

some 25 Destrable Town Lo scontaining from	now, everything is lovely and the cats	committed suicide in Atlanta, Ga. Mon-	boting county, in this State, has in less	tiemen. The mistake has been mutual." He had just spoken when Caleb Strong,	Richmond D spatch, G-z:ite, Commercial	Management and the second second some 25 Destrable Town Lo scontaining from (a 'o 1) acres each. Terms made known o i day of Sale. dee Sal9 J. Methalling TON.	bang high.	and the second	a court of the time that the the	the Governor of the State, entered and	and American of Baltisore; Herald, Sun Tribune and Word of New York, copy once	It may not be too die to effect a cure even of er the doctors have given you dp.
dec 8 19 J. McG FLLINGTON.	How God TRACKS & MURDERER	was the cause.	three little children pur under the ground		a week for three weeks and sind (iii) to State Anditor Raleigh, N. C.	HALL'S BALSAM is sold everywhere, and may be had at wholesale of the Proprietors,
ST. MABY S & HOOL,	George Peters keeps a hotel at Annville,	The police raided on a faro bank at		"Ab, here I am Governor. G'al to		JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO., at their
RALEGH, N. C.	Pa. Sixteen years ago he killed his wife.	Chelses, (Muss ) and the proprietors and		see yon." Then turning to the dumb-	CYELECT BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL,	Great Medicine Warchouse, 8 and 9 College Place, New York. Price $1 per bottle
FOUNDED, MAY 1844.	He and his wife lived together happily,	ten visitors were arrested and handouffed		founded compart he sold, "I wish you a	Constraints of a second s	Congles
The Sixty sixth term of this School will commence on Thu slay, the 21st of January,		in twos and marched to the station			THE LEBOND ST. C.	Colds.
1875, is door thus twenty werks	got in a dispute about Mrs. Peters' rela-	house where they were baile I for appear-	ruby, 17 sapphines, 11 emeraids, 4 small		The Thirty Second Science of the Mases	Phenapohin, a recircular, spl, to the fector.	tives making such long visits to see her.	ance at Police Court the nex' morning	rubies, and 217 paris- a total of 2186	A. STIR IN WARREN COUNTY Mr. T.	Nush & Muss Kollock's School will open Friday hts February, Sib and continue 20.	- Eronchitis, Asthua,
	Torday he killed her she was expecting	Horace Greeley, nepnew of the late		N. Ramsay reports much stir among the negroes in Warren county. A strange	Ci culars forwarded in application.	Spitting of Blood,
CIPECIAL NOTICE.		Horace Greeley, tounder of the New	Mis Occasis a State L bratian of Indi-	n-gro named Price has been bumming	dec 21 3 awim	WHOOPING COUGH, Croup,
S		York Tribune, is a day-indorer at the	Lann and by a law record last. Winter, is	stound telling the people that Grant		and all other diseases of the respiratory
ON THURSDAY N.GHT, DEC. 17, 1874.	over it in one of the stalls to pick it up.	glass works of Stevens, Crondell & Co.,	to perform, at the opening of the Legi-	had sent him down there to keep John	ANOTHER	vrgars.
We will rell at Auction.	Peters snatched up a pitchfork and in a		lative season, all the duties heretolore	Hyman from taking his seat in Congress.	A 15 15 A 15 05 10 10 10 10 10
10 SUPERB COLORED GRO GRAIN SILKS	frenzy stuck her dead in the stall. Drag-		performed by the respective doorkeepers	He was regarded as a suspicious character	OPPORTUNITY
(Full Patterns) 25 yds., to Pattern.	ging the body to a stall occupied by his howe, he left it there believing that when	ALL ABOUT.	of both branches. She will have author-	and lodged in jai.	5	Also Propractors of Scovill's Blood and Lav-
6 Irish P. plins,	found they would think the horse had		ity to serve processes, arrest Senators,		TO INVEST A FEW DOLLARS, WITH POSSIELF RETURNS OF THOUSANDS,	er Symp, Carbolle Salve, Edey's Troches, rodurs and Cashineres,	done it. And so they did think. The	have claims to a fine estate in England.	and will be, in short, Sirgenni-it-Arms	ROOMS OF THE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE C MMILTER OF THE CON-ERVATIVE PAR	IS OFFERED BY THE POSTPONEMENT OF PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KY., TO THE	Oxygenated Bitters, Mott's Liver Pitls, &c.,
MI I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I	theary was advanced and the public ac	Weston on Saturday night, at Newark,		TYThe State Executive Committee of	27th OF FEBRUARY, NEXT, OF THEIR	JOHN F. HENRY, CURRAN & CO.,
🛅 to h housed Late Collars (imported by us.)	cepted it. A few years after Peters mar-	accomplished the task of waiking 500		the Conservative party, which is com-	FIFTH AND LAST CONCERT AND DRAW- ING. THE MANAGEMENT ARE PLEDG	San / College Place, New York.
Robertoman Scarfs and Shawla, de.	ried again, and told his wie all the par-	miles in 6 days.	growing in her garden a genuine cork		ED TO THE RETURN OF THE MONEY IF THE DRAWING SHOULD NOT COME	Jan 39-1m
Teriance are respectfully invited to at-	ticulars of his crime. But even this		tree thirty feet high, the bark on which	Raleigh on Wednesday, January the 20th.	OFF AT THE DAY NOW APPOINTED.	B. F. MOORB JOHN GATLING tend the site. As choice goods will be sold and am le seconmodation will be extended	wouldn't still the dem in of remorse. Pe-	on J. S. Curf's new building, died sud-	is sufficiently thick to make bottle corks.	1875, to consult in regard to important	One Grand Cash Gift	MOORE & GATLING, them is well as the gentlemen.	ters tried to kill himself several times	deniy at Durham the other day.	There is also, in the same garden a gen-	Members of the Conservative press are	One Grand Cash Gift	1.1
TIMELY NOTICE.	during the sixteen years. And we now	Two iron wedges in a cypress stump	uine black pepper bash, which yields	invited to attend.	One Grand Cash Gift 50,000	ATTORNEYSATLAW
Our Auction Sales will take place each night	read in the Herald that the other day	sixteen feet below the surface of the	regularly a full crop of berries.	W. R. COX,	One Grand Cash Gift in ace, it Saturday nights) until the 16th D.c.		ground were recently found in a swamp		J J LITCHFORD, See'y.	10 Cash Gifts, 14,000 each, 140,000 15 Cash Gifts, 10,000 each	10100114001120 est. 600
and will retail curing the day. On and after 26th the auction will be both day and night	his barn, they cut him down in time to	in Hyde county.	Rev. Dr. Talmage at the Brooklyn Taber-	o o unenvez, see y.	20 Cash Gifts, 5,000 each 100,000	RALEIGH, N. C.
the whole stock is disposed of. This	save him, and the wretched man imme-	One-half acre of land in Henrico	nacie in New York last Sunday, related	Eve v Reader of the Weekly SENTINEL	25 Cash Gifts, 4,000 each 100,000 50 Cash Gifts, 5,000 each 20,000	State and Federal Courts and the Courts of sale will be by the Piece, Package or in Lots, as the whole stock must be disposed of by	diately delivered himself over to the sher-		the following and history of his hie . Af-	will receive free a copy of the best Agricul- tural and Family Newspaper in this country	50 Cash Gifts, 2,000 each.,, 100,000 100 Cash Gifts, 1,000 each, 100,000	the 1st and 6th Judicial Districts.
