City Intelligence.

DEATH OF A CITIZEN.—Mr. Richard Young, brother of Mr. Jeff Young at the asylum for mutes, died at his residence in this city this morning at half past nine o'clock.

THE NEWSPAPER POSTAGE LAW.—The Postoffice Department decides upon a question submitted from New York that publishers and news agents shall have the right to purchase from postmasters small stamps for prepayment of postage on printed matter under the new law...

APPEALS IN THE NORTHEAST.—A gentleman just arrived from a tour into the northeastern section of the State reports Carrick county carrying on quite a business with Norfolk and the Chesapeake Canal doing well, the Dismal Swamp Canal being short of water.

CHRISTMAS WAS ENJOYED IN A MANNER characteristic of that hospitable people. In Pamlico county there is some complaint of hard times, though the wharves at Elizabeth City are three deep with large vessels loading with corn for Wilmington. Not much interest taken in politics.

NEW EATING HOUSE.—Passengers on the North Carolina branch of the Richmond and Danville railroad now take breakfast and supper with Mrs. Troy, at Morrisville. Her bill of fare last Friday morning was good coffee with cream, nor milk in it, chicken, ham, pork, sausage, pig-bread, excellent biscuits, partridges, fresh oysters, scrambled and boiled eggs, besides other dishes we did not partake of.

HE COULDN'T WAIT FOR HIS WAGON.—It is a true story. The young man who lives in Nash county, just this side the town of Wilson, and he was in the city last Thursday, for the purpose of buying a lot of bacon. He came all the way in a neighbor's wagon, and another young man of his neighborhood had promised to start on the same day, and meet him in this city. Now both of these young men are speaking the same country jargon, and there is great rivalry between them.

A DENYED DENTIST.—The telegraph reports a denoted dentist at New Haven, Connecticut. An injunction has been issued to that State restraining all dentists from using vulcanized rubber in any form without full payment therefor. But this dentist kept on manufacturing and using the vulcanized rubber. The Court summoned him to Hartford to answer for it, but he refused to go, saying that he had received a warning that the train would run on the track. It took four men to put him aboard, and when he got to Hartford he insisted that the train did run off and that all were killed, and only himself and a few others were inhabiting this earth as spirits.

A NEW JERSEY BOY who has saved three lives? On Sunday last a dozen boys were playing on the ice at Trenton, when a portion suddenly gave way and precipitated a large boy named David Geiseler into deep water. He shouted for help, and a companion named William Parks, under fifteen years of age, ran to his assistance, grasping his hand as he was sinking the last time. By great exertion he succeeded at last in dragging him upon firmer ice, where he was safe. His rescuer, two years ago, caught a little girl whose foot was fast in a switch, and pulled her loose just in time to save her from being crushed by a locomotive, which ran over a portion of his coat. Within a month from that time he plunged into the canal and brought the drowned brother of the girl to shore, making three lives he has been the means of saving.

POND'S EXTRACT.—Men and women still suffer from a severe headache, when ten minutes spent bathing the head with the Extract would afford relief.

THE CITY.

Good apples at Charlie Christophers at 25 cents per dozen. Judge Bynum is in the city to-day ready for Supreme Court on Monday.

The ball was given by the young men of the city and not the Good Templars this afternoon.

F. C. Christophers sells good bargains in groceries, and also the best ladies and children's shoes.

The store house of J. J. Overby was sold to-day for the sum of $8,700, Mr. W. D. Upchurch being the purchaser. The house is of brick, and is 45x122.

A Richmond man is in the city engaged in getting up directories of all the cities in the South. He is much pleased with Raleigh, and declares it the liveliest place he has visited.

A crusade temperance alliance has been placed on our table. It is so full of horrid pictures, men branding their wives, &c., that it threatens as with jinjams to look at it.

Capt. George Wait is now regularly installed as part partner of the Waitt store on Fayetteville street. George will "draw" well for a seater gentlemen and more general good man doesn't tread this earth.

We told a country editor once of having read that the great Demas always did his writing in his shirt sleeves. We were a little amazed the next day to behold the editor with his coat off and collar thrown open writing away for dear life!

Tennyson's "Dora" will be played to-night at Tucker Hall by the Wildman troupe, also "Ouba" a three act drama. We trust our citizens will give Mrs. Wildman a full house as the unprecedented bad weather has prevented attendance the past two nights.

This new year weather teaches it well for a child to practice circus and learn to somersault handy in its youth. If the nice young man yesterday whose feet slipped from under him as he was parting with the ladies at the door had learned to eat a somersault in his youth he needn't have rolled down the steps like a bunch of yarn, but could have lit on his feet without touching a hand and kissed his fingers at the ladies in the bargain.

ALL ABOUT. A Richmond man has been before the Court for throwing a spittoon at his wife. They danced on the old year at a masquerade ball in Wilmington.

Two candidates for Mayor in a Nebraska city are familiarly known as "Scoury Mike" and "Dreadful Tom."

Messrs. Sam. A. Harrington and Willie J. Newby left here a few days ago for Texas, where they intend to reside permanently.—Rocky Mt. Mail.

The Charlotte Observer is to hand, had spent the week moving its office. We confess to having had a little uneasiness about Caldwell.

