President Armfield in the Chair, Journal of yesterday read and approved

Discussion resumed on Mr. Beli's bill give landlords priority of lies, without criting, for provisions and supplies fur shed the croppers and tenants. Mr. Linney and Mr. Kerr spoke is favor opposition argued the bill would oppress od embarraes the tenants and the poor white men that own no land, Mr. French saked when this lien, without writing, would end t Mr. K-re replied that it ended with the crop year Mr. French entended that it was indefinite and rould hang there forever, giving the andlord an indefinite time. Mr. Linney sked Mr. French what was the differ if the landlord had the written contrac in his pocket and it wasn't recorded, he might as well have a verbal contract Mr. French replied that a written contract was always of more force than an oral me. Mr. Prench contended that the Supreme Court had decided only when a tenancy ceased and not one word as to when a lien without writing would end. He stated that under this bill as soon as a tenant goes to work be belongs hand and toot to the landlord and can't buy a est from a merchant.

Mr. Latham supported the bill in s strong, practical, and common sense

Mr. Morehend opposed the bill. contended it would be a crost-fire between luries; in a negro country the negro tenents would outswear the white landlord and elee earse, and as to "third man" who witnessed the oral contract, it would be the same as between the principals where either race predominated.

Mr. Bell amended bis bill, after sishing supplies, the words "upon oral at between landlord and tenant." The amendment was adopted -ayes 22; nays 19. The substitute for Mr. Beli's bill, requiring written agreement, was then voted on. It was lost-ayes 18 nays 23. Beli's bill with his amendment was then voted on second reading. The vote was a tie -ayes 20; nays 20. President Armfield didn't approve of the bill in its present frame, but as a great many senators had voted for the bill on the second reading with a view to better per fecting it on its third, be should vote syr. The bill passed second reading, (Mr. Linney and Mr. Love explained in voting aye that they did not approve of the bill at present in giving so much power to the landlord, but they would vore sye with forestion of having the