W. H & R. S. TUCKER,	iff, and confessed the whole murder.	pounds of tobacco which sold for $320 48.	ter a severe Sabbath day's labor in Phil-	by addressing Moore's Rural New Yorker, 78	240 Cash Gifts 500 each 120,000	The second secon
Surviving Partners.	Who can preach against a hell in the	These hundred hands are at work on	adelphis I took a walk sloug the banks	Dunne Street, New York. dec 8 tf	500 Cash Gifts, 100 each 50,000 19,000 Cash Gifts, 50 each and the second se	other world, when remorse kindles such	the conner mine of Mr Waugh, in Ashe	of the Schuylkill, with my wife and			By yuthe of a judement of the Super-
WILLCOX & GIBBS'	on this earth ?	county and the profils of the mine are	daughter and my sotur and niece. The	RALEIGH MARKET.	Who e Tickets	Court of Wake county, the undersigned county, and the profile of the mine are	daughter and my softer and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the 14th
SEWING MACHINES	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONORTheir	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day.	daughter and my sister and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lith day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Baleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described read
SEWING MACHINES Atmanufactures' prices, on time or monthly outsiments.	Too MUCH FOR His HONORTueit names were William David Sydney and	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. FEMARES.	Halves	Count of Wake county, the undersigned Counties oners will sell on Thursday the lith day of January, 1875, at public auction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described real estate:
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONORTaeir names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari-	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got into one. There	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex-	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will self on Thursday the 14th day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock mit, the following described real estate: state
SEWING MACHINES Atmanufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANDFACTURERS FRICES FOR	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up,	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will est on Thursday the lath day of Januars, 1855, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 20 clock m., the following described re- cistate: sta
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly antistments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANDFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH,	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu-	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent. of the population are arrested for drunkennes,	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I laid hold of the oars and	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534 Cotton Ties=9 to 10.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: stract, Situate about 5 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N R R at the forks of the Holsborol and Charles Hill Road, adjourning the Land of Janues Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brewn and
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchased direct from this office, or My CA	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu-	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average N = Nucleus in found in the poince	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got into one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I laid hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1554 Cotton Ties-9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of Januars, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described real state: s
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, IS MINTH STREET. Altermond, Va.	Too MUCH FOR HIS HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu-	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police	daughter and my softr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five get note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 314 yd 15a1554 Cotton Ties-9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50, Com-new $1.00 old 1.0	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described real estate: stract, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Holsboro' and Charles Hill Road, adjourned the Land of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or Les- Utjon the property are a good will cared to.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANDFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, if purchased direct from this office, or my ca its local agents,	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court,	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause.	daughter and my sour and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got into one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I laid hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waying of hands, as if to bring us back.	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1554 Cotton Ties-9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50. Corn-new $1.00 old1.0 Corn Meal-new 55.97, old $1.15.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of Januars, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described real estate: st. Tract, Situate should findles. West of the invol Kaleigh, immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Hubborof and Charve Hill Road, adjoining the land of James Bashford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as 'the John C. Moore play containing sixty-siz acres' more of less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store how and necessary
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, if purchased direct from this office, or My Ca its local agents, is MINTH STREETHichmond, Va. JAB. E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. See 9- w3m	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the runt "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana-	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. La Fayette slept	daughter and my softr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 13%, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 2% yd 15a15% Cotton Ties=9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50. Corn-new $1.(0 old1.0) Corn Meal-new $5,97, eld $1.15. Bacon N C Hog round 16 Bacon, N. C Hars. 16	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Baleigh at 12 o'clock mi, the following described real estate: struct, Situate about 3 miles. West of the sity of Baleigh, immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Hilsborol and Charel Hill Road, adjunting the land of James Bashford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C Moore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or less by on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 moans, good mes frences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, d.c. Me
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, SMINTH STREET, - Nichmond, Va. JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec9- w3m	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the ront "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. La Fayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The	daughter and my solar and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and asw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa-	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 254 yd 15a1554 Cotton Ties-9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50, Corn-new $1.00 old 1.0 Corn Meal-new 55.97, old $1.15. Bacon N C Hog round 16 Baton, N C Hog round 16 Baton, N C Hog round 16 Baton, N C Hings, 15443	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Baleigh at 12 o'clock mi, the following described real state: the of Kaleigh immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Holsorof and there state for the Holsorof and other, known as the John C Moore pla- containing sixty-straters more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 rooms, good new fences, valuable store hou s and necessar- outhouses, doc Ac. 2rd. Tract, Situateon Fayelleville Street in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M's Jane F Heywood, oeing part of Lat
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or suy ", its local agents, SMINTH STREET, -Niehmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Mee'9- w3m G RAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> , dust received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the ront "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case.	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. La Fayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The out then belonged to the lady's grand-	daughter and my solar and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plange we were driven by the wa- ters over the data of the Schuytkill. We	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 131%, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a15%     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn -new $1.10 old1.0     Corn Meal-mew *5197, old $1 15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon, N. C Harrs.     Balk C or Rib Sides.     Pulk Shoulders.     19     Lard, N C.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lith day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 o'clock mi, the following described real estate: struct, Situate should finites. West of the sity of Baleigh, immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Hisborof and Chares Hill Road, adjuncing the hand of James Bashford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C Moore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling. House with 7 rooms, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, d.c. Sc. 2 rd. Tract, Situateon Fapelleville Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjuning the lot of M's Jane F Heywood, Doing part of Loi No Solin He plan of the City, and formerly
