City Intelligence.

Local Notes.

Our friend, George H. Snow, Esq., left us on Friday for a short business trip in Mississippi.

Notice is called to the advertisement of J. M. Fleming, agent, of an important sale in Raleigh Township, Wake county.

The sport of boys, who highly engage in removing gates and signs from the premises of citizens, needs the attention of the police.

On Friday, 27th inst., His Honor Judge Henry will hold a court at chambers in this city.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather our churches were well attended yesterday. Shawls and umbrellas were in demand and at a premium.

The Berger Family of Swiss Bell Ringers whose performances gave such general satisfaction in this city last week, open in Newbern to-night.

Peyton Brown, late the popular "ambulance man," is now with the enterprising D. B. Waitt, on Fayetteville Street in the dry goods business where he will be glad to meet his many friends.

The weather is, and has been, so variable for the last few days, that we decline to say what it is at present writing. We might say it is charming, all that could be desired, and before this item went to press, we might get our foot in the mud. So we even omit "old prob."

The Raleigh SENTINEL is one of the oldest papers in the State, and now is the time to subscribe and get all the current news, and all those who have subscribed and not paid therefor, walk up to the Captain's office and you'll find him there.

The trial of the two negroes who so brutally murdered Mr. Pearson, the keeper of the Roanoke River bridge at Weldon some months ago, is in progress at Jackson, Northampton county, and will, no doubt, be concluded to-day. A motion to remove the cause to another county was overruled. Robbery was the cause of the murder.

Yesterday afternoon about four o'clock the prisoners confined in the jail of this county attempted to break out. They had formed a plot, and called the jailer to bring in some lime for disinfecting purposes. After using the lime and when the jailer was about to retire, one of the prisoners threw a handful of lime in his face and attempted to pass him, whereupon the jailer secured the door and the prisoner George seized the officer around the waist, and the jailer while so held drew his pistol, and fired without effect. The prisoner relinquished his hold and attempted to escape, when the officer Mr. Bunch fired on him, the shot taking effect in the back, just below the shoulder joint, which put a stop to his movements, when he was secured and medical aid called. We have not learned whether the injuries would be fatal or not.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of Tax Collector Haywood in another column. But a few days only remain for you to attend to the matter.

POSTPONED.—We are requested to state that the ladies' festival for Person Street Church is postponed until to-morrow (Tuesday) night. We bespeak for the ladies' festival a good attendance.

NEW YORK MARKETS.—In New York on Saturday cotton was quiet and steady; sales, 784 bales at 14 7/8 a 15 1/4. Futures closed easy. Rosin firm. Turpentine heavy. Money easy. Gold 111 1/8 a 11 1/4. Governments steady. State bonds quiet and lower.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—The loss of Mr. Clifton, whose cotton gin near Raleigh was insured in Lawrence & Winston's Agency, was adjusted and paid within one week from the time of the fire.

The books of the Public Treasurer of North Carolina show that, for the six months ending July 1st, Lawrence & Winston did the leading fire business in North Carolina, and that the Old Dominion Insurance Company of Richmond, Va., represented by these gentlemen, took the lead of any other Company doing business in the State by a several thousand dollars of premiums. This company does not, of course, endorse our home companies as these are not required by law to report to the Public Treasurer.

DARING ROBBERY.—This afternoon about 3 o'clock, Mr. C. H. Withers, a grocer on Fayetteville Street next door to the corner of Martin Street, as he was usual custom at the above hour, locked his store door and proceeded home to his dinner. Upon his return he found a rear window up, and upon examination discovered that some thirty dollars or more had been abstracted from his money drawer, some small thin plasters being scattered on the floor. The thief broke the window and extracted the nail that was driven over the sash, thus effecting an entrance, having first gone through the alley between Messrs. Withers and Bradley's places of business. No clue to the thief, but the police are on the alert.

We sympathize with Mr. W. in his loss, for he is one of our best and most industrious citizens, and trust the rascal may be apprehended.

General Assembly of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SEVENTH DAY.

November 23.

President Morehead called the Senate to order at 11 a. m. Prayer by the Rev. J. M. Atkinson, of the Presbyterian Church. The Journal of Saturday was read and approved.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Messrs. Busbee, from the Judiciary, Cook, from the same, and Lenoxy, from the same, Mr. Marler, from Enrolled Bill, submitted reports.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Mr. Cantwell, a bill concerning lands forfeited to the State for taxes. It allows redemption in certain cases. Referred.

Mr. Cantwell, a bill in favor of George W. Hallcock, of Stoughton county, New York. Referred. Mr. Cantwell, a bill in favor of L. McGinney, of Wilmington, N. C. Referred.

