December 19th, 1874 President Armfield in the chair. Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

A bill was passed yesterday repealing the bill which required magistrates in every township to make out written reports to the Superior Courts of the con dition of the roads. Mr. Love this morning moved to reconsider this bill and then moved to postpone his motion to reconoder until the 25th of January. It was so done.

THE DOME OF THE CAPITOL. Mr. McCivley from the Committee on Public Buildings reported that the dome of the Capitol is very much out of repair sentatives, and that immediate repairs are necessary for the preservation of the building itself. The building has been examined by a skillful mechanic who re. ported the necessary repairs could be made at an expense not exceeding twelve hundred do lars. The Senate authorized the Keeper of the Capitol under directiens of the Governor to have the repairs

BILL FOR BENEFIT OF DISABLED SOLDIERS This bill, Mr. Morehead's bill, is con fined to disabled soldiers, and exempts them from certain licenses, such as for billiard saloons, bowling alleys, bagatelle tables, peddling tobacco and other things. The bill was suggested to Mr. Morehead by a disabled soldier, who was a peddler. These men are given regular license like any one else, but the Sheriff writes on the back of it "tax free," and special previsions are provided against fraud and imposition. The soldier files a certificare before the county commisslopers setting forth his company and regiment and when he was wounded and makes outh to the same, and he a's swears that it is for his own business and that he is no man's agent. The bill on second reading was referred to the Judicary Committee, and will in all probtbility become a law.