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, SMINTH STREET, Hichmond, Va. JAB, E. 4. GIBBS, Proprietor. Mee'9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>4</sup> , Just received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Gradie, Tak Baser in Tak Marker Warranded to rive catilistication.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the ront "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te as and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. La Fayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of	daughter and my softr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the data of the Schuylkill. We cloug to the rim of the Schuylkill. We	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES. RALEIOH. Dec. 11, 1874. REMARKS. Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some ex- tent 132. Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1554 Cotton Thes—9 to 10. Flour N C, 7.25a7 50, Corn-new $1.00 old1.0 Corn Meal-new *5197, old $1 15. Bacon N C Heg round 16 Bacon, N C Heg round 16 Bacon, N C Hars. 16 Balk C eir Rib Sides. 1944 145 Bulk Shoulders. 19 Lard, N C. 164 * Western Teirces. 17	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Baleigh at 12 o'clock mi, the following described real state: the other forks of the Heistorol and Chares Hill Road, adjourned the hand of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- containing sixty-straters more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 rooms, good new fences, valuable store hou s and necessar- out houses, doc Ac. 2°d. Trast, Situateon Fayelleville Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M's Jame F. Heywood, oeing part of Lot N's Soin the plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Korens, the cased. Texto or SATE-One Unit Cash, residue
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or sny r. its local agents, SMINTH STREET, -Nichmond, Va. JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>3</sup> , Just received a supply of Sinchairs' Celebrated Southern Gradie, The Base in the Marker Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES 2. TO VILE3, Agen 1	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rent "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of	daughter and my sourr and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the data of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the capsized boxt, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a1554     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn—new $1.00 old 1.0     Corn Meal—new 55.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon, N. C Hars.     16     Bacon, N. C Hars.     16     Bath C ear Rib Sides.     11     24 Mealerer.     24 Monders.     24 Monders.     26 Monders.     27 Monders.     28 On Ness.     29 Content Teires.     20 Ness.     20 Ness.     21 Content Notes.     21 Content Notes.     22 Notes.     23 Notes.     24 Notes.     25 Notes.     26 Notes.     27 Notes.     28 Notes.     29 Notes.     20 Notes.     20 Notes.     21 Notes.	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: stract, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N- R R, at the forks of the Holsboro' and Chares Hill Road, adjourned the hard of diames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- montauling sixty-six acres more or less. Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 moins, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, d.c. &c. Drd. Tract, Situateon Fapetheille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mar June F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Multi e plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Kozers, the reased. Terms of Satz - One third Cach, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, SMINTH STREETHichmond, Va. JAB. E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec 9- w3m CIRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>4</sup> , dust received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle, Tak Baser in THE MARKET Warranded to give catification.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the ront "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te us and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once."	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got noto one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the tim of the Capsized boxt, all, save my dear child, whe san's, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 314 yd     Bagging Domestic 314 yd     15a1554     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn-new $1.00 old1.0     Corn-new $1.00 old1.0     Corn Meal—new $5.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon, N. C Hars.     Bolk C eir Rib Sides.     1 54445     Western Teirces.     ' Western Teirces.     '' do Kegs.     17     Coffee-Kio, cood.     Eggs.     Butter country.     40	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock mit, the following described rest estate: structure is a structure about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh immandately on the N R R at the forks of the Heisborof and Chart Hill Road, adjourned the Land of James Bahford, Heirs of Weyt, J. Brown and other, known as the John C. Moore play, containing sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling. House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store house and newsars out houses, d.c., to 25 d. Trast, Stimateon Fayelleville Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M - Jame F. Heywood, being part of Lot N's Sound to give of S. R. Kogens, and formerly the law office of S. R. Kogens, the seased. TERMS of SAUL-One Unit? Cach, readdu- payable of suits, with interest fiper cent from day of sale. Note and approved ac-
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or my case its local agents, is winth strikEt. Alteinmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec3- w3m Graat received a supply of Sinchairs' Celebrated Southern Gradies. The Base in Thm Markier Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agent may294w.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Ise willing, boss," replied Sidney.	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Obstreet.	daughter and my sourr and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were arked to take a b at. We all five got into one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I laid hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and aaw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuyikill. We clong to the tim of the Schuyikill. We clong to the tim of the Schuyikill. We clong to the tim of the sank, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six mights and days the guitters on the shore.	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 314 yd     Bagging Domestic 314 yd     15a1554     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Florr N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn-new $1.00 old1.0     Corn Meal—new $5.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Balk Cear Rib Sides,     1 Mealers,     10     Lard, N C,     "do. Negs,     "do. Negs,     "do. Negs,     Stater Toirces,     "do. Negs,     Batter country,     "batter country,     "Mackers"     "How Sho     "Mackers"     "How Sho     "Mackers"     "How Sho     "Mackers"     "How Sho     "How Sho     "Mackers"     "How Sho     "How Sho     "How Sho     "How Sho     "How Sho <t< td=""><td>Halves</td><td>Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: struct, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Holsboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the hard of diames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- montauling sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 moins, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, d.c. &amp;c. Drd. Trast, Situateon Fapellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mrs. June F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Mint he plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Kogers, the cased. Tenso of Syste —One third Cach, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent found y of sale. Note and approved ac- carity required for d-former, formine, to BANI, G. WOWLE, Com'res. 6 EO, H. SNOW. (Com'res.</td></t<>	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: struct, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Holsboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the hard of diames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- montauling sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 moins, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, d.c. &c. Drd. Trast, Situateon Fapellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mrs. June F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Mint he plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Kogers, the cased. Tenso of Syste —One third Cach, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent found y of sale. Note and approved ac- carity required for d-former, formine, to BANI, G. WOWLE, Com'res. 6 EO, H. SNOW. (Com'res.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Cash, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Cash, its local agents, its winth striker. Altehmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Act 9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, Jast received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle. The Base in The Manuer Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES 22, TO VILES, Agen 1 may294w.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te as and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you onght to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Ise willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dete at' my feelings, Colonet," added	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Observer.	daughter and my sourr and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuylkill. We ching to the rim of the Schuylkill. We ching to the rim of the capsized boxt, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guiners on the shore fired regularity to warn others of danger.	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 13%, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 2% yd     15a15%     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn -new $1.00 old1.0     Corn Meal-mew *5597, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Balk C eir Rib Sides.     1     Western Teirers.     1     0     N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn Meal-mew *5197, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hars.     16     Bacon, N. C Hars.     16     Bacon, N. C Hars.     17     0     0.6. Ness.     17     0     0.7. Stord.     2.15     Eggs.     23     Bulter country.     40     Yaberri Toine.     10     Pish, Mailetr.     7.40 8.00     "Mackerri withen this     10     Beers wat.     10	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the 14th day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: struct: struct, Situate about 5 miles West of the two f Raleigh, immadiately on the N R R, at the forks of the Holstorol and Charles Hill Road, adjourning the land of James Bashford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C Moore plas- contaoling sixty-sit acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 robuns, good new fences, Acc. Acc. 3rd. Trast, Stimation Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M's Jane F. Heywood, using part of Loi No Sofint e plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Korens, sciences. Tents or Sate — One Unit Gash, residue payabelin 6 months, with interest fore cent from day of sale. Note and approved as- carity required for deferred paymont. DAN'I, 6 FOWLE, J Com'rs.