An infant and its mother were glass. The Senior waking up said he supp-sed the rock was thrown by some man dissatisfied with the result of the late election. Mr. Reams, of Durham, at Ft. Bonifacious Catholic Church, of Cook. who is not yet able to speak, can both see and bear. He wrote on paper that it was thrown by a negro boy, and he saw him statement that he absconded with the will take a class of each to the Hickory as he ran. Then said a passenger he is preparing to vote the ticket, when he is grows. Upon search being made for the rock it could not be found, but partie es of hard clay as large as bird eggs were abundant in the car. There was a general forgiveness of the negro by the passengers when they found out that clay instead of hard rocks were thrown. It showed a want of malice. That boy will throw rocks next year.

MAYOR'S COURT,-His Honor Mayor Holden opened his levee this morning at 11 o'clock.

The first case was that of A. Cawthorn who was found by the police drunk and down on the street. He paid the usual fine of $5 and was discharged.

Charlotte Observer : We are gratified 安全工作和企业的特别的企业 but a poor string of its at the Pain her last week. They are loud in their wailings, many of them ewearing that they did not make expenses. Good.

Observer : Dr. J. C. Fox has so far re tovered from his recent illness, as to have been on the Fair Grounds one day last week, and H. W. Guion, Esq., who was recently stricken with paralysis, was upon the streets yesterday afternoon. We were heartily glad to see them both.

Charlotte Obareer: Sometime during Friday night or yesterday morning an attempt was made to burglarize the residence of Capt. Armistead Burwell. The noise which the would be burglar made in picking at a lock of a rear outside door aroused the family. Capt. B. arose and getting his pistol, fired, as nearly as he could judge, at the lock of the door from which the sound proceeded. The ball entered the door about four inches from the lock and passed through.

Observer: During the Fair here last week sales were made of race horses as follows : T. H. Trezewant sold Jim Hinton to H. E. Barton, of New York, for $500; J. W. Crawford sold Van Buren to L. A. Hitchcock for $450; F. W. Horne sold Joe Nanney to Col. W. R. Myers, of this city for $150. This horse is a thoroughbred stallion, four years old, 15 1-2 hands high, blood bay. THE END OF TROUBLE -'Tie as Hamet says : " a consummation devoutly to be wished," and how many thousand are daily wishing to see it-that is the end of trouble! Yet there are many who will see it, and before the end of the present month. On the 30th of November the great drawing of the Public Library of Ky, takes place, and the fortunate men who draw numerous large prizes, each of which is a fortune, will enthusiastically exclaim : "this is the end of trouble!" They will however be senaible enough to secure their tickets in time, and fortify themselves against the danger of being tormented by these awful words-too late. For full informstion apply to R. H. DEATH OF COL. THAD, STEVEN, -- Col. Thad. Stevens, nephew of the late Congressman Thaddeus Stevens, died in Lancaster, Pa., Sunday, aged 39 Colonel Stevens was a soldier during the late war. His habits of life were such that on the death of his uncle Thad, a provision was found in his will leaving his nephew $300 per anoum and if certain conditions (ceasing the use of intexicating liquors) were complied with, then the entire de scendant's estate would revert to him otherwise the estate was to go to the founding of an orphan saylum for the and colors. Insemuch as the late Stevens did not comply with the condions of the will, the entire estate will go to the lounding of a great orphus asym in Lancaster. The estate is variously estimated to be worth from $120,000 to BUTLER's DEFEAT .- The receipt of the news of Butler's defeat in Boston seems to news of Butter's deteat in Boaton seems to have been the occasion of a vast display of feeling. The Advertiser says that all manner of fun was poked at Butter and his deteat. None were so poor to do him reverence. BUTLER'S OPPONENT.-Charles P. Thompson, who has been elected from the Essex (Mass.) district to succeed Gen. Butler, is an unequivocal Democrat. The intention of the voters in that district was pretty plainly expressed. Mr. Thompson is admitted to be a straight man every way—straight on the currency question and finances generally, on big pay and little jobs, on the invention of Southern outrages for party effect, on gagslaws and everything that smells of Butleriam. Mr. Thompson is forty-seven years of age, and is a lawyer.
