City Intelligence.

P. H. WINSTON ON CONVENTION TO-NIGHT at Tucker Hall.

If it is no trouble please give credit to our legislative reporter.

T-MORROW NIGHT—Gen. Clingman lectures at Tucker Hall. Give him a crowd.

THE TACKLER'S MATE—Lippan, the stick-box man, was released from confinement in jail on Monday by Judge Watts, on the ground that the trick was not a statutory offence.

HEATING THE CAPITOL—Mr. Mills introduced in the Senate to-day a resolution providing for a better, healthier and cheaper plan of heating the Capitol than the old fashion fire place system.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE—Senate, 1 Radical, 2 Independent Democrats, and 41 true Democrats. The House stands, white radicals 4, negroes 3, Independent Democrats 12, and true Democrats 159.

IN THE CITY.—Col. Pool, a prominent citizen from Newberry, S. C., is stopping in the City. The Colonel has had his daughter at our St. Mary's school, but we regret to learn that she will return with him home on account of her delicate health.

DEATH OF MR. SHERWOOD—We find the following in the Concord Sun, of Saturday: Mr. J. B. Sherwood, a citizen of our town and brother to the former editor of the Presbyterian, was found on Thanksgiving Day by a party of young gentlemen hunting in the woods, near town, in an insensible condition.

REV. DR. MORAN—We see that this distinguished divine has closed his labors with the congregation of the Front Street Methodist Church, in Wilmington. The Journal of yesterday gives us the following information concerning him: "The Doctor left this morning for Raleigh, where the North Carolina Conference will be in session this week, and from which he will take a location, proposing in the spring to go to Europe, making the tour of the Continent, when we hope to meet often from his graphic pen."

AN INTERESTING MARRIAGE CEREMONY—Wednesday night before Thanksgiving was the scene of an interesting occurrence at Christ Episcopal Church, in Newberry. Mr. William Whitford, son of Col. John D. Whitford, was united in marriage to Miss Sophie C. Stevenson, the only daughter of the late George S. Stevenson and Mrs. Sophie C. Stevenson, of that city. The Newberry Commerce gives a column notice of the marriage.

THEO. N. RAMSAY INITIATES FIVE HUNDRED IN SIX WEEKS.—Theo. N. Ramsay returned to this city yesterday after an absence of six weeks. Since he left Raleigh he has organized twenty lodges of Good Templars, with a membership of five hundred men and women.

HE ESTABLISHED LODGES at the following places in Eastern Carolina: Hamilton, Jamesville and Waring in Martin county; Roxobel and Harrison's X Roads in Bertie county; Rich Square, Northampton county; Martinsboro and Winston, Hertford county; Gatesville and Sansbury, in Gates county; Elenton, Chowan county; Hertford and Woodville in Perquimans county; Greenville, Pitt county; Indian Branch, Edgecombe county; Littleton and Enfield, Halifax county; Henderson, Granville county; Louisburg and Franklinton, in Frank in county. During his visit to the East he organized a number of Juvenile Temples for the young people. The Good Templars now number nearly two hundred lodges in North Carolina, with a membership of about ten thousand.

Prominent men of both political parties are connected with this order. We wish them great success.

THE YOUNG MAN ELLIOTT.—Jo Elliott, who killed young Neal, is said to be a youth of pleasing and handsome address, and besides being the idol of a fond mother and father, was the centre of a large circle of friends. His truly is a sad fate. From the Charlotte Observer we learn that this ill-starred youth was to have left Statesville yesterday afternoon to take up his abode in the Penitentiary for five years. He was brought down from Wilkesboro Saturday, arriving in Statesville after dark. The verdict and sentence, we hear, were a great shock to him, for he has cherished the confident hope ever since the juvenile incident, of a speedy and honorable acquittal, whenever the case comes to trial, and all the facts were brought out.

STATE PRINTING.—The Local catches a slight rumor on the streets that the SENTINEL will get the State Printing.

BRIDAL COUPLE AT CONFERENCE.—Mr. Kane and bride, of Leaksville, are at the Exchange Hotel on a visit to Conference. Mr. Kane was married yesterday morning in Leaksville to Miss Sally Hill Guerrant.

