VOL. X. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1875. NO. 179.

City Intelligence.

The Legislature has a Theme in the flesh.

Somebody send flowers to the constables. The sheriff trial still continues.

IN THE CITY.—It was our pleasure to meet with Rev. John Cosby, of Halifax county, Va., who was in the city yesterday. Mr. Cosby is an Episcopal Minister of the greatest grace and polish, and is considered one of the silver-tongued orators of that great State. He goes from here to Danville and will lecture in that place this week

THE CAPITOL USHER.—T. N. Ramsay is said to be the best church usher in the State. He ushers for the Methodist church, Edenton street. Three members of the Legislature asked Ramsay to show them a seat, and one of them, very bald, requested not to be shown "too high," as his head shined like a polished melon, and would render him very conspicuous. Ramsay replied, follow me gentlemen, and he placed the bald headed member in the amen corner, where his head would rather be concealed, but uncle Johnnie Palmer, thinking the man was crowded, took him out and seated him in a large arm chair in front of the pulpit where the congregation all had a fair show at the back of his head. The man sat miserable.

HOMESTEAD DEEDS.—Mr. Standford's bill came up last night providing for the registering of Deeds and making plain the title to all landed estate. Mr. Marler was in the chair, and President Armfield took the floor in support of the bill. He stated that land titles were now in a state of uncertainty, and proved a great clog in the way of immigration, that a gentleman in Mecklenburg county had written him that if this bill passed, the benefit to the State would be well worth the cost of the whole session of the Legislature. There was much discussion over the substitute for the bill as offered by the committee, and at last the Senate settled down upon a substitute offered by Mr. Armfield, which provides that no deed, or conveyance of title shall be good as against subsequent purchasers except from and after registration, and to give old deeds a chance to be registered, the law will not go into effect until the first of January, 1876. This bill fastens the title to the register, and there is no chance to evade it. The bill passed its second reading.

A MINE OF NEWS.—1,163 bales of cotton in Charlotte last week.—A woman was carted off drunk from the streets of Charlotte.—The Newbern Commerce passes high eulogies on Senator Bell, of Carteret. He deserves them.—Pomologists predict fine fruit year.—Ex-Governor Vance lectures in Richmond 8th and 9th of next month.—The Swiss government pays $400 apiece for horses for its cavalry.—Ed. Smith, negro, on the jury of city court, Montgomery, Ala., has been put in the chain gang, 100 days for stealing a hog, his place on the jury is to be supplied.—A Paris butcher thought a heap of his magpie, but a bad boy taught it to holler, "It's crows meat," and the the butcher wrung its head off.—A lady with pure taste never bows down her fingers with finger rings.—Florida has had a storm of sleet, the leaves of the violets glisten like little stars, and the blooms of roses are studded with diamonds.—General G. W. C. and Miss Lee are guests of New Orleans.—Thurlow Weed will publish a letter in the Tribune dealing direct blows at the President.—A lady in Maryland has a Valentine that was sent to her grandmother in 1776.—McCaull, of Virginia, has several fine blooded horses en route from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

ALL ABOUT.—Mr. Spangler, of Dry Tortugas, is dead.—Rev. Wm. Bowers has seceded from the Episcopal church to Philadelphia, and joined the Reformed Episcopal church.—Mrs Attorney-General Williams found a blind man and his wife and children, all without food and nearly naked, and she soon raised a subscription in Washington City and made them comfortable.—Mrs. Mary Deane, clerk in the Revenue Bureau, Washington City, fell on the street and broke her thigh.—A barrel of kerosene exploded and burnt up two-thirds of city of Port au Prince, Hayti.—Elmira, New York, has a gray goose 12 years of age.—Young Bennett will start a daily paper in London.—Moulton's wife has been on the stand; she related Beecher's confession of his guilt to her.—The Chinese in Sacramento stretch a rope on two awning posts, hang on the rope a new coat, a new hat and pair of shoes, and then suspend from the balcony a large piece of pork. You buy a ticket and take a chance at the prize in guessing the weight of the pork.—Mr. D. Scott Evans, artist, Cleaveland, Ohio, gave a little negro boy five cents to let him color his nose with a paint brush. He painted a whiskey blossom on it and made him look like an African Prince; but the boy went home, and his mother brought suit and recovered $100.

The Warwick collar is made like the Elmwood, with all the edges folded, so they will not turn out.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

FEBRUARY 23rd, 1875.

President Armfield in the chair.

