THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24, 1875.

THE SATURDAY STORM IN GEORGIA.

The tornado Saturday evening did its work in Georgia. The telegraph from Augusta reports that near Thomson, Jos. L. Stovall and wife, and two daughters of John H. Morgan were badly wounded by falling timber, and several negroes were killed and wounded. At Appling the houses of S. Hutchinson, Solon Reese, John Boston and others were destroyed; Mrs. Martha Darcy and Miss Maggie Bailey were killed; Miss Malone, and Miss Gray were seriously wounded; one end of the courthouse was blown in. At Camack every house except one was destroyed; Mr. Fielding, telegraph operator, was badly bruised. The tornado struck a train of cars, demolishing it completely and killing Tom Gosling instantly. All the trains coming to Augusta, except the Central, were delayed, but no serious damage was done to the railroads. There was no loss of life or damage to property in Augusta. The latest news from Camack says Mr. Wright had two ribs broken, Mrs. Jones had her back broken, and a son of the Rev. Mr. Pitcher was killed.

The tornado caused fearful destruction along its track, demolishing houses, trees and fences, and killing persons and stock. Baptists were holding a meeting at Klan church, near Camack, when the storm demolished it, killing three and wounding twenty-five persons. Residences and outhouses were demolished on many plantations in Warren, McDuffie and Columbia counties in Georgia, the destruction extending into Edgefield, Aiken and Barnwell counties, in South Carolina. In some places persons were blown a distance of sixty yards. Every house on Mrs. P. E. Walton's plantation, including a fine residence, was destroyed. In Columbia county three negroes were killed and twenty-five persons wounded. Ten houses on Dr. Hamilton's place were destroyed.

It is impossible to give a correct idea of the amount of property destroyed. It will reach several hundred thousand dollars. Fearful suffering is already reported in the devastated territory. The storm was the severest ever known in this section, and the universal destruction unparalleled.

SHOOTING EDITORS.

There is a season for snipe shooting but it now seems the disposition of the country to go gunning after editors. At Vineland, New Jersey, a Mr. Landis blew a hole in one's head for simply "putting up" what he termed a right funny article, and now comes the news from Norwalk, Connecticut, that the editor of the "Hour" has had the bridge of his nose mashed in for simply writing an article on a dead cat. He also lost one eye, and the bloody butcher that gouged it out received the congratulations of all the town. That's a nice fix, certainly. In the Vineland affair Landis brought the editor down on the fly. Landis is a very rich man, and Carruth the editor has been firing his squibs at him, without calling names, for a year or more. He called at the office in a very quiet way and asked the foreman where the editor was. There is always a boy on hand to send after the editor, and Landis quietly took a seat in the office where he could watch both doors, and waited for his coming. Poor Carruth thought there was a subscription ahead, and he toted fast for that office, but hadn't more than entered the room before Landis unlimbered his artillery and brought him down face foremost as he rushed from the door. Landis is in jail and Carruth lies in a dying condition. The rich man telegraphed for the most renowned surgeons in the land to attend his victim and they are now at work endeavoring to patch up his skull and save his life. It was a green grocer, like Selleck, who disfigured the nose and tore an eye out for the Norwalk editor. The following is the article which appeared in the Hour:

THE SELLECK'S CAT.—In Selleck Bros.' barrels of sugar and a barrel of salt stood side by side, and more than one seeker for sweetness got salted in consequence. One of the victims was a drummer for a New Haven tobacco house, who, after the laughter and the first feeling of mortification had subsided, commended the trick as a good one and promised Mr. Selleck a fine box of cigars the next time he went to New Haven. A few days later and Mr. Selleck visited the Elm City and was shown the cigar which he pronounced very good. The clerk wrapped them up and Mr. Selleck came home triumphant. On opening the box to treat his friends a terrible mistake was discovered, for by some unexplained process the cigars were missing and a dead cat rested peacefully in their place. Mr. Selleck hushed the matter up for a time, but it has finally leaked out.