OLD WAKE IN TIME ONCE—Our energetic and popular tax collector J. A. Haywood, Esq., got the Legislature to pass an act allowing him to pay the taxes of Wake county to the Treasurer, and did so on the 30th of November.

FATAL DISEASE AMONG NEWSPAPERS.—The business of Journalism is just now on a sick bed in this country. Rowell's Newspaper Reporter reports the death of sixty-nine newspapers for the current week, and the same week announced the names of only sixteen new candidates who are willing to run the risk of catching their deaths in "asking the public favor." We suspect that it is the "rag" worm that's the matter with most of the diseased newspapers.

SHERIFFS VISITING THE CITY.—Joseph Britton, Sheriff of Burke, is in the city accompanied by a boarder for the penitentiary for two years. It is one vote saved against Convention when the people come to vote. The Sheriff reports the robbing of the depot at Morganton—loss about $300, and the burning of the house of Robert McDowell late.

The sheriff of Wilkes is here, accompanied by Joseph Elliott, sentenced to five years, for manslaughter.

ROANOKE NAVIGATION COMPANY.—The people all along the Roanoke river, and away up even in Caswell and Person counties have suffered a long time from the enormous river charges of the Roanoke Navigation Company. T. Jay a resolution by Mr. Seese passed the Senate referring to a select committee, with power to send for persons and papers, to enquire into the forfeiture of charter of this company. This will be good news to many of the merchants in the border section.

FIRST DAY OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCE.—Conference met at 9:30 a. m. Bishop Marvin opened Conference with religious exercises. Prayer by the Bishop and Rev. Dr. Closs.

The singing of those good old days was revived, the entire house joining in with the spirit and the understanding. The reporter's flesh felt more religious warmth than it has felt in many a day. The Bishop made a brief opening address.

Roll was called showing a larger attendance of ministers and lay members than has ever been known in the State. Provision made for the appointment of standing committees, and the time set for opening Conference at 9:30 a. m., and closing at 1:30 p. m.

Several documents were presented and read from headquarters of the church at Nashville. Resolved that the consideration of a new law be the business for 11 o'clock to-morrow.

The Examining Committee reported on the various classes that had come before them, as the most talented they had, and a number of young men were reported as applicants and admitted to Conference.

A case of appeal from Quarterly Conference was generally recognized and fair and legal provision made for justice to the appellant.

Sundry appointments for the meeting of committees during the evening were made.

Rev. D. A. Long, of the Christian Church, was introduced by the Bishop, with the remark that "we all belong to that Church," and he "hoped Mr. Long would make himself at home and be as much of a Methodist as possible."

Those tobacco chewers among the brethren received a gentle hint from Bishop Marvin. He said it was mortifying to him to see the brethren spit upon the floor, and if they were bound to chew their quid, he hoped each man would bring along a spit box with him.

Rev. B. O. Burton preaches at Edenton Street Methodist church to-night.

PERSONAL. Abel Sturford, of Burke county, has patented a plan to put a baby to sleep. Weston has just finished his feat of walking one hundred miles at the Newark rink, in 21 hours, 39 minutes, and 35 seconds.

Mr. Trivett, the member from Ashe, said to be the author of that popular old song, "The Wild Ash Deer."—Piedmont Press.

Platt, the defeated Congressman, has sold his house in Norfolk and carpentered for another climate.

General Assembly of North Carolina.

SENATE. December 2nd, 1874. President Armfield in the Chair. Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Reports of Standing Committees being in order, several Senators reported from the various committees.

Mr. Marler reported from Committee on Enrolled Bills. Message received from the House asking concurrence of the Senate in the passage of several bills. Referred to various committees.

One of these bills extended the time of Sheriff of Person county to settle with the State. Another for regulating the time of holding the terms of Superior Court of Cumberland county.

Mr. Clements, a bill to incorporate the Wilkesboro Navigation Company on the Yadkin River. The Chair before referring this bill read the law that any person wishing to introduce a private bill shall first give notice in a newspaper 30 days beforehand, and for that reason it was referred to the Committee on Corporations.

House resolution to improve the harbor at Edenton, asking appropriation from Congress to deepen the harbor. Concurred in.

Mr. Seese, a resolution of instruction to Judiciary Committee enquiring whether Roanoke Navigation Company has forfeited its charter, and with power to send for persons and papers. Calendar.