Clerk read journal of yesterday.

Mr. Jenkins, bill to compel the Carolina Central Railroad to complete its railway to the town of Shelby. Referred.

Colored Mr Tucker, bill to extend time of back loans, prevents them from coming under the operation of the usury law. Referred.

IN REPORT

of discussion on the State debt yesterday, the reporter is the hurry failed to mention the remarks of Mr. Selby, of Hyde, who made, as he always does, an able speech on the subject, and favored 25 cents on the dollar of the debt as reported by the committee.

Petitions from citizens of Richmond county praying against town of Rockingham being divided into two corporations. Referred.

THIRD READING.

Following bills passed third reading: The supplemental bill to bill establishing county of Pender.—House bill referring to the mode of voting on the question of prohibition.—Bill amending the law concerning suits against railroads.—Bill amending the act incorporating Caldwell and Ashe Turnpike Company.—Bill allowing Lincolnton township, Lincoln county, to subscribe $15,000 to the Chester and Narrow Gauge Railroad.—Act to incorporate Whitaker's Mill, in Nash county.

CHANGING STATE ELECTIONS.

President Armfield, Mr. Marler in the chair, spoke to his resolution authorizing the committee to bring in a bill setting the State elections for Governor and other officers on the same day and month as the Presidential elections. Messrs. Pebles and Armfield favored the month of November. Messrs. Williamson, LeGrand and Graham opposed the changing to that month. Mr. Bell favored the resolution—his people were willing at any time.

Mr. French hoped the resolution would pass, for the reason as Mr. Armfield had given, of the immense federal influence that would be brought to bear upon us as being the first State to vote.

Mr. Standford asked Mr. Armfield suppose the first election takes place in November, will there not be an interregnum between the first Thursday in August and the election in November?

Mr. Armfield said if the bill was brought in that could be provided for.

Mr. Selby favored the resolution, his point being that the greatest number of canvassers you can get together on a consolidated election day, the largest advantage you have of the public ear. Ayes and nays were called and resolution passed, ayes 21, nays 17.

Bill authorizing commissioners of Burke to sell town lots passed third reading.

STATE DEBT

up again. Mr. Bell's amendment as published yesterday was accepted with slight amendment of Mr. Buddie, ayes 29, nays 15. Amendments were offered by Messrs. Graham and Love and were accepted. Bill passed third reading, ayes 30, nays 19. It proposes to fund all the debt of the State except the construction bonds, amounting to fourteen million seven hundred thousand dollars, into a debt of about four millions and a half, in the following manner: First-class bonds 40 cents in the dollar, 2nd and 3rd classes 25 cents at 2 per cent interest 1st 2 years, 3 for next 2, 4 for next 5, and 5 for next 20. Mr. Sneed was not allowed to change his vote as it would change the result.

Senate adjourned

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

At 11 a. m., Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved

Messrs. Blythe, Shackelford and Glenn, offered petitions in relation to sale of liquors in certain localities.

Messrs. Foger, Barnhardt, Woodhouse, Shackelford, Staton and Mendenhall, submitted reports from standing committees.

Mr. Shackelford offered a resolution in favor of J. H. Ennis. Referred.

Mr. Moffit, bill to amend chapter 196, laws of 1873-'74.

Mr. Carter, bill to incorporate Plummer Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1.

Mr. Shackelford, bill to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors within five miles of Tabernacle church, Cashaw county.

Mr. Thompson of Lincoln, bill to secure the insurance of public buildings in Lincoln county.

Mr. Pinnix, bill to amend charter of the town of Mecklenburg.

Mr. Finger, bill supplemental to an act in favor of the contractors and employees of the Asheville and Marion Turnpike Company.

On motion of Mr. Gudger, the rules were suspended and this bill was put on its several readings, after being amended on motion of Mr. Young.

On motion of Mr. Norment, rules suspended and House Bill 376 passed several readings.

House Bill to authorize commissioners of Brunswick county to submit to the people the question of changing county site, passed several readings.

On motion of Mr. Bennett, bill to create another township in Lenoir county passed several readings.

Mr. Kendall introduced a bill to incorporate Balfour Lodge, F. A. M., Randolph county.

Mr. Greene, bill to secure certain privileges in waters of New river.

Mr. Mendenhall, resolution for distribution of journal of education, passed several readings.

Senate Bill to incorporate the Direct Trade Union, Patrons of Husbandry, passed several readings.

Senate Bill for better government of Newbern Academy, passed several readings.

