SUNDAY IN RALEIGH.—A beautiful day. Man thinks of the flowers and the fields; young women gather violets; young men pin hyacinths to their coats; the old feel young, and everything that is human and healthy smoothes up for a frisk in the sunshine.

PRESBYTERIAN.

It was a sad morning at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Atkinson preached a solemn sermon from Matthew xvi th: xxvi th: "For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" He weighed the value of the world to one scale and the value of the soul in the other. At the conclusion of his sermon he announced his determination to resign his charge, and with hands uplifted he invoked the blessings of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost upon every person present. A deluge of tears ran from the congregation and the excellent divine more than once carried the kerchief to his own face. Blessed will any people be that secures Dr. Atkinson as a pastor. He is one of the purest and loveliest characters in the ministry, and his sermons are set in silver and are the finished productions of a clean heart and an exalted mind. As a scholar and thinker he is at the head of the presbytery, and as remarked by a certain outsider the other day, he is not only a credit to his church but an ornament to our city. His congregation are opposed to his resignation.

BAPTIST.

At the Baptist church Dr. Pritchard preached from Acts x th: xxiii: "Then called he them in and lodged them." His sermon was on revivals. How much the different churches owed to revivals. That more than one-half of the ministers of the church of England were due their conversion to revivals. The best Bishops in Georgia and South Carolina, the best working men, the men that did the most, were converted at revivals. When John Wesley commenced preaching a man was made light of and laughed at who professed at a revival, but it was to Wesley and to Whitfield that the church of England is now largely indebted. Many a church that doesn't practice or believe in revivals would have died the cold death long ago if it were not for the reapings of a revival season. The man that does all the work gets but little of the credit, and the churches that do the revivaling by no means share all the benefits. Judge Kerr worshipped at this church.

METHODIST.

At Edenton street Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Mangum took text from Paul to Titus chapter ii: xiv th: and preached a sermon on the discipline of the church. A little blind girl joined the church and was baptized. At the Sunday School in the morning Superintendent Jefferson Young announced that and he brought him in and exhibited him to the school to see if any one might know him. Nobody knew him. The little stranger was a four year old, barehead, seemed a bright boy, and gave his name as Eddie Bonner and not Charlie Ross.

A LITTLE BOY HAD BEEN FOUND

At Person street church Rev. Mr. Jurney preached on the Resurrection from 1st Corinthians, xv th: xiv: "And if Christ be not risen," &c. His points were that the Roman soldiers did not carry off Christ's body, neither did the Jews, and that the Savior himself was the resurrection.

EPISCOPAL.

At Christ church Rev. Mr. Marshall preached from St. Luke xviii th: xi: "I thank thee that I am not as other men are," &c. It was not morality and good works, but the spirit of the Publican, the God be merciful to me a sinner that saved a man. He magnified the church. A man may be ever so moral and upright, but it was faith that made him take hold on the church of God that saved him. A sheep in the fold was safer than the one outside, &c. As an Easter offering to this church from the Ladies Aid Society, a carpet will be ordered from Stewarts in New York to-morrow that will cost five hundred and seven dollars from the store. The ladies made up the money during the present season of Lent. Well done for the ladies.

At the church of the Good Shepherd Rev. Mr. Rich preached from St. John viii: 51: "If a man keep my sayings he shall never see death." A glorious promise to the christian is this, and how well the christian knows it and feels it to be true. Then, how much we should read sayings of Christ, treasure them, put them away prayerfully and carefully in our hearts, and keep this promise ever before us, "Ye shall never see death." If we do this the temptations that surround us will give way like the mist, we will strengthen and grow with each new day, life will seem but a summer campaign to be crowned at the end with a peace that knows no ending, eternal in the Heavens.

A SEASON OF PRAYER.

The reporter learns that an unusual activity in prayer prevails among the christians in the city. Meetings are held in private houses, and all during the past week there were sunrise prayer meetings at the Baptist church. Quite a revival is in progress at the second Baptist church under the preaching of Rev. F. M. Jordan—on Friday night there were twenty mourners, and there was such a crowd there was not room to get in the church.

THE MUSIC.

At Presbyterian church in the morning a chant partly taken from an Italian opera was beautifully given by Mrs. Baumann, and at night the rich full alto of Miss Cook in Rock of Ages was the charm of every ear.

Dr. Pritchard will have preaching at the Baptist church every night this week.

Rev. J. P. Moore, Presiding Elder, preached an able sermon at the Methodist church.

ROBBING THE MITE BOX.

We did think the man that stole the copper cent from a dead negro's eyes had no relations living, but we learn to-day that one night last week a thief entered the Episcopal church of the Good Shepherd and stole every cent from the mite box.

A TRIP AROUND.—They are altering the guage from Greensboro to Charlotte, at work in four different points of the road. Passengers bound South from Richmond found themselves headed off and the sleeping car turned in this direction to take them by Wilmington via the Wilmington and Columbia road. They passed by this point this morning.

GREENSBORO ON THE CITY STYLE.—Greensboro is putting on city airs. We regret to learn that Col. Rankin of that place was knocked down the other night and robbed of fifteen hundred dollars. This takes place in no other city hardly save New York and the Hub.

A SAD ACCIDENT.—Another saw mill gets the best of it. We learn with regret that last Saturday morning Mr. W. T. Grimmer, a young workman at Wilson's Mill's was cut badly in the back by a circular saw. Dr. Telfair from Smithville was called in, and it is feared the young man's case is a hopeless one.

