City Intelligence.

SALE OF LOTS AT APPEX. The ten or dozen lots sold at Apex yesterday by John Ellington we learn, went off remarkably well, one small lot with an old shanty on it bringing one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

ATTENTION, KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS. Every member is earnestly requested to attend at their Castle Hall this Wednesday night at 7:30 sharp. Election of officers and other important business will be brought forward. Every member is expected.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. The little pistol that goes off accidentally has again been heard from. He was going upstairs with the little thing in his pocket. Mr. Day Blake was shot in the leg. All in Oak Grove Township, this county, and Mr. Blake is in bed and can't get about as he once could. Who's next?

TRIP TO ALBANY PRISON - BROOKS OF PATERBORO. Mr. H. M. Miller of this city has just returned from a trip to Albany Prison, New York, where he was sent with charge of J. S. Sessoms of Bertie who was sentenced there for three years hard labor. Major Miller says he saw Brooks, the former president of the Petersburg Ya. Bank and that he was employed as clerk in the prison infirmary. When he left Albany the snow was eight-inches deep.

AN ACTOR GETS HIS JAWS STOPPED. It seems that Carleton the baritone of the Kellogg Opera Troupe, the other night in Richmond refused to acknowledge an encore, and the city press characterized his conduct as an insult to the Richmond public. As the Troupe were about taking the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac train last Sunday evening, Carleton approached Mr. Ernest Witz, a representative of the Richmond press, and asked him who was the author of the criticism. Witz replied by asking him if it wasn't true. Carleton answered that it was true, and Witz gave his jaws a fat sound slap. Carleton made a pass back at him, but as the cars were about starting, he skipped aboard and passed on.

THE ENQUIRER. The Enquirer brevity man in referring to it, says: Carleton the baritone of the Kellogg troupe, received a present from a representative of the Richmond press in the shape of a Christmas box, by which we trust he may long remember us.

ALL ABOUT. Rev. Mr. Coombs, who killed himself in Washington City, was a native of Loudon county, Va. Stephen Ellis, a white youth in Wilmington, had his face well scrambled by Christmas powder. Madame Pasque, of Gonaves, Hayti, colored rival of Miss Anna E. Dickinson, lectured in Wilmington on "The Negro - Past, Present and Future."

An agricultural paper says that kind words will cure a cow of kicking, but may prefer the old way of mauling the critter with a fence rail until her heart is broken. That farmer understood human nature who said: "If you want to keep your boy at home, don't bear too hard on the grindstone when he turns the crank."

An Illinois debater "had 'em" when he arose and said: "Yes, gentlemen, Waterloo was the biggest kind of a fight, but Washington whipped 'em like a wick."

On Christmas day in New Orleans two negroes were killed in an affray, an old white man was thrown from a mule on the pavement of the street and killed, a negro was run over and killed by a freight train, and a young lady was shot in the neck by a stray pistol ball.

The Boston Traveler says: An old and well-known merchant of this city lost in the great fire of 1872 property in merchandise and warehouses to the amount of $1,750,000. Deducing what he recovered from insurance, and including what he lost in insurance stock, the net loss to him then was $1,350,000. He immediately set to work to rebuild, though any one seeing how cool and calm he was on the Sunday morning following the fire, would hardly have supposed he was interested in the amount of a dollar. He has neither sold a foot of real estate, nor has he borrowed a dollar from any source.

ROOMS OF THE CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY. The State Executive Committee of the Conservative Party, which is composed of the various Congressional Executive Committees, will please meet in Raleigh on Wednesday, January the 20th, 1875, to consult in regard to important matters. Members of the Conservative press are invited to attend.

W. R. COX, Chairman Central Committee. J. J. LYNN, Sec'y. POND'S EXTRACT. Men and women will suffer from a severe headache, when ten minutes spent bathing the head with the Extract would afford relief.

THE CITY.

Clear and right sharp cold. Laverley's Mustrels will be in this city the 1st of February.

Of course Clara Wildman will get a good house to-morrow night. Now don't run crazy. Katie Putnam is coming, will play here the 28th of next month.

S. D. Harrison has beautiful White Rose Family Flour equal to the Patensco for sale. Also silver skin and red onions at $3 per bushel. See advertisement.

Any gentleman not used to such "change" found floating around on Tuesday or to-day with a new ten dollar bill, report please be made to this office.

It is on foot to inaugurate New Year in this city by ringing up the citizens between six and seven in the morning to witness a foot race between two of our most aged and worthy citizens, who are low down in purse, the race to run from Capitol gate to the Governor's palace, and then a subscription by hat for the couple.

