SAUNDERS' GRANGE MIXTURE.

I have made arrangements by which the GRANGE MIXTURE furnished last year to Farmers in this section, and in the adjacent parts of the State, and of better grade, the whole of the Phosphate Acid being consistent with iron and alumina. It is in consistency with iron and alumina.
The great success with which the GRANGE MIXTURE is well known to the Farmers of the community.
Orders can be had to me or left with Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas, and will be promptly filled.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE

By virtue of authority vested in me, I now offer for sale the Female Academy and one acre of land upon which it is located. The house is new and is beautifully situated in a convenient portion of the town. Good roads are converted into a comfortable dwelling.
If not sold privately, it will be sold at public auction on the 1st day of March next on a Saturday the 27th of Feb. 1875.
Terms: Half Cash, remainder in six months with interest.

City Intelligence.

The first new town in the new county of Pender should be called Standforl.

Rev. Mr. Jurney is conducting a series of meetings at Person street Methodist church.

There is an unnamable letter in the Wilmington postoffice for Lillie B. Davis, of this city.

The alarm of fire was given at the National Hotel at 3 p. m. but it was only a chimney affire.

Both lodges of the Good Templars will turn out in procession this evening to bury Mrs. Ferrell.

The next tobacco crop is in a bad way.
Scarcely a plant bed in Stokes, Surry, Davie or Forsyth counties.

A correspondent of the Windsor Times says there is a woman in that section who has had twins six times and triplets twice—eighteen children in eight births.

TIM LEE'S SECURITIES.—A majority of the committee have reported favorably on the bill providing relief for the successors of Sheriff Lee.

The member from Duplin has just received direct advice that but two men in the whole county oppose the unhappy bill that was recently passed. Now convention.

One of the pall bearers of Shakspeare is buried in the old burying grounds of Fredericksburg Va. The fact is recorded on the stone. He was born in Bertolshire England 1543.

March is the month for hares to run mad and next door neighbors to stand at their back windows and quarrel about the chickens scratching up their plant beds. We would continue the article—but the foreman says this is enough.

GUILFORD'S DONATION.—Guilford sent a donation of four negroes to the penitentiary which arrived by Monday's train.
One of these is for attempting a rape on a little girl. Another one was asked by Senator Parsh what he was in for, and replied "that he stole a mill and went back after the dam and they nabbed him." He'll pass.

CRASH.—A crazy negro woman was haunted to town yesterday in a mule cart, and placed in the jail for safe keeping. It was a sad sight, the woman nearly naked, her whole breast exposed, and she leaped and danced in the cart, and swayed her arms and ran, her husband holding on to her with one hand and managing the mule with the other. At he lifted her from the cart she tore his face with her fingers, but the faithful fellow never let go his hold. There is a crying demand for room and asylum for such like unfortunates of both the races.

A TELEGRAPH BILL.—Mr. L. Grand introduced a bill this morning that passed third reading in the Senate providing for condemnation of rights of way along our railroads for the construction of telegraph lines. It allows competing lines of telegraph the same rights of way claimed by the Western Union Telegraph Company under previous arrangement with the various railways. This bill tends to keep down rates, cheapen telegraphing and encourage that prompt dealing and quick interchange of views affecting commerce between the States. It will be a great saving to the newspapers, an editor from a neighboring city declares it will save him a thousand dollars a year.

ALL ABOUT.—Goodland, Va., has had a severe shock from an earthquake. The Grange ladies held a big dinner at Pelham, Caswell county, and Major Suther-lin, of Danville, made a speech.—Gen.
Concord among the northern soldiers at Gordon, N. H., was a lion, a queen, they crowded around him and all shook his head.—B. F. Harris, of Granville, dead, aged 70.—J. W. Beasley, Bertie, now in Albany prison, has been pardoned by the President.—Gov. Booth, of California, resigned his office for a seat in the United States Senate.—The Sultan of Turkey employs in his palace a thousand servants of both sexes.—At an auction sale of a menagerie in Lebanon, Ohio, 8 lions were sold for $9,200, a grizzly bear for $170, a muba for $1,000, and 60 monkeys for $540.—A Hartford widower had a happy time with his second wife until dying, he exclaimed, and stretched his hands up, "My darling! My wife! My I come up," this doting Lurt her, but in proper time she gave her whole heart to another widower, and after being kind to her for a couple of years, barring a little starting in his sleep o' nights, he has at length deserted her, and leaves a note saying that he "wanders in search of kin-ded spirits by express command of his angel wife." Poor woman.