A young man in Cairo has just finished a farm building containing two thousand one hundred verses. It reaches clear across the street, and would make four bustles.

A city top who was taking a airing in the country, tried to amuse himself by quizzing an old farmer about his bald head, who solemnly remarked: "Young man, when my head gets as soft as yours I can raise hair to sell."

The Scotch in Richmond New Year's night. Says the Whig: "As the Virginia Opera-House, where the 'Caledonian Club' and those who united with them observed 'Hug Me Now,' there was a large and brilliant company. The entertainment opened with the Scottish comic drama, in two acts, of 'Cramond Brig' or, 'the Gudeman o' Bellinziech'—character by members of the club. The performance was excellent, and elicited rapturous applause. The floor was then cleared, and about 10 o'clock the brave lads and bonnie lassies commenced to dance to Prof. Vorkler's music. When they stopped this deponent 'dinner kane,' but it was somewhere in the year '73."

RELIGIOUS.

Even when the last breath is departing still hope in God's saving grace. The brother who refuses to take communion because there's a man at the table he doesn't like, it seems to the sinner a mighty doubtful thing about that brother's salvation.

Rev. N. M. Jurney, the new pastor of the Person Street Church, arrived in the city this morning, and will occupy the pulpit of that church to-morrow, morning and evening.

A Congressman from Ohio, a Presbyterian with a family, sent his two beautiful daughters to a convent school. The result—they become Catholics, and one took the veil. Under the sorrow, the mother's heart became a wreck.

Rev. Thomas Fox, pastor of St. Bridget's Roman Catholic Church, Falls of Schuylkill, Philadelphia, died Wednesday night. During the winter of 1871, when the small-pox was so prevalent, he was constant in attendance at the hospital among the poor patients, and received a gold-headed cane as a testimonial for his services.

A reformed prize-fighter: Bendigo, the ex-champion prize-fighter of England, delivered a religious address the other day in London. He began fighting when sixteen years of age and dropped it at forty. He fought "Deaf Burke" for the champion's belt and won it, and then fought Ben Caunt. He is now 63, straight as a dart, simple though coarse, and never learned his letters, and is the youngest of 21 children. He was converted two years ago as if by miracle, and ever since says he has been the happiest man alive, and should be happier still if he could only learn to read the Bible for himself.

SATURDAY.

TO-morrow will be Sunday, and get up my child, with me! My father rose at four o'clock and to tell me and then...

And bring the new white curtain out, and bring the pink tape on. My father should be neat and clean: And I'll take heed for John.

And break the little table, child, and let the books be read, and read, how like a King he looks!

And throw the dead flowers from the vase, and rub it till it glows: For in the kitchen garden yet he had a winter rose.

PERSONAL. The Duke of Montrose is dead. Gerrit Smith was in his 75th year. Virginia City, Nev., which consisted of five shanties and a corner grocery a few years ago, is now about building a new theatre directly opposite to its opera house.

The Richmond Enquirer has been reduced in size but is admirably made up and the smaller the better. John H. Bryant is now proprietor.

The Richmond Dispatch comes this morning in double sheet containing interesting and valuable statistics of the past year. As the veteran Mr. Cowardin waxes older his Dispatch shows more life and vigor.

The Boston clergymen are being tempted by the circulars of a Texas lottery, which says to each of them: "No one but yourself knows of your investment and gains."

The hotel at Nag's Head, a popular watering place for people in this section, was sold at auction last week for $5,000. Mr. Wilson Hollowell became the purchaser.—Norfolk Virginian.

Mr. D. Cohen, of Whitaker's, was knocked down, murdered and robbed at that place last Monday night. We hear that the robbers got about $450. Two negroes were arrested on suspicion and lodged in Edgecombe jail.—Rocky Mount Mail.

An Illinois court has rendered a curious decision. A boot dealer in Plano sold a man a pair of boots, both left. The purchaser clamored for his rights, but the court decided that a pair of boots was a pair of boots, and if a man had to wear them both on one foot it was a case which the laws of Illinois could not reach.

NEW GOODS AGAIN AT CREECH'S. SECOND STOCK THIS SEASON. It affords me more than ordinary pleasure to offer to the trade and consumers of Dry Goods, a second stock brought within the last few days from New York, and will be sold at prices which enable me to ask competition on my side.

My stock of Dress Goods embraces a large and complete line of beautiful shades and colors, from low price to the high. My stock of piece goods, Hats, Boots, Shoes, Corsets, Trunks, Valises, &c., is so diverse the largest to be found in the city, and to which I would call the special attention of close buyers, and have no one to say that I do not propose to clear up my business, but on the contrary to extend it. So bear in mind Creech's is the place.

Those who study economy and profitable investment can do no better than to give me a call. Being truly alive to the demands of the hour, and anxious to secure a large trade, I do not before the people, the largest stock to be found in the city.

The partners of the Firm are W. H. TUCKER, H. S. TUCKER, of Raleigh, N. C. The continuation of the

But the difficulty in running a store of persons who could furnish the means for conducting the Business as it should be, together with the pressure brought to bear on us, to remove from Raleigh the first class store, by a very large number of our friends both ladies and gentlemen, have compelled us to surrender our store to retire and to-day we are three days out and after January 1st, 1875, we will still offer to the Public the advantages of the First Class
