We think the present grat gemement as admirable one and finds great favor with the traveling community. The proposed change will have the effect of causing passengers bound north a considerable delay, whereas at present they are detained only a short time. At a ameeting of the Board city commissioners, Monday evening, November 9 h, Mr. Gorman for the committee on Sounce, returned the following pinion delivered by B. F. Moore, addressed as follows, Jao. Nichols, E-q., and others committee:

TO THE STATE OF TH subject, but shall briefly reply and confine myself to two questions, as follows: Question 1st. There are now outstand ing city warrants, which the city is thusble to pay by reason of its heavy indebtedgess. Can the city authorities issue city female for the same?

Answer A city warrant is but the admission by the city authorities, of a debt due by the city to whom the warrant is issued; and it follows of course, that if the warrant binds the city the change of the warrant to a city bond does not change the consideration of the debt; nor does it increase or diminish the obligation of the city to pay it. I am of opinion therefore that the acknowledgement of a city debt is of equal force and validity, whether it is evidenced by a warrant or a bond.

Question 2. Is the city tax collector bound to receive warrants or orders, on speculations are entirely worthless at this Forty-fourth Congress, should politically the Treasurer for taxes? If it were n the power of the city to make debts, and stipulated that they should not be received to payment of its taxes imposed on the creditor, the city might substantially angul the debt by refusing to levy ary tax larger than might be a cossary to discharge its other debts, and then the ity would never have tunds with which to pay it; and even if such warrants were reduced to judgmen's in law the judgments would still be officied by the condition of the contract; if the judg-ment were not good to discharge the creditors' tax, it would be absurd to comand will neither pay it by levying a tax discharge of a tax, and may lawfully refuse to do oither, there is no remedy, and the debt is a rullity, and no mandamus will lie to con pel its discharge.
