VOL. X. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1875 NO. 157

City Intelligence.

SKATING RINK.—Norfolk has a skating rink. Mr. Fenton is the best skater. They skate by music from the Naval Band. The Virginian thinks not to skate after awhile will be equivalent to being out of society.

THE SENATE.—The corn crow bill by Mr Cashwell will be found in proceedings, also spirited debate on giving convicts in the penitentiary Bibles. Mr. Cashwell proposes to lift the pressure with a crow bar and he doesn't make any big crow about it. He's against crows.

MICHAEL HOKE JUSTICE, Esq.—This gentleman is now in the city upon business. Mr. Justice is a member of the bar at Rutherfordton. He has never taken an active part in politics, but confines himself closely to his profession, and has the confidence of his clients and the people.

WILMINGTON.—We take from the Star and Journal.—200 candidates for Aldermanic honors.—The cotton factory is nearly completed.—Old Nick Gregory & Co. now run the Humphrey house at Goldsboro. Good.—A large congregation assembled in the church of the strangers, New York City, last Sunday, to hear Rev; Dr. Moran preach on the "Godly Heritage."

GONE TO WADESBORO.—We learn that Dr. William Strudwick, of Hillsboro, son of the venerable Dr. Edmund S., left for Wadesboro' Sunday night to be permanently located there as a physician. A more skilful and thorough practitioner is not found in this State than Dr. Strudwick, and what will be Wadesboro's gain will result in Hillsboro's loss.

YOUNG LADY BURNT TO DEATH.—It is our sad lot to record the death of Miss Mary Chambler, of Eagle Rock, in this county, who was burnt to death the other day, her dress catching at the fire and soon enveloping her person in a blaze. Ladies should be very particular in this regard, there is never a winter that the newspapers do not tell of such and such a woman being burnt to death. Already we read the death of a lady in Wilmington by fire, and a few days after another in the same place was badly burnt and made a very narrow escape.

CAPT. G. M. WHITESIDE.—We are pleased to meet this gentleman now in the city on business. Mr. Whiteside two years ago represented the Rutherford District in the Senate. He carried Rutherford county by three votes. The first time the county had voted Democratic since the war. After the whipping of Bigerstaff and Justice the county returned to its old and ugly way of voting. The people of Rutherford are eminently Conservative and it is not possible for them to remain always under the banner of Logan and Justice and Cuffy Mayo. Whiteside, their own experience and reflection will bring them all right by and by. We are sorry our old friend Jo. Carson has gone a stray with Logan and Justice instead of fighting it out on the true line with Whiteside and Michael Hoke Justice.

CHARLOTTE.—We take from Tuesday's Observer: Eleven thousand bags of guano were shipped to Charlotte over the C. C & Augusta Railroad during last month. —An Italian organ grinder eloped with a good looking young woman of Charlotte and they had boarded the North Carolina train coming this way, but the mother-in-law switched in before the train switched off, and ground her teeth in the grinder's face, and he took up his pack on his back and followed her mildly home, the young woman with a red handkerchief to her eyes, leaning sadly on his arm. Conductor Liggon tells "how it was," and the Observer says tells it well.—Five thousand dollars needed to complete the Second Presbyterian church.

THE COPPER MINES IN JACKSON.—Senator Love placed upon the reporters desk to-day fine specimens of Copper ore from Savannah Copper Mines, Jackson county. These ores are worth net price in market 28 cents per lb. From official reports of "Union Consolidated Mining Company, Duck Town, Tenn," the production of ingot copper from these mines since the resumption of work in the fall of 1865 to June 1st, 1872 amounted to 7,209,009 lbs. net. Gross price in market in 1872, 28 cents per lbs., net price in market 26 cents per lbs., amount realized from said mines during the period indicated $1,874,342.36. These copper ores, together with those from Jackson county, and the iron ores of Cherokee county and other minerals of great value would be transported over the Railroads of this State if the Western N. C. R. R., was pushed forward further West in the direction of Chattanooga Tenn.

It is alleged that King Kalakaua "got on a regular bender" at St. Louis, beginning at Shaw's Garden, changing to "some good old Bourbon" at General Sherman's headquarters, and ending with "forty rod" in a back-street groggery. He wanted to see real life in St Louis, saw it, and went away with a very bad headache.

CONVENTION MOVEMENT.

