RELIGIOUS.

The Gospels, according to Matthew, Mark and John, have been printed in Japanese.

Early Wesleyan preachers. We find the following in the Irish Wesleyan in reference to the early Wesleyan ministers:

For some years so stated provision whatever was made for the preacher. At a later period the circuits were directed to pay, if they could, quarterly for his clothes and books.

Another bill of the same character was taken up and passed its several readings.

In England and in an early period public officers appear to have been a national institution. They carried a long pole with a red flag on their shoulders and a large bell in their hands.
