SOUTHERN POLICY HOLDER.—The first number of this new monthly is upon our table. This is an insurance journal, the only one published in North Carolina. Its object is to give substantial reading matter relating to all plans of life and fire insurance, and insurance news generally, that the people may become better acquainted with the practical workings. It will be of great service to all insurance agents, and those who insure whether life or property would do well to take it. We wish the young editor abundant success.

He will start from City Hall, New York, April 3d and is to return to same place Thursday Nov 23d 1876, part of the trip to be made on ocean steamers during which time he will make daily trip of 33 miles on board.—The wind storm we had blew down a church chapel in Norfolk.—Maddox, the Virginia senator, was sentenced by police justice to four months in city jail.—Mrs. Lottie Warren, widow, in Treasury Department, was shot by George Dempsey, a bar keeper, and both are at the point of death; he was courting her.—At a court in Belgium the other day the prosecuting attorney insulted the accused, the accused drew a revolver and pointed it at the attorney—who left, he leveled it at the judge—who departed, and then slung it around at the jury—who got up and departed.—A manufacturing butter company is established at New Bedford and good butter can be bought at 4 cents per pound.—The banking house of Hart, Caughey & Co., of Pittsburg, Pa., suspended to-day.—After 1st of May cable telegraphing will be reduced to fifty cents per word.

"SNAPPED A PISTOL AT HIM."

Last evening about 7 o'clock, on Wilmington Street, Charles Howard fired a pistol at young William Askew, who had made threats to kill Howard. The ball is said to have struck a knife in Askew's vest pocket which caused it to turn, otherwise it must have killed him, for the distance was only a few steps and the shot centre. The parties were arrested and bound over to court. About 11 o'clock to-day the trial began before Mayor Gorman in the presence of many people of both colors. Fowle and Pace for Askew, and Lewis and Argo for Howard. Judge Fowle proposed to waive all examination and bind the parties over to court. Mr. Argo said that was an acknowledgment on the part of his clients that they were the guilty parties in the affray. Judge Fowle said that did not follow. There was so much confusion that the reporter could not hear all that was said, and especially the words which caused the Mayor to order Mr. Argo to be seated.

The parties were bound over to Court, Howard for $500 and Askew for $1,000, after hearing witnesses as to the particulars of the affray from many witnesses.

We invite our readers attention to advertisement of Stonewall Fertilizer in another column of this issue. This remarkable vegetator has given such entire satisfaction, that those who have used it once, never think of purchasing any other. It is first class and unexcelled.

POND'S EXTRACT.—No matter what form bleeding may assume, whether from the lungs, nose, gums, stomach, bowels, uterus, or piles, its action is equally potent.

The Warwick collar is made like the Elmwood, with all the edge folded, so they will not turn out.

NEW GOODS AGAIN AT Creech's.

SECOND STOCK THIS SEASON.

It affords me more than ordinary pleasure to offer to the trade and consumers of Dry Goods, a second stock bought within the last few days in New York, and will be sold at prices which enables me to ask competition no odds.

My stock of Dress Goods embrace a large and complete line of beautiful shades and colors, from low price to fine fabric. My assortment of piece goods, Jeans, Boots, Shoes, Carpets, Yankee Notions, etc., is no doubt the largest to be found in the city, and to which I would call the special attention of close buyers, and here allow me to say that I do not propose to close or wind up my business, but on the contrary to extend it. So bear in mind Creech's is the place.

Those who study economy and profitable investment can do no better than to give me a call.

Being truly alive to the demands of the hour, and anxious to secure a large trade, claim to put before the public the largest stock to be found in the city.

SAUNDERS' GRANGE MIXTURE.

I have made arrangements by which the GRANGE MIXTURE furnished last year to Farmers in Middle North Carolina can be supplied again this season and of better grade, the waste of the Phosphoric Acid being soluble in water, and none of it being in combination with Iron or Alumina.

The great success with which the met last season is well known to the Farmers of this community.

GRANGE MIXTURE

Orders can be handed to me or left with Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas, and will have prompt attention.