Bill to continue in force an act to incorporate the bank of Raleigh passed several readings.

Bill to prevent sale of liquor within three miles of Asheville and Spartanburg Railroad, passed several readings.

House Bill to authorize commissioners of Rockingham county to levy a special tax, passed second reading.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the Speaker announced the special order being a resolution of Hughes, col., to expel from his seat J. William Thorne, on account of infidelity, &c.

Mr. Moring's substitute for the resolution of Hughes, col., expelling Mr. Thorne, was adopted.

Mr. Thorne then took the floor in his own defense. He said that he felt a delicacy in taking a stand on this floor to speak in his own defense, but likened himself unto St. Paul and thought he could stand it. Mr. Thorne denied that he did not believe in God, and had now in his possession thirteen letters from prominent gentlemen in Pennsylvania who had known him well for many years certifying not only that he was a member of the Progressive Order of Friends in that State, &c., and that they had never heard him deny the existence of a God. He believed in a God, but not in all the characteristics attributed to Him in the Christian Bible, &c. He then referred to the controversy of belief existing in the evangelical churches of the day—that all of them differed in their construction of the revealed word, &c. Mr. T. continued at some length to set forth his own peculiar ideas as to Deity. He contended as he believed in a Supreme Being—God—the constitutional provision did not reach him in this instance.

Messrs. Finger and Walden, col., did not think the evidence went to show that Mr. Thorne did not believe in God, &c.

Mr. Mendenhall called for the reading of the pamphlet written by Mr. Thorne sometime ago which was taken in evidence against him by the committee.

Messrs. Gooche and Patton thought Mr. Thorne merited expulsion, for it was evident from his utterances and pamphlet that he did not believe in the God of our Bible—the God of our Constitution.

Pending the debate the House adjourned until half past 7 o'clock.

A SENATOR OF GOOD GRIT.—Mr. McCauley, from Union county, made some capital hits in the Senate yesterday in an extempore speech on the state debt. He is the plain Western farmer in appearance, careless of his dress, exceedingly reticent and retiring, and at first glance you would think he never made a speech in his life. But there's where the mistake comes in. There are few better lawyers. In talking of his speech in the lobby, a gentleman asked, "Is that McCauley you are speaking of?" "Yes." "Well," said he, "I saw that man take 20 men and charge a whole regiment, 60 yards off, who were lying behind a rail fence sharp shooting us, and he drove them off with the bayonet. It was at Jinkens' Bridge, in Georgia." Mr. McCauley is for Convention. Call that good grit.

THE LADIES.

"Give me kisses—do not stay
Counting in that careful way;
All the coins your lips can print
Never will exhaust the mint;
Kiss me, then,
Every moment—and again."

A lady somnambulist. Says the Dubuque Times: About two years and a half ago Mr. Crockett leaving Dubuque removed to Stuart, in this State, taking with him his wife and children, one of the latter being a young lady. Some four days ago the town was thrown into consternation by the announcement that Miss Crockett was missing, and could not be found. The alarm was sounded, and everybody turned out, though it was fearfully cold. It appears she rose very early in the morning, and called her mother, telling her to get up. Her mother rose soon after, but did not miss her daughter for an hour, and on searching for her she could not be found. No trace of her could be found in the village, and the search began on the prairie. Her cousin soon found her tracks, and followed them about four miles, when he found her in a farm house, where she had but a few moments before been taken by the family, who had discovered her wandering about as if lost. She was badly frozen, and it is feared, will lose both of her legs, if not, indeed, herself. It is a marvel how she escaped death on the prairie. She had nothing but her night dress, a thin pair of stockings, a pair of slippers, and a thin, small shawl, and she was exposed to the weather and the snow for three hours. She is about 20 years old, and is exceedingly popular among her friends. She is subject to somnambulism, but this is the first instance where she went away from home.

SCOVILL'S

Blood and Liver Syrup!

All cutaneous eruptions on the face or body indicate AN IMPURE CONDITION OF THE BLOOD and this may, or may not be SCROFULA, but in either case the disease is nothing more than an injurious poison that as it courses through the veins, sowing seeds of death with every pulsation.

In this condition of things something must be done AT ONCE, to CLEANSE THE BLOOD; and SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will POSITIVELY effect this desideratum, expelling every trace of disease from the blood and system, and leaving the skin

SOFT, FAIR AND BEAUTIFUL.

Hundreds of certificates attest its value. Price $1 per bottle.
