Grand Pacific
HOTEL
CHICAGO, ILL.
Having purchased the entire furniture and taken a lease of this magnificent hotel, I have admitted Mr. Samuel M. Turner, formerly of the old Tremont House and late of the Palmer House, Chicago, and Mr. Tyler B. Gardiff, formerly of the Revere House, Boston, to an interest in the business, which will be conducted under the name of JOHN B. DRAKE & CO.

THE HOUSE
Covers one entire block, having a frontage south and east of over 300 feet. Is admirably located for the convenience of guests; is thoroughly built in the best manner, with all modern improvements. Every floor from basement to roof, choice of four-inch layer of cement, which, with other safeguards, render it practically fire-proof. The ventilation is perfect, and the whole is being refitted with the addition of new and elegant furniture as required.
The service, table and other accommodations being the same to all guests, will be maintained fully up to the high standard of their predecessors, and equal to any house in this or any other country, but the proprietors have decided to meet the just expectations of the public in these times of financial depression by graduating prices as from $3.00 to $4.50 per day, according to the location of the room occupied.

City Intelligence.

The Sunny South is a beautifully illustrated weekly published at Atlanta Ga. and promises to take the place in the South of Northern literaries. Ben 1 year or copy.

Thos. R. Ramsay will deliver Temperance Lectures at the following places: Harrisville, Wednesday, March 10th; Selma, Thursday, March 11th; Wilson's Mills, Friday, March 12th.

SIGNS OF PEACE.—Grant and Butler failed to shove the Force bill through, and the editor of the SENTINEL came from home this morning and left his knife and pistol behind. This looks like peace. Let us have it.

Y. M. C. A.—The weekly prayer meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Methodist Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock and on its close the regular monthly business meeting of the Association will be held.

The Baptist church is open to night. Let all attend who can. Dr. Wilson is a divine of much reputation. Preaching every night this week at that church. The community get up better the next morning by going to church at night.

MRS. NANCY B. SMITH.—Died at her residence at five o'clock this morning Mrs. Nancy B. Smith, the sister of Mrs. Lucy B Evans of this city. Deceased was a most excellent lady and leaves a family of affectionate children to mourn her loss. Her funeral will take place from the Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening at three o'clock and the friends of the family are respectfully invited to be present.

NOTICE TO COTTON DEALERS.—The Board of Commissioners have ordered that no cotton shall be permitted on any side walk for over one hour after its deposit or delivery to owner or consignee. The sidewalks must be open to travel entire width. A cotton bale or bales shall not obstruct travel on a sidewalk for more than five minutes. Dealers in cotton may store the same in not more than three tiers of bales in front of their places of business, over the gutter of the street. Only the owner or lessee of said premises, or with their consent, shall store cotton in front of their premises: cotton stored upon the streets, or other public places, is at the risk of the owner. Mayor John C. Gorman gives notice that the above will be rigidly enforced after to-morrow the 10th of March 1875.

BUMGARDNER AND JOSEPH'S.—This whiskey, Bumgardner, is brewed in Augusta county, Va. The distillery is all of an hundred years old, and was first established by a Scotch Irish Presbyterian. The distillery is hard by one of the oldest Presbyterian churches in the State of Virginia. The grandfather of our townsmen, Messrs. Alexander and James McPheeters, no doubt drank still beer at the Bumgardner still house many a time. Augusta county keeps up its ancient name for good whiskey and Presbyterian principles. It is a long ways off to be interfering in a neighbor's business, but we would suggest that the church or the still house be moved. We agree the Southern Home to concur in this opinion. Joseph's, corner of Salisbury and Hargett street, keeps Bumgardner's best.

