THE SENTINEL.

USURY.

In the stockholders correspondence, one fact is mentioned which should go far to convince the Legislature of the justice and necessity of a law forbidding usury. The city stockholder writing to the rural stockholder of the News says and shows that a bank loaning to ten thousand individuals receives interest in a year on one million two hundred thousand more days than he is entitled to. The bank gets it by a near cut in counting. In the virtuous old time, the Bank of Cape Fear in this city when it loaned money at 90 days took off the interest in advance for 93 days. In this way the bank made three days interest on each customer every 90 days. In twelve months it made twelve days. If it had ten thousand customers it made one million two hundred thousand days interest as may be seen by reference to the stockholder's letter. We have read newspapers and speeches on free money, or usury as it is more properly called, until we tired of it. And we wanted to see what the books said about it, and how the old Romans treated the subject of money and interest. Putting our hands on Gibbon, we read as follows from an old Roman: "Usury, the inveterate grievance of the city, has been discouraged by the twelve tables, and abolished by the clamors of the people. It was revived by their want and idleness, tolerated by the discretion of the praetors, and finally determined by the code of Justinian. Persons of illustrious rank were confined to four per cent. Six was the legal standard of interest. Eight was allowed for the convenience of merchants and manufacturers. Twelve was granted to nautical insurance, but except in this perilous adventure the practice of exorbitant usury was severely restrained. Plato, Cato, Seneca and Plutarch have loudly condemned the practice or abuse of usury. The most simple interest was condemned by the clergy of the East and West." This lesson from old Roman experience is worth much to young legislators. For five hundred years the Romans restrained usurers by stringent laws and clamors of the people. From the time we had law in North Carolina, we had stringent enactment against the extortion of usurers, until the coming of the carpet-baggers, and the corruption and demoralization produced by a protracted war. Let us get back to stringent enactment against usurers without a clamor from the people.

WORRIED OF HIS NOMINATION.

In one of Mr. Alexander Stephens' many speeches he nominated Grant for the third term, provided he would protect the South in its rights. It was not exactly a declaration of nomination, but an intimation that he would be willing to try Grant. Mr. Stephens is now represented by the Atlanta Constitutionalist as saying "Grant's re-election would be a great calamity. We hope Mr. Stephens is done bulling up Grant. Any further effort of his on that line can do Grant, Stephens nor Georgia any good. It is time Mr. Stephens would "unload" his Grant barrels. He began it in his history of the war between the States, we over looked and forgave him then, because his disabilities had not been removed. Grant has no quality as a statesman or gentleman that Stephens can admire.

TWO NEW STATES.

A caucus of radical Senators in Washington City voted on two new States, New Mexico and Colorado. This will bring in four new Senators who would help on to the third term. This will not be enough to make up for the loss of Abbott, Pool and many more of the faithful, who lost their senatorial robes, and the many more who are yet to lose them. The failure of Republicans to attend a caucus on Grant's Southern policy gives hope that sensible Republicans will not join him in his proposed rade on Arkansas. Alexander Stephens should speak to his mob, if he expects him to make a respectable race for the third term.

EVADING THE LAW.

A Boston drummer is seldom seen down South. There chanced to be one on the train to Greensboro last week, who told how civil rights could not be enforced in Boston. If a negro asked for accommodations at a hotel, he was told with regrets by the clerk that there was not a spare room in the house. If he wan's dinner then the last dust of flour had been cooked for breakfast, and the meat was out and the fish spoilt. Nor can they be seated in the theatre except as blackbirds, all together and in a group. On each ticket is a printed contract, which obliges the holder of it to give it up when called upon, the holder of it having his money restored.

WILL GO FOR CONVENTION.

A note received from Mr. T. J. Eatman, our Representative in the Legislature from Wilson county, states that if Congress passes the civil rights bill he "will at once change his views with regard to calling a convention" and will in such event vote for a convention. Mr. Eatman desires that publicity shall be given to his views and in conformity to that wish we publish the statement.—Plaindealer.

This is the proper spirit. When the radicals in convention last summer nominated Mr. Eatman, he politely declined their nomination.

SENT BACK.

A member of the Legislature went home on Saturday intending to stay a day or two this week. He was urged by his neighbors to return Monday morning for fear the usury bill might come up and he would not be there to vote for it. The member says he found his people much excited over the question, and in earnest in putting down the high price of money. If the gentlemen advocating free money would go among the people they will find them from Currituck to Cherokee all favoring a stringent law against usury.

TRY IT.

Money in North Carolina has been loaned since 1868 at from 12 1-2 to 20 per cent. That of a shinning shin has thrown the country into a panic. Let us now try eight per cent. for seven years. If that does not cure the panic let us fall to six per cent. If that does not relieve the panic, then try the old six again. Then we may be let back to free money.

"OUT OF CHUNE."

Grantly his Arkansas Message knocked every organ out of "chune" except the Washington Republican. That organ alone grinds to the music of the Arkansas message.

