MR. LOVEJOY .- It was our pleasure last evening to look over a book of poems in manuscript written by Mr. Jeff Lovejoy, the well-known schoolmaster in this city. These portus are as yet in a crude and unfinished state, but when properly shaped and prepared for the press there is a rugged genius, a hirsuteness and weight of postical thought about them that will turnish an idea and leave an impression. We look with interest to seeing these pooms in print.

General Assembly of North Car-

SENATE December 15th, 1874.

President Armfield in the Chair. Prayer by Rev. Mr. Marshall, of Chris Episcopal Church

Journal of yesterday read and approved Colored Mr. Mabson, resolution in favor of education, requesting committee to re port as soon as practicable. Mr. Bel said as one of that committee he regarded the resolution as somewhat reflecting on them, and he hoped the Senate would not adopt it, that the Committee would report as soon as found practicable and thought proper. Mabson disclaimed any refliction, and Mr. Marler hoped as it meant no reflection the Senate would adopt it. Mr. Bell relieved colored Mr. Mabson of any intention to reflect,

Convention streaks here began to show bemselves in some of the Senators remarks, and Mr. Marler said he hoped no more Convention would be lugged into speeches on this floor, as he and his people were opposed to it, and the next time the thing showed its head he would strike at it in an unmistakable manner. On farme, not on of Mr. Love the resolution was postponed till the 22d day of January. Colored Mr. Tucker, bill to pay registers, judges and inspectors of elections. Referred

Mr Selby, bill concerning pilots. Reforred

BILLS TO CALL A CONVENTION.

Mr. Morehead introduced a bill to call Convention, Referred to Committee on Constitutional Reform and ordered to be printed. Bill provides to meet on Monday, - month, at 12 o'click, and to consist of 126 delegates, each county entitled to same representation as it now has in the House, &:

Mr. Mills, but to call a Convention. It differs with Morchead's bill in not naving so many restrictions on the Conventien. Mr. Mills moved to have his bill printed and made special order for Tabreday next at 12 o'clock. He wanted to get an intercharge of views on the subject and didn't see what Senators were afraid of to discuss this thing row. To Senato refused to make it special order for Thursday, and it was ordered to be printed and referred to Committee on Constitutional Reform.

$7.878 TO INSANE ASTLUM

Mr. Mills called up bill relating to indebtedness of the Insane Asylum providg $7,873 to relieve it of the indebtedness incurred ab ve the appropriation within the last two years. Mr. Morehead asked reason for ppropriation Mr. Mills explained, and Mr. Waring favored the appropriation in a viry earnest and complimentary speech of the management and officers of that institution. Mr. Stat dlord favored the appropriation, he had recently visited the Asylum, seen all the books, and had once itemized every account, and while he differed politically with Dr. Grissem, he believed that he had managed this institution in a mauner that eminently reflicted credit on his heart and head. The Asylum was eccnomically managed and he hoped there would not be a desenting vote to this appropriation. Colored Mr. Mabs nahould vote against this appropriation. The county of Edgic inhe paid the rise of twenty, three hundred dollars towards this institution cisry. and she had but two inmates in it.

Mr. Linney would first like to see a most thorough examinat on made by the committee before appropriating. There was evident a large element of suspicion in this house and outside, not that he implicated Dr. Grissom, for he admired that gentleman, but to satisfy us all, let a thorough examination first be made. Mr. Waring sgreed with Mr. Linney is having a thorough examination. He had come here once before prepared to root out its present management, but on sec ing the beautiful system they had at work over there he confessed that he turned a complete somersault. He was in favor of the most thorough examination but at the same time this resolution should be now passed for the relief of the insant. But passed third reading, ayes 40, nave 1.