ALL AB'UT.—A Brooklyn bride's great mass of hair fell off during the ceremony and showed the young hair just sprouting on her head.—The extracts of celery and cucumbers combined in certain proportions, invariably cure headache, nervousness and sick headache, and neuralgia and nervousness.—The Alabama State Grange will hold their first annual fair at Selma Oct. 25th and lasting 5 days.—Baltimore shipped over five thousand keys of Lard to Rio de Janeiro the other day.—Adelina Patti pets seven poodles all as white as snow.—Mr. Macdonald of London has invented a new type-setting machine and sets up several columns of the Daily Times with it, but doesn't distribute; there is a type foundry in the Times office, and after the type set by this machine has been used, it is thrown into the melting pot and recast by night to be used again.—Lamar, of Mississippi and Gordon of Georgia have gone North to stump New Hampshire for the coming election.—India has received orders from England to hold all her regiments ready for active service at a moments warning.—Ex Congressman Horace Heyward is appointed minister to Turkey.—Vice-President Wilson was among the first to leave his seat and shake hands with Andy Johnson.—A young woman in Oneida has just died from the effects of sleeping in ovsters.—Martin Delaney, a Soith Carolina negro is stumping the North denouncing the carpet-bagger and defending the southern conservatives.—Roger A. Pryor and Theodore Tilton 3 civil arms to Miss Dickinson's lecture at Steinway Hall.

John Burnside, 30 miles above New Orleans, on the Mississippi, produced during the past season 4,150 hogsheads of refined and clarified sugars, averaging 1,200 pounds, valued at $414,000, and 2,520 barrels of molasses worth over $100,000.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

March 9, 1875.

President Armfield in the chair.
Prayer by Rev. Mr. Marshall.
Clerk read Journal of yesterday.

MACHINERY BILL.

The machinery bill on its third reading consumed near the whole morning in discussion. It is a sweeping bill, taxes all wearing apparel and personal property, and as one of the Senators remarked it taxes even down to the diaper of a child. The Republicans tried to get in the three hundred dollars personal property exemption, Mr. Dortch well contending that the Supreme Court had decided the word "may" in the constitution, where it says "the Legislature may exempt personal property to three hundred dollars," meant shall, and it was the duty of the Legislature to allow the exemption, but the amendment was voted down.

Messrs. Linney, Mills and Selby advocated a small personal property exemption, enough to cover the bye-guards and little household fixtures of the poor laboring people. Messrs Latham, Standford and McCauley strongly opposed any exemption of this sort.

Mr. Morehead opposed any exemption on personal property and said he only needed three minutes to show that no exemption was the popular thing with the scrubs.

Mr. Linney asked who were the scrubs?

Mr. Morehead replied he would answer that directly, and argued that any exemption on personal property would increase the poll tax to three dollars.

All amendments to this end were voted down and the bill clean shaped passed third reading, ayes 27, nays 17.

Mr. Mills then moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed. Mr. Anderson moved to lay his motion on the table, and Mr. Snead asked the ayes and nays. The motion to lay on the table failed to pass, ayes 21, nays 22.

Mr. Parish hoped the Senate would reconsider and give the poor man some exemption on personal property, while we were so magnanimous to the professional men, with $500 exemptions, let us show a little charity for this class.

The Senate reconsidered, 23 to 14, and Mr. Morehead to satisfy the Senators who clamored for a personal property exemption for the poor men, offered an amendment of $25. Mr. LeGrand moved to strike that out and make it $50 10.

Mr. LeGrande's amendment failed to pass, ayes 21, nays 23.

Amendment of $25 adopted, ayes 29, nays 12, and bill again passed third reading, ayes 28, nays 16.

Mr. LeGrand, resolution in favor of T. M. Cromley, Halifax Co., N. C.

Senate adjourned.

Mr. Dockworth, bill in reference to the State debt and establishing the bank of North Carolina. Referred.

The bill in relation to the Land Scrip Fund, for the establishment of colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts, was taken up as the special order of the hour.

Mr. Mebane took the floor in support of the bill.

Mr. Mendenhall advocated the bill.

Mr. Moring also urged the passage of the bill.

