upon their affections. the foneral was realiy an imposing one. The remains were escorted by colored pull bearers, appropriately arraigned, and were takes to the Episcopal church, of which the deceased had long been sex ton, where the solemn services were per-torme i by the Rev. C. J. Curtis, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Oertel, and thence escorted to the grave by a large concourse of colored people, followed by almost the entire male population of that place.

The young men of the town bore the xpense of the funeral, providing a handsome coffin, and hearse, and proposed to provide white pall beavers, but yielded to the desire of the colored people to bestow that honor themselves. ----PARDONED FROM THE PENITENTIARY.

-Governor Brogden pardoned the other day, Jacob Manuel, negro, from Cumber and county, sentenced for life for murier. Manuel was convicted on circum stantial evidence and had been in four years. The petition was signed by prominent citizens of Cumberland, and Mr. T. C. Fulle-, his counse' at the time, and many oth r prominent gentlemen, all agreed that there was considerable doubt as to Manuel's guilt. His old father, a gray-headed negro, 80 years old, has been hard at work for his son ever since he was put in, and the last trip he made in November he walked all the way from Fayetteville, 80 miles, and his prayer was to see Jacob out. The Governor also recently pardoned Scott-young white man from Guilford county. This youth a year or two back got in his cups and