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, IS WINTH STREET. Altermond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Acc 9- w3m GRASIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, Just received a supply of Binchairs' Celebrated Southern Cradie. The Base in THE MARKET Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES M. TO VLES, Agent may294w. MARKISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT,	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to bave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Jae willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dute at' my feelings, Colonel," added Jone".	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkennces, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Cuarlotte Observer.	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got noto one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuytkill. We clong to the tim of the Schuytkill. We clong to the tim of the capsized boar, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guitters on the shore fired regularly to warm others of danger. Clutching for a sirky hat my child was	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 131%, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 2½ yd   15a15)%     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.   Flour N C, 7,25a7 50.     Corn—new $1.00 off1.0   Corn Meal—new *5197, ofd $1.15.     Bacon, N C Heig round   16     Bacon, N C Hams,   16     Bacon, N C Hams,   16     Bacon, N C Hams,   17     Coffee—Rio, croed,   215     Fars,   17     Coffee—Rio, croed,   215     Fars,   16     Batter conntry,   39     Butter conntry,   40     Matter,   7.00 8.00     * Mackerst 0*1.   11.00     Bess,   2	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sell on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Baleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described re- estate: state: stract, Situate about 3 miles West of the trivol Baleigh immediately on the N R R at the forks of the Huisborol and Charst Hill Road, adjourned the hand of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C Moore pla- containing sixty-six acress more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 round, good new fraces, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, do Ar. 2 rd. Tract, Nituateon Fayelleullie Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. Jimes Heywood, being part of Loi N. Soin the plan of the city, and formerly the law office of S. R. Rocers, the cased. Track of S. R. Rocers, the cased. This or Satur-One third Cash, readday payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cen- trolin day of sale. Note and approved as- cardy required for d-formed payable. DAN'L 6 YOWLE, { Com'rs. 6 zo H. SNOW. } Com'rs. 3 zo the
SEWING MACHINES At magnifactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANGFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Cash, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Cash, its local agents, its winth striket. Alterhemond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. hee 9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, Jast received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle. The Buser in The Marker Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES 22, TO VLE3, Agen 1 may294w.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Taeir names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Ise willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dete at' my feelings, Colonel," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court," continued his Honor.	county, and the profils of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration ext May Charlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr.	daughter and my softer and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the cars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the group. For six nights and days the guiners on the shore fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guiners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 182.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a1554     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn—new $1.00 old 1.0     Corn Meal—new 55.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon N C, 16axs.     Balk C eir Rib Sides.     1 Mealere.     10 Mealere.     11 Monthere.     12 Monthere.     13 Marker.     14 do.     Ness.     15 Bulk C eir Rib Sides.     14 do.     Ness.     15 Bulk C eir Rib Sides.     14 do.     Ness.     15 Bulk C eir Rib Sides.     1 Mealere.     10 Mealere.     12 Marker of the Sides.     14 do.     Ness.     15 Bulk C eir Rib Sides.     16 Bilk C eir Rib Sides.     17 Coffee—Rib. good.     29 Butter combry.     40 Marker of the Sides.     1100     Beeswaa.     13 Marker of the Side.     14 Bile.     14 Bile.     15 Bile.     16 Bile. </td <td>Halves</td> <td>Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described re- estate: *. Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N- R R, at the forks of the Hubboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the land of dames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or less. Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, A.c. Xc. 2rd. Tract, Situateon Fayelfeallte Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mission of Site – One third Cash, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent found yof sale. Note and approved as- carity required for d-forced agamént. DAN'I, 6 YOWLE, 1 Com're, 6 a vide RALEBOR NATION &amp; BARK, N.C., BALEBOR NATION &amp; BARK, N.C., BALEBOR NATION &amp; BARK, N.C.,</td>	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described re- estate: *. Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N- R R, at the forks of the Hubboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the land of dames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or less. Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, A.c. Xc. 2rd. Tract, Situateon Fayelfeallte Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mission of Site – One third Cash, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent found yof sale. Note and approved as- carity required for d-forced agamént. DAN'I, 6 YOWLE, 1 Com're, 6 a vide RALEBOR NATION & BARK, N.C., BALEBOR NATION & BARK, N.C., BALEBOR NATION & BARK, N.C.,
SEWING MACHINES At magnifactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Cash, its local agents, is WINTH STREET. Hielmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. hee 9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, dast received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle. The Buser in Thm Marker Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES 22, TO VLE3, Agen 1 may 29 4w. HARCISON & FASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the runt "Now, see here," remarked the court, alter patiently listening to their explana- te as and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Ise willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonel," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "Re mus are that you won't get into any	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quit under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way	daughter and my sourr and niece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and as w the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the sank, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guitters on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with stranguistion, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the halt dead and motherless child.	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a1556     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flonr N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn-new $1.0 old1.0     Corn Meal—new 55.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Balk Cear Rib Sides,     1 Mealware,     10     Bulk Cear Rib Sides,     1 Mealware,     10     Coffee—Rio, mod,     21, Western Teirces,     1 Mod, Nega,     17     Coffee—Rio, mod,     21, State,     18     Butter conntry,     40     Prist, Mailetz,     11.00     Beeswar,     12.00     13.01     Bees on foot     10.02	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described ry di- estate: * Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh, immandately on the N R R, at the forks of the Hidsboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the hard of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as 'the John C. Moore pla- containing witty-six acres' more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store hou e and necessar out houses, d.c., Sc. 2°d. Tract, Situateon Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. Jane F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Soin the plan of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Korers, the reader. Trans or Sxin -One Unite Cash, reader payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent found by of sale. Note and approved ac- carity required for d-forming ayment. BALEION, NATION & BAER, N. C., RALEION, Dec. 17th, 1871. The sumual meeting of the Stockholders, the Backweill be blater the plane of the stockholders.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or My C. Its local agents, IS MINTH STREET. Alteinmond, Va. JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Acc9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> . Just received a supply of Sinclaira' Celebrated Southern Cradie. The Busy in THE MARKET Warranted to give catisfaction. MARES M. TO ALE3, Agen 1 may29 4w. MARKISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies of the sensor, ogsters, birds and every hing pertaining to a strat class restaurant. The	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saraiaus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to bave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Jae willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dute at' my feelings, Colonel," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "Permise me that you won't get into any more fights or unsurbances, and that's all law in ".	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFaystic slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Coarlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel	daughter and my solar and nece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we ware asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and aaw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuytkill. We clong to the tim of the Schuytkill. We clong to the tim of the capsized boar, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guitters on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hast my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought ecantually the half dead and motherless child, waranchin flatnets and ving on my lap	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     Isagging Domestic 214 yd     Isagging Domestic 214 yd     Isagsing D	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described real estate: *. Tract, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N- R R at the forks of the Hidsborot and Charet Hill Road, adjourning the land of dames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C doore pla- contaming sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 monas, good new fences, valuable store house and necessar- out houses, & c. Xc. 2°d. Trast, Situateon Fayelfeille Siree in the City of Raleigh, sijning the lot of M. Jane F. Heywood, being part of Loi No 50 in the plan of the City, and former) the law office of 8. R. Kogers, enceased. Trans or Sain - One third Cach, residu- payablein 6 months, with interest 6 per cent food als of faile. Note and approved as- carity required for d-formed payment. DAN: 6 POWLES, Com'rs. d a stas RALEGOR NATION SEBARE, N. C., RALEGOR NATION SEBARE, N. C., RALEGOR NATION SEBARE, N. C., RALEGOR OF the Stockholders, of this Bark will be held at their Bank in House in this city, on Treaday the 12°
