THE CITY.

How'd the rascal man know the young man was a minor. The whisky was his head on the window trying to explain that the young man was whittaker and what he had in a full grown voice and he'd-y' fooled any man.

Chirleki is coming, the ventriloquist and juggler, and gives away gifts after the performance. We remember Chirleki last season in this city, and he performed his part well, and kept faith with his promise. We think we can safely say there is no "Professor Here" about Chirleki.

The first aim of a young man is to get a title. To do this he must get a title as some hot-headed fool himself as straight as a dart and always get a "brush off" in the morning after having his whiskers blacked. The inhabitants of the earth will then turn out and call him colonel, and if he can drink enough liquor "with-out" showing it, he will make a greater man than his father.

THE SENATE LAST NIGHT.—The weary bill was discussed by some length last night. Mr. Standford favored his own bill making eight per cent, the legal and twelve per cent, the rate interest in contracts, and thought it would have the tendency to tone down interest to twelve per cent. He cited a case of a poor man in Duplin needing fifty dollars, and he applied to a capitalist to borrow it for him, but the capitalist said he had his money in bank at Wilmington at eight per cent, and even if he had the money he wouldn't lend it on a mortgage of the poor man's land, because he feared he would plead usury, so Mr. Standford went and borrowed the fifty dollars at three per cent per month, and the poor man made a good crop on it and paid it back.

Mr. Kerr advocated free money. He believed usury to be for the masses of the people, the most part of the State's prayer was "as usury to tempt to sin" and a usury law would do this very thing.

Mr. LeGrand supported the bill. He opposed legislation in the interests of a few moneyed men as opposed to the wants and demands of the farming and laboring class, and he read from a speech of Mr. Whipple, of Virginia, delivered by ex-Governor Henry A. Wise, giving the difference between a money and merchant bank.

Mr. Waring and the question as he understood it was the best plan to change money to North Carolina, and whether he could be convinced that that plan was to be adopted yet or no.

Mr. Williamson supported the bill. Free money might be right in principle, but his people demanded some check upon bankers, and he knew that they needed a relief of this sort. He said when he had applied at bank, backed by a security worth a hundred thousand dollars, and who were farmers, and the bank refused a loan, but simply on an uncorrupted draft on a commission merchant, weakening note, the money was paid him, clearly showing the discrimination made against the farmer. Besides it argued strongly in favor of the bill, the presence of lobbyists against it on this floor.

Pending discussion the Senate adjourned.

PERSONAL. In all England, Ireland and Scotland only 137 daily papers.

Andrew Johnson is in his sixty-sixth year. He has been nearly forty-five years in public life.

A nephew of Stonewall Jackson married a niece of George B. McClellan at Denver the other day.—Cris. Com.

The autograph manuscript of "Don Quixote," signed by Miguel Cervantes, is at present in one of the libraries of the Duques de Medina-Celi.

Vita Valenti, Lord Byron's Italian servant, who was with the poet when he died, has just died in London, aged seventy-eight years.

The Richmond correspondent to the Petersburg News asks: What is the world has become of the pamphlet of Kuzmigradoff the State paid Maj. Jed Hotchkiss $1,000 to write it?

A druggist's apprentice in Philadelphia mixed himself a dose of medicine from what he considered a recipe from the Pharmacopoeia, and took it for a bad cold, dying a few hours after from the poison. It is thought he took tincture of a conifer root.

The original manuscript of Gray's "Key to a County Churchyard" will shortly be sold by auction in London. It was preserved in the Penn Collection at Bucks Palace, and passed, for the sum of $600, into the hands of the present owner.

An attempt of the Republican members of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives to set aside a ruling of the Speaker and resist the Sergeant-at-Arms produced the most disorder in the House yesterday, and the body adjourned amidst uproar and the brandishing of pistols.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE. February 4.

President Armfield in chair. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Fritchard. Clerk read Journal of yesterday.

Mr. Waring obtained leave of absence to-day for Mr. Morehead who was at Charlotte on public business.

Mr. Standford, bill to regulate appointment of guardian. Referred.

Mr. Cantwell, resolution that Rosalie H. and D. James King of Halifax county be declared legitimate and entitled to the rights of all other children, with petition to issue as having known him Lt. Governor in the war. Referred.

Mr. Biddle, bill to incorporate Whiteaker's Mill in Nash county.

Mr. Cantwell, resolution of enquiry concerning State action. Adopted.

Mr. French, bill to amend charter of Wilmington, to appoint a superintendent of Health, salary $100 per month. Referred.

Mr. Waring, bill relating to jurisdiction of Justice of the peace. Referred.

Mr. LeGrand got leave of absence for Mr. Sneed, and Mr. Cantwell, leave of absence for Tucker, col.

Mr. Latham, House resolution allowing Principal Clerks $50 for preparing printed calendar concurred in.

Mr. Parish, resolution allowing Engineering clerk of the House clerical aid, rules suspended, and on amendment of Mr. Parish, the pay of assistants dated back to the 15th of January, and resolution was adopted.

THE DEBT BILL. Mr. Williamson called the previous question on the usury bill. Ayes and nays called, ayes 21, nays 24, previous question not sustained.

The minority report offered by Mr. Standford was then voted on, making 8 per cent legal interest, or 12 per cent for loan of money in obligations, any excess to forfeit whole amount. Ayes and nays called. Before the call Mr. Stoebe announced to strike out 8 per cent, and insert 6, and aye, and nays called on it, 6 per cent. Amendment adopted, Ayes 27, nays 7.