ANDY IN THE SENATE

In his speech in the United States Senate on Monday Mr. Johnson was dressed in a black frock coat and pants and a black velvet vest, across which was suspended a small gold chain. He wore, as he did in the White House, a standing collar and a black stock. On his desk was placed a half lemon and a glass of water. He began speaking in a low tone of voice which steadily swelled in volume until it filled the entire chamber. He made no gesture but stood between two desks with a hand on either. He spoke without notes and occasionally made a grammatical slip but it was scarcely noticeable.

THE TOBACCO TAX.

Commissioner Douglass with one stroke of his pen can alter a severe and plainly unjust ruling of his with regard to the tax from the tobacco manufacturers. It is to be seen whether he will do it. The idea that the bill imposing the additional 4 per cent. became the law immediately after midnight of the second instant, and that too, when all of his revenue officers were selling the 20 cent stamps all day of the 2d, looks too much like a trap to bleed the pocket of the manufacturer, and Commissioner Douglas will but keep honest faith with the people by reversing his ruling. We know of one manufacturer who under the recent decision of the Commissioner will pay fifteen hundred dollars additional tax. It is unfortunate our Congressmen did not watch this bill to have provided against all such hardship on the manufacturer. A simple amendment would have saved it. However now it is done if it be the intention of the commissioner to rob the people of their money it is clearly not the intention of the law. We see the tobacco manufacturers of St. Louis have protested against his decision and sent him a petition asking him to reconsider his ruling.

THE BOYS.

Boys will be boys. There is no much of real mischief in the following incident that happened in Washington City, and which we clip from the Republican, that we publish it for the boys to read, though we don't want it to make them any worse, for the average urchin of this city is plenty frolicksome, the good saints all know. The Republican says: Jaky Watts, with several other urchins, went into Mr. Green's store, and when he was not looking each of the gang drew an oyster shell from his pocket, and the whole troop started on a rattling gallop out of the store and around the corner, grasping their shells with all their might. Mr. Green rushed out in pursuit, shouting "drop them oysters, you young vagabonds." The whole party tore down Eleventh street, with Mr. Green wheezing away and bringing up the rear. When Green appeared ready to give up the chase Jaky allowed himself to be caught. When he showed that he had nothing but an oyster shell, the boys set up a shout of derision and hollered for Mr. Green to "throw it." Mr. Green gave Jaky's ear a wrench that made the whole side of his head numb. Jaky says "he don't like a man who can't take a little joke."

A JOLLY MEETING AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH.—After a few remarks from Mr. Beecher on Friday evening, he introduced Miss Marin H. West, a returned missionary lady, who told a story of a marriage in Armenia between a boy of thirteen and a woman of thirty-five. After the wedding the boy thought that he noticed a derisive smile on his bride's face, and he smote her senseless. Miss West told this story to an audience in Colorado, and one woman arose in indignation, and said: "wouldn't I have leveled him!' She said the missionaries did a deal for Armenia, but there was much yet to be done. It was like the ancient butter that was complained of. "You'd think it was clean," said the waiter, "if you had seen all that had come out of it. (Laughter.) So will Armenia.

"Tell us of the butter in Armenia," said brother Halliday.

"Oh, the butter there is carried in goatskins, with the hair on the inside, and when the missionaries want to use it they have to comb it." Mr. Beecher laughed loudly, and the audience joined in a chorus of laughter. A collection was taken up for Miss West's book in the Armenian language, and brother Shearman, all smiles, passed a basket.—Ex.

COLORED MR. BRUCE.—Colored Mr. Bruce is the United States Senator from Mississippi, just such a man as can straighten out his legs and feel at perfect ease in a barber shop. Mr. Bruce indulges in this luxury in the barber shop attached to the Senate and exquisitely furnished by the government for the use of the members. As soon as he arrives in the morning he has his hair nicely curled by his colored friends, and before he leaves in the afternoon he gets fixed up again for dinner. Some of the most fastidious Senators, who visited the place a few mornings ago, were astonished at the unusual sight of a negro in the senatorial barber shop, the combs and brushes, with which they were accustomed to be adorned, deftly flying through his kinky hair and over his swarthy face. The result is they have since given the Senate barber shop a wide berth, and held several indignation meetings on the subject.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