SEWING MACHINES At magnifictures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANGFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or My Co- its local agents, IS WINTH STREET. Hielmond, Va. JAB.E 1 GIBBS, Proprietor. hee3- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, dust received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle. The Base in THE MARKET Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES M. TO VLES, Agen 1 may294w. HARRISON & FASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacles of the sensor, ogsters, birds and every hing pertaining to a first class restaurant The instic well atocked with Foreign and Dome-	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te as and accusations, "I don't want to bave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Bet willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dete at' my feelings, Colonet," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court," continued his Honor. "Premise me that you won't get into any more fights or unsurbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gwine to	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next MayCharlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebere, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson ased to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way on York river during the war, with the must that had it, and the man was going	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a beat. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the cars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the tim of the Capsized bost, all, save my dear child, whe san's, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guiners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge I brought eventually the half dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap Never shall I forget that morning or that horrible uight. But Learned then a law	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.       RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.       REMARKS.       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 254 yd       ISal554       Cotton Tries—9 to 10.       Flonr N C, 7.25a7 50.       Corn—new $1.00 old 1.0       Corn—new $1.00 o	Halves	Court of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 o'clock m., the following described real estate: • Tract, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N R R, at the forks of the Hubstorol and Chars Hill Road, adjourning the land of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C Moore pla- contailing sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 moons, good new reaces, valuable store hours and necessar- out houses, do Ac. 2°-d. Tract, Situateon Expetientific Stree- ing the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M's Jane F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Soin the plan of the City, and formerly the law office of 8. R. Rogers, sciences to a dwelling the plan of the City, and formerly the law office of 8. R. Rogers, sciences (and Yo f saile. Note and approved se- carity required for d-ferred payment. DANL 6 FOW LE, Comins, d a side Extantial Nations the Barg, N. C., Ratation, Dec 17th, 1871. THE sonnal meeting of the Stockholders, of this Bark will be held at their Bank in House in this city, on Treaday the Im- bar on the side, on The Stockholders.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, IS MINTH STREET. Altermond, Va. JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Ace9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> . JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Ace9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> . JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agen 1 may294w. MARKISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies of the senson, opters, birds and every hing pertaining to a sinct class restaurant. In Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Coopers watter Whicky aways on band. John C.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Be willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonei," added Jone. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court," continued his Honor. "Fe misse are that you won't get into any more fights or unstarbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gaine to play done remis!" exclaimed Sidney.	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now resident in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Gelebration next May Coarlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the man that had ir, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were arked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the group. For six nights and days the guinters on the shore fired regularly to wath others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the half detad and motheries child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that heart blick burd. Bur I learned then a lea- eon which I may tack you-never to de-	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIGH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a1554     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn-new $1.00 old1.0     Corn Meal—new 55.97, old $1.15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Balk C eir Rib Sides,     1     Wealerro Teirces,     4     40.     Nexs,     17.     Coffee—Rib, sides,     19.     Lard, N C,     40.     Yess,     19.     10.     11.00     Beeswaa,     11.00     Beeswaa	Halves	Count of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Court House door in the City of Staleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described re- estate: *. Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Staleigh, immadiately on the N- R R, at the forks of the Heisborof and Chariet Hill Road, adjourned the Heisborof and there is the forks of the Heisborof and there is a state of the Store and a other, known as the John C. Moore play containing sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwellag. House with 7 means, good new fences, Ac. Ac. 2 a. Trast, Stimateon Fayelfuellie Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M - Jane F. Heywood, being part of Loi N - Jane F. Heywood, being a state acarty required for d-ferred paymént. BALELOH NATION AL BAEK, N. C., RALELOH NATION AL BAEK, N. C., HE ALELOH NATION AL BAEK, N. C., HE summal meeting of the Stockholders, of this Baak will be held at the ir Bank in House in this city, on Treaday the Bin Janary next, at welve o'clock M. der bar
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My Cash, its local agents, its winth striker. Alterhamond, Va. JAB, E & GIBBS, Proprietor. Active with dust received a supply of Sinchairs' Celebrated Southern Cradile. The Bars in time Marker Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agent may294w. ARKISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies of the senson, oysters, birds and orderly hing partaining to a first class restaurant. The tarts will stocked with Foreign and Dome- in Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Cooper- tavitye Whicky surges on hand. John C.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the runt "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Ise willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dete at' my feelings, Colonel," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "Premise are that you won't get into any more fights or unsurbances, and that's ati I want." "But I want to know whose gwine to play dome rems." replied Sidney. "Go away—both of you go !" replied	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. La Fayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quit then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Coarlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson ased to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel	daughter and my solar and nece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we ware asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuytkill. We clong to the rim of the stark, and my dear wife, who went under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the guitters on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw has my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the halt dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatnets and lying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that herrible night. But I learned then a lae- son, which I may tach you – never to de- mend upon the ideastics of this ite, but ite.	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 131%, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     15a1534     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn Meal—new 55197, old $1155.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon N C Haground     Bacon N	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will sel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Cont House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described real estate: * Tract, Situate about 3 miles West of the city of Raleigh, immandately on the N R R at the forks of the Heisborol and Charet Hill Road, adjourning the Land of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C. Moore play- contaming wirty-six acrest more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store hou e and necessar- out houses, d.c., &c. 2 ed. Tract, Situateon Fayelleville Siree in the City of Raleigh, wijz, ning the lot of M. Jane F. Heywood, being part of Lot N. Soin the plan of the city, and formerly inhe aw office of S. R. Kogers, enceased. Trads or Sxin-One Unird Cash, resider myable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent four day of sale. Note and approved as- carity required for d-formed payment. BALETON, Dec. 17th, 1871. The summal meeting of the Storkholders, d.e. etds EALMON NATION St. BARE, N. C. RALETON, Dec. 17th, 1871. The summal meeting of the Storkholders, day of sale, will be held at their Bank in House in this city, on Threiday the 121 Janary rest, at techer o'clock, M. day of sale. (C. DEWART, Cashier) Citizens' National Base.