House resolution was concurred in to appoint a joint select committee to make list of bonds and coupons in Treasurer's office.

Mr. Parish asked suspension of rules to call up bill of relief for Sheriff Harris, of Person county, stating that this officer had recently died. Granted, and bill passed third reading. It gives until 1st of March to Mr. Harris's sureties.

Mr. Waring moved to amend joint rules of order by adding thereto a committee on immigration. Passed third reading.

Mr. Stanford, bill extending time to the Sheriff of Bladen, passed third reading, engrossed and sent to the House.

Mr. Bell, bill to prevent obstructions in Newport River. Referred to Propositions and Grievances.

Clerk read communication addressed to President Armfield and the Senate from the Cape Fear Agricultural Society inviting the Legislature to the Fair at Wilmington the 15th. Mr. Albright moved to suspend the rules, and while not accepting the invitation, tender a vote of thanks, and be sent to the House for their concurrence. This vote of thanks was amended to inform the Cape Fear Society that the members would be glad to attend but they can't get a furlough from the State.

Mr. Waring, a bill concerning the conveyance of convicts to the penitentiary. Mr. Stanford was in favor of attending the Wilmington Fair. He wanted the up country members to take a look at the lawlands. Mr. Cantwell gave a very handsome description of his Cape Fear country, and invited the members to come down and see for themselves. He had no doubt but the authorities at Fayetteville would join the railroad authorities here, and extend free transportation on the Cape Fear river to the members of the Assembly. They would have a chance to look at Fort Fisher and Smithville and other historical points. We can also show you some of the loveliest women on the globe. He wished the Legislature to do as in 1856, when they accepted a similar invitation, and not only surrendered to the hospitality of the place, but several of them surrendered their hearts and became citizens of the city. Mr. Waring proposed to decline invitation in a next vote of thanks, but have no poetry in it. The simple resolution of thanks of Mr. Albright, without amendment either declining or accepting, was adopted.

Mr. Hargrave, resolution to take recess on the 15th of this month and meet again the 4th of January. Mr. Cook amended to adjourn sine die on the 15th. Mr. Cantwell proposed to recess from 14th of this month to 15th of January. Mr. Busbee wished from 20th of this month to the 15th of January. Mr. Bell was for the same. Mr. Waring moved to lay whole thing on the table. Refused. Mr. Cook amended his amendment so as to read to adjourn sine die the 22nd of December. Sine die lost. Mr. Busbee amended again from the 21st of December to 3rd Monday in January. Mr. Williamson favored amendment of Mr. Busbee—he was a farmer, and it was necessary for him to have some little time in that month to make such arrangements as all farmers have to make. Mr. Love moved to lay whole matter on the table. Lost. Mr. Morehead moved to postpone the question till Friday at 12. Lost. Mr. Waring was for business, and let recess alone. Call a Convention and adjourn sine die by the 22nd. If we don't call a Convention then there might be some necessity for coming back. On motion of Mr. Linsay the previous question was called and Mr. Busbee's amendment from 21st to 3rd Monday was carried. On vote of the resolution a yeas and nays were called. Yeas 33, nays 12.

On motion Senate adjourned till to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order at 11 o'clock, a. m. Journal read and approved.

Mr. Pinn's obtained leave of absence for Mr. Blair until Tuesday next. Mr. Mcbane obtained leave of absence for Mr. Martin for five days.

Mr. Walker, of Richmond, petition and counter petition in regard to incorporation of Laurensburg, Robeson county.

Mr. Erwin from Committee on Judiciary; Mr. Tate from Committee on Finance; Mr. Means from Committee on Banks and Currency; Mr. Shuckelford from Committee on Engrossed Bills; Mr. Finger from Committee on Enrolled Bills; Mr. Richardson from Committee on Corporations.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED. Mr. Mendenhall, a resolution in regard to Treasury. Brewington, resolution for relief of depositors in Freedman's Bank. Mr. Spears, bill to settle rights of counsel in certain cases.

THE LADIES.

A Miss Petway has bought the Bollingbrook hotel, in Petersburg, at eleven thousand dollars.

Miss Clara Morris, the actress, was married last Monday to the nephew of the Mayor of New York City.

A Frenchman intending to compliment a young lady by calling her a gentle lamb, said: "She is one mutton as is small."

