RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Cantwell, a resolution allowing each member of the Legislature a copy of Battle's Revisal After considerable discussion in which Senators took quite a wide range, finally Mr. French offered a substitute authorizing the purchase of 49 volumes for the use of the Senate, and 122 volumes for the use of the House of Representatives, to be placed in the NEW YORK MARKETS.-In New York libraries of the two Houses, which was adopted.

The Senate concurred in House resolution regarding the opening of the mouth sag, Gold 116 al 14. Governments dull of Scuppernong River. Also in resolu and strong. State bonds setting and thon regarding the Cape Fear River Bar at Wilmington.

The Senate concurred in House reso-MAYOR'S COURT.-All qu'et on the jution memorializing Congress in regard to the destruction of Davidson county Court House. It asks for payment of the lation introduced by Mr. Cantwell, was taken up, and that Senator explained ; it being a resolution to put all private bills in an empibus bill such as reliefs for sheriffs, charters, corporations, &:

Mr Stanford opposed the resolution for it covered all legislation that would gard to the distribution of Battle's Recome before this body, and he moved to lay the resolution upon the table express ing hinself at the same time that he did it with no nokind feelings to the Sena tor from New Hanover, whom he siways liked, and who in ante bellum times had stood shoulder to shoulder to him; he hoped that that friendship would still contione acting upon the motto that his old grandfather, a preacher, had so often repeated to him, "While the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner might return." He yet had hopes for the Senator from New Hanover.

Mr. Cantwell met Mr. S. ball way and go where Gov. Holden, Judges Rodman, Settle and other old democrats had gone, but upon considerable merriment and laughter being exhibited by the Secators at the latter remarks, corrected himself by mying that he truly did not mean that be wanted Senators to go through an im peachment. He declared that old whigh were nominated and held all the offices from the Conservative party, and spoke at considerable length.

Mr. Stanford in replying briefly, said Sat he was always an old line Dimograt, and ever should be, but the Senator's allusion to the democrats who had gone to the Radicals, such as Holden, Rods Trivett) should have introduced man and Settle, he was glad they had original, but he expected it from the gone, and with the splendid exchange of o'd Whigs, some of whom were sitting