Mr. Pinnix favored the bill.

Mr. Erwin could not support the bill.

Mr. Strong argued in support of the bill.

Mr. Boyd inclined in opposition to the bill.

Mr. Speers urged in favor of the bill.

WALKED IN ON HIS WIFE.—Mr. Brock of Duplin county was drafted in the late war with the first batch of 35 year old conscripts. Brock didn't like the service and deserted to Washington City where he enlisted in the police force and remained until after the war. His wife mourned him as dead and went to work and administered on the estate. It was one sweet summer day when widow Brock and all the children had just sat down to dinner that Brock loomed up in the door and cried howdy do, and the rest may be imagined.

REDUCTION OF NEW YORK HOTEL RATES.—The plan of reducing rates and adjusting prices for board according to the floor or the location of the room occupied is now recognized everywhere as the best one. This plan, the result of tact, rare enterprise, and a keen insight into the mysteries of hotel management, was originated by H. L. Powers, the proprietor of the Grand Central Hotel on Broadway, New York. From the start the plan worked so well that it has placed the Grand Central in the lead of the first class hotels in New York and kept it there. To illustrate this, the Grand Central, although the largest hotel in New York, (it is really the largest in the world, containing 800 rooms,) and the most elegantly furnished, scales its rates from $1 00 to $2.00 per day less than the other first class hotel that approach it in style and rank. Many people will be surprised to learn that five or six meals per day are considered necessary at first class hotels in New York. The Grand Central furnishes six separate meals each day, from early morn till midnight, and is fast becoming celebrated for its table.

FUNS.—The London ladies have a new style of fur made from a fish. It is called the fish tail fur but is a little a popular on account of its fishy smell. On Regent street a lady in a "fish-tail" fur was pursued by a small herd of dogs and took refuge in a friend's house.

It is a fine thing that physicians give any consequence to a medicine, the manufacture of which is a secret. About the only exception we know of is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. This, we believe, all endorse, and many of them use it in their practice with great success.

Fine to look at pictures of pills should be cautious who they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.

Peach trees are in bloom in New Orleans.

The deaths in New York last week numbered 667.

In 1861 Mrs. Beecher wrote a novel called "From Dawn to Daylight."

Empress Eugenie is suffering with consumption and cannot live much longer.

It is all a mistake about the Exchange Hotel in Richmond entertaining a colored man.

Bishop Gross delivered an address in Atlanta to the Catholics of that city last Friday night.

The fence law was defeated in the Charlotte township of Mecklenburg county.

GORDON.—Gordon of Georgia spoke at Littleton, New Hampshire, last Saturday night.

STARVATION.—The telegraph reports over twenty thousand souls in Asia Minor who have just died from famine in one district alone.

The Legislature in Virginia has a bill under consideration to prevent disturbances at theatres, hotels, &c.

From eight thousand to ten thousand rose buds are daily sold in New York City from ten to thirty dollars per hundred. All for the women.

The Thursday evening wind storm we had in this city blew down the stables of W. A. Spruitt in Washington county and killed for him one horse and five mules.

Madame MacMahon refuses to dress in the Paris fashions. "The example of strumpets," says she, "is not more worthy of imitation in matters of dress than in morals."

The House of Representatives of Alabama have expelled a Negro member for offering to take a bribe of $300. Republicans and Democrats all voted the expulsion.

The Beecher trial is tormenting. Court has adjourned again because a juror is sick. The other day a juror fainted. Then a reporter caught the small pox. Mr. Sherman was reported one day with a pain in his stomach, and lawyer Porter was absent a week with a bad cold. Elizabeth herself feels only so-so.

Little Rhode Island has her feathers up against federal usurpation in regard to official interference of United States Marshal in a seizure of liquors. Governor Howard says if such proceedings are sustained by the United States Government he had as well resign his office and that the presence of the Legislature is a mockery and a farce.