A Milwaukee woman's bonnet costs, upon an average, about fifteen dollars; but she has the bill made out for thirty or forty dollars, in order to show it to the woman next door.

Mlle Zoe, the Cuban sylph, plays the "French Spy" at the Richmond theatre tonight. Miss Sallie Parlington, Richmond's favorite, will conclude the play as "Susie's Godfather."

Mrs. H. M. Barnham, the correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, lectured in that city the other night. Her dress was a sky blue dress, blue corrugated frills, and blue satin garters.

Nineteen years ago a Tennessee father refused to let his young daughter go to a candy-pull, and she disappeared. The other day she returned, lifted eleven children out of the wagon, and entered the house and took off her things as coolly as if she hadn't been gone over a day.

Mrs. Swishelm advises ladies to sponge themselves well with alcohol and water twice a day. We would be glad to know whether the alcohol is to be taken externally or internally; also whether the water might not be omitted. Perhaps the medicine is to be taken as John McGoodwin was in the habit of using brandy for his baldness. He would rub the stuff on his scalp to make the hair grow, and then would put some on the inside to clinch the roots.—St. Louis Globe.

We will state for the information of the young lady readers of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, that Mr. Gray, the associate editor of that paper, is on the carpet, in fact, is a marrying man, and his mind was much on that subject—Piedmont Press.

Hon. A. H. Stephens doesn't believe in bringing out names of prominent men for the Presidency in 1876 season. He illustrated this by telling of his visit to a mchon patch when a boy, when he plucked the most promising fruit, but the plucked melons, he said, invariably rotted before they ripened.

We are pleased to chronicle another addition in our midst. Mr. Exum, of Wayne, has purchased the residence lately occupied by Charles M. Parks, Esq., and with his family has already entered into possession.—Hillsboro Recorder.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. RUNAWAY BOY. This is to notify all present against harboring, sheltering, or employing my son, Zack, who ran away from my house in this city the fourth Sunday in November. Zack goes by the nickname of "Blacky," is nearly 5 feet high, ginger color, and is sixteen years of age. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received. He has perfectly straight hair and has a scratch on one of his jaws. W. M. HAYS, Raleigh, N. C. dec 2-1w

RELIGIOUS. Rev. Russell Novins, an Episcopal clergyman at Troy, has gone over to the Roman Catholic faith.

As a white garment appears worse when a little soiled than does a colored one, so does a small fault in a good man attract more attention than a great offense in a bad man.

The report on Sabbath Schools for the year 1874 of the Presbyteries of the Presbyterian church South connected with the Synod of Virginia, gives a total of 196 schools, 2,389 teachers, and 14,448 scholars. The money raised for the schools amounted to $4,551, and for missions, $2,008.

The statistics of the Episcopal Diocese of Kentucky, over which Bishop Cummins formerly presided, are as follows: Number of clergy, 41; parishes and churches 49; baptisms during the year, 690; confirmations, 318; present number of members, 2,847; total amount of contributions, $30,888.

I will on the 10th day of December, 1874, sell at the Court House door in the city of Raleigh to the highest bidder, the House and lot now occupied by E. O. Meay, fronting West Street 110 feet, fronting Hargett Street 280 feet, running back to the R. & G. R. R. There is on the premises a good dwelling house containing six rooms, a passage and two porches, one back and one front, with all necessary outbuildings and a well of good water as there is in the State. Terms will be made known on the day of sale. R. W. HARDIE, Trustee, dec 2-1w—News copy.

NEW GOODS AGAIN AT Crech's. SECOND STOCK THIS SEASON. It affords me more than ordinary pleasure to offer to the trade and consumers of Dry Goods, a second stock bought within the last few days in New York, and will be sold at prices which enables me to ask competition no odds.

My stock of Dress Goods embraces a large and complete line of beautiful shades and colors, from low price to fine fabric. My stock of piece goods, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Yankee Goods, &c., is no doubt the largest to be found in the city, and to which I would call the special attention of close buyers, and here allow me to say that I do not propose to close or wind up my business, but on the contrary to extend it. So bear in mind Crech's is the place. Those who study economy and profitable investment can do no better than to give me a call.

Being truly alive to the demands of the hour, and anxious to secure a large trade, I claim to put before the public the largest stock to be found in the city. A. CRECH. nov 27-1w