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANUFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My C. its local agents, IS MINTH STREET. Altermond, Va. JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Ace9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> . JAB, E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Ace9- w3m GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>2</sup> . JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agen 1 may294w. MARKISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies of the senson, opters, birds and every hing pertaining to a sinct class restaurant. In Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Coopers watter Whicky aways on band. John C.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to have anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "He willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonel," added Joner. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "Promise me that you won't get into any more fights or disturbances, and that's all I want." "But I want 1, know whose gwine to play dose rems!" exclaimed Sidney. "Go away—toth of you go?" replied the court. "It's a nice question—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought ; and	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quint then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson ased to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way yharper got it, ne was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the must that had ir, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel suck, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- red from the man saved this stick. The	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got noto one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuytkill. We clong to the tim of the group. For six nights and days the guiners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the half dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatters and tying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that horrible hight. Bur I learned then a lee- son, which I may teach you—never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east ourselves with firth into that stream of event which will carty us ablery the shall of my teach you—never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east ourselves with firth into that stream of event which will carty us ablery	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RALEION, Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1815, with sales to some extent 183.     Bagging Domestic 254 yd     ISa155%     Cotton brisk 1815, with sales to some extent 183.     Bagging Domestic 254 yd     ISa155%     Cotton Ties—9 to 10.     Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.     Corn—new $1.00 old 1.0     Corn Meal—new *5b97, old $1 15.     Bacon N C Hog round     Bacon N C Hars.     Coffee-Rio cood.     2 Western Toirces.     "Western Toirces.     Towned.     Substate colspan="2">Substate colspan="2">Substate colspate     Bacon N C Har	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will seel on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Cont House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described real estate: • Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh immediately on the N- R R at the forks of the Hidsborot and Charet Hill Road, adjourning the land of dames Bachford, heirs of W. J. Brewn and other, known as the dolor C doore pla- containing sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 monas, good new fences, valuable store hou e and necessar- out houses, A.c. XC. Ted. Tract, Situateon Fayelfeille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of Mr. June F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Soin the plan of the City, and formerly the law office of 8. R. Kogers, and eased. TEMS or SAME — One third Cach, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent food also of set. Note and approved as- cardy required for d-formed payment. BANILG FOWLE, Com're. d a site RALEDON NATION & BARER, N. C., BALEDON NATION AL BARE, Jannary rest, at the low of low R. C. Stater CITIZENS' NATIONAL BASE, BALEDON, N. C., Dec. (D), 1874
SEWING MACHINES At magnifictures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANGFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchased direct from this office, or My Co- its local agents, IS WINTH STREET. Hielmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Mee's with GRAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTHS, dast received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradie. The Buser in THE MARKET Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES 22, TO VLE3, Agent may294w. MARKISON & FASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. You will always find on hand he delicacies of the sensor, ojsters, birds and every hing pertaining to a first class restaurant The isoria will always find on hand he delicacies of the sensor, ojsters, birds and every hing pertaining to a first class restaurant The isoria will always find on hand. he delicacies of the sensor, ojsters, birds and every hing pertaining to a first class restaurant The isoria will always on band. John C. Seequre's Beer always on draught. HOV 18-100	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Sarainus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- tions and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "Be willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Dete at' my feelings, Colonel," added Jone. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "For miss me that you won't get into any more fights or unsurbance, and that's all I want." "Go away—toth of you go?" replied the court. "It's a mice guestion—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought; and 't have to make a million fighters with a	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quint then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the must that had it, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel suck, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- ted from the man saved this stick. The map got it from Col. Shaffer, a member	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the cars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the group. For six nights and days the gunners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge I brought eventually the half dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap. Never shall I forget that morning or that herrible tight. Bur I learned then a lea- son, which I may teach you—never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east ourselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along the saw of good which will carry us along the saw of an of the same to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to cast ourselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.       RALEIOH, Dec. 11, 1874.       REMARKS.       Cotton brisk 131%, with sales to some extent 182.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a15%       Cotton Tries—9 to 10.       Flour N C, 7.25a7 50.       Corn—new $1.00 old 1.0       Corn—new $1.00 old 2.0       Bacon N C Hars, 16       Coffee==Rio, cood, 20%       You weatern Teirces, 17       Coffee==Rio, cood, 20%       Batter conntry, 70       Mackeret of 1       Batter conntry, 70       Harsh, 100       Beeswaa, 20	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Contribute door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described ry di- estate: * Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh, immandately on the N- R R, at the forks of the Hidsborol and thard Hill Road, adjourned the hard of James Bahford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C. Moore pla- rontaning sixty-six acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling House with 7 rooms, good new fencer, valuable store hou e and necessar- out houses, d.c., Mc. 2 -d. Tract, Situateon Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. Jame F. Heywood, being part of Loi N. Soin the plan of the city, and formerly ithe law office of R. R. Kogers, are eased. TEMS or SATE -One third Cach, readder reads and street and approved ac- carty required for d-forming symbols. BALETON, Nor SATE - One Unit Gash, set. (EO, H, SNOW, Constra- d a stds EALETON NATION St. BASE, N. C., EALETON NATION St. BASE, N. C., EALETON NATION St. BASE, N. C., BALETON NATION St. BASE, N. C., BALETON, Dec. 17th, 1871. THE sonnual meeting of the Stockholders, d. a stds EALETON, N. C., Dec. 190, 1874. THE sonnual meeting of the Stockholders in House in this city, on Teesday the 12: Janary next, attacted clock, M. dar son C. DEWART, Cashier CITIZENS' NATIONAL BASE, BALETON, N. C., Dec. 190, 1874. THE signal meeting of the stockholders is dare son C. DEWART, Cashier
At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly astalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANDEFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My Co- its local agents, is MINTH STREET. Allehmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec 4 w3m G RAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>3</sup> , Just received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Gradle. The Bars in Thm Marker Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agent may294w. MARCISON & FASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HARGETT STREET. To will always find on hand he delicacies of the senson, oysters, birds and covery hing printing to a first class restaurant The tarts will stocked with Foreign and Jonnes- the Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Coopers waiter Whisky siways on draught.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one reof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, after patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and fifty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "He willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonet," added Jone. "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court," continued his Honor. "Permise me that you won't get into any more fights or disturbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gaine to play dose rems." exclaimed Sidney. "Go away—Loth of you go!" replied the court"It's a mice, guestion—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought; and i'd have to make a million figures with a piece of red chelk. Take the case to a	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Obstrer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebere, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson ased to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the man that had it, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel suck, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- ted from the man saved this stick. The man got it from Col. Shaffer, a member of Gen. Jackson was staff, whose name is and Gen. Jackson was the stick. The	daughter and my solar and nece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshels some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dain of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the group. For six nights and days the gunners on the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the gunners of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with stranguistion, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the half doad and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that horrible tight. But I learned then a lar- son, which I may teach you – never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to cast curselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along the swift and beautiful current of eternal iow into the harbier of heaven, that glot	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.       