New Year's day, Friday. Enter Mr. Prancer. "Ladies, good morning." "Oh, Mr. Prancer, so glad to see you; now do, taste our wine and cake - indeed, you are - really now - I was about to say the fourteenth - upon my honor, aunty, he's the fifteenth young gentleman that's called. Isn't it sweet in them? indeed it is." Mr. Prancer waves his hand, bows, smiles, affects a backing cough under a half-gloved hand, and the thing's done, after wishing a Happy New Year. His friends will wrap him up at night to keep from catching cold with his clothes and boots on.

THE LADIES. A suffering wife in Chicago appeals for divorce for the reason that her brutal husband habitually eats raw onions for supper. "In onion there is strength," too much for her.

New Year's day is at hand. "How do I do? Made hundred calls. Job indeed. More to make Glass or wine, please. Good bye." Chorus of young ladies: "What a fool that young Scivins is!" Petalums (Cal) is the home of a young lady who can play on a piano "Fisher's hornpipe" with one hand, "Yankee Doodle" with the other, and sing "Dixie" at the same time.

Charles Sumner's sister, Mrs. Hastings, has sent from San Francisco to Wendell Phillips one of her brother's large Hungarian glass pitchers. It is of very peculiar form, bears a Dutch coat of arms, and is probably more than a century old. A lady in Philadelphia recently attended early service in one of the churches and on taking her seat, became conscious of an unusual feeling of coldness about the head. On putting her hand up to discover the cause, she found that her bonnet had disappeared. It had fallen off in the street without its owner discovering the mishap, and it being early in the morning there was nobody about to tell her of her loss.

It is better to dwell in the corner of the house-top, than with a howling woman, and in a wide house.

RELIGIOUS. How dieth the wise man? As the fool. Rob not the poor because he is poor, for God will plead their cause and will spoil the soul of those that spoil them.

Thousands of years before Christ came deities had been placed in the skies by one race after another, and never was an image placed in the heavens so sweet, so great in all benignities as the image of Christ.

When, late in the last century, William Carey proposed at a ministers' meeting in England the discussion of the preaching of the Gospel in heathen lands, the venerable chairman said: "Young man, sit down. When God proposes to convert the world, He will, without your help or mine." A Scottish General Assembly, in 1800, treated as absurd a proposal looking to the same result, on the ground that it was absurd to attempt work abroad so long as a single soul was left unconverted at home. Now there are 33 European and 18 American Missionary Associations, with 1,800 Missionaries, 14,000 Christian laborers, and $5,000,000 per year spent in the cause.

The propriety of giving condition medicine to horses, cattle and sheep was discussed and admitted by many of the Agricultural Societies throughout the State last Fall, and we believe that in every case but one they decided in favor of Sheridan's Catarrh Condition Powders Good judgment.

There is, probably, no way in which we can benefit our readers more than by recommending to them for general use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It is adapted to almost all the purposes of a Family Medicine; and as a specific for coughs, colds, whooping cough, soreness of the chest, lame stomach, rheumatism, spitting of blood, and all lung difficulties, it has no equal that ever we saw or heard of.

Eye & Headache of the Weekly SENTINEL will receive free a copy of the best Agricultural and Family Newspaper in this country by addressing Moore's Rural New Yorker, 28 Duane Street, New York. See 21st

PERSONAL.

Lawrence Barrett is playing in Richmond.

Lawrence Barrett, the actor, was a printer's apprentice in Detroit.

William Ot, young man, bookseller in National Bank at Richmond, and a Knight of Pythias, died in that city the other day.

A case was tried at last Forsyth court involving $240, in which 300 witnesses were summoned and 104 were examined. The costs amount to over $3,000.

The loss to Wm. Harris & Co. by store being burnt at Weidon was $19,192; they were insured for $9,500, and $9,500 of it was in the North Carolina Home.

A gentleman took the following telegram to a telegraph office: "I am overcome with grief the death of Uncle James. Come quickly to read will. I believe we are the heirs. John Black." The clerk having counted the words, said: "There are two words too many, sir." "All right, cut out 'with grief!'"

DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. THE GREAT AMERICAN CONSUMPTIVE REMEDY. Consumption is NOT an incurable disease. Physicians assure us of this fact. It is only necessary to have the right remedy, and the cure can be consummated.

WHILE LIFE LASTS THERE IS HOPE. It may not be too late to effect a cure even after the doctors have given up. HALL'S BALSAM is sold everywhere, and may be had at wholesale of the Proprietors, JOHN J. HENRY, CURRIAN & CO., at their Great Medicine Warehouse, 8 and 10 College Place, New York. For 41 per cent.