The Fear of Grant and Sheridan was so strong in the minds of some that a member of the Legislature took it upon himself to ask permission of Grant to call a Convention. Grant has given permission.

We are requested to state that there will be meeting of the citizens of Raleigh at the courthouse at 8 o'clock on Thursday night to consider the subject of Convention.

DE MURSKA.—De Murska, the Hungarian Nightingale, will appear in a Grand Concert in this city on Tuesday, Feb. 9th. The combination of artists in this troupe has rarely been equalled by any company. All have been selected for their individual merits and accomplishments, and through them they are expected to succeed or fail before the public. The principal attraction of the troupe, however, is Mlle. De Murska. She has a high reputation as an artist, being considered by the press and public, wherever she has appeared, to be the most brilliant and artistic singer since Jenny Lind. The late announcement that this will be the only opportunity of hearing an artist who, as a vocalist, has probably no living superior, ought to be, and we are assured will be sufficient to crowd the hall. Patti, Nilsson, Lucca, Albani have claims which, so far as mere voice goes, may entitle them to a higher rank in the musical world, but for wonderful powers of execution, none of those we have named compare with the Hungarian nightingale. The company embraces, besides Mlle De Murska, Signor Braga, who, as a violoncellist, is unanimously conceded to have only one living superior, Signor Ferranti, the popular buffo, Mons Sauret, violinist, and Mdme. Sauret, a pianist of great merit. The company has everywhere met with general favor. This as a musical organization is without doubt the finest ever brought to Raleigh.

THE CITY.

The convicts are to be furnished with Bibles. See debate in Senate this morning.

Sheridan, Mack & Co. played to a crowded house last night at Tucker Hall. The agility of the females as they leaped about the stage in short dresses brought down the house, and an old married friend is trying to persuade his wife to let him carry the oldest boy to-night, he thinks children ought to see a little of the world, you know, but his wife is as keen as they make 'em, and at once clouded up for a storm, but Squills laughed and said he was "just joking."

THE LADIES

Miss Jeannie Patterson gave reading in Mobile last week with much success.

A Paris correspondent writes. I have recently met the beautiful Mrs Jerome Bonaparte, who was Miss Appleton, of Boston. She has a very pretty hotel and receives informally every afternoon. Next month she and Col. Bonaparte pay a visit to the Imperatrice at Chiselhurst.

The California highwayman still robs stage coaches and breaks female hearts. He wears a slouched hat, short cloak, red shirt, heavy moustache, a lock of lady's hair next his heart and bea tassels on his boots. The school of highway robbery in California is full of possible Joaquin Millers.

Sterne who used his wife very ill was one day talking to Garrick, in a fine sentimental manner, in praise of conjugal love and fidelity. "The husband," said Sterne, "who treats his wife unkindly deserves to have his house burnt over his head." "Do you think so," said Garrick. "I hope your house is insured."

PERSONAL.

De Muska appears at the Opera House in Norfolk next Monday evening.

Betting pools were sold last week upon the verdict of the Tilton-Beecher jury.

The police in Norfolk are required every day to make report of the condition of the sidewalks.

It is probable that Vice President Wilson will attempt to lead a reform movement in the Republican party.

Will Carleton, the poet, has left Michigan and taken up his residence at the St. Nicholas in New York.

There is a factory in Jersey City where fifty thousand black lead pencils are manufactured every day.

Drs Peters and Harkness, of the American expedition, were the only successful observers of the transit of Venus in New Zealand.

Mike H. Clark, of Danville, Virginia, the State Senator from Pittsylvania county died at his home the other day. He was a machinist and a kind and noble hearted man.

Rush Burgess, Collector of Internal Revenue, living a mile from Richmond, heard a noise in his dining room the other night, and going down to see what it was, he fired off his pistol at the burglar as he ran out of the door. The next morning the dead body of a negro was found under the porch, a pistol ball through his corpus. The negro's name was Cornelius Robinson.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE. February 3.

Mr. Morehead in chair.

Clerk read journal of yesterday.

Mr. McCauley, petition from citizens in Anson county asking a fence law. Referred.

Mr. McMillan, petition from citizens in Ashe asking a public road. Refered.

Mr. Waring, petition from citizens of Mecklenburg for fence law. Referred.

COLORED MR. TUCKER AND NEWBERNIAN.

Tucker, col., rose to a question of privilege. He had been reported in the Newbernian as saying he was opposed to Mr. Stanley, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners,—he didn't say any such thing—he didn't mention Mr. Stanley, at all.

