Local Notes.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed by our citizens.

Our streets are literally blocked up with cotton. From Fayetteville east to Blount street it is almost impassable.

The services of the congregation of the Good Shepherd will be held on Sunday next and thereafter at Tucker Hall, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at 4 p. m.

Squire Gould Upchurch brought down to the city Charles Carter, yesterday morning, charged with stealing money.

Mr. W. R. Crawford, of stall No. 1, at the East entrance of the market, has an agent in the Western part of the State, who keeps himself constantly supplied with the best mountain beef.

THE BOY TERNIP. A lady in Salisbury had ternips for dinner three times of one ternip.

CLARA WILDMAN. Mrs. Wildman played with her New York Comedy Troupe, in the town of Wilson, Thursday night.

MAYOR'S COURT. Not a sound was heard, not a funeral note at his Honor's Court this morning, and at this writing, peace and quiet prevail throughout the city.

PERSONNEL METHODIST CHURCH. This church has been recently repaired and now presents a different appearance, both inside and out.

GRANT WILL VISIT MOSEY. Says the Alexandria "Gazette" it is expected that the proposed visit of President Grant to his friend Mosey, of Warrenton, will be made on Thursday next, and the estate of Bethel Academy, Fauquier, are getting ready to act as escort from the railroad depot to the Governor's mansion.

TRIAL OF ELLIOTT. The trial of Joe Elliott, of Statesville, for the murder of young Neal, of Richmond, Va., is now in progress at Hillsboro.

THE RIGHT COUNTRY. We want an emigrant's ticket right off. Mr. Mills has just returned from a trip to Madison county, and he informs us that cabbages the size of a clothes bucket are selling at a cent per head, and an apple as big as a cannon ball can be bought for fifty cents per bushel.

FR. D. GRANT'S WIFE. This is how Mr. Fred was dressed at her recent bridal reception in Washington City, and our lady readers are perhaps a trifle envious to know about it.

USCLE JIM FROM VIRGINIA. O Uncle Jim Overby, an old Virginia negro, and a near relative to the famous good "old uncle Ned," just arrived in this city this morning, and his business is to look after a stolen horse that was run off the other day from a Mr. Tarockmorton, of Clarksville.

NOVEMBER 28, 1874. President Morehead pro tem in chair. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Reports of Standing Committees in order. Bill to amend certain chapters of Battle's Revisal, recommended to pass.

The House informed Senate of passage of act to charter the Watauga and Caldwell Narrow Gauge Railroad, Calendars. Introduction of bills in order.

Mr. Cantwell moved to commit resolution to committee on Propositions and Grievances. Mr. French moved to refer to Judiciary Committee, but accepted to refer to Finance Committee.

Mr. French moved to refer to Judiciary Committee, but accepted to refer to Finance Committee. Mr. Busbee pressed the resolution not to refer.

Mr. Cantwell thought the thing avoided of politics, and that this Senate could not on their oath vote T. F. Lee a defaulter.

Mr. Busbee denied any such design, the Auditor himself, and Sheriff Lee also wished the resolution offered.

Mr. Cantwell was building a fine political barricade on a foundation of sand.

Mr. Cantwell declared he only wished justice done one man. That if he built his barricade upon sand, it was Mr. Busbee's argument that furnished him the sand.

Mr. Busbee's resolution and it passed the third reading and was engrossed.

Mr. Graham, a resolution to employ convict labor in draining swamp land. Passed.

The bill from Judiciary Committee granting relief to sheriff, tax collectors, &c., for arrears of taxes '73, '73 and '74. Provided by Mr. Linney that any sureties claiming benefit shall first execute bond the same as sheriff or tax collector.

On motion of Mr. Strong the rules were suspended and House Bill No. 40, in relation to the payment out of the Public Treasurer for the full amount of the Public Printer—excepts the Public Printer from the forfeiture provided in Battle's Revisal in case the laws should not be printed in the time designated therein.

Alluded to the injunction granted by Judge Watts to Brown, and the unfavorable delay occasioned to the printer thereby.

On motion of Mr. Greene, of Watauga, the rules were suspended and the bill for the relief of Jno. Houghton, former sheriff of Watauga, passed its several readings.

House bill No. 7, by Mr. Proffitt, to amend chap. 37, section 3, laws of 1873-1874, which amends the local liquor bill for the town of Burnsville, Yancey county, passed its several readings.

House resolution in regard to enquiring of the Governor in regard to the official conduct of J. C. L. Harris, by Mr. Tate, passed its several readings.

