RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 4, 1875

NO. 131.

City Intelligence.

DR.—On the 3rd inst., at the residence of her sister, Mrs. H. M. Miller, Catharine Ann Edmondson, wife of the late Patrick Mohr Edmondson, of South Carolina, and daughter of the late T. P.
Davies, of this city, in the 86th year of his age. The funeral will take place at Old Church, Tuesday, the 1st of January, at 11 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend without further notice.

THE HOLIDAYS AT DAVENPORT COL-LEGE.—A correspondent writes us from Lancaster county that the young ladies of Davenport College gave a daylight service on Christmas morning, the young gentlemen of the neighborhood declaring that the angels were singing under their windows. They also adorned themselves with decorations down the hill sides.
We are glad to learn that this excellent school is flourishing under the able presidency of Rev. W. M. Robey.

A LETTER FROM SCOTLAND.—Mr. Theo.
Ramsay received this morning a very interesting letter from a young lady at Dunoon, Scotland dated December the 9th. She puts the American lodges of Good Templars after a young host who is on his way to this country after having been discovered by his all-used bride for no other cause than drink. He signed a paper to her to stop but failed to keep the pledge. The young lady further reveals the dreadful state of intemperance in Glasgow. There are one hundred and thirty lodges in that city, and five hundred thousand inhabitants.

"PRO. HARRIS' OME TO DANCE.—We all remember Harris in Raleigh. How he sold us. Those little tickets with numbers on them. Only one dollar. Bound to draw a prize. Perhaps the fifty dollar bill. And we all remember those rings.
Everybody got one. After paying two dollars. Well, Harris has been to Petersburg playing under a new name—"Prof. Albini." After the performance was over, the crowd rushed to the agent's office, and besieged that worthy with cries of fraud, and denunciations of the whole thing as a vile swindle. The fathers appraise :

cries of fraud, and denunciations of the whole thing as a vile swindle. The fathers appraise :

"At a late hour a warrant was issued for the arrest of Prof. Albini, on the charge of swindling. He was located at Jarrett's Hotel, and taken thence to jail by Capt.
Goodwyn and Lieut. Morris. It appears that during the excitement around the ticket office, Albini and his female assistant fled from the house. The principle has several aliases—one of which is Harr, another McAllister. He gave a performance at the Academy some time back under the last mentioned name.

The ticket agent narrowly escaped being mobbed, and it required all the officers of the police to save him. About a bushel of key rings and other trash designed for prize, as seized by the police.

THE TICKET OFFICE.—The gates of the grave were shut to-day on father and son. Mr. Richard Young died early Saturday morning of consumption and his old father John Young aged 82 followed that night without knowing his son was dead in the same city. The funeral at the Methodist Church this evening was truly impressive. It was singular to witness two heaves before the door, and the pall bearers with two coffles one after the other and Mr. Mangum in front crying out the service "I am the resurrection and the life." The church was crowded both gallery and floor and the usual solennity of a one date funeral was doubly increased at the sight of the two coffles.
Mr. Mangum made short and affecting remarks from the 90th Psalm. The Lord had born our dwelling place through all generations, at times moving to tears as the words leaped forth from his heart.
The two bodies were buried in the old city Cemetery.

A WORD OF PRAYER.

The voluntary by Presbyterians this morning was simply splendid. "I went there feeling badly, sir, and that myself made me a new man," we overheard one brother remark. Prof. Bougues is an organist of rare talents and his choir are well trained. Dr. Atkinson gave notice that this week the first of the year would be a week of prayer united in by the Presbyterians, Methodists, and Baptists, and services on Monday night would begin at the Methodist Church.
It is desired that there be a full attendance from all these congregations. Our minion will be held at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

LADIES RELIEF SOCIETY.

Rev. Mr. Marshall at Christ Church this morning said that the relief society composed of Episcopal ladies had been in operation four years and to this time had expended for the poor of the city, without an eye to any particular denomination, the sum of two thousand dollars. An average of one thousand each year.

THE HOSPITAL FUND.

Madame Harris has finally secured the upper hand of the English language for her to credit reason, she recently rang her bell at a hotel and ordered as follows: "Wait, you will bring up more beef of steak and boiled corn potatore with gravy; and it is not necessary for me to tell it out."

AN APPROPRIATE PRAYER.

A stupid fellow tried to annoy a pious preacher by asking him whether the fattest part of the parable was male or female.
"Female, to be sure," was the reply. "For I see the male"—looking his questioner in the face—"get alive in the flesh before me."

GOOD NEWS FROM DR. PRITCHARD.

Rev. Dr. Stone presided today at the Baptist Church. It was given out at Sunday school this morning that good news had been received from Dr. Pritchard.
He is under treatment of Dr. Galen in Baltimore for his sight and he writes that his eyes are rapidly improving and he has every hope and encouragement of his sight being restored to normal again. A whole people rejoice to hear this news.

We understand there are a number of indictments before the grand jury for murder liquor to minors.

Supreme Court met to-day. Twenty two young men apply for license to the two. To-day and to-morrow will be given to this examination.

Supreme Court is in session to-day.
Judge Watts presiding. There are 90 civil cases on the docket, 195 criminal cases, 29 bastard, 87 reference cases, and 50 jail cases not docketed and for action of the grand jury.

The young man that looks up at incoming down steps from church, or getting out of carriage, has just got courage enough to learn how to play on an accordion, though his grandmother predicted when he was a baby that there was a germ of future greatness in him.

SUNDAY IN RALEIGH—A DOUBLE FUN-ERAL.—The gates of the grave were shut to-day on father and son. Mr. Richard
consumption and his old father John Young aged 82 followed that night without knowing his son was dead in the same

RELIGIOUS.

A Jewish Workmen's Club and Institute has just been opened in Atlanta.
The proposed amendment to the General

Role on Intemperance of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has been voted on by 15 of the 36 annual Conference. There have been 200 votes for and 350 against the amended rule.

The Roman correspondent of The Zosman Table (Catholic) states that the want of priests is becoming perceptible in all the dioceses of Italy. In Rome every year the number of deaths in the priest hood is three times as great as the number of ordinations. One of the reasons he gives for this falling off is the new Conscription law which spares no one.