RELIGIOUS.
Abstain from all appearance of evil.
Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.
Keep thyself pure.
They that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish-nesses and hurtful lusts, which draw men into destruction and perdition.

for embezzlement. He had to send in ishness at a wedding. Recently one of Woman does a great deal to discourage infidelity and patriotism. When a man is leaning over the back fence telling a neighbor how he would shed his last drop of blood for suffering Louisiana, it disturbs him to have his wife yell from the kitchen: "Look a here! are you coming with the bucket of water, or shall I come out and see to you!"—Milwaukee

"Have you any eggs?" inquired a peaceful looking old man as he leaned over the counter of a hardware store yesterday.
"No, sir; this is a hardware store; we keep nails, stoves, etc.," answered the clerk.
"Well, I did want some eggs," slowly drawled the old man, "but I hadn't particularly time to go to a grocery store."
—Detroit Free Press.

THE GUANO.—We are in the wilderness down this way. No mail from the West —no telegraph from up that way—all in the dark. Two of our citizens M. J. R.
Heard and Mr. Richardson took the train last night for Greensboro' but were blocked up at the shops, (the road "washed" above where you know) and they had to lie over and come bouncing back this morning in the same train they left in, though a train at the same time left the shops for Greensboro. The thing is amusing. The Legislature are rushing barbed to head off the guano, only they can't get at them, and the guano are quietly working in the night time and have no trains running or telegraph working at this end of the line. Mr.
Bell's bill passed the House last night and was enrolled to-day. President Ar-mfield would have left the chair and taken the floor of the Senate in favor of the men of the East but he saw the opinion was so unanimous that the bill would have no trouble getting through. There is much talk and curiosity in the city over the matter. A member has just said "I fear Buford is ahead of us," while all kind of rumors are running about, one is that the volunteer company have received orders to be in readiness to go to Greensboro' in defence of the road. But we guess this is all hoot.

Johnson's Anodyne Lincture is, without doubt, the safest, surest, and best remedy that has ever been invented for internal and external use. It is applicable to a great variety of complaints, and is equally beneficial for man or beast.

We have seen it stated in papers throughout the country that agents for the sale of Sheridan's Cavalry Campaign Powders were authorized to refund the money to any person who should use them and not be satisfied with the result.
We doubt this at first, but the proprietors authorize us to say that it is true.

PERSONAL RENCONTRE.
RICHMOND, March 15.—A personal recontre took place this morning between Mr. James A. Cowardin, editor of the Dispatch, and Mr. Falkerson, member of the House of Delegates from Washington county. It appears that Mr. Cowardin who in company with two gentlemen, was walking along Main street near the postoffice, when he was accosted by Mr.
Falkerson with the remark, "this is Mr.
Cowardin, I believe," when Mr. C. immediately answered "yes, sir, and you are the scoundrel Falkerson; I know you." At this remark Mr. Falkerson either stuck at or drew back to strike Mr. C. with a cane, when the latter closed with Falkerson and seized him by the throat.
A short scuffle ensued when friends interfered and separated them.
The difficulty originated in a remark made by Mr. Falkerson, in the House of Delegates some time since, in regard to the editorial columns of the Dispatch, to which Mr. Cowardin made some severe personal rejoinder. Much contempt is expressed at Mr. Falkerson's conduct, as he is a young and robust man and Mr. C. is over sixty years of age and was entirely unprepared, either with cane or weapon, for the assault.

DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO.

MONTELE, March 15.—A special just received, says Rices, Miss., was visited at one o'clock to-day with a terrible tornado, lasting half an hour, destroying a number of buildings, among the number was the Baptist and Presbyterian churches. The following named persons are killed: Col.
Porter Walker, Hon. John Reese and child, Miss Mattie Palmer, also several negroes. M. B. Armer, wife and child were dangerously injured and a number of others are seriously hurt. It is estimated that the loss in town is $150,000.
The county is not heard from.

PROCEEDINGS OF LOUISIANA COM- MITTEE TERMINATED.

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—The Louisiana Committee terminated its proceedings today. The claims of eighteen or nineteen contestants have been passed upon, and as an award of arbitrators is to be sent on to the Governor at New Orleans tonight, subsequent action on it will be taken as is deemed expedient by the Governor and House of Representatives.

CONGRESSIONAL

WASHINGTON, March 15.—In the Senate a resolution was passed to print 3,000 copies of the report of the Commission of Engineers upon the reclamation of the alluvial basin of the Mississippi river.
The consideration of the resolution for the admission of Pinchback was resumed and Ferry, of Connecticut, replied to the argument of Morton.

EFFORTS TO EJECT GOV. HOLDEN.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—A North Carolina delegation visited the President to-day and urged Gov. Holden's removal from the Raleigh Postmastership.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Sun says a letter has been received by a Spanish house in this city which states that twenty-two young men of Cuban birth and residents of Cenfuegos, Cuba, were arrested at their homes in that city by volunteers and shot outside the walls without trial.