House resolution appointing a committee to enquire into affairs of the Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company concurred in.

Mr. McMillan, bill for public road in Ashe county.

Mr. Waring, bill to prevent trespass on real estate in certain cases. Referred.

Mr. Love, bill to encourage immigration. Referred.

Mr. Cashwell, bill for protection of farmers, pays 50 cents to any man who'll kill a corn crow provided he will prove it. Referred.

Mr. Parish, bill to incorporate the bank of Durham. Referred.

REFORMING THE CONVICTS.

Resolution of Mr. Cantwell authorizing the Governor to purchase Bibles for the use of the convicts in the penitentiary. Mr. Anderson amended to say 25 Bibles and 25 Webster spelling books. Mr. Mills moved to lay whole thing on the table. Mr. Cantwell asked the ayes and nays, Senate refused, ayes 10, nays 31.

Mr. Marler opposed the amendment, said it would still the bill, and read a letter from C. H. Wiley, suggesting $150 worth of Bibles, and that the committee proposed to give them $100 worth at 40 cents a piece, and he thought this was little enough for the State to do for this unfortunate class.

Mr. Boddie asked how many convicts could read.

Mr. Marler couldn't answer, but Mr. Anderson answered that only 75 of them could read, and he could see no use of furnishing 350 Bibles for only 75 persons, that there was no better book for beginners than Webster's spelling book, and he was in favor of sharing this book with them. He was not represented in the penitentiary but he thought 25 Bibles enough for all the Senators constituents who were in the pen.

Mr. Standford strongly urged the hundred dollars worth of Bibles. It becomes us as Christian legislators so to do. A tract or a bible thrown in that penitentiary may make many a better man.

Mr. Mills opposed any such legislation. Gentlemen talk of this poor unfortunate class as if they were suffering from no act of their own, he had no such sympathy for the infernal thieves and murderers. When our unfortunate insane received more attention from the State he would feel better prepared to attend to the other class.

Mr. Latham favored the amendment of Mr. Anderson and in addition was in favor of giving the convicts copies of the criminal laws.

Mr. McElroy amended to give each convict an ounce of tobacco.

Mr. Kerr couldn't vote for such amendment while the insane were not better provided for. In the jail of Sampson county, in the very midst of winter, there was an insane man stripped stark naked, couldn't keep the clothes on him, he would tear them off, and Sampson county was still tapping at the door to get him in the State asylum.

Mr. Parish regretted that in this 19th century, living in a christian land, that Senators would get up here and refuse to give any class of persons the word of God. He was not in favor of throwing away money, he thought one hundred dollars too much, and fifty dollars would be a penny and he hoped it would be so amended.

Mr. Albright offered an amendment of fifty dollars instead of one hundred.

Mr. Anderson's amendment was voted down. Mr. Albright's amendment of fifty dollars was accepted and ayes and nays called on passage of bill. Bill passed, ayes 36, nays 6

The Senate bill concerning the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., and Wilmington & Raleigh R. R. companies was taken up and passed its several readings.

Senate bill to amend the act to incorporate the People's Bank of Monroe, was taken up and passed its several readings.

The Senate bill to require bond of Justices of the Peace was taken up. After a long debate Mr. Norment moved to table the bill, which was adopted by a vote of yeas 58, nays 49.

Mr. Staples moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was tabled.

A long debate ensued on the motion, when Mr. Norment moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The motion to table the motion to reconsider was rejected by a vote of yeas 47, nays 60.

The vote to reconsider was then put to a vote, and adopted by a vote of yeas 62, nays 46.

After debate, Lloyd, col., renewed the motion to table.

On the call of Mr. Walker of Richmond, the previous question was ordered.

A vote was taken on the motion to table and it was rejected, yeas 42, nays 63.

The question recurred on the motion to recommit to the Judiciary Committee, which was rejected by a vote of yeas 52, nays 56.

The bill then passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 57, nays 50.

It is now generally admitted by honest physicians, that when once the consumption is fairly fastened upon the lungs, no human power can save the patient from death. They also say that about fifty per cent. of those who die from this disease can trace the cause to a neglected cough or cold, which might have been cured by a small bottle of Liquid Opodeldoc, or what is the same thing, Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

POND'S EXTRACT.—In the very common and obstinate form of diseases known as Piles or Hemorrhoids, it has won its greatest reputation among the people.