Stock in the Raleigh News $500 a share. $25,000 invested by stockholders Stone and Uzzell. No stock sold to negroes, poor folks or horse drovers.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—I regret to see such a temper manifested in discussing the usury law now before the Legislature. I quote from the Raleigh News of the 14th inst. "However grave the apprehensions that should be felt by every lover of constitutional liberty with regard to the effects of this bill, if it should become a law, it cannot possibly have a more injurious effect upon the interests of the people of North Carolina than the Usury Law that has passed the Senate, if the House should pass it also. The abomination of damnation" is as appropriate a name for one of the bills as the other. I verily believe that if the Legislature composed as it is of a two-thirds majority of Democrats, fasten this disastrous usury law upon the people of North Carolina, it will cause more voters in this State to "come out unequivocally and without reservation from a party" that can inflict such "enormities" than the passage of the Civil Rights bill by Congress will.

DEMOCRAT

This is a communication which is endorsed by the editor of that journal. I submit that "abomination of damnation" is not an appropriate title for a bill which has passed the Senate and the test vote of the House, and is and will be approved by forty-nine out of fifty of the people of the State.

A VOTER.

For the Sentinel.

Mr. Editor.—The old master of the English language and the human heart, says "there's nothing in a name, a rose by another name would smell as sweet." Herein he is mistaken. In the reigns of Louis and Charles when lude women were received at court and in society, they were called the King's mistress. Their children were called "love children." Finally these fine "ladies" of court were cased in the plain old English of the Bible "harlots and hours," and their issue bastards, then it was they lost their importance at court with their pet names. Usurers and usury were once odious in North Carolina. But usury is now called "free money" and it is not odious to take all you can get for the loan of money. Before the present law on usury was passed, we heard an old gentleman speaking of the father-in-law of Hon. Abraham Venable, who was a Scotch merchant in Granville, as a man who would as soon have committed larceny as have taken more than six per cent. on money. Let us get back to the old name for usury, and not call it free money. Eight per cent. is enough for the use of money. Yours,

GRANVILLE.

For the Sentinel

USURY.

What is the true objection to a usury law, and where does the objection come from? Does it come from a sincere regard for the public good, or does it come from selfish and interested motives? The plainest mind can see that with the banker and capitalist it comes from motives of self interest. They are of course opposed to a law regulating the rate of interest. Their business is to lend money and without doubt their feeling and conviction is that every man shall have the free use of his money and get the most for it he can. They see their own side of the question only, and believe whatever is for their good is for the good of the public also. There is another class whose opposition to a usury law goes along with the bank and capitalist. I refer to the merchants. The banker lends his money to the merchant at twelve or fifteen per cent., interest who can well afford to pay it for he turns it over by advances and liens on crops in such way as to realize for himself perhaps fifty per cent. or twice that out of the farmer. The banker, the capitalist and the merchant all denounce a usury law for they all have the same interest, and are adding to their gains and getting rich in the same way, which is by the sweat and toil of their dependants, the farming class. The farmer is the man who bears the burthen, on him the whole load rests. The banker gets rich, the merchant gets rich, the farmer gets poor! Shall this state of things continue, ought it to continue? I see in it prosperity for the banker and merchant, but failure and death only to the farmer. Give us a usury law. Drive out the high rate of interest. Who can afford to pay it, in any morally legitimate business? Let this law come to the rescue of our sorely tried and oppressed people, and give them some rest from the clutches of those who have been preying on them. Let the capitalist if he chooses lock up his money, let him if he chooses send it out of the State to get higher interest, let him go with it if he wishes, but let us have relief, relief for our struggling people against the high rate of interest now paid for the use of money. A. B.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—A people must be impoverished before they are corrupted. The Republican party South was mainly poor negroes, the men they elected were easily corrupted. A few more years of money borrowing at 12 1-2 and 16 per cent. will make the whites about as poor as the negroes, and then will follow the corruption of the party. Nothing will sooner demoralize and break up a people sooner than banks discounting at 12 1-2 per cent. Yours, X.

For the Sentinel.

AUBURN, Feb. 13, 1875.

Mr. Editor.—I write to say I am of opinion that the Wake county delegation in the Legislature are mistaken on two points. First about convention, and second about usury. I feel sure there are not one in ten in this county who favors free money, or allowing a man who has it to loan, to grind and oppress the poor. Our delegation will find the people favor a stringent law against usury. They were raised to it. Yours, W.

DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT

THE ghastly record of deaths that result from pulmonary affections is frightful. There is no disease that is so insidious in its attack as consumption. By the neglect of "slight colds" they soon become deep seated and defy remedies which, if applied at the outset, would have averted all danger. Dr. Tutt's Expectorant has proven itself the most valuable Lung Balsam ever discovered. A distinguished clergyman of New York, pronounces it the "greatest blessing of the nineteenth century," and says "no family should be without it." It is pleasant to the taste, and a single dose will often remove the most obstinate cough. Office, 18 Murray Street New York.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