Mr. LeGrand, a bill amending section 1, chapter 32 laws of 1873-74. It relates to mortgages. Referred.

Mr. Anderson, a bill in relation to stock raising; amends section 3, chapter 34. Referred.

Mr. Stickey, a bill amending section 25, chapter 104, Battle's Revised. Relates to county bridges over certain streams. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS.

A resolution that the consideration of the State debt question be in secret session was adopted.

Mr. Cantwell, a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce, of Wilmington, in regard to certain State bonds in that section of the State proposing to take charge of them and render valuable.

Mr. Cantwell, a joint resolution concerning certain subjects of legislation, asking the postponement of any action upon various questions until a general bill can be passed. Lies over.

Mr. Cantwell, a resolution of instruction to the committee on Internal Improvements be instructed to enquire and report upon the matters charged in the memorial of N. U. Onderdonk, of New York, with instructions and powers to send for persons and papers.

Mr. Waring thought that the investigation would consume too much time—some six weeks—the Internal Improvement committee had a great deal to do, and he was of the opinion that a select committee would be best.

Mr. Parish thought the resolution a good one, and was strongly in favor of it. It would bring out certain things that as yet had not been unearthed.

Mr. Stanford, an amendment that the committee should have all clerical aid necessary. Adopted.

Mr. French moved a postponement of the resolution until to-morrow, wishing to hear from parties in Wilmington. The motion prevailed.

A joint resolution upon Constitutional Reform from the House of Representatives, appointing a joint standing committee of eight upon the part of the Senate and thirteen upon the part of the House, came up.

Mr. Cantwell, an amendment, that this committee be instructed to consider whether our present constitution require, any amendment, and if so the most safe, certain, practical, speedy and economical. He argued his amendment at some length.

Mr. French wanted the resolution adopted. The House had refused to agree to the one of the Senate. He was opposed to an expression of opinion in regard to a convention, but if the democratic party so decided one way or the other, he was confident they would march in solid phalanx to victory.

Mr. Stanford thought the Senator from New Hanover, (Mr. Cantwell), and a few other Senators, seemed to be eager for the fray, he assured them that they would have ample justice done them.

Mr. Mills thought the amendment disrespectful to the House; he hoped the resolution as it was would prevail.

Mr. Cantwell again spoke at length on his amendment.

At the conclusion of his remarks Mr. Stanford said that he had been listening with all his ears to the gentleman's remarks, but for his life he could not tell what he was driving at. His remarks he did not think were appropriate, and he really thought Senator Cantwell was merely talking to hear himself talk. The House resolution was sufficient, let us adopt it. The amendment was then rejected, and the resolution concurred in.

Mr. Busbee, a resolution authorizing the Keeper of the Capitol to purchase settees for the lobbies of the Senate and the House. It lies over one day.

A joint resolution in regard to a direct tax of lands levied and collected by the Federal Government in the year 1863, transmitted from the House, was adopted. The resolution requests Congress to cause the taxes so collected to be refunded.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

A bill revising and condemning the Code of Civil Procedure in certain cases was, upon motion, indefinitely postponed.

A bill in relation to the Wake county workhouse (allows sale of the same and changes the present location) passed its several readings after being explained by Senator Busbee.

A bill allowing the commissioners of Wake county to continue their special meetings not longer than six days.

Mr. Stanford, an amendment that their meetings shall not be held more than four days which was accepted.

Mr. Waring, an amendment inserting the county of Mecklenburg, after that of Wake, which was accepted, and upon motion of Mr. Busbee, under a suspension of the rules, passed its several readings.

A bill in relation to changing the time for holding the courts in the third district.

Mr. Bell wished the bill referred to the Judiciary. It was introduced by a member of the House, a lawyer, without consultation. It would seriously affect the interests of his constituents, for the time for holding the court in his county was just at the busiest season of the year.

Messrs. Latham and Cook also desired its reference and the Senate ordered it to be done.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, NOV. 23, 1874.

At 11 a. m. Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, of the city.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. McRae, for the Committee on Internal Improvements; Mr. Walker, from the Committee on Salaries and Fees; Mr. Finger, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills, and Mr. Shackelford, from the Committee on Egressed Bills, submitted reports.

On motion of Mr. Pinnix, his amendment offered on Saturday, was also reconsidered.

Mr. Pinnix offered another amendment which was adopted, and the bill passed its third reading.

The resolution in regard to the printing of the House stationery was taken up as unfinished business and adopted.

The bill to repeal chapter 62, laws of 1873-74, was taken up and on motion of Mr. Moring, indefinitely postponed.

