Thursday, in that city. He was struck a powerful blow on the right side of his head with a bloodgeon, knocking him down, and rendering him senseless. His skull was fractured, and his condition serious. The show man has not been apprehended. The attack was caused by some playful remark, the Observer says, to the showman's wife.

Says the Wilmington Echo: The Superior Court for Beaufort county convened yesterday, Judge Hilliard presiding.
His charge to the grand jury was a good one, and the Bar seem much pleased with him. He is courteous in his dealings, and has a proper regard for the position he occupies. From indications thus far, he is a fair, impartial and unbiased Judge, and a decided improvement on his predecessor in office.

On Friday night last a white man by the name of Oventon, and a negro named Nash Taylor, went to the store of Messrs.
Robinson & Taylor, in Edgecombe, three miles from Bethel Church, and while the clerk, Mr. Nathan Grimes, was in the act drawing molasses, the former dealt him a blow on the back of the head with an axe, from which he died in a few hours.
They succeeded in getting a large amount of money. The evidence is very clear against them, and they are now confined in the jail at Tarboro.

Says the Wilmington Star: Among the members of the Baptist State Convention, which met in the first Baptist Church, in this city, yesterday morning, we observed the following gentlemen of prominence among the clergy: Rev. Dr.
Wingate, President of Wake Forest College, in stature, like Sam, towering above his brethren; Rev. T. W. Walters, D. D., also a Wake Forest professor, and the venerable and excellent President of the Convention, Rev. Dr. Brooks. Besides these, there are in attendance such misters, of acknowledged influence and talent, as Rev. J. D. Hulham, a genial executor, the versatile Rev. A. F. Redd, editor of the Biblical Recorder; Rev.
Messrs. Hiden, of Wilmington, Owen, of Tarboro, Ivey, Bailey, Cobb, and others.
Professor Reinhardt, President of Thom-sonville Female College, is also a delegate.

LIGHT INFANTRY TARGET PRACTICE.
The following was the result of the target shooting by the Raleigh Light Infantry on yesterday afternoon:

The target was 23 inches wide from the bulls eye, making the lowest number that could be obtained in three shots 66: Lumsden obtained 115, Mullen 503, Carrier 355, Ferrall 361, Pullen 445, Williams 475, Ennis 485, Betts 485, Smith 503, Stier 515, Thomas 535, the remaining members missing the target entirely. The silver cup was awarded to private Lumsden as the best shot, while the tin cup to be awarded to the most indifferent shot was not awarded at all, owing to the fact that it could not be ascertained who shot the widest from the target.

THE MARKET.—In New York on yesterday Cotton was easier, receipts 2,243 bales, at 14 5-16. Turpentine firm at 36.
Money easy. Exchange strong.