Mr. Stoebe then amended to strike out 12 per cent, and make it 10 per cent, in obligation for loan of money. Mr. Latham called for division on only striking out the 12 per cent. Ayes and nays called: ayes 28, nays 3. Mr. Mosler amended to fill the blank with 8 per cent.

Mr. Waring, amended to insert 5 per cent.

Mr. Stoebe's amendment of ten per cent was then voted on, ayes and nays called, voted down, ayes 23, nays 9.

Mr. Mosler's amendment to insert 8 per cent, in the blank was then put to the vote, and ayes and nays called, and amendment adopted, ayes 24, nays 10.

Mr. Mosler's amendment that penalties attached shall not be construed to apply to individual leaders of money unless they also apply to the National banks of the State. Mr. Latham and Mr. Parish opposed the amendment. Mr. Parish stating that the amendment was too thin to catch the Senate, that if passed, it would render the bill of no effect.

Mr. French supported the amendment and argued the National banks should not go free from the penalty.

The Senate commenced filibustering. Vote on Mr. Mosler's amendment was taken and ayes and nays called, adopted, ayes 23, nays 9.

The substitute of the minority committee as above perfected was then voted on and ayes and nays called, and the Senate voted it down, ayes 23, nays 33.

Mr. Joseph, bill for the benefit of farmers in Murphy Swamp and Carter's Neck, Rockfish Township, in Cumberland county. Referred.

The bill in reference to the organization of the State militia was taken up as the special order, the amendments recommended by the committee on military affairs were adopted. On motion of Mr. Pines, the bill was postponed until Monday week.

On motion of Mr. Melver, the bill to amend the act incorporating the town of Sandford, Moore county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Finger, the bill to provide for the passage of fish in the Catawba river, passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Means, the bill to prevent live stock running at large in counties and townships adopting its provisions was taken up. After a long debate the bill was referred to the committee on propositions and grievances.

The bill explanatory of section 10, chapter 103, Battle's Revisal, was taken up and made special order for this day week.

On motion of Mr. Boyd the bill to incorporate the Deep River, Saxapahaw & Danville Railroad Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Mabane the bill to amend the act in relation to the manors of Rockingham county was taken up and passed its several readings.

The Senate bill incorporating the Trustees of the Stateville Academy, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. King bill to amend the charter of the Cherokee Turpentine Company was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Foote the bill to incorporate the Yadkin River and Wilkesboro Navigation Company was taken up. Pending definite action the House adjourned.

RELIGIOUS. It is a deplorable fact that the village and most outspoken sinners are heathen in the eyes of the church. They fail to go to church to hear, and the church lacks the courage to make the advances on them.

How different it was with the blessed Saviour. It was the lowly he visited and he established his teachings in every haunt of vice. The Christian is he really believes as he professes, should imitate in his own imperfect way this example of his Lord and Master.

Whither are you bound? For the grave, we all know. But then, what! When through with counting the money made to-day, think about it.

THE LADIES. Watch Puss and the baby. An English coroner's jury has just found that a baby was killed by a hungry cat.

There is said to be a sane lady in the South Carolina insane asylum, who was put there by her husband with felonious design of her imprisonment.

Mr. Fawcett, wife of the blind member of Parliament, Prof. Fawcett, and author of "Tales in Political Economy," is about to make her first appearance as a novelist.

The lady members of a Grange in Edgecombe county have decided to buy only calico dresses in the future. An enthusiastic member called on her friend to discard the idea of being milliner's signs and merchants' drap.

Dramatic as at the reading of a will, a rich dame who recently died at an advanced age at Fountain-bleau, left a will containing, among other things, a bequest to her physician of all the objects contained in an old-fashioned cabinet of curiosities, for "his enlightened care and the life instructions" which had eschewed there to live to such an advanced age. There was great commotion among the heirs when this clause in the will was read, and greater curiosity to know what treasures had escaped them. The notary handed the key to the doctor, who on opening the chest found all the drugs and poisons that he had ordered for his patient during the past twenty years.

WILMINGTON.—We like to wish the Star and Journal: Four privateers escaped from jail to-day.—Tax Collector Black has left for this city to settle with the Auditor.—While the workmen were engaged yesterday in lowering the track of the Street Railway to the level of the street on Front, an intersection of Walnut, they came upon a cannon, about seven feet long, embedded perpendicular in the road, with the muzzle up. As it appeared to be in the exact centre of the intersection of the two streets, it most have been placed there by some former city surveyor.

FOR THE SCENTIAL. Mr. Morrow.—Is the libel suit of Woodson against Carter, it was proven that G. W. Swanson conveyed to N. W. Woodson and his commission a large amount of Florida Bonds—nearly three millions, I think—and Swanson guaranteed $500,000 of these bonds. This paper of guarantee was read on the 17th of Florida bonds are about equal to North Carolina bonds. Why is it that suit has not been brought upon Swanson's guarantee? Who attends to the public business in these disjointed times?

Put this notice out and bring it with you.—We are authorized to refund the cash to any person or persons who shall buy and use Parsons' Purgative Pills and fail of relief and satisfaction.

It is now generally admitted by honest physicians, that when the consumption is fairly fastened upon the lungs, no human power can save the patient from death. They also say that about fifty per cent of those who die from this disease can trace the cause to a neglected cough or cold, which might have been cured by a small bottle of Liquid Opodeldoe, or what is the same thing, Johnson's Anodyne Linctus.