RATERON. Dec. 11, 1874.       REMARKS.       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton Ties—9 to 10.       Floor N C, 7.25a7 50.       Cotnon-new $1.00 old 1.0       Corn -new $5.97, old $1.15.       Bacd N C. Harks, 16       Balk C err Rib Sides, 17       Media N C.       CoffeeRio, cood, 2015       Balk C err Rib Sides, 201       Side Corn Rib Sides, 201	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Cont House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described ry di- estate: *. Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh, immundiately on the N- R R at the forks of the Hidsboro' and Charet Hill Road, adjourned the hard of James Bachford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as 'the John C Moore pla- containing witty-sit acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dweling House with 7 mons, good new fences, valuable store hou e and necessar out houses, d.c. Sc. 2 ed. Tract, Situateon Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. June F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Multice of S. R. Korers, an formerly the law office of S. R. Korers, and formerly in a suffice of S. R. Korers, and formerly in the City of Raleigh, adjoined the scarthy required for d-formed payment. BALETON, Dec. 17th, 1871. T 62 of the State -One Unit's Carb, residue payable in 6 months, with interest 6 per cent from day of sale. Note and approved ac- carthy required for d-formed payment. BALETON, Dec. 17th, 1871. T 62 of the BANNE, J. Com're, d.c. etts BALETON, NATION & BAER, N. C., RALETON, N. C., Dec. 199, 1874. T 64 of the dat their Bank in House in this city, on Teeday the Bars Jannary rest, at the low of low Stockholders, Matheron, N. C., Dec. 199, 1874. T 64 of the Bank will be held at their Stoney rest, at the low of low Stockholders, Matheron, N. C., Dec. 199, 1874. T 64 of the month meeting of the stock heiders of the Bank will be held at their Bankieron Kaines on Theoday the Bars Jannary rest, at the low of low stockholders in House in this city, on Teeday the Bars Jannary rest, at the low of low at head at their Bankieron Rate ga on Theoday the Bars heiders of the Bank will be held at their Bankieron Rate ga on Theoday the Bars heiders of the Bank will be held at their Bank
At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly astainents. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANDFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or say re- its local agents, IS WINTH STREET. Alteinmond, Va. JAS. E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec 9- with G RAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>3</sup> . Just received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradile. The Baser in THE Manker Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES M. TO WLES, Agent may29 4w. MARCISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HABGERT STREET. Tou will always find on hand he delicates in the scales restaurant. The arts will stocked with Foreign and Domes- the Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Coopers attree Whisky suways on hand. John C. Security Beer always on draught. HOV 18-4W. F. N. 8 T. E.U. D. W. J. C. K.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, alter patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "He willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonel," added Jone". "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "For mise that you won't get into any more fights or disturbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gwine to play dose rems!" exclaimed Sidney. "Go away—toth of you go?" replied the court. "It's a nice guestion—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought; and i'd have to make a million figures with a place of 'icd chaik. Take the case to a upber court and send me the pinnyhele and send me the pinnyhele and the pinnted arguments."—	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quint then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Coarlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way larger got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the mun that had ir, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel snok, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- ted from the man saved this stick. The man was a warm personal triend of	daughter and my solar and nece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshels some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the capsized boxt, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my dear wife, who were under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the gunners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the halt dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that horrible tight. But I learned then a lar- son, which I may teach you - never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east curselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along the swift and beautiful current of eternal joy into the harbier of heaven, that glot	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RATERON. Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2"     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2"     ISANDE Colspan="2"         ISANDE Colspan="2"     ISANDE Colspan="2"	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Cont House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described ry di- estate:  Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh, immandately on the N R for the forks of the Hidsborol and than the property are a good well cared to dwelling blues with 7 mons, good new fencer, valuable stors how e and necessar out houses, d.e., we 2-d. Trait, Situateon Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. Jans F. Heywood, being part of Loi N. Soin the plan of the city, and formerly ithe aw office of 8. R. Kogers, an eased. TEMS of SATE-One third Cash, readder reads de etta EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., de etta EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., de etta EALTHOR, N. C., Dec. 190, 1874. There egula moment meeting of the stock hister of the Bank will be held at their Buberg house, it hash will be held at their Bube
SEWING MACHINES At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly instalments. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANDELACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchesed direct from this office, or My Cash, its local agents, its winth striker. Allehmond, Va. JAB, E 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. Acc3+ w3m G BAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>3</sup> , Just received a supply of Sinchairs' Celebrated Southern Cradle. The Base in This Marker Warranted to give catisfaction. JAMES M. TO ALE3, Agent may29 4w. MARCISON & PA3HFORD'S BAIR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HABGETT STREET. Tou will always find on hand he delicacies of the senson, outers, birds and every hing pertaining to a dirst class restaurant John C. Securit' Beer always on band. John C. Securit' Beer always on draught. HOV 18-4W	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, alter patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "He willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonel," added Jone". "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "For mise use that you won't get into any more fights or disturbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gwine to play dose remis!" exclaimed Sidney. "Go away—toth of you go!" replied the court. "It's a nice gueston—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought; and i'd have to make a million figures with a place of 'red chaik. Take the case to a upber court and send me the pimehlet and upper court and send me the pimehlet and the pimehlet arguments."—	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquer laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen. LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quilt then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in yeancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Charlotte Obstrer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebere, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson ased to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way Harper got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the man that had it, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel suck, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- ted from the man saved this stick. The man got it from Col. Shaffer, a member of Gen. Jackson was staff, whose name is and Gen. Jackson was the stick. The	daughter and my sourr and nicce. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshets some days before. I had hold of the cars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and saw the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the group. For six nights and days the gunners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge I brought eventually the half dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap. Never shall I forget that morning or that herrible tight. Bur I learned then a lea- son, which I may teach you—never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east ourselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along the saw of good which will carry us along the saw of good which will carry us along	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.       RATERON. Dec. 11, 1874.       REMARKS.       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.       Bagging Domestic 214 yd 15a1534       Cotton Ties—9 to 10.       Floor N C, 7.25a7 50.       Cotnon-new $1.00 old 1.0       Corn -new $5.97, old $1.15.       Bacd N C. Harks, 16       Balk C err Rib Sides, 17       Media N C.       CoffeeRio, cood, 2015       Balk C err Rib Sides, 201       Side Corn Rib Sides, 201	Halves	Count of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lith day of January, 1875, at public suction, at the Court House door in the City of Saleigh at 12 of lock m., the following described re- estate: struct: struct, Situate about 3 miles. West of the trivot Kaleigh, immachately on the N- E-R, at the forks of the Holsborol and Chariel Hill Road, adjoundy the Hand of James Bashford, Heirs of W. J. Brown and other, known as the John C-Moore play- contaoling sixty-sit acres more or less Up on the property are a good well cared to dwelling. House with 7 rooms, good new fences, valuable store hou e and necessar- out houses, d.e. Ac. 2 ed. Trast, Stinsteon Fayelleville Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M-S Jame F. Heywood, being part of Loi No Sofint e pien of the City, and formerly the law office of S. R. Rogers, coleased. TERMs or SALE -One Haid of payment. BANIL & POWLE, Comirs, G.EO, H. SNOW, Comirs, G.EO, H. SNOW, Comirs, G.EO, H. SNOW, Comirs, d. ettal HALEBOR NATION & BAEK, N. C., HALEBOR NATION OF Stockholders, d. ettal HALEBOR NATION & BAEK, N. C., HALEBOR NATION & BAEK, N. C., Mar tis CHIZENS' NATIONAL BAEK, M. der 53.9 C. DEWER', Comirs, for this Bask will be held at the in Bank in House in this city, on Treaday the 121 Jannary mext, at the loc lock M. der 53.9 C. DEWER', Cashier CHIZENS' NATIONAL BASK, Matterion, N. C., Dec. 199, 1874. THE equila manual meeting of the stock heiders of the Hamilton field at their Backging hake gin on Treaday 15th Jansay 64.75.
