

THE SEN PINEL.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1875.

HOMESTRAD FOR THE STATE.

The sons of North Carolina have all been provided with a homestead. The mother of these sons receiving natural laws is bound to cut live the children and to survive thousand of years when they shall be forgotten.

This article Mr. Oaksmith's bill to amend the bill for the State. The bill provides for buying all private interests instead of selling all State interest in her three great railroads reaching from Deepwater Harbor to Tennessee.

For the Senate. Mr. Editor:—I send you one of your old editorials for publication. I am fond of your old editorials or I would not preserve them and desire their republication.

MILITARY ROAD IN RAMOAT. We learn from an old citizen something about the military of Tryon county as it is called through Ramoat. Hunter the father of Capt. Theophilus Hunter lived on the Fayetteville road near Mrs. Lawrence Hinton now lives here.

Mr. Editor:—I have read with great interest the letter of Col. T. W. Carter, respecting the Western North Carolina Railroad, and have seldom perused a more convincing argument as that is. There was no occasion for his modest allusions to his own capacity to deal with the subject, for it is handled with consummate ability, and must carry conviction to every disinterested reader.

Mr. Editor:—I send you a copy of the contract with the Western North Carolina Railroad with Lindster, Brown & Co., New York, by which it appears they received 1,570,000 of mortgage bonds for a loan of $240,000, and $500,000 for 30 days.

It would be passing strange if Convention should miscarry, when it has no enemies except the negroes, who are 57,000 in the minority, in a popular vote.

BEECHER-TILTON.

This great trial draws its dirty length along, and though it is too foul for the Western Union Telegraph Company to write it down and send it out clear unfeeling wires, some had to do it by all day in court to hear it.

CONVENTION MEETING. Col. Foulk of Caldwell, will speak at the Court House to-night on the importance of Convention. It is all the same with Col. Foulk, whether Grant had given or refused his sanction to the call of a Convention.

CORRESPONDENCE. We are overten with correspondents, and some of them we must decline entirely because they assail our party friends as ring rogues and withhold their real names.

For the Senate. Mr. Editor:—I send you one of your old editorials for publication. I am fond of your old editorials or I would not preserve them and desire their republication.