On motion the House adjourned until Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

DIED.—In Concord, N. C., on the 20th of November, John W. Gorman, aged 41 years, one month and 18 days. The deceased had been suffering for years from that dreadful disease consumption, which he bore with christian fortitude, and when his time arrived he expressed that willingness to appear before his Maker that is manifest in every true christian spirit, his only apparent regret being that he must leave an afflicted widow and several orphan children upon the cold charities of the world.

He had for a long number of years been a coar member of the Baptist church at Raleigh, his former residence, and was also a member of Stokes Lodge, No. 33, Free Masons, by which body he was buried with the honors of the order.

IN THE SENATE.—Two good old ladies from the country with their hats on, were in the Senate gallery this morning, peering around the post at the good old time and honest law making which is now going on.

A little later a whole female school of beauties surrounded both galleries like a dress parade and looked down like little angels upon the grave and noble Senators. The handsomest Senator in the house sat as erect as a statue and only smiled as he looked up, once.

Mr. Busbee paid a very nice tribute to State Auditor Riley to-day, declaring that he was a safe and honest officer and one exceedingly watchful of the financial interests of the State.

A battalion of imported Bahama negroes voted for the radicals in Florida at the recent election.

Lieut. Hodgson is in the line of promotion in Louisiana. He is to be court martialled for alleged excesses previous to the election in that State. He will be appointed Captain in ten days if found guilty.

George Flynt brought us a five pound turp last week, and this week we have received one from Daniel Eaton, Esq., of Davie, weighing fifteen pounds, and measuring 3 1/2 inches in circumference. Mr. Eaton is a Granger, but we are sorry to say Mr. Flynt is not.—Western Sentinel.

NOT ALLOWED. Next week we will give reasons why Treasurer Jenkins should not be allowed to sell State bonds as provided for in House Bill No. 46, and why the North Carolina Railroad corporation should not be allowed to sell bonds as provided in the same bill.

That corporation is rotten to the core, and one or more of its directors have received $50,000 for getting up the lease, as we have been informed and have reason to believe. Sell enough of the bonds of the North Carolina road to pay off the debts of the Federal Court selling its stock. Then sell its bonds to build the road from Old Fort to Morgantown. Don't allow a rotten corporation to handle them. Put the bonds in the hands of Col. Armfield, Mike Welch, Mont Patton, or William Johnston, old Billy Rankin, or old Billy Baird, of Buncombe, or John McDowell, Jo Erwin, or Jo Mills, of Burke, a committee chosen from such men would secure the building of the road.

Our tax collector offered to settle with the Public Treasurer more than ten days since, but was unable to do so on account of a defect in the law. A special law has passed this Legislature to meet the case of all collectors in the same category. Old Wake will not be behind. Come up boys, we will meet you at Phillips!

NEW YORK FUNERAL.—It would appear as if some New Yorkers were making fools of themselves in the solemn matter of funerals.

Doubtless some among us recollect the funeral ceremonies of a young man at the residence of his parents, on Fifth Avenue, a few years ago, when $3,000 worth of floral decorations were used, a prima donna sang, and a well known professional officiated at the organ.

That memorable funeral, however, has been eclipsed by one that occurred in town not long ago. The deceased has been conspicuous in a certain kind of society, and was a very lovely girl. The coffin was placed on a platform in the parlor, draped with black velvet and jet. The flowers exhibited, cost nearly $3,000, and a chorus was sung by hired vocalists. On either side of the coffin stood four young girls, dressed in white, each holding a wreath of flowers.

While the minister prayed, a bell was tolled in the hall way, and a chant was indulged in by the hired vocalists.—N. Y. Mail.

Jones, col., has been elected from Halifax to the Legislature to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Daniel, col.

POND'S EXTRACT is recommended for many complaints, but experience and constant use for twenty-five years serve to show its range and power. Try it once!

Have you a severe wrench or sprain? Have you rheumatism in any form? Have you stiff neck, or branches caused by rheumatic pains? If so, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is a specific remedy, used internally and externally.

We often see a large stock of cattle which do not seem to thrive, and come out "spring poor," all for want of something to start them in the right direction. One dollar's worth of Sheridan's Cough Condition Powder, given to such a stock occasionally during the winter, would be worth more than an extra half ton of hay.

EMPORIUM OF FASHION.—Mrs. Harriet Andrews, Fashionable Milliner, has returned from the North with a large stock of everything in the Millinery line, consisting of hats, bonnets, ribbons, sashes, belts, handkerchiefs, neck ties, ruffles ladies underwear, and in fact almost any article pertaining to ladies outfit. Our ladies, and visitors especially are invited to inspect her magnificent stock.