At manufactures' prices, on time or monthly astainents. AND TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. BELOW MANDFACTURERS PRICES FOR CASH, If purchessed direct from this office, or say re- its local agents, IS WINTH STREET. Alteinmond, Va. JAS. E. 4 GIBBS, Proprietor. dec 9- with G RAIN CRADLES & GRASS SCYTH <sup>3</sup> . Just received a supply of Sinclairs' Celebrated Southern Cradile. The Baser in THE Manker Warranted to give satisfaction. JAMES M. TO WLES, Agent may29 4w. MARCISON & PASHFORD'S BAR ROOM & RESTAURANT, No. 10, HABGERT STREET. Tou will always find on hand he delicates in the scales restaurant. The arts will stocked with Foreign and Domes- the Liquors. Berry Foster and Tom Coopers attree Whisky suways on hand. John C. Security Beer always on draught. HOV 18-4W. F. N. 8 T. E.U. D. W. J. C. K.	Too MUCH FOR His HONOR.—Their names were William David Sydney and George Saruinus Jones, gentlemen of color. Sidney had his head bound up, suffering from a cut, and Jones was volu- ble and earnest. They dwell together under one roof, and got into fight over the subject of who should pay the rant "Now, see here," remarked the court, alter patiently listening to their explana- te ns and accusations, "I don't want to oave anything more to do with this case. There are a hundred and filty points of law in it, and you ought to take it to the Supreme Court at once." "He willing, boss," replied Sidney. "Date at' my feelings, Colonel," added Jone". "Well, I'm going to throw the case out of this court." continued his Honor. "For mise that you won't get into any more fights or disturbances, and that's all I want." "But I want to know whose gwine to play dose rems!" exclaimed Sidney. "Go away—toth of you go?" replied the court. "It's a nice guestion—it re- quires three weeks of deep thought; and i'd have to make a million figures with a place of 'icd chaik. Take the case to a upber court and send me the pinnyhele and send me the pinnyhele and the pinnted arguments."—	county, and the profile of the mine are $1,600 per day. The work of prohibitory liquor laws is exemplified by the statistical compari- son that in Boston 6.25 per cent of the population are arrested for drunkenness, while only 3.7 per cent of the average New Yorker can be found in the police reports for this cause. A lady now restdent in this city, has a quilt under which Gen LaFayette slept during the Revolutionary War. The quint then belonged to the lady's grand- mother, who lived in ye ancient town of Fayetteville. It will be placed on exhi- bition at the Centennial Celebration next May Coarlotte Observer. Mr. B. F. Pitt, of Battlebore, this State, has a walking stick that Gen. An- drew Jackson used to walk with. The way Pitt got it, he bought it from Mr. Harper, of Edgecombe, and the way larger got it, he was on board a vessel on York river during the war, with the mun that had ir, and the man was going to see one of his sons who belonged to our army then at Yorktown. The vessel snok, and Mr. Harper becoming separa- ted from the man saved this stick. The man was a warm personal triend of	daughter and my solar and nece. The day was lovely and everything spoke of pleasure. Pleasure beats were going out in numbers, and we were asked to take a b at. We all five got note one. There had been many rains and freshels some days before. I had hold of the oars and had been pulling for some time, when we heard a shout from the shore and any the waving of hands, as if to bring us back. It was impossible to stop, and with an awful plunge we were driven by the wa- ters over the dam of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the Schuylkill. We clong to the rim of the capsized boxt, all, save my dear child, whe sank, and my dear wife, who were under the dam, the fairest and best of all the group. For six nights and days the gunners on the shore fired regularly to warn others of danger. Clutching for a straw hat my child was recovered, black with strangulation, and across the bridge 1 brought eventually the halt dead and motherless child, wrapped in flatness and lying on my lap Never shall 1 forget that morning or that horrible tight. But I learned then a lar- son, which I may teach you - never to de- pend upon the pleasures of this life, but to east curselves with faith into that stream of good which will carry us along the swift and beautiful current of eternal joy into the harbier of heaven, that glot	WHOLESALE CASH PRICES.     RATERON. Dec. 11, 1874.     REMARKS.     Cotton brisk 1315, with sales to some extent 132.     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2"     Bagging Domestic 214 yd     ISANDE Colspan="2">ISANDE Colspan="2"     ISANDE Colspan="2"         ISANDE Colspan="2"     ISANDE Colspan="2"	Halves	Control of Wake county, the undersigned Commissioners will set on Thursday the lath day of January, 1875, at public succion, at the Cont House door in the City of Raleigh at 12 of clock m., the following described ry di- estate:  Tract, Situate about 3 miles. West of the city of Raleigh, immandately on the N R for the forks of the Hidsborol and than the property are a good well cared to dwelling blues with 7 mons, good new fencer, valuable stors how e and necessar out houses, d.e., we 2-d. Trait, Situateon Fayellerille Stree- in the City of Raleigh, adjoining the lot of M. Jans F. Heywood, being part of Loi N. Soin the plan of the city, and formerly ithe aw office of 8. R. Kogers, an eased. TEMS of SATE-One third Cash, readder reads de etta EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., de etta EALTHOR NATION St. BAER, N. C., de etta EALTHOR, N. C., Dec. 190, 1874. There egula moment meeting of the stock hister of the Bank will be held at their Buberg house, it hash will be held at their Bube