THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Editor.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1875.

A WORD FOR THE USURY BILL.

One argument against the proposed usury law is, that it would prevent capital from coming into the State. As "more money" is the universal cry, this argument takes well with many members of the Legislature. But I submit, the argument has more speciousness than strength in it. In the first place capitalists well know that no people can pay from ten to thirty-six per cent. for money, as we do, and thrive, and consequently they will not lend to us. Money as naturally seeks safety of investment as water does its level. In other words, our high rates of interest keep money out of the State. But in the second place, were it otherwise, were capitalists willing to risk their money in the hands of a bankrupt people, who does not know that every dollar sent here from abroad takes back with it one dollar and from ten to thirty-six cents besides? This brings "more money" with a vengeance!

The truth is, as I apprehend, the trouble does not come so much from the scarcity of money as from the want of a general circulation of it among the people. As things now stand, the banks and private money lenders, by paying interest on deposits, get all the money and hold it for exorbitant rates. A law to break up this dangerous concentration of money would do more to restore prosperity to the people than all the "free money" laws that could be passed in an age. A stringent usury law would do this very thing. Let the occupation of the money-lenders "be gone,"—let it no longer be profitable to them to borrow, and then money will be scattered among the people generally.

"PUT UP JOB."

We did not publish Judge Henry's opinion in the case of John C. Blake against William F. Askew, declaring the special tax Josie bonds unconstitutional. A friend at our elbow, as we write, says he would not be surprised if it was a put up job to corner Thomas D. Carter Esq., in his suit as a stockholder in the Western North Carolina Railroad corporation against George W. Swepson, Littlefield, N. W. Woodfin, Gen. Clingman, R. Y. McAden and Judge Henry himself, who are charged by said Carter with conspiring to defraud the company out of the money arising from the sale of the special Josie tax bonds. Carter was indicted by Woodfin for libel in making these very charges. He was acquitted by the jury and that without delay. Swepson, in his answer to the Carter suit, says these Josie-Holden special tax bonds are unconstitutional and void, and Judge Henry, one of the defendants, judicially says the same. Is this evidence or is it only "cracks leading to the hollow." But suppose the Josie-Holden-Swepson special tax bonds are unconstitutional, does it follow that Swepson, Littlefield, Woodfin, Rollins and their board of directors are not to account for the money they have received from the sale of the Josie-Holden special tax bonds? What will Judge Henry say about that, when he comes to hold Transylvania court where the suit is pending? We can not say this is a put up job, but it means something more than getting a decision on the validity of the special tax bonds.

MONEY AND EMIGRATION.

There is such a cry for these two commodities as goes forth for bread, in time of famine. Emigration will not help the man who is not at work. More money, cheap money or free money will not put one dime in the mans pocket who is not at work. Five more banks in Raleigh established by Wall street brokers and bankers and loaned at 12 1-2 and 18 per cent., will add nothing to the wealth and prosperity of the city or State. The real profits in the way of interest or dividends would be sent North and leave the country poorer than it was when the banks were established. It would make business and bustle and final bankruptcy for the city and State, and money for the yankees. Such banks would break up, bankrupt and demoralize an agricultural community almost as quick as a fare-bank. The people have had enough of money at 12 1-2 and 18 cents, under the present usury law. The man who has drinked to delerium tremens is just at the point he will have more or die. The man who has borrowed at 12 1-2 and 18 is like to him, and he wants more to his own destruction. It is the duty of the prudent law maker to restrain all such, for they have no right thus to destroy themselves and retard the general welfare.

CONVENTION.

The timid reformers are for Convention after the presidential election. They say Grant will interfere if Convention is called. That is the strongest reason for calling it, to put him to the test. He is a usurper and tyrant to talk as he did in his Arkansas message, and he is a slave and wants a master who seeing the necessity of Convention fears to call it, because of Grant's threats. It is the slave that makes the tyrant always. We are not the man to make war or a revolution. We abhor both and the men who would lightly make either. Convention does not mean war as it did in 1860 '61. It is the only step towards the restitution of law and order. The will of party and faction has governed us long enough and we wish to see the constitution and the laws restored, and so legibly written that our Supreme Court can understand them.

SUPPOSED CORRESPONDENCE.

The reader must not forget that the correspondence between the stockholders of the News is not genuine, but from the pen of the editor.

RATE OF INTEREST.

Let the law stand say the usurers, just as it is. The rate of interest in North Carolina is from 12 1-2 to twenty per cent. and hardly a dollar is loaned for less. Convention and restraint upon usurers will put the State upon the high-way of prosperity. No Convention and 12 1-2 per cent. for money, will retard the growth and prosperity of the State almost as much as the return of Holden, Laflin, Abbott, Dewese and Tourgee to authority and power.

YARBORO' HOUSE, Feb. 1875.

My Dear Colonel—You dumbfounded me with your letter. I did not contemplate running the factory by water, but steam. Because both of your factories are run by water, think you there is no other power by which machinery may be moved. If you had read the first chapter in the history of cotton factories in North Carolina, you would have learned that the first factory in the State was run by steam, right in the town of Greensboro by Mr. Humphrey, and a most profitable investment it was. That factory lay the foundation of the fortune of the late Thomas Tate, who married the daughter of Mr. Humphrey. I never dreamed of canaling the Neuse and bringing the water of that stream down Fayetteville street. You have no stock in my Asheville paper, and your suggestion that Jo Turner might put it into a cheese factory or tub mill will not dissatisfy me with my investment in that well conducted journal. I have five editors engaged on the Citizen staff, and my editor in chief has had three fights, this makes one fight for every six hundred dollars I paid for the paper. I never expected to use the printing material of the News in the cotton factory, except one piece, the chase, as it is called, in which the News is locked up for the press. That could be used as a triangle to call the factory hands to work instead of buying a bell. If you will come down, Colonel, we can talk the plans over better than we can write them, and our talk cannot get in the papers, and our writing you know may. There is no strength or enterprise Colonel except in corporations, such as banks and railroads. Every effort has been made by the great corporations for seven years to engage Turner in their interest, I speak this confidentially and knowingly. When they could not buy him over with a seat in Congress and $20,000, which was tendered through me then they determined to beat him down, and that's the work in hand, buy it who may. You must know, Colonel, I have been a little in both camps, my business as a first-class hotelist puts me in confidential relations with all parties, the relation is not only personal but political.

If the last Legislature could have been returned Turner and the SENTINEL would have been crushed out. That body went right at him. When they could not beat him for the public printing with our friend Major William A. Hearne, they put it up to the lowest bidder, H arne, backed by a railroad. At the next session our partners in the News, Stone and Uzzell, came in for the public printing. They had no more strength than Hearne, but the party thinking Turner would beat Stone and Uzzell bidding as he did Hearne, they added thirty-three and a third per cent., on the price for printing and gave it to our partners Stone and Uzzell without caucussing. If they had caucussed on it, Turner would have beaten our partners. Here is where began the belting in the party. The party bolted on Turner two sessions by refusing to caucus on the printing. One time putting it up to the lowest bidder, and the other time giving it to our partners Stone and Uzzell. This has been hard work for the party. It was all done on the sly and not boldly as it openly as it should have been. If they had resolved in caucus and public meetings that Turner was a disorganizer and disloyal to the party, he would have been crushed out long since. The people love bold acts and not sly cunning work.

If two railroad corporations with the good wishes of Swepson and McAden and our paper can't worry out Turner before next August then change our investment to a cotton factory. The committee on printing can tell you how they put Turner through on the printing, and in my next I will tell you how we put him through in a congressional caucus or Convention. Our company, the News office, did not get its choice for Congress, but we did well to whip out Turner when he was the choice of at least nine out of ten of the men, women and children in the district. But enough for one letter. Yours,

BLACKNKL

P. S. Have you applied for the free passes for the two stockholders who are taxed to ride on the road even when they may come to attend a meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh News. You are a new stockholder and perhaps do not know where the $25,000 first came from to run our paper. B.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor.—A bank loaning money to merchants at 12 1-2 per cent. to buy corn and Baltimore bacon to loan on mortgage on the crop at twenty-five per cent., will soon make a finish of farming, and check all prosperity in the country. The legislature must put a stop to it or the people must have representatives who will. There was not one man in ten at the close of the war who could pay his debts. All wanted to borrow and none but yankees had to lend. The people borrowed and broke and will continue to do so. A check should be put upon the rapacity of the loaner, and the folly of the borrower who is so infatuated as to borrow at 12 1-2 per cent. Yours,

AT BAY PER CENT.

McCLEANSVILLE, N. C.
Feb. 9, 1875.

Mr. Editor.—I am a plain man and never pester my with what the politicians folks do, but I see in a Asheville paper a piece I like and I send it to the SENTINEL, for I feel your paper is our great reliance, there is no bank behind it, and the people's wishes and what they need is the only capital you ask to run it, and may God support you and not let the banks and rings and railroad powers overcome you. I hope you will publish the piece for

ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

In looking at the issues of North the rollies, and after consulting our best financiers and statesmen, we confess the hope of good times is gloomy indeed. One thing is certain, that until our people can get cheap money, there can never be permanent prosperity. Until the farmers can borrow money at 6 to 8 per cent., they can never prosper. After thinking and racking our brain, we can discern but one bright prospect in the future, and that is the grangers. With their strength united, they can relieve us, benefit themselves and the State generally. In unity there is strength, and with their combinations let them establish a grangers bank. Get a charter from the legislature to run thirty to fifty years, with permission to pay for the stock in national bank currency, and upon this currency issue grangers bank notes; redeemable in national bank currency. Let them issue two dollars for one paid in, and we would have as good and safe currency as we could wish, and if it did not pass fifty yards out of the State, so much the better. We would then husband our exports to furnish our merchants exchange, and for the redemption of the circulation. Of course we look forward to the time when the country will resume specie payments. Then think what a boon the grangers bank would have, in not being required to keep specie in their vaults to redeem their circulation—and having this privilege for 30 years. Depend upon it, this can be accomplished by the grangers easily with their present organization, and in a few years have a bank of five million dollars, and a branch in every desirable locality in the State.—Expositor

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor.—I hope the corporations and banks will not drive the Legislature from their duty to the people in passing a law restraining usurers. The bank capital of the South, is mostly owned by Northern men, who hold United States bonds upon which they pay no tax. The interest on their untaxed bonds they invest in banks established in the South where they loan money at about 18 per cent. Give us a law restraining usurers or let us give up all law, and allow banks, corporations and corruption to govern the land. Yours,

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Six Reasons Why

YOU SHOULD INSURE IN

The Penn Mutual

1st. Because it is one of the oldest Companies in the Country, and past the day of experiments.

2nd. Because every policy-holder is a member of the Company, entitled to all its advantages and privileges, having a right to vote at all elections for trustees, and thus has an influence in its management.

3rd. Because it has as large a percentage of assets to liabilities as any life Insurance Company in the Country.

4th. Because by economical management, its ratio of expenses to total income is far below the average of Life Companies. (See Official Insurance Reports.)

5th. Because it has declared more dividends in number, and of a Larger Average Percentage, than any Company in the United States.

For example: Policy No. 16, for $5,000, has been paid to the widow of a Philadelphia Merchant, upon which twenty-three dividends had been declared. Averaging fifty-seven per cent. Had these dividends been used to purchase additions to this Policy, $6,046 more would have been realized,—making the Policy worth $11,046.00.

6th. Because it is liberal in its management, prompt in its settlements, safe beyond a contingency, and its rates are as low as any first-class Company in the Country.

PRINCIPAL FEATURES.—Small expense, absolute security, large return premiums, prompt payment of losses, and liberality to the insured.
