TURKEY TALK.

We have no knowledge of turkey, or turkey language, but we thought all turkeys spoke the same language, and now we know they do.

The turkeys round about Hickory talk just like city turkeys, as may be seen by reading the Raleigh News and the Piedmont Press.

"My life is like the autumn leaf, That trembles in the moon's pale ray; Its hold is frail—its date is brief, Restless—and soon to pass away."

This language was uttered about three weeks ago by a turkey at Hickory. Yesterday, a gobbler in Raleigh was heard to speak just as if he had been raised at Hickory.

My life is like the autumn leaf, That trembles in the moon's pale ray; Its hold is frail—its date is brief, Restless—and soon to pass away."

THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS.

'Twas the night before Christmas when all through the house, Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse,

The stockings were hung by the chimney, with care, In hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there;

The children were nestled all snug in their beds, While visions of sugar plums danced through their heads;

And mamma in her 'kitchen, and I in my 'bed, Had just settled out brains for a long winter 'nap;

When out on the lawn there rose with a water-ter, A sprang from my bed to see what was the matter,

Away to the window I flew like a flash, Tore open the shutters, and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new fallen snow Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below;

When what to my wondering eyes should appear, But a miniature sleigh and eight tiny reindeer,

With a little old driver so lively and quick, I knew in a moment it must be Saint Nick.

Now Dash! now Dash! now Dash! now Dash! Now, dash away, dash away, dash away all!

As dry leaves that before the wild hurricane fly, When they meet with an obstacle mount to the sky;

So up to the house-top the coursers they flew, With a sleigh full of toys—and St. Nicholas, too.

And then in a twinkling, I heard on the roof, The prancing and pawing of each little hoof.

As I drew in my head, and was turning around, Down the chimney St. Nicholas came with a bound.

He was dressed all in fur from his head to his foot, And his clothes were all tarnished with ashes and soot.

A bundle of toys he had slung on his back, He looked like a peddler just out of a sack.

His eyes-how they twinkled! his dimples-how merry! His cheeks were like roses, his nose like a cherry!

His droll little mouth was drawn up like a bow, And the beard on his chin was as white as the snow.

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth, And the smoke it exhaled he drew like a breath.

He had a broad face and a little round belly, That shook when he laughed, like a bowl full of jelly.

He was chubby and plump, a right jolly old elf, And I laughed when I saw him, in spite of myself.

A wink of his eye and a twist of his head, Soon gave me to know I had nothing to dread.

He spoke not a word, but went straight to his work, And filled all the stockings; then turned with a jerk,

And laying his finger-side to his nose, He sprang to his sleigh, to the team gave a blow.

Away they all flew, like a downy feather, And away they all flew, like a downy feather.

And they all flew, like a downy feather, And away they all flew, like a downy feather.
