2nd. Because every policy-holder is nember of the Company, entitled to all. advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus has an influence in its management. 3rd. Bec se it has as large a percent-age of asce! | habilities as any life In-

4th. Because by economical manage ment, its ratio of expenses to total income is lar below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.) 5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger

Average Percentage, than any Company ers. in the United States. For example: Policy No. 16, for $5,000. has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been declared. Averaging fity-seven per cent.