Telegraphic News.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—In the Senate Edmunds, of Vermont, moved to amend the resolution for the admission of Pinchback by inserting the word "not" before the word admitted, so it would read "Resolved, That P. B. S. Pinchback be not admitted," &c. He said as it was the understanding that no vote would be taken to-day, he would not call for the vote now.

Thurman, of Ohio, then took the floor and spoke in opposition to the admission of the applicant.

Minister Schenck requests his recall from St. James, on account of pressing private business.

RAILROAD WAR.

NEW YORK, March 13.—A morning paper says the prospects now are that instead of an agreement between the Pennsylvania Central and the Baltimore and Ohio roads, there will be a general railroad war in the course of a few weeks, in which the rates will be cut to very low figures.

CIVIL RIGHTS.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., March 13.—The negroes have sworn out a new warrant for Col. Wagner and his ticket agent. The former was discharged and the latter bound over to appear at the next term of Court. He was bound over in a bond of $500. This case caused several theatrical companies to cancel engagements for this city.

MISCELLANEOUS.

CONCORD, March 13.—The latest figures in House stand 191 Republicans and 179 Democrats. Four towns unheard from. The Senate stands five and five with no choice by the people in two districts. The Council stands three Democrats and two Republicans. In the vote of 78,000 for Governor, the plurality did not reach one hundred, so neither has a majority. There are two Democrats and one Republican elected to Congress.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Loans decreased four millions dollars. Specie decreased six and one-fourth millions. Legal tenders increased one and one-eighth million. Deposits decreased six and one-half millions. Reserve decreased three and three-eighth millions.

TIPPERARY, March 13.—Considerable disorders on account of some citizens refusing to illuminate in honor of Mitchell's re-election. Several houses have been sacked.

DOVER, DEL., March 13.—A State Senator gave notice that he would ask permission to bring in a bill entitled: "An act in relation to certain classes of persons exercising public employment." This bill will provide that keepers of hotels, taverns, etc., shall not be obliged by law to furnish refreshments or entertainment to persons whose reception be offensive to the major part of customers or injure business. Similar provisions for places of amusement and carrier passengers.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

March 15th, 1875.

President Armfield in the chair.

Clerk read Journal of Saturday.

CHANGE OF GUAGE.

Mr. Bell's bill to prevent the guage of the North Carolina Railroad was considered. Mr. Bell feared the change had already been made, but thought a protest ought to go forth.

Mr. Busbee said it was a race between the Richmond and Danville road and this Assembly, he hoped the bill would be put right through. Hon. W. N. H. Smith had told him he thought this bill would affect the right to change that guage. The bill is limited to those roads in operation the 1st of March 1875.

Mr. Busbee amended that this act shall not apply to any narrow-guage railroad that has already or may hereafter be chartered. Adopted. Mr. French amended making the violation of the bill a misdemeanor. Adopted.

Mr. Irwin asked if this bill should not affect the change of guage from Greensboro to Charlotte whether it would not stop the change from Greensboro to Goldsboro.

Mr. Morehead declared that this was a very pertinent question.

Bill passed third reading and was sent to the House.

MR. COOK OF FRANKLIN

left his court business in that county and hurried to Raleigh on Friday to give his vote for convention. He voted for the bill on Saturday and prefaced his vote with a speech of rare beauty and excellence.

DRIVING FISH.

Mr. Standford, rules suspended, and bill making it a misdemeanor to drive fish in the waters of New river, county of Onslow, up to Jacksonville, bill to take effect after June 1st, 1875.

Mr. Cantwell asked what was driving fish?

Mr. Standford hoped Mr. Cantwell had no constitutional objection to the bill. He explained it was the habit of persons in Onslow to stretch a breastwork of seines across the mouth of a river while other persons got in the river with long poles and beat and scared the fish into the nets, thus driving them all out of the river into the ocean.

The bill passed third reading.

DEAD SOLDIERS IN OTHER STATES.

Mr. Cooke offered a resolution which was adopted appointing Gen. D. H. Hill, Gen. R. F. Hoke, Gen. W. R. Cox and Maj. W. A. Englehard a committee to find out how many of our soldiers were buried in other States, where buried, and the probable cost of bringing them to Raleigh and burying them here, committee to report at next General Assembly.

Town of Littleton, counties of Halifax and Warren was incorporated. Sale of liquor in three miles of St. Frances church and Grace church, Bertie county, was prohibited. Bill for re-registering deeds where the registration books have been lost, the registrar allowed the original fee. Bill concerning banking institutions of State passed 3d reading. Charter of Scotland Neck and Weldon Steamboat and Railroad Company was amended.

After a long debate, the motion to reconsider was put to a vote and prevailed, yeas 61, nays 30.

The question recurred on the passage of the bill on its second reading. The ayes and nays were called and the bill passed its second reading by a vote of ayes 52, nays 52.

Adjourned.

GENERAL FIGHT IN THE LEGISLATURE.

The Senate this morning by a unanimous vote passed a bill fixing the State guage at four feet 8 1-2 inches and making it penal for any existing Railroad to change its guage without Legislative authority. Senator Bell, of Carteret, led the fight and was ably sustained by Messrs. Busbee, French and others. The bill was sent to the House without engrossement and got up, under suspension of rules on motion of Mr. Oaksmith, of Carteret, who advocated its passage in an able and eloquent speech, and by Messrs. Gudger and Tate. The bill passed its second reading by a vote of 65 to 32. On motion to suspend rules for third reading requiring two-thirds, the passage of the bill was delayed, it not receiving the requisite two-third vote. The bill will no doubt pass. In the mean time Buford and the Ring will have nearly completed the change of guage. Honor to old Carteret for the fight she has made for the good of the old North State.