The bill to protect owners of live stock against railroads was taken up and on motion of Mr. Walker, of Richmond, indefinitely postponed.

The bill to amend the act to incorporate the Diamond Cotton Chopper and Cultivator Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

The bill to amend section 15, chapter 105, Battle's Revised, was taken up, substituted reported by the committee was adopted, and the bill, after a number of propositions to amend, was recommitted, on motion of Mr. Walker, of Richmond, to the committee on salaries and fees.

The resolution supplying members with copies of Battle's Revised was taken up and adopted.

Mr. Harner moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was adopted. Mr. Foster moved to lay the motion on the table. The yeas and nays were called and the motion to table was rejected by a vote of yeas 24, nays 74. The question recurred on the motion to reconsider. Mr. Spear moved to postpone until Friday at 12 m. Rejected.

The motion to reconsider prevailed.

On motion of Moring, the whole matter was indefinitely postponed.

The resolution asking for indemnity from the government for the destruction of the Court House in Davidson county was taken up and adopted.

After the transaction of some unimportant business the House adjourned.

STATE NEWS.

Ex-Gov. Vance is to be invited by the Library Association of Wilmington to deliver his lecture on The Scattered Nations.

New Hanover county is a long way ahead in the State's boarding house, having fifty five boarders, a plurality of 14.

The good citizens of Charlotte are preparing to erect a handsome monument in Elmwood Cemetery, of that city to the Confederate dead.

Tribune is to have a fire insurance company, and the wealthy and most prominent citizens of Edgecombe county, will be the stockholders.

Wilmington is to have a new steam fire engine, and from the description of its powers, we should say that it would be some on a fire.

The Wilmingtonians have base ball on the brain. They are to have three clubs ready to play the champion game, to come off on the fair grounds in that city next month.

The Washington Echo says: The barn of Mrs. Laughinghouse, in Pitt county, was recently destroyed by fire together with a quantity of cotton, corn and fodder. The fire was the result of a lamp explosion.

The Newbern Times says: Early on Sunday morning the barn of Wm. G. Taylor, Esq., about three miles from Kinston, was discovered to be on fire, and was, together with a valuable horse, totally consumed. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin, but the perpetrator has not been discovered.

The Salisbury Intelligencer says: Mr. Mowbray, of this city, has a horse with a hole in his forehead about an inch and a half in diameter, through which he breathes regularly, and yet performs his daily task at the dray. This aperture was made by his coming in contact with a fence rail some time last spring.

Piedmont Press: "It is not our fault that we are red headed and small, said a certain local editor at the dress hop in Charlotte the other night: "and the next time that one of those overgrown rural roosters reaches down for our head, and suggests that some fellow has lost a rose bud out of his button hole, there will be trouble."

Piedmont Press: While Mr. J. A. Perry and wife, of Burke county, were out in the field, their little child, about eighteen months old, by some means fell into a large pot of boiling water and was scalded to death. When the child was taken out the flesh, as well as the skin, came off at a touch. We are truly sorry to hear of this horrible accident.

RING PAPERS.—The impression prevails now that there are a good many ring papers in the country. These papers, it is stated on pretty good authority, are run by the money of rings and cliques in the interest of certain monopolies and political aspirants. These papers are not confined to any particular party, but in the main profess to be Conservative. They spring up like the mushroom, and are often new converts, new in most particulars, and sometimes attempt to out do themselves to make a show of their party loyalty. We tell the people to beware, there is something in the wind. There is evidently something rotten in newspaperdom. As the facts come to us we will give them to our readers. Give us the names.—Carolina Watchman.

MAYOR'S COURT.—This court was well attended this morning.

Four Saturday night offenders were released on payment of fine and cost, being arrested for drunkenness.

Three Sunday drunkards were tried and fined, all of them being the worse for wear.

A warrant against a citizen for having another man's goose was heard. The evidence being insufficient the case was dismissed.

The case of the candy man, Howes comes up this afternoon on a warrant for nuisance and disturbance of the peace of the neighborhood.

S. S. Cox has the satisfaction of being elected to the Forty-fourth Congress by the largest majority of any member of that body, he having received a majority of over ten thousand.

Texas is putting forth strenuous efforts for the recruitment of white labor, the negroes having proved utterly unreliable. A large excursion party of planters from that State are now en route to Atlanta, Ga., from which they will scatter out through the States of Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, and North and South Carolina, where they hope to find white people who are willing to move to Texas.

The Wilmington Journal says that Major Canaday, who bid in a large proportion of the city property recently sold at auction for non-payment of the city taxes due thereon, has kindly offered to allow the owners to redeem the same, without the payment of any percentage thereon, provided application is made to him on or before the 30th inst.